AMBITION.

I want to be a hero great, The biggest of the kit: I do not care what kind at all, As long as I am it

Perhaps upon the vasty deep, When all with fear are dumb To go and stop the leaking ship

By sticking in my thumb. Perhaps upon the city streets Some child upon the track

I'd save by seizing on the car And holding of it back.

Perhaps in some big bloody war As General I'd go,

And with my strong right hand knock off The heads of all the foe.

That's what I'll be when I grow up,

A hero big and stout, And in parades go stalking by, And hear the people shout,

Flogged for Flogging

Winebrenner Punished for His Cruelty to His Daughter-A Mob of Masked Men Tear the Brutal Father Out of Jail, Gives Him a Vigorous Whipping and Applies a Coat of Tar and Feathers.

A. M. Winebrenner, a merchant of Beatrice, Nebraska, was arrested Saturday charged with brutally whipping his stepdaughter, 18 years of age, with a buggy whip. It was brought out that for two years the girl had been subjected to almost unheard-of inhumanity. Winebrenner was sent to jail. Shortly after midnight a moh of 100 men, all masked, attacked the jail, and in 20 minutes gained entrance. Winebrenner was taken from the yard on a run down Fourth street to the railroad tracks | bit or squirrel. and thence to the common.

Here Winebrenner's clothes were taken from him, a rope was tied around his body and, with a man at each end, a third began lashing Winebrenner with a blacksnake His cries of "murder, mercy," were met with: "Did you listen when that poor girl cried for mercy?" After being vigorously whipped he was made to lie down, when his body was besprinkled was then given his clothes and told to return to jail, which he said he would do. The crowd was well organized and did its work so quickly that there was no chance for assistance to reach the man. Winebrenner is well connected. He is 52 years old. His father, John Winebrenner, was the founder of the Church of God at Harrisburg, more generally known as the Winebrennarian church.

Bills Approved.

The Governor Signs Another Batch of Belated Meas-

HARRISBURG, July 11.-Among the bills approved by the Governor yesterday were the following:

To repeal an act for the protection of sheep in Mercer county.

Cumberland and Perry counties .. Giving the State preference in the trial and hearing of cases involving the collection of revenues claimed by the State.

Supplement to the act relating to fraudulent debtors authorizing the courts to inquire into the validity of judgment confessed and alleged to be fraudulent and providing the practice thereof.

To authorize county commissioners to assist boroughs to build bridges. Relating to the power of insurance comin insurance business. Granting a pension of $12 a month to the widow of Chadiah Rhodes, late of Company E, Ninth regiment, N. G. P. Requiring borough and township tax collectors to make monthly returns.

Providing for the collection of toll on traction engines. What the Yankees Say of Us.

The amount due the members of the law foots up $55,980. The general appropriation of that body provides for them $75,404. In the Senate there is the same state of facts existing. The pay for Senate clerks and employes authorized by law aggregates $39,480, but the amount provided or in the general appropriation bill is $54,- 948, a difference of more than $15,000. The whole amount to be appropriated to both Houses in excess of the lawful sum is, for July, but the temperature during this the most open and barefaced enterprise in public plunder that has yet appeared, but nobody is apparently much disturbed about it. The better papers of the State note the fact, but we see no evidence of any further public interest in the matter. -Boston Herald.

-It is not generally known that the United States Mints make money for other nations, as well as for our own. in Philadelphia which has just finished making a half million dollars in five dollar gold pieces for Costa Rica, has begun work on 300,000 silver dollars for San Domingo. The designs on the coins are often ideas of the Governments which send the orders and are gotten up in such a way as to make imitations as difficult as possible for the counterfeiter. The coin is shipped in bags to New York, where it is carried to its destinations on the regular line steamers. The report given by the Mint as to the amount of precious metal used is never questioned by the foreigners.

-It is speaking within bounds to say of the Legislature which has just adjourned that it has been the most shameless and profligate in the memory of living Pennsylvanians; and if it ever has been surpassed in rancid jobbery it would take a patient scrutiny of the records of state legislation to show when and where. Its course from the beginning of the session, to its closing days, which have been an undisguised revel of looting, has been a defifiance to the honest and intelligent sentiments of the voters of the State-a defiance to which it is the duty of patriots to hope

-There is one brag in which Great Britain and the United States, and they alone among the nations, may join. It is after the accident. The team ran down true that the sun never sets upon that part of the earth's surface over which they hold front of Montgomery's store and finally dominion. Married at Unionville.

Smith, of Bishop street, this place, was married to Miss Bella May Goodfellow. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's mother in Unionville. The house was prettily decorated with fern and daisies and it was a very pretty service, though none but the immediate families of the young people were there and several warm friends of the bride.

Rev. D. L. Jones, of the Presbyterian church officiated, Christy Smith, a brother of the groom was his best man and the bride's sister, Miss Della, was maid of honor. A wedding feast followed the ceremony then the young couple drove to this place where a furnished home was awaiting them on Logan street.

The groom is an artist in the employ of Sheffer, the photographer and a very estimable young man.
