

BILLY STUART IS POPULAR AT BRADFORD.—W. A. Stuart, of State College, of whom so many people in this community know because of his base ball and foot ball abilities, is cutting a pretty wide swath up at Bradford, where he is coaching the foot ball team of that place. "Billy" is captain and coach of the team at Bradford and has signed to play base ball there next season.

The Buffalo Courier published a double column picture that is supposed to pass for him, on Friday, and contained the following notice:

W. A. Stuart, at present acting as coach of the Bradford football eleven, is becoming quite a power in the coaching line. He is also one of the best players in the country and he showed up to advantage in the game played at Olympic park by the Buffalo and Bradford teams recently.

Stuart is an all-round athlete, and is a fine specimen of a young man. He is only 3 years old, is nearly six feet in height, and tips the scales at 165 pounds. He is also a ball player, and a couple of years ago he played third base for Pittsburgh.

He received his education in football at Pennsylvania State College in 1892, 1893, and in the following year. In '92 he played on the second team but the next year he took a place on the Varsity and played fullback for the next two years. After he was graduated he went to coaching and he brought the Pittsburgh Athletic Club up to a high standing in football. He has given the best of satisfaction in his position on the Bradford team and has turned out a team that is a credit to any school. He has also been played by the eleven and it has not yet been scored on.

Hubsburg.

The farmer's institute to be held here Dec. 15th, promises to be a grand success.

Miss Fletcher, a student of the Lock Haven Normal, visited Mrs. Charles Miller last week.

Samuel Hoy and son George and Perry Gates, of Coalport, are spending a week in the Alleghenies hunting.

A supper for the benefit of the Reformed church will be held at Thomas Dunkle's, on Friday evening, Nov. 12th.

Clyde Collins and mother, of State College, formerly of this place visited friends in our midst during Saturday and Sunday.

George McAulay has gone to visit friends and relatives at Lewistown. Since the idol of his heart resides at Birmingham we infer he will spend the greater part of his time there.

Our stalwart friend, L. E. Swartz, can now take a hearty laugh since hearing the calling down of several of the members of the Rod and Gun club for trespassing on land that had not been leased. Mr. Swartz was aware of the fact and he led them onto the land and then made his escape back to his own farm.

Pine Grove Mention.

Mrs. Wagner, who has been ill for weeks, is very much better.

Dr. Woods attended the Centre county medical meeting in Bellefonte last Tuesday, while his wife did some shopping.

The wind storm on last Tuesday unroofed the old wagon and corn shed on the G. Y. Meek farm and scattered fences and corn fodder promiscuously.

Yesterday Frank Black and his family took possession of their new home just one mile north of town. We extend to them a cordial welcome and from the amount of cattle in the yard farmer Black intends to do it right.

Rev. Hepler, of Lemont, with his estimable wife and baby daughter spent the fore part of the week visiting members of his congregation about here. The weather was stormy and inclement but they had a very enjoyable time.

The fact that every young man should have a good horse and buggy was fully demonstrated last Sunday night, when Ed. swooped down on a fellow and took his best girl from him, when he was anticipating a pleasant walk of six miles with her.

David G. Meek, of Tyrone, came down, Saturday, to visit his aged grand-mother whom he found well and happy. So later he wended his way to the rippling waters of the Branch, where he proceeded to spend the evening. David always was a lover of music.

Postmaster Miller is representing Centre county, No. 254, at the state-grange meeting in Harrisburg this week. During his absence the mail is being handled by ex-postmaster Heberling, who is an applicant and is just as obliging as he can be; but then a half dozen others would serve the people just as well, if they had the opportunity.

On last Saturday while Dr. H. H. Miller, of Rebersburg, was making his fall visit through this part of the county he was summoned home by the sudden death of his wife. She had been suffering with dropsy for more than a year and her death, although sudden, was not unexpected and the doctor realizing this had insisted that she was better. She was a cultured, christian woman and her place will be hard to fill. Deceased was 50 years old, a devoted member of the Lutheran church and was buried on Tuesday.

—Conrad David Wesley Erb has packed his grip and is ready to meet his comrades at the B. and O. station, in Washington, on Saturday afternoon as they proceed to Chickamauga, to take part in the dedicatory services on the 15th. On that date seventeen monuments erected by Pennsylvania regiments of the State have been given transportation and Conrad Erb is one of them. W. D. Port was entitled to a pass, but he decided he did not care to attend.
