

NOTHING NEW IN THE CORNELLY CASE.—Despite the gossip that seems to be as busy since the trial and conviction of James Cornelly, for arson, as it was before, nothing new has developed in the case and the argument for a new trial will hardly be made before the October term of argument court. Every day some new story is heard as to additional damaging evidence that has been uncovered, but when it has been run down the invariable old source of some vivid imagination is found to be the unsteady legs upon which it stands.

Cornelly is in fair health and spends most of his time in reading. He has more visitors than any of the other inmates of the jail.

TRAINS FOR THE GRANGER'S PICNIC.—For the accommodation of persons desiring to attend the granger's picnic at Grange park, Centre Hall, from September 11th to 18th, the Pennsylvania railroad company has arranged the following schedule for trains to and from the park. The fare will be a one way fare for the round trip, but no rate will be given where fares amount to less than 25cts. Special trains will be run on the 15th, 16th and 17th as follows:

EASTWARD.		WESTWARD.
P. M.	A. M.	A. M.	P. M.

Schedule of regular trains can be found on page 6.

Centre Hall.

John B. Knorr, of the firm of Knorr & Ruth, Reading's largest shoe establishment, called on Messrs Wolf & Crawford recently.

Misses Emma McCoy and Vera and Elsie Geiss will have the Hewett house furnished for lodgers and serve breakfast during the coming Grangers' picnic.

The "Tom Thumb" wedding, in the grange auditorium to be executed by the Reformed Sunday school and assisted by the juniors of the town promises to be a rare treat, and should be well patronized.

Ray Morgan, State College's efficient post-office clerk, is following trapping pretty closely and has selected the wooded country surrounding Centre Hall as a field well suited to his taste for capturing the wily Kuhn.

The appointment of B. D. Brisbin for post-master gives general satisfaction. He held the position under Harrison in a most satisfactory manner, and he is happy to be able to pluck the feathers from the post-office bird a second time.

Improvements of a general character are going right along in our town. A number of new walks have been laid by property owners, porches erected, street fronts graded and improved by individuals, and numerous other improvements on every hand.

Miss Roxanna Brisbin recently returned from an extended visit to Harrisburg and other interior cities much delighted with her trip. The coming fall and winter she will spend mostly at State College, where she has a large class in instrumental music.

Rev. W. E. Fischer, D. D., of Shamokin, will fill the Lutheran pulpit on Sunday evening in the church at this place. Dr. Fischer was pastor of this Lutheran charge for about eighteen years, and his old members will be glad to hear him again.

Prof. George B. Snyder, of State College, was selected principal of Centre Hall's schools at a recent meeting of the school board, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Prof. Shannon, of Shamokin. Prof. Snyder is a graduate of State College, and during the course secured several prizes.

The Patron's picnic and exhibition is opening up for business this work. The park is a scene of activity. A score or more of laborers are engaged in putting up tents, etc., and some of the exhibitors have their quarters in readiness. The exhibits will be much more extensive than any time heretofore. Cattle and poultry will be on exhibition on a large scale. The program in the auditorium will be highly interesting.

All Through Brush Valley.

Mrs. Crouse, of Rockville, is seriously ill with typhoid fever.

Miss Lottie Malory, of Kreamerville, is going to Williamsport for the winter.

Al. Bradford, of Centre Mills, moved his family to Spring Mills, on Wednesday.

H. H. Stover, of near Centre Hall spent last Saturday and Sunday with friends at Rebersburg.

Mrs. Meyer and her son, of Boalsburg, were pleasant guests at Harvey Miller's last Saturday and Sunday.

Albert Steininger and wife of Rebersburg, have gone to Zion for the winter. Albert to work on a farm and his wife to help Mrs. Johnson.

A couple of dogs, last week, played havoc with Miss Ellen Burd's young turkeys. They managed to kill thirteen and we hope others will take this as a warning.

George Diehl, the new postmaster at Centre Mills, reports uncle Sam's business much better than he had expected. Mr. Diehl is just the postmaster for Centre Mills.

H. Elmer Bierly, of Rebersburg, who is well known among the teachers of our county and the state Normal schools through child mind investigations carried on in connection with Prof. Earl Barnes, of Stanford University, Cal., and Prof. Royce and James, of Harvard university, left, Tuesday, for Virginia college, at Roanoke, Va., where he has accepted a position on the faculty. He is head of the Biblical department and will teach moral and mental philosophy and the political and social sciences. The college is one of the many excellent schools for women in the South and is most beautifully situated on the hills back of prosperous Roanoke. Mr. Bierly is also engaged to deliver a course of lectures on child study and neurology next July at a summer Chautauque.

Miss Byrd Stover, a member of the Rebersburg violin and mandolin club and one of our most accomplished young ladies, has gone to Roanoke, Virginia, to attend college. She was accompanied by Prof. H. E. Bierly, who is one of the instructors in the college she is to enter.

Where, O; where! are those supposed negro burglars? E-yah, Howard, die swatzer wairer ever aw shoe. (It is supposed the negro burglars were in Howard Miller's store and stole shoes etc., and he was fooled after them some 5 miles with a wagon load of men but was badly left.)

Howard.

Thomas Butler's house is near completion. Miss Annie Candy spent Sunday in Tyrone.

A new walk has been laid in front of the M. E. church.

Wm. Hensyl returned home from McKee's Mills last Friday.

Christian Schench is suffering with a felon on his thumb.

A child of John Hoagen's died of diphtheria last Friday.

Geo. Wistar, of Washington, spent a few days at home last week.

Mrs. Kate Cooke and Miss Alice, spent Friday in Williamsport.

Miss Kennedy, of Tyrone, spent last week with Miss May Belle Riddle.

Miss Jennie Wagner returned home from Lock Haven on last Tuesday evening.

Elmer Holter left on Monday morning, to take charge of his school in Beech Creek.

The M. E. social, held in Jos. Schench's yard on last Friday evening, was a success.

Misses Nell Furey and Carrie Lewis, of Lock Haven, spent Sunday with friends in this place.

Miss Bessie Miles, daughter of Oscar Miles, of Milesburg, spent two weeks with H. T. Lucas and family.

The Catholic church of this place, held a festival and dance on Saturday night. It was a great success.

Miss Nellie Kline, departed for Altoona last Friday. She will attend school in that place this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Thompson, of Phillipsburg, spent a few days with her father, Mr. A. P. Wharton, of this place.

Miss Ethel Ryan, of Sloane, N. Y., is at present visiting her grandmother, Mrs. R. J. Tipton, of Walnut street.

Mrs. C. F. Smith and daughter Julia, departed for Indianapolis, Ind., on last Friday. They will make their home in that place in the future.

An aggregation of base ball "fanatics," from Mill Hall, came into this city to take a "scalp" from the strong Howard team, of the "Mudlick Valley League and the following score shows how they met defeat.

Pine Grove Mention.

Levi W. Walker has been on the sick list ever since the funeral of his mother.

One of our coal barons P. F. Bottorf is laid up with a carbuncle on one of his props.

Mrs. Julia Musser is visiting her many friends up in the Mountain City, where she expects to remain a month.

Mrs. Laura Pifer, of Lock Haven, with her two interesting children, are welcome visitors at Grandmother Gates', on Main street.

Mrs. Curt Musser, of Altoona, with her two bright eyed little urchins are visiting Centre county friends, who are always glad to have them.

Mrs. G. W. McWilliams came up from Philadelphia, last week, to enjoy a month at her brother, W. H. Bailey's, where her family have been for some time.

Tax collector Andy Lytle is nursing a broken shoulder and several cracked ribs caused by a fall from a ladder. Dr. Dale is braising him up and he hopes to be able to attend the Grange picnic.

Walter O. Bryan has broken ground, at State College, for a new house to be completed this fall, when he will retire and have a good time. Piersol, who was married recently, will take care of the farm.

Prof. Weaver is going to sell his stock, farming implements and household goods at public sale. The sale will be an important one for the implements are mostly new and he never did have any scrub stock on his farm.

From the amount of firing done along the mountain the frisky tribe must be plenty. We would advise our sportsmen to look up the law, many times published in these columns, and heed it. The aggressors ought to be a little careful or there will be trouble.

Mothers can not be too careful about pins in their clothing. Recently Mr. and Mrs. Wm. K. Goss spent the night in nursing their baby, Rebecca Ruth, who, they thought was suffering with earache. When day light came a pin was discovered in the child's ear.

Prof. G. W. Weaver, county superintendent of Clearfield county, and his wife were here last Friday to conclude the sale of their farm. Frank Black, of near Huntingdon, was the purchaser for five thousand dollars. Mr. Weaver reserving the hay in the barn and the grain in the ground. The farm is one of the most desirable in the valley and, although it has been in the Weaver family for almost a century, the buildings are comparatively new.
