-Do not work among the melons with the hoe after the vines begin to run, but pull up all weeds and grass by hand.

It is better to defer trimming trees until fall than to do so now, as there will be less liability of injury after the sap begins

-There are some garden crops that may be planted now, such as string beans, sweet corn and turnips, for late use. Seed planted now, provided rains are favorable, will germinate quickly and make rapid growth.

suffer severely from the attacks of insects and will consequently be liable to lessen the yield of milk. This difficulty is one that has caused much anxiety to farmers, as it is tedious and laborious to attempt to prevent the annoyance by the application of remedies. Cows are unable to utilize the pasture to advantage under such circumstances, and they are also deprived of rest. If deprived of rest during both day and night it will result in a heavy next agriculturists and statesmen, as well loss of milk.

Late cabbage will be retarded by the warm weather and lack of rain. Cabbage requires frequent cultivation, and under favorable conditions will pay as well as any crop that can be grown. If a drought prevails the plants may grow but little during that time, and then crack open if a good rain comes. Even if the heads are small and have burst open the cabbage will be no loss. The unsalable heads are serviceable in many ways on the farm if stored away for winter. There is nothing better for poultry when eggs are high, as the cabbage supplys bulky material that is highly relished by all classes of poultry, and they can thus be converted into eggs and sold in that form with profit. It is not yet too late, however, to secure good heads. If the cabbages do not crack open they will continue to grow until frost sets in and will make growth until the ground becomes quite cold. Keep the plot clean and the soil loose and the crop may fulfill expectations.

A Cheap Excursion for Wheelmen.

The League of American Wheelmen hold their annual national meet in Philadelphia the first week in August and a royal time is promised all who attend, especially members of the organization for whom many benefits are free such as admission to smokers, steamboat rides on the Delaware and many other things, as well as reduced prices to other forms of entertainment. Hastings After Information

The Principals of the Thirteen State Normal Schools Asked to Appear Before Him.—Watch on Appropriations .- The Governor Wishes to Keep Them Within the State Revenues the Next Two Years.-Members of Investigation Committees Will be Asked to State Actual Expenses.

HARRISBURG, July 16.—Governor Hastings has called upon Chief Clerks Rex and Smiley, of the house and senate, the chairman and members of the various legislative committees and the conferences of the several state departments, to furnish him within a week a detailed statement of the items in their favor in the general appropriation bill. The executive also wants the names and addresses of the stenographers employed by these committees and a copy of their notes of testimony. The principals of the thirteen state normal schools have also been requested to appear before the governor next Tuesday to explain whether they can get along the next two years with less than $40,000 provided for each of these institutions in the general appropriation bill.

Every member of an investigating committee will be required to show how much money he actually expended before Gov-ernor Hastings considers his expense bill. The executive also wants a complete list of the employes of the house and senate and to be informed whether Lucius Rogers, of Kane, was clerk to the senate appropriations committee. The bargain counter has attractions for women—it is different with the men. The women prefer the largest assortment to select from, hence they go to the stores to buy—they come to our store because we have everything they want in our line—churns, creamers and other dairy fixtures, including the best house refrigerators in the market, sewing machines, washing machines, etc., in great variety. Some men prefer to buy goods delivered and patronize the traveling fakir, by whom they are often taken in. Who ever heard of a woman being taken in by a fakir? The men who do not read advertisements monopolize this privilege. Women read the advertisements and are always on the lookout for the best bargains. The best thing for men to do, those who do not read advertisement, is to authorize wives and daughters to purchase all the needful articles and they will save money. When the mothers and daughters want anything in our line, they come to us to buy, for the reason, that they always know where if they can purchase the best bargains. We have a free exhibition at our store, on High street, of everything for the Farm and Garden, every working day in the week, to which everyone is cordially invited. MCCALMONT & CO. Bellefonte, Pa. For more than four years I have had a bad case of catarrh, stomach and general trouble. Took cold continually. For one and a half years I could eat only bread and milk. Tried nine different doctors, to get rid of my misery, but got worse and worse. So I went to Dr. Salm for treatment. and to-day I am as strong as ever, can eat anything, and don't take any more cold, and consider myself cured of this terrible disease.
