

Even under the Dingley bill collector Newton Bailey finds cash scarce. Last week he circulated among the Gazette subscribers here and scarcely got enough to allow him to pick his teeth at the St. Elmo. We hope however his outing will prove congenial to his health and do him a world of good.

Miss Lillian Woods, of Bousburg, is a visitor at Dr. G. H. Woods on Main street. She is an accomplished musician and gracefully presided at the organ in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. She has been appointed assistant instructor in music in the Rocky Mount college, in North Carolina, where her many friends wish her unbounded success in her new venture.

The pantries of J. G. Hess, Dr. Woods, Rev. Aikens, A. J. Tate, and Oscar Krebs were visited last week by some night hawk, who carried off lard, butter, canned fruit and everything he could get his hands on. A wagon was driven over into Stone valley early in the morning and whether it contained the stolen goods or not we cannot say.

Dr. Samuel McWilliams was out driving recently with two friends when his horse became unmanageable and started to run away. In passing over a breaker near Shingletown the top, seat and ladies went backward onto the ground not much hurt, but the driver was not so fortunate as he fell forward under the horse's heels and was badly cut and bruised. The horse was caught after a mile's run, homeward bound, but the buggy was a complete wreck.

Last Saturday was a gala occasion for Scotia and it was an ideal day for an outing. The works were shut down and superintendent Clemson took a personal interest in helping along the amusements. Early in the day the crowd assembled to witness the parade of the P. S. of A. The procession was headed by the Forest City band resplendent with its fine new instruments, the gift of Andrew Carnegie. Rev. Hingworth made the address of welcome and in a taking little speech commended the P. S. of A. for their patriotic zeal. The dinner in the woods was excellent and so plenty that no one was allowed to go away hungry.

Your correspondent was cared for by time keeper J. C. Mattern and his excellent wife who entertained us so generously and kindly that the dinner was the leading feature of the day. After dinner the band gave a concert: Rev. W. H. Mattern an address and the Warriors-Mark and Scotia teams a one sided game of ball. The Warriors-Mark team came down to do up the Scotia boys but the result was 5 to 22 in favor of Scotia. The pitcher of the visiting team was knocked out by a blow on the elbow but an application of patent medicine soon brought him around. At supper we were the guest of J. C. Mattern and family and all told the day was a very jolly one as any one is where R. M. Hingworth leads.

On Friday the 13th, a large audience assembled at the Baileyville church to participate in the farewell services to the Rev. J. M. Goheen and his family who are returning, for the third time, to the missionary work in India, from whence they came sixteen months ago for a season of rest. The meeting was much more cheerful than either of the former ones, and when Rev. J. C. Kelly was called to the chair he remarked on the general interest in mission work and how differently we look on the going of a missionary from what we did twenty years ago, when brother Goheen first started on his mission work. On the platform with Revs. Goheen and Kelly were Dr. Campbell, Reverend Gemmill, Ermintrout and Patton all of whom spoke encouragingly of the mission work and of Rev. Goheen's labors. His father, John J. Goheen, almost eighty years old was present, joyous and hopeful as a youth. He has welcomed his son home twice and hopes to see him return the third time. On Saturday Mr. Goheen and family leave for Wooster, O., where a few weeks will be spent with friends before the start is made for India. Mr. Goheen, his wife and little daughter, Frances, aged 6 years, will sail for New York on the City of Rome on the 11th of September. Their four boys to be educated will be left with Miss Alice McGinnis, sister of Mrs. Goheen, at Wooster. They are Robert, aged 17; James, aged 14; Richard, aged 12; and Joseph, 8.

The grocery business is on the increase and since the Dingley bill has been approved confidence has been restored in Mr. Heverly's business. We noticed he had on hand a new stock of huckleberries.

Aspirants are on the qui vive for news relative to the change of the post office in our bustling village, and there is but one certainty connected with the change and that is some one is going to be disappointed.

That most enterprising farmer Franklin Dietz has made the Bowers farm look like a garden and he is now rewarded for his pains by having a well-filled barn. There is no use talking Frank is not very handsome, but his ability to do excellent farming and vote the Democratic ticket can never be disputed.

Mr. Pleasant intends taking advantage of the cheap rates to Buffalo, and making a visit to Niagara Falls and other places of interest in the northwest. He is well up with his farm work and nothing pleases us more than to learn that the "old gentleman" is going off for a few days with the boys, to lay dull care aside and enjoy himself, as only an old veteran can do on such occasions.

Mr. William Leathers and his sweetheart are off for a good time to Atlantic City. We wish them merry, but are sorry we cannot be a little bird perched on top of the sails of a boat, to witness Will venturing out to meet the "white caps" as they roll towards the shore. Should he not return in due time we will venture to say the "hokey-pokey" ice-cream man has caught him.

The reverberation of the hammer announces that we will soon have another place of worship in our neighborhood. Our good neighbors across the creek are earnestly working to erect their church, and towards that end a grand feast will be held tomorrow evening near the school house. Pretty girls and other attractions will be there in abundance, and the patronage of the citizens will be heartily appreciated in the cause.

The numerous friends of Herbert W. Reeder are much pleased to learn of his being elected teacher of one of the Nittany schools. With due respect for the talent of Marion township, yet we cannot help congratulating the directors of that district in their good fortune in securing the services of Mr. Reeder. We are gratified, highly, to know that the ability of our young men is appreciated in other districts as well as our own.

Madisonburg. A child of E. H. Zeigler was very sick on Sunday. It is much improved at this writing.

The announcement has been made that camping-out will commence this week in Sugar Valley at Boueville park. All are invited.

The sad news of the death of the venerable Adam Vonada, of Zion, has reached this place. The deceased is the father of A. H. Vonada, of this place.

Quite a number of our people took an interest in the colored people's camping-out on Sunday. They reported a good time; such a one as is only enjoyed at shows or exhibitions.

The bush meeting held in James Werts' grove on Sunday was well attended. Excellent sermons were preached and all seemed to appreciate the services rendered. The best of order prevailed and, with the exception of a very heavy storm, which caused some damage, the meeting was a success.

Every farmer, mechanic, day laborer, in fact everybody who wishes to make life a success, is in need of knowing the events of the day. How many a man in the prime of life has become bankrupt just because he did not see his opportunity at the time of presentation. Fellow citizens why not subscribe for a paper which will tell you all about the condition that our country is in so you may know in what to invest, and how much? The true value of such a paper is only found out by subscribing for the WATCHMAN.

Mt. Eagle and Vicinity.

It is reported that a party recently returned from the Allegheny mountain with the reward for their day's work of six bushels of berries.

We are pleased to learn that our old friend and teacher, Joe Gardner, will have charge of the school this winter. It goes without saying that Joe will receive a hearty welcome here again.
