THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

—Hi Henry's modern minstrels at Garman's to-night.

—Phillipsburg public schools opened, on Monday, with 624 pupils enrolled.

—Miss Petriken's private school, on High street, will reopen on Monday, September 6th.

—A new brick pavement is the latest improvement about W. L. Malin's property, on east Howard street.

—The program for Hi Henry's, at Garman's to-night, includes all the latest and catchiest in the comic and sentimental songs of the season.

—The corner stone for the new United Brethren church at Phillipsburg was laid on Sunday. E. B. Somers, the pastor, delivered a short address and $226 were raised.

—Kessler's clothing store, in Millheim, was burglarized last Monday night and clothing in value of $100 was carried off. Entrance to the store was effected through a back door.

—The Logan engine company will give a street parade this evening, just to show you that they are all in good condition to play the part of entertainers at their great picnic, at Hunter's park, tomorrow.

—Mrs. J. M. Dale gave a charmingly appointed tea, last Saturday evening, for her guest Miss Margery Knowles, of Richmond, Va. Covers were laid for twenty-eight and the guests were most pleasingly entertained.

—Rev. Ralph Illingworth filled the pulpit in the Reformed church here on Sunday. He is at present engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in this place and will probably accept a call as general secretary for an association in some large town just as soon as he has acquainted himself with the work.

—Bellefonte Standard lodge of odd fellows, colored, are said to have cut a pretty "warm figure" over at Phillipsburg. Eleven of the members attended the 2nd annual picnic of Moshannon lodge, last Thursday, and they say that noble grand John Williams, James Shorter and George Freeman cut ice about seven feet thick.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, of east Bishop street, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Clara Celia Anderson to Edward M. Nolen, of Pittsburg. The wedding will occur in St. John's Reformed church at six o'clock on Tuesday evening, September 14th. They will make their home at 725 Hill street, Wilkensburg.

—A match game of ball will be played between the fats and the leans, at Hunter's park, to-morrow afternoon. The fats have a minimum weight of 180lbs, while the leans have to get under 130lbs. It will be a great contest and in case the ox, that they are going to barbecue up there, don't go round the biggest fat v on the team will be browned to a turn.

—Miss May Barrett, a sister of Miss Lillian Barrett of the telephone exchange, was married, at Junction City, Kan., on last Thursday, to Owen Tanton, a well to do young druggist. May is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Sarah Thomas Barrett, both of whom are long since dead, and until she went West, a few years ago, to live with her brother Charley, made her home here, where she was always appreciated and loved. Mr. Tanton is to be congratulated and we wish her comfort and happiness.

—To-night, Friday, September 3rd, the famous Hi Henry's big city minstrels will make merry at Garman's with a roster of fifty artists that have made pronounced hits in New York and Philadelphia, and in mentioning their appearance last week in Pittsburg, the Press that city declared them one of the best and cleanest minstrel shows ever seen in Pittsburg. Mr. Henry has placed his prices at the very low scale of 25, 35 and 50 cents, and the attraction should be welcomed by a packed house.

—While working at the country club building of the Nittany rod and gun club, at Hecla Park, last week, Rash Williams picked up a copy of the WATCHMAN that was seventeen and one-half years old. The paper looked almost as bright and clean as it did the day it was sent out of this office, which goes to show that the WATCHMAN's efforts to secure the best paper and typographical effects are not without their result. Few people care to keep a newspaper longer than it requires to read its contents, but occasionally there is something in it that you wish to preserve. Then is when the satisfactory results of having the best are experienced.

—Frank J. Heverly as agent for his father, John Heverly, of Howard, had been conducting a gent's furnishing goods store, in Tyrone, until a few weeks ago, when he left; ostensibly on a visit to eastern cities and to return by way of his old home in this county. His failure to return to his business just when the Tyrone people thought he should have caused an uneasiness among his creditors there that precipitated a rush for his stock. Mr. John Heverly was notified and went up to Tyrone then a general gobbling up of the store effects began. The stock was sold at almost give-away prices and the whole place was cleaned up in several hours.

THE DEATH OF JUDGE MUNSON.—Former associate judge Chester A. Munson died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Thomas J. Lee, on south Centre street, Phillipsburg, on Sunday night, at 10 o'clock. He had been in poor health for about a year, a cancerous growth on the lower lip having caused his enfeeblement and death. It developed from a small cold sore that he had had.

Deceased was of English ancestry, his great grand father having come to this country before the revolution. He was born at Great Bend, Pa., on June 1st, 1815, and on January 11th, 1844, he married Miss Letitia McClellan, who died in 1895. Five children were born to them as follows: Richard, Edward, James, Hale, Mrs. Gertrude Ann Lingle and Mrs. Carrie Dowman Lee, all of Phillipsburg, one daughter, Ellen, having died when young.

Mr. Munson moved to Phillipsburg in 1842 where he became a mill-wright and worked at lumbering, farming and merchandising. Up to the time of the great flood of '89 he was actively engaged in the lumber business, but the failure of the Cottage planing mill company, in which he was interested, caused by the destructiveness of that flood, practically took him out of business and the last few years of his life were spent in retirement.

During the time of his business activity he was extensively interested in the coal and lumber lands in the Clearfield region and was the founder of the town of Munson on the Beech Creek R. R. He was a conscientious, fearless man whose honorable ancestry spoke in the rectitude of his business and private life. In appearance he was an imposing character and during his five years' term as associate judge of the courts of this county he lent a marked dignity to the bench.

Burial was made, on Wednesday afternoon, Moshannon lodge F. and A. M., of which he was a charter member, having had charge of the services.

MRS. JONATHAN WOOMER IS DEAD.—The death of Mrs. Jonathan Woomer occurred at her home, near Bald Eagle, last Monday morning, after only a week's illness with stomach trouble. She was in the sixty-fifth year of her age and though she had been in failing health for some time no alarm was felt about her condition until quite recently.

Mrs. Woomer was Miss Elizabeth Turnbull, of Logan township, Blair county, before her marriage. From girlhood she had been a member of the Lutheran church and her amiable, christian character made her the beloved of all who knew her.

Her husband and the following children survive: W. H. Woomer and Mrs. Harry C. Albright, of Tyrone; James, of Bellefonte; Howard, of Patton; Edward, of Bradford; Mrs. David Bryan, of Jersey Shore; and Myrtle at home.

Funeral services were held in the Bald Eagle church, on Wednesday morning, at 10 o'clock. Rev. F. S. Bergstresser officiated.

Mrs. R. A. BECK.—Without any ostentation, without any desire for social preferment, with her soul completely absorbed in the duties of an ideal wife Mrs. R. A. Beck has departed this life, leaving her husband to suffer a loss that few can appreciate who have not been acquainted with this devoted couple.

She took sick on August 2nd with pneumonia and her condition became alarming from the first. All that medical skill and loving attention could do was done but availed nothing toward saving her life and she died yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock.

Her maiden name was Annie Rigger and she was born in Germany, July 25th, 1845, having come to America, in 1867, and four years later was married to the husband who survives her. They were married in Huntingdon and came to Bellefonte in 1878 and have been residents of place ever since.

Funeral services over the remains will be held on Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, in St. John's Episcopal church.

Mr. Beck has the deep sympathy of the entire community in this his hour of trial.

—At the age of 95 years Mrs. Polly Struble died at the home of her son Joel, near the Zion station, on Tuesday morning. Deceased had been in a decline for about six weeks and her death was the direct culmination of old age. She had been a life long member of the Reformed church and will be buried from the Zion church this morning at 9:30. She is survived by a number of children, several of whom are living in the West.

—James M. Woomer, the genial manager of the telephone office, was home this week attending the funeral of his mother, who died at her home, near Bald Eagle, on Monday morning. She was sixty-five years old and had been ailing for some time with stomach trouble. Her husband, Jonathan Woomer, and seven children survive, as she was an excellent woman and a true christian.

—The Rt. Rev. N. S. Rutison, D. D., bishop of the Central Pennsylvania diocese of the Episcopal church, died at Mannheim, Germany, on Wednesday. He was under treatment there and was accompanied by one of his daughters.

—Catarrh of the lungs caused the death of Julius F. Files at his home, in Phillipsburg, last Monday morning. He was 27 years old and is survived by his wife and a 5-year-old son.

—Miss Nina Fletcher, a daughter of Joseph Fletcher, of Eagleville, died at the home of her parents, on Thursday of last week, after a short illness with typhoid fever. Deceased was only 20 years old. Her father, sister and brother were all prostrated with the same disease, but they are recovering.

—Mrs. Joseph Mayhew, colored, died at her home in this place, yesterday afternoon, after a short illness. Deceased is survived by a husband and a large family of small children. Funeral services will be held on Sunday. Mrs. Mayhew's maiden name was Edith Skinner.

—Mrs. Nannie E. Mulbarger, wife of William Mulbarger, died at her home at Lemont, on Wednesday of last week, with brain fever and Bright's disease. Deceased was 48 years old and is survived by her husband, two sons and one daughter. Interment was made at Shiloh on Friday.

—Major Jerry Shreffler died at his home, in Centre Hall, last Friday night, with heart trouble. Deceased was 67 years old and is survived by six children. He was a veteran of the rebellion and the Grand Army conducted services over his remains on Monday morning.

—The four months old child of Ira Marshall, who lives on the Blair farm, up Buffalo run, died on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. It had spinal meningitis and was buried in the Meyer's cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

—See the great ball game between the fats and leans at the Logan picnic to-morrow.

—The Lock Haven company H took six of the fourteen prizes at the regimental shoot, at Williamsport, last week.

—Some of the songs that will be sung at Hi Henry's minstrel to-night are: "Fondest Memories," "In the Embers," "The Pace that Kills," "The Friends We Love," "The Old Chest in the Attic," "They Don't Care for Me," "The Diver," "Don't You see de Love a Shinin' in My Eyes."

—Tom Switzer, Dr. Carlisle and C. B. French, the three Phillipsburgs who are noted for Klondyke several weeks ago, are not risking the terrors of the Chilkoot pass. They sailed on the steamer Bristol for the mouth of the Yukon river and thence will sail to Dawson city.

—Sheriff Peck frustrated an attempt to escape from the Clinton county jail, last Friday. He was walking along the corridor on the second floor of the jail when a pile of dust arrested his attention. Search revealed a hole almost through the wall and had the sheriff not discovered it just when he did there might have been a general jail delivery down there.

—The third annual encampment of the Juniata valley veteran association will be held at McClure, Snyder county, Pa., beginning Monday, September 6th, and continuing at least four days. The association comprises the counties of Bedford, Blair, Centre, Fulton, Huntingdon, Juniata, Mifflin, Northumberland, Perry, Snyder and Union. Tents have been procured from the State and the executive committee of each county in the district is urged to go to work and persuade all the comrades of their respective counties to attend the annual outing.

MILTON'S INTER-COUNTY FAIR.—The inter-county fair at Milton, the largest and best of the Central Pennsylvania fairs, will be held October 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th. In addition to the usual liberal premiums in all departments, there will be three special attractions. Exhibition of fancy shooting. Ballon ascensions and parachute descents daily, and exhibition by a wonderful Japanese. Races every day. Bicycle races, etc. Excursions on railroads and specially low rates.

CRUSHED BY A FALL OF SLATE.—Charles Robb, aged 23 years, was badly crushed while at work in the Morris quarries on the Humes farm, on Tuesday afternoon. With two other workmen he was drilling for a blast about half-way up along the face of the rock when they noticed a fall of slate coming above them. All three ran, but Robb was not able to get away in time and he was crushed beneath the great mass of rock and clay.

Upon being released from his painful position he was taken to his home where it was found that though he was badly bruised no bones were broken.

MISSIONARIES WILL MEET HERE.—On Tuesday and Wednesday September 7th and 8th, the 12th annual convention of the missionary society of the west Susquehanna classis of the Reformed church will convene in this place. The sessions will be held in St. John's Reformed church, corner Spring and Linn streets.

The first meeting will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30. Three sessions will be held on Wednesday: One at 9, at 1:30 and at 7:30.

Among the speakers for the gathering are Revs. A. C. Whitmer, M. L. Frow, S. H. Eisenburg, M. N. George, A. A. Black, Tilghman Derr, J. M. Runkle, S. S. Kohler, Z. A. Yearick, J. L. Barnhart, D. B. Schneider, and S. L. Whitmore. C. M. Bower Esq., will deliver the address of welcome.

A STRONG BANKING INSTITUTION.—The firm of Jackson, Crider & Hastings, private bankers of this place, was dissolved, on Tuesday, by mutual consent, and Wednesday morning, September 1st, the new firm of Jackson, Hastings & Co., began business at the same place.

For seven years a co-partnership had existed between Geo. W. Jackson, Daniel H. Hastings and F. W. Crider and the announcement of Mr. Crider's withdrawal from the firm was in the nature of a surprise. He has retired to give his attention exclusively to his lumber business, which has assumed almost gigantic proportions. In his place former Senator J. Henry Cochran and Atty Gen'l Henry B. McCormick, of Williamsport, have been admitted to the firm, making it undeniably one of the strongest banking institutions in Central Pennsylvania.

Mr. Geo. W. Jackson will continue in the management of the bank and that is to say that the careful, reliable policy that has characterized that institution since its incorporation, in 1859, will be continued.

In this connection a little bit of the bank's history might prove interesting. It was founded in 1859 by the late Maj. Wm. F. Reynolds, principally to establish a business for Mr. Geo. W. Jackson, who had been employed at the old forge at Rock from the time of his graduation from Girard college, in '53. Maj. Reynolds's, Mr. Jackson, and John L. Johnson, the "rapid calculator" constituted the bank's force. It was a remarkably prosperous institution and few people are acquainted with the fact that the great bulk of Maj. Reynolds's fortune was made there. He retired in 1890 and the firm that has just been dissolved sprang into existence. Its successor is the new firm of Jackson, Hastings, & Co., which has consummated a combination of men and capital that proclaims it a remarkably strong institution.

THE BOALSBURG ACADEMY REUNION NEXT WEEK.—Personal invitations have been sent to all former teachers and students of Boalsburg Academy, whose addresses have been found, to attend a reunion on Thursday, September 9th, in McFarlane's grove, near Boalsburg, during the day if the weather permits, and in the Presbyterian church, in Boalsburg, during the evening.

Those who have not received the personal invitations are by this notice specially invited to attend and participate, or if unable to attend, to write a letter to the committee of invitation, recounting their personal history since their connections with the Academy.

The public, generally, are also cordially invited to attend. Exercises begin at 9 a. m. Evening exercises are memorial to deceased teachers and students, and begin at 7.30 p. m.

Hacks meeting all trains at Oak Hall station will convey, for a small fare, persons coming by rail, to the place of meeting. It will be a basket picnic, but refreshments will be furnished those who do not wish to provide for their own entertainment. Former teachers and students, on arriving at the place of meeting, will at once report to the secretary for enrollment.

G. W. LESHER, Boalsburg, A. A. DALE, Bellefonte, W. A. JACOBS, Centre Hall, J. T. STUART, Boalsburg, D. W. MEYERS, Boalsburg. Committee on Invitation.

SOME INTERESTING STATISTICS ABOUT CENTRE COUNTY.—Col. F. S. Dunham recently went to the trouble of figuring out just how much Centre county is worth in value and how much land she has. His investigation led him still further and before he was through commissioner's clerk Nelson Robb had furnished him with the following:

Centre county contains 14,524 taxables 195,471 acres of cleared land, and 131,837 acres of timber land. The assessed value of real estate in the county is $12,741,252. Value of real estate exempt from taxes is $2,575,140, leaving the value of real estate taxable at $10,166,112. There are 7,292 horses, mares and mules over four years old in the county, valued at $236,860, and 7,546 cattle, over four years old, the assessed value being $107,479, salaries, emoluments of office, post of profits, trades, etc. are valued at $467,097. The aggregate value of all property taxable for county purposes at three mills on a dollar is $11,977,546. The county tax on that amount is $35,932.64. The amount of money on interest in the county, including mortgages, judgments, bonds, notes, stocks, etc. is $2,739,290. Omnibuses, stages, hacks, cabs, etc., in the county are valued at $1,153. The total amount of property subject to four mills tax on a dollar, including stages, money at interest, etc. is $2,742,443. The taxes on same being $10,969.53. The State refunds to the county three-fourths of the latter sum.

THE LAWYERS VERSUS THE BUSINESS MEN.—Several hundred people went down to Hecla park, Tuesday afternoon, to see the lawyers and business men play ball together. The game was not characterized by brilliant playing on either-side, though there was plenty of fun for the spectators. The features were largely druggist Krumrine's pedal extremities and county chairman W. E. Gray's inclination to get top-heavy and root up the earth. His head, when he tried to get on third with Ellis Orvis, ought to be enough to queer him in his profession as a lawyer.

The score resulted as follows: Lawyers 5-2-1-0-2-2-0-0-0-14 Business Men 1-4-4-0-2-8-0-0-0-19

—Miss Anna Dumbleton, of Cold Stream, Phillipsburg, a daughter of Mr. James Dumbleton, one of the foremost of Democratic workers of that end of the county, was married to Alonzo G. Ammerman, of Curwensville, on Wednesday morning. The wedding was solemnized in the Episcopal church in Phillipsburg. Miss Ammerman is well known here; having frequently visited the Misses Green, on Water street.

TRAINS FOR THE GRANGER'S PICNIC.—For the accommodation of persons desiring to attend the granger's picnic at Grange park, Centre Hall, from September 11th to 18th, the Pennsylvania railroad company has arranged the following schedule for trains to and from the park. The fare will be a one way fare for the round trip, but no rate will be given where fares amount to less than 25cts. Special trains will be run on the 15th, 16th and 17th as follows:

Table with columns: EASTWARD, STATIONS, WESTWARD, P. M., A. M., P. M., A. M.

Schedule of regular trains can be found on page 6.

FOSTER'S FORECAST OF SEPTEMBER WEATHER.—"My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from September 2nd to 6th, and the next will reach the Pacific coast about the 7th, cross the west of Rockies country by end of 8th, the great central valleys 9th to 11th, and eastern States 12th.

A warm wave will cross the west of Rockies country about 7th, the great central valleys 9th, eastern States 11th. Cool wave will cross the west of Rockies country about 10th, great central valleys 12th, and eastern States 14th.

The low or warm wave of the above disturbance will take a southern route and the weather accompanying it will be unusually warm in the southern, and not very warm in the northern States.

The high or cool wave of the above disturbance will take a northern route and the cool wave will cause unusually cool weather in the northern States, not very cool weather in the southern States. The third disturbance of September will reach the Pacific coast about the 13th, cross the west of Rockies country by close of 14th, great central valleys 15th to 17th, and eastern States 18th.

A warm wave will cross the west of Rockies country, about 13th, great central valleys 15th, eastern States 17th. A cool wave will cross the west of Rockies country about the 16th, great central valleys 18th, and eastern States 20th. Both the high and low of the above disturbances will pass along the middle latitudes and in both warm and cool waves moderate temperature will prevail.

Temperature of the week ending September 4th will average above normal in the southern States and below in the northern States. Heaviest rains will occur in the southern States. During this period storms will be more severe in the southern States."

News Purely Personal.

—Edw. Beizer returned to Monongahela City, on Tuesday morning, after having spent a pleasant vacation with friends and relatives here.

—Miss Jessie Metz, of Altoona, who had been a visitor at the home of Hon. James Schofield, on South Thomas street, for several weeks, departed on Tuesday.

—Mr. Edward McGuiness took his daughter Edith to the Methodist hospital, in Philadelphia, last week. She will undergo a course of treatment for a nervous affection.

—J. M. Neuberger, proprietor of the Brockhoff house, is off on a short visit to his old home in Erie. When we asked him if he was going alone he blushed until he could be seen over the telephone.

—Squire H. H. Osman, of Port Matilda, was in town yesterday settling up his accounts as administrator of the estate of Mrs. William Calderwood. The Squire is the new post-master at Port and is a firm believer in the theory that the spoils belong to the victors.

—Dr. David J. Beale, the well-known Presbyterian preacher, was in town last week on his way home to Philadelphia from a six week's vacation spent in Johnstown, Altoona, Frederickburg and other charges he had ministered unto.

—Mortimer O'Donoghue and Miss Bess Hayes wheeled it from here to Tyrone, on Saturday, and spent Sunday with Mrs. Guido Boeking. They returned Monday afternoon, having covered the thirty-four miles in four and one-half hours.

—Miss Jessie Laurie, the second daughter of Rev. Dr. William Laurie, of this place, will leave for Philadelphia to-day. She will enter a deaf and dumb institute at Belmont and Monument Ave. and undergo a course of training to fit her for teaching in the same line. She gave a dinner party to eight of her girl friends last Monday evening.

—J. A. Hunter, of State College, passed through this place, Tuesday morning, on his way home from Altoona, where he has been spending several weeks as a representative of the stock-holders of the Pennsylvania building and loan association of that city. The association experienced a run a few weeks ago, and a receiver was asked for, but Mr. Hunter thinks it will come out all right and he intends sticking to it.

—Mr. G. G. Walker, a brother of Wm. Miles Walker, of this place, was in town on Tuesday. He is a resident of Huntingdon county now but isn't at all pleased with the kind of farms they have down in the vicinity of Spruce Creek, when compared with those of Centre county. We predicted when he moved away that he would return soon and we are glad to see indications pointing that way, for Mr. Walker was a good citizen.

CENTRE COUNTY GOLD HUNTERS ON THEIR WAY TO THE KLONDIKE.—The Seattle Post-Intelligencer recently published the following notice concerning the arrival of three Centre countians in that city, who left Phillipsburg several weeks ago enroute to the Klondyke.

A party of Phillipsburg, Pa., young men, goldfieldwards, consisting of O. T. Switzer, C. B. French and H. L. Carlisle, are in the city and to-night they will leave on the city of Seattle for Victoria where they will take the British for St. Michael and St. Michaels they will transfer to the river steamer Eugene going direct to Dawson City. Last night the party was seen at the Hotel Stevens and stated that they were generally surprised at the moderate prices charged in Seattle for supplies. They were told in St. Paul that they could not get bacon or flour in Seattle at any but panic prices. Upon their arrival here they found everything cheaper than the figures quoted them in St. Paul. They did say, however, that they found hardware higher here than in Pennsylvania, but that was not to be wondered at. They came from an iron manufacturing State, and naturally brought a schedule of values with them.

When the freight and packing were added, however, there was no great difference, and they expressed themselves entirely satisfied. The only regret they feel is in the matter of leaving Seattle, which they say is the best city in the country to-day. All of the members of the Phillipsburg party are old-time friends of ex-city clerk R. F. Stewart, and for the past three days he has divided his time in assisting them to make up a first class outfit. They will take up nearly a ton to each man, all of which has been purchased in Seattle, excepting furs and fur garments, which they bought in St. Paul.

Edward J. Williams, of Unionville, and Mary E. Eckenroth, Union township.

Charles C. Winslow and Emma Strunk, both of Blanchard.

THE ACCIDENT HAS COST HER AN ARM.—In our last week's issue we mentioned an accident that had befallen Mrs. Luther Strunk, of Clintondale, and her children. They were driving home in a light wagon when their horse frightened at the rattle of milk cans they were hauling, and ran away. Mrs. Strunk was thrown out and her wrist was broken. Her little daughter was also badly hurt. In fact Edna's arm was so badly injured that it had to be amputated on Monday.

BELLEFONTE CASTLE AND COMMANDERY WILL GO.—On Monday the Susquehanna district convention of the Knights of the Golden Eagle will be held at Lock Haven. Bellefonte castle 357 and the Bellefonte commandery will both attend in full regalia. They will travel over the Central railroad, a rate of 70 cts. for the round trip having been made.
