

Spring Mills.

A mild attack of whooping cough, appears to be quite prevalent among the children of our village.

Harry B. Miller, a popular young man of our village, now holds the ribbons and drives the hotel bus to and from the R. R. station vice Clyde Roper resigned.

Dr. D. M. Wolfe will commence a summer session of six weeks at our academy on the 26th inst. The session is principally for advance pupils preparatory to entering college.

The United Evangelical congregation of the village, have rented for six months the M. E. church building for evening services every alternate Sunday. Rev. Brown, a gentleman of considerable ability is their pastor at present.

One day last week, Wm. Bear in delivering a load of hay for James Kennelley, of our village, made a short turn to enter a narrow passage way, and up set. The accident caused a delay of several hours but nothing more serious.

J. P. Long, our new postmaster, entered upon his official duties on the 1st inst. with his daughter Ida, a very accomplished young lady, as deputy. The post office will remain in the store room of Mr. Pealer, until the completion of the building now being erected for that purpose. Mr. Long will occupy it on the 1st proximo.

The 4th of July (30th) was celebrated here in about the old stereotype fashion. The heat was oppressive the greater part of the day. Numerous flags and considerable bunting were displayed throughout the village. The exploding of fire crackers, guns and pistols was incessant, and the racket and noise continued until long after midnight. We had no public exhibition of fire works, but the private displays were quite creditable. In the afternoon the junior base ball club of our village, had a game with the Robersburg team, resulting in favor of the latter by a score of 15 to 9. Both teams played tadly, the blunders being about equally divided. Possibly the excessive heat had a tendency to modify the dash and vim of both clubs, hence the indifferent playing. No accidents occurred during the day worth reporting.

Centre Hall.

Miss Anna Boal, daughter of Rev. Boal, of Port Carbon, is visiting friends here.

The Water company and Jake Form are having some difficulty just now to locate the lines between their properties.

John Meyer, a graduate of Franklin and Marshall, has captured the principalship of the Alexandria, Huntingdon county, schools.

The foundation for the Presbyterian parsonage is completed. Aaron Thomas has the contract to put up the woodwork of the building. The casing will be of brick.

D. A. Boozer and daughter Lizzie were in Philadelphia for ten days recently. Mr. Boozer has a little daughter attending school at that place who, it gives satisfaction to report, is improving very much.

Two of the "uppers," among the young gents, had a tiny set-to'other evening and mopped up the walks for a square. It seems that both were trying to capture the same "love."

The originator of the "dancing and card-playing" controversy desires to say that he admits error in quoting the verse used as a text by Rev. Rearick in the sermon referred to, but the error was only one of numbers and not of a character. There is nothing like being candid and admit errors and short comings—"honest confession is good for the soul." No one with good sense would make an effort to contradict or find fault with Rev. Rearick's explanation of what he meant to say in the sermon alluded to when writing for the WATCHMAN, and if he would have expressed the same sentiment in the pulpit, using whatever diction he might select, the comment that appeared in these columns would have been uncalled for and consequently would not have appeared. Those who heard the sermon are competent judges as to whether the correspondent misquoted Rev. Rearick. That awful charge of "garbling" is generally the shot fired by the man in the hole, whose ammunition is exhausted. And this ends the controversy.

Miss Stapleton's class in elocution closed Saturday evening with an entertainment that was full of interest. Every feature of the program was executed in the best of style, and something very nice might be said of each individual who took part in the exercises. The benefits received by the participants during the course of instruction were plainly visible. The reciting was better than heretofore, and the young people were benefited in many ways by the short course in elocution. The program was as follows:

- PART ONE. Orchestra, The Elf Child, The Village Blacksmith, The Whistling Regiment, Solo, "Little Boy Blue," Lord Dundreary's Riddles Abridged, The Minuet, Julius Caesar, Act I. Scene II. A Public Place in Rome, Song of the Mystic, Sue Jeanne Stapleton. PART SECOND. Quartette, Emille Alexander, Marie S. S. Kreamer, Mame Kreamer, Tae Kreamer. Gymnastic Drill, Pearl Runkle, Marion Miller, Helen Hosterman, Emma Wolf, Grace Boob, Wakin' the Young 'Uns, Elia Mae Stover, Spinning Wheel Song, Helen Hosterman, Solo, "Don't Be Cross," Miss Alexander, How Ruby Played (by request), Miss Stapleton. Aesthetic Scarf Drill, Grace Alexander, Elsie Krise, Tae Kreamer, May Keller, Edna Murray, Estie Ocker, Katie Shiretler, Mrs. Smith, Elia Mae Stover.

Bicycle Thiefs Big Sentence.

BROOKLN, N. Y., July 13.—Judge Aspinall, in the county court yesterday, sentenced James Quinlin, 23 years old, to nine years' imprisonment in Sing Sing for stealing two bicycles. The prisoner is an old offender. He is believed to be a member of a gang of bicycle thieves.

Howard.

There are rumors of a new meat-market. The rake and pick factory has shut down for repairs.

Miss Millie Lucas spent Sunday in Jacksonville.

Ben Comerford returned home from Pittsburgh on Monday.

James Campbell, of Milesburg, spent Saturday in Howard.

James Hogan returned home from Davis, W. Va., last Saturday.

Miss Flora Gruer, of this place, visited in Williamsport last week.

Miss Minnie Long, of Blanchard, visited Miss Elsie Long over Sunday.

E. E. Heverly, of Mt. Eagle, transacted business in this place on Monday.

J. F. Sechrist, of Holty, visited his brother, J. R., of this place this week.

Master Elliot Meyers, of Houserville, visited his brother Wm. Meyers, of this place, last week.

Mrs. Ellie Rynder and son Dean, of Erie, spent Tuesday with H. A. Moore and family in this place.

Miss Annie Morris, of Philipsburg, is at present visiting Miss Belle Allison, of east Walnut street.

Miss Nellie Wilson, of Philadelphia, is at present visiting J. L. DeHass and wife at the Syracuse house.

Roland Hockman and sister Emma, of Spring Mills, were guests at the home of their sister, Mrs. E. C. Deitz, one day last week.

Pine Grove Mention.

The much needed rain came on last Sunday and Monday doing wonders for the growing corn and gardens.

C. S. Dangley and family after a month's pleasant visit among Centre county folks left for their home at Wadsworth, Ohio.

Squire Keichline and Dr. Ward, in trying to avoid the sizzling heat down at the county capitol, spent several days here enjoying our new park.

Charles Rudy, wife and family, of Millinburg, are visitors at aunt Julia Musser's. Mrs. Rudy was Miss Bertha Musser, a most estimable lady.

Farmer Geo. Cronmiller was recently granted a pension of $6 per month and one year's back pension. His name appears on the list as Cranmiller.

The I. O. O. F. will picnic at Hunter's park on Saturday, August 7th. Special trains will be run, excursion rates given and you are cordially invited to attend.

Ex-sheriff Ishler inspected his implements along this line, recently. He was accompanied by his wife, who always enjoys an outing with her friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCracken were in Johnstown last week to witness the ordination of their son, John O. C. McCracken, as pastor of the new Presbyterian church at Morrelville, a suburb of Johnstown.

The glorious Fourth passed off very quietly nothing but an occasional explosion of a fire-cracker, and a boom of an old Harper's ferry reminded our quiet town of its one hundred and twenty-first independence day.

Last week, Miss Mary Ward left for Chicago where she goes to take charge of her bachelor brother, Dr. I. C. Wards' home. Miss Mary is very well known especially in musical circles and we all wish her well in her new home.

Paul Fortney has been hustling in the hay and harvest fields for two weeks and if you don't believe it just look at his color. He would pass for a hayseed but it will take a little more experience before he is a full fledged farmer.

Joseph Hittinger, one of the very first defenders, is happy on receipt of good news from the pension department. Hereafter he will receive twelve dollars a month and in addition gets four hundred dollars back pension. He deserves it all for he was in the war from beginning to end serving in the regular service for five years.

The venerable Jacob Neidgh and his aged wife returned from Michigan, last week, where they have made their home for twenty-five years. For many years they prospered but reverses came in the way of droughts, storms and finally a burn-out, which compelled them to return to the east. They are staying with their son, J. H., who owns a fine farm within sight of the old homestead now owned by D. M. Neidgh.

Last Saturday evening past councilor J. R. Smith installed the newly elected officers of Tussey council No. 515 of this place. Councilor, Smith; vice councilor J. C. Ward; Sec. W. B. Ward; Asst. Sec. J. L. Murphy; Treas. J. A. Decker; warden, F. B. Krebs; conductor, Sam'l Ashenfelter; inside steward G. E. Harper; outside steward J. M. Keller; representative, J. M. Keller; alternate, J. C. Ward; trustees, Smith, Harper and Krebs.

On the morning of the 7th, Ross Grove and his intended drove to Bellefonte, secured the necessary license and were made man and wife. On their return the wedding supper awaited them at the bride's home where some of the intimate friends were assembled. The bride is the youngest daughter of Wm. Brouse and a sister of the Rev. Brouse. She is a charming young lady and her husband is to be congratulated. He is an industrious farmer and we wish them every happiness.

Marriage.
