

All Through Brush Valley.

Jack frost visited our valley on Monday night. On Monday the Brush valley public schools opened their winter term.

Our ex-postmaster Snyder Miller is no longer an "ex." Last week he was appointed to serve our people again.

Cyrus Erhard, of Rebersburg, who was sick over Sunday with a bad cold, is again able to be up and around.

Ed Zimmerman, of Millheim, has opened a confectionery store in the shop in which Mr. Krape manufactures his cigars.

Miss Lizzie Moyer, of Centre Mills, will teach her first term of winter school near Scranton for which place she left last Friday.

Aaron Smull, of Rockville, cut an ugly gash into his right hand with a corn cutter last week. He is unable to use his arm at all.

Wm. Heckman and wife, of near Madisonburg, had the pleasure of entertaining his brother of Penn Hall, and his lady friend, on Sunday.

William Stover, of Pittsburg, came into our valley, last Thursday, to make his old and many Brush valley friends a visit for a few weeks.

Luther A. Miller and wife, of Kreamerville, moved about two miles above Colburn station, on Tuesday. Mr. Miller will teach there during the winter.

John Winters, of Kreamerville, has his new house plastered on the outside. By its present appearance John will soon have a nice home at Kreamerville.

Miss Orpha Beirly, who had been away spending a few weeks with her sister Maggie, in Snyder county, is again at her Rebersburg home.

Al. Frank one of Millheim's successful merchants, has bought Mr. Thos. Shaffer's two horse farm, which is near Madisonburg, and he and Mrs. Frank took a drive over their new possessions on Sunday.

Miss Sarah Moyer, of Centre Mills, left for the Bloomsburg Normal last Friday. No doubt, but Sarah will soon be a post graduate of that institution as she graduated at the same place a few years ago.

Our valley seems to have been blessed this summer with new carriages. Of late two more families have deemed it necessary to purchase vehicles. They are Messrs. Edward Miller and Geo. Smull, both of near Rebersburg.

While postmaster John Smull was on the way to the post-office last Friday morning, he suffered a slight paralytic stroke and fell to the pavement when right in front of W. J. Carlin's store. Mr. Frank helped him to the home of Wm. Bierly, Sr., his boarding place, where he soon recovered.

Howard.

William Weber transacted business in Bellefonte on Tuesday.

Chas. Kurtz, editor of the Centre Democrat, was in town last week.

Logan McKinney, who has been visiting in Tyrone for the past week, returned home on Tuesday.

Oscar M. Lucas, son of H. T. Lucas, of Walnut street, was very ill the first few days of last week.

Out of nine active applicants Mr. Hayes Schenck was at last appointed postmaster. Hayes wears a broad smile.

The borough schools opened on Monday with 152 pupils enrolled. They were divided as follows: High school, E. S. Latsham, principal; 3; grammar, J. Frank Holter, teacher; 28; intermediate, Mrs. E. S. Latsham, teacher; 50; primary, Miss Lizzie Holter, 42.

A surprise party was given, on Tuesday night, for Miss Nellie Wilson who has been visiting at the Syracuse house for the past three months. The following persons were present: Mrs. Winnie DeLaney, Misses Mary and Anna Weber, Annie Kane, Mabel Moore, Annie Candy, Maude Schenck, Maude DeHaas, Mary Candy, Messrs. Max Allison, Cy Greininger, John Holter, and Chester Moore.

Madisonburg.

Miss Grace Hazel, of Chicago, Ill., has been visiting in our town for the last week.

The Granger's picnic was well attended by people of this place. They reported the roads to be very dusty.

Ellis Shaffer and wife, spent a few days in Sugar valley recently.

Dr. David Tibbens, from Missouri, was the guest of Michael Carr's over Sunday.

The long-looked-for-rain arrived at last, and our farmers are feeling good.

Potatoes seem to be rotting to a great extent throughout this district. If the "Democrats were running the go-cart," they would surely have the honor of being the cause.

The Madisonburg schools opened, on Monday, with about the usual attendance at the beginning of the term.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

It does not seem possible that the table for eight people can be provided for ten dollars a week. But Mrs. Rorer, the most famous cook in America, says it can be done. She has tried it and knows. She proves her case in The Ladies' Home Journal for October. She gives twenty-one menus covering a week's meals, and gives full, practical directions by which any woman can make as attractive meals as Mrs. Rorer explains, for this small sum of ten dollars.

Dr. Weir Mitchell, whose novel "Hugh Wynne," proved to be one of the most successful serials The Century has printed, has written another novel that will appear in this magazine during the coming year. It is called "The Adventures of Francois: Foundling, Adventurer, Juggler, Penning-master, and Servant during the French Revolution." The scene of the story shifts from Paris to the provinces and back again, following the wanderings of the eccentric hero, who participates in many of the thrilling scenes of the Revolution. Andre Castagne, the French-American artist, will illustrate the novel.
