

Pine Grove Mention.

James Stover and wife, of Bellwood, visited J. I. Heberling recently.

Mrs. J. B. Mitchell, who has been on the sick list for some time, is improving.

P. F. Bottorf, station agent at this place, is suffering from a carbuncle on his hand.

Notary public Arcey recently had the end of his finger taken off in the cog-gearing of a mower.

Ross Gregory, one of Stone valley's heavy stock dealers, lost a valuable mare he was driving about here last week.

William Musser, who with his brother James went West last Spring, is back in poor health suffering with paralysis caused by an over heat.

Our young friend F. W. Bailey was not a candidate at the director's meeting for a school as he expects to read medicine as soon as the University opens.

Mr. G. I. Smith, one of the Pennsylvania's trusted engineers, has been up from Harrisburg, his home, spending his vacation with his mother, Mrs. J. R. Smith, on Water street.

Prof. H. C. Rothrock has resigned the principalship of the Boalsburg Academy, which he has held for six years to accept that of the Millheim Academy. We wish him success wherever he goes and the Boalsburg people are very sorry for his departure. Prof. Jacob Rhone, of this place, will take the vacancy at Boalsburg and we know of no one who would fill the position more satisfactorily.

Last Saturday our school board met at Centre school house and elected the following teachers for the winter term: Pine Grove grammar school, M. E. Heberling; Pine Grove primary school, Wm. H. Roush; Branch, Wm. Keller; Kepler, Bessie Walker; White Hall, Samuel E. Goss; Glades, Daniel Koch; Baileyville, Sadie Keichline; Pennsylvania Furnace, Beckie Bolinger; Getzberg, John McWilliams; Marengo, Mary Bolinger; Tadpole, A. J. Tate; Centre, Jacob Rhone; Oak Grove, Harry Frantz; Pine Hall, Ed. Savage Erb; Krumrine, ... The wages were reduced to $20 per month.

All Through Brush Valley.

Cyrus Erhart's new house is nearly finished.

Miss Minnie Conser, of Loganton, is the guest of Dr. Bright.

Mrs. Ed. Burd, of Bellwood, is visiting her parents and friends here.

The next post-master at Centre Mills, will be our McKinley friend, Mr. Diehl.

Miss Krecker, of Lewisburg, gave a talk on missions, last Sunday evening, in the United Evangelical church.

Miss Orpha Gramley, of Spring Mills, who attended a Lutheran college near Gettysburg, is visiting Miss Alma Gramley, of Rebersburg.

One evening last week Sup't. Gramley had a lawn party and all who were there report having spent a lovely evening. Miss Alma knows how to entertain.

Miss M. Lilla Mershon, of Princeton N. J., was visiting friends in this and other valleys the past two weeks. Miss Mershon is an accomplished soloist, being the leading soprano voice in one of Princeton's leading churches and a charming conversationalist. She is a Methodist and very prominent in church work.

Mrs. Charles Woodling, of Brooklyn, who has been spending her summer vacation with Mrs. Florence Burd, of Rebersburg, returned to the city last Wednesday. We Brush valley people extend a cordial welcome to all who have been raised at the home of Andrew Jackson, and sincerely hope she will again return to our beautiful valley next summer.

Ira Smull, of Newton, Kan., is visiting friends in the valley. He is one of our boys who went out West some ten years ago, became a civil engineer between Newton and Kansas city, and is getting along fine. He too was requested by the railroad to vote for McKinley but Ira had been reared to long in Brush valley to abandon the Democratic party even under pressure. He at once told the company that he was for silver and that settled the matter. He still holds his position and we are told is the more admired by the company.

A colored camp-meeting is to be held in Smull's grove, one-half mile northwest of Rebersburg, commencing to-morrow, Saturday, Aug. 14th, and continuing ten days. The meeting will be conducted by Rev. B. F. Brown, of Lock Haven, assisted by a number of able colored ministers from this and other counties. One of the main attractions will be a choir of jubilee singers of from twelve to sixteen voices. Lunch and policemen will be on the ground. There is not the least doubt that this will be the great event of the season.

The soldier's picnic held last Saturday, at Kreamerville, was well attended. The speakers were Michael Musser, Past Commander, Major R. H. Foster, of Harrisburg; Rev. Mumma, Rev. McGann, of Lewisburg; Revs. Brown and Wolf, of Aaronsburg; Sup't. C. L. Gramley, Rev. George, Mr. Thomas Royer and Samuel Gramley. The assertion of one of the Rebersburg ministers that the Klondyke gold will settle the money question well illustrates the sense, of his belief that the labor question will be solved by the ministers of the gospel. Such statements as these are abundant proof of the fact that many of our ministers really have no proper conception of the issues of the day and that thousands and thousands of laborers know much more about political issues than our ministers.

The Camp-meeting closed last Thursday. During the Sabbath there were about two thousand people present and not six and eight thousand as some local reporter had it who never saw a crowd. It lasted ten days, the rain caused some delay the first few days, but it was quite a financial success. One thousand cigarettes were sold on the ground and not a few disputes occurred between the sellers and committee. It seemed to be a general picnic and there is not the least doubt that all had a very pleasant time and enjoyed themselves immensely. Camp-meetings are the means either directly or indirectly, of doing a great deal more evil than good in this part of the country, and we sincerely hope they will soon come to an end.

The electric belt show company, which visited Rebersburg, gave our people a new and rich supply of jokes which lends additional stimulus to health.

Rev. McGann, of Lewisburg, will preach in the Lutheran church, at Rebersburg, on the coming Sunday. Let everybody hear him. He delivered an able and patriotic address to the soldiers on Saturday. There is very little to be gained by the ministers of our valley fighting the colored camp-meeting and while we have no doubt that some of the promoters are far from being what they ought to be, their camp-meeting will be no more of a picnic or money making scheme than other camp-meetings we have had.

Nittany Valley Items.

Hon. John T. McCormick has been visiting his many friends and relatives in this locality.

Miss Emma Yearick has been visiting her parents at this place for a few days. She makes her home at State College now.

During last Wednesday's storm lightning struck the barn of David Vonada, of Hubersburg. Being a cold stroke it did little damage.

The members of the Evangelical church of this valley, assembled at Clintondale, last Saturday, to celebrate Rev. Kootz's birthday.

The Lutheran Sunday school, of Snyderstown, expect to unite with Salona, and St. Paul Sunday schools, on Aug. 28th, at Hecla park, and picnic together.

Samuel Martin is improving in health and is able to walk out and greet his acquaintances again. Sammy has had a long siege of sickness since last April.

New't Shafter, the skillful blacksmith and champion pork raiser, drove his porkers on to the scales last Friday and they aggregate the weight of 3,200, having gained one pound and a half the last twenty-nine days.

Lyman Emerick has been meeting with success in selling religious books the last week. Mr. Emerick had his limb amputated last winter, and every one should aid him by purchasing one of his excellent books.

William Mauk also had a shaking up last Saturday. While driving two horses in his carriage some part of the harness became detached and the team started for a lively chase. William was considerably bruised but succeeded in checking the team before they demolished his rig.

Elwood Winkelman is one of our noted hunters, having a valuable bird dog and all equipments for game. A handsome Miss Bird, visited here last week, and as soon as Elwood saw the lovely creature he had a desire to capture it, which rumor says he succeeded in gratifying.

Some of our people attended the picnic at Hecla last Saturday and witnessed a base ball game between Howard and Mackeyville. The game was quite interesting, as the score was a tie. Several times, until the ninth inning, the score stood 8 to 7 in favor of Mackeyville. This was bitter medicine for Howard but no other remedy was to be had than to swallow it.

Last week Harry Snavelly's team ran away with the mower. Fortunately for Mr. Snavelly at the time the team started he was not on the machine. The horses ran down a hill, at a high rate of speed, and came in contact with an apple tree, which caused a total wreck of the mower and threw one of the horses violently to the ground. Neither horse was seriously injured.

The following teachers have been elected for the Walker township public schools: Zion, Mr. Royer; Forest, unsettled; Hecla, Mr. Hoy; Wolf's Store, L. H. Yocum; Hubersburg, Prim., Miss Sue Danley; Snyderstown, A. G. Robb; Franklin, W. H. Markle; Crawford, Grace Beck. The teachers were chosen at the meeting of the directors last Saturday night.
