

All Through Brush Valley.

Rev. Faus' revival meetings at Kreamerville bore fruit in two conversions last Saturday night.

The butchering season is now on and sausage by the yard is being gobbled up on all sides.

Calvin Bierly and his eldest son, Mandy, of Tylersville, spent Saturday with relatives in this valley.

Henry Detwiler, who lived about one mile west of Kreamerville, moved his family into his father's home at that place last Tuesday.

The great Bair-Hallow-E'en trouble was settled, on Saturday, when the boys who had been having some innocent, harmless fun were made to pay $1.50 each.

Geo. Kreamer, Kreamerville's only merchant, has the foundation for a new house completed. It is located right in the center of that village and is to be done by Christmas.

George Krumrine, of this place, whose sight was so seriously impaired last summer as to be almost lost, has so far regained it, thanks to the skill of Dr. Zero, that he was able to spend part of last week in Bellefonte.

It would not be a matter of much surprise to hear that Howard Miller, our popular merchant, had sprung a concert company on the public. Judging from the sweet (?) strains that have been floating over the night air from his store porch for several nights this is about the only conclusion we can come to.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of the choir of the St. Peter's Reformed church, Aaronsburg, Pa., held on Nov. 13th, 1897, it was resolved.

WHEREAS, In the providence of God, Hon. J. G. Meyer, the leader of our choir since its organization many years ago, has been taken from life, to join the throng on the other shore, and we are deprived of his assistance and counsel, therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Hon. J. G. Meyer, the choir has lost its first friend, and ever honored leader; his warm interest in our success, and that we always hold the departed in loving memory.

Resolved, That a copy of this action be sent to the bereaved family, and that it be published in the church and county papers.

CHOIR.

We, the officers of the St. Peter's Reformed Sunday school, would express our feelings on the death of our beloved superintendent Hon. J. G. Meyer, in the following.

He was deeply interested in the welfare of the Sunday school, having ever a desire to make it more productive of good, he always tried to check the erring and guide them to the haven of rest. He lived not for self, but enjoyed making others happy, be it

Resolved, That in the death of Hon. J. G. Meyer, the Sunday school has suffered an irreparable loss, a very efficient superintendent and leader. To the will of Him who doeth all things well, we will bow in submission.

Resolved, That a copy of this be furnished to the bereaved family, and that it be published in the church and county papers.

CHOIR.

At a meeting of the consistory of St. Peter's Reformed church Aaronsburg, Pa., the following was adopted.

WHEREAS, God who rules, has seen fit to take from us one of our elders, Hon. J. G. Meyer, who has been instant in season and out of season looking after the interests of our church, therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of brother Meyer, we recognize the fact, that this congregation has lost one of its most efficient elders, who was willing to do all in his power for the good of the church whose judgment was sound, whose counsel was wise, and that we say we miss him very much.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his relatives and friends, and bow in humble submission to the will of God.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be given to the bereaved family, and that they be published in the church and county papers.

A Departed Comrade.

WHEREAS, It has pleased the omnipotent Commander of all armies to transfer from earthly service and fellowship, comrade Emanuel Fletcher, member of Grove Bro's Post, No. 292, Grand Army of the Republic of Pa., late of Co. D, 45th, P. V. in the 67th year of his age therefore be it

Resolved, That we are hereby reminded that our transfer and discharge will come sure and soon.

Resolved, That we strive to be obedient, good and true, so that our discharge be honorable in sight of the Great Ruler.

Resolved, That we hereby tender our sympathies to the bereaved son and family in this hour of their deep sorrow.

Resolved, That this preamble and resolutions be entered on our minutes and a copy of the same be sent to the family of our late comrade. Submitted in F. C. and L.

H. C. HOLTER, S. H. BENNING, J. R. PHEASANT, Committee.

The above was unanimously adopted at a regular meeting of Grove Bro's Post, No. 292, G. A. R. Howard, Pa., Nov. 13th, 1897.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

The Christmas Ladies' Home Journal tells how the German Emperor, with the Empress and the Royal family, spend Christmas day with their children. The article is written by Mr. Nagel von Brawe, an attaché of the Court, who was permitted to be present at the celebration last Christmas in order to write this article. The pictures were made "on the spot," and approved by the Emperor.

The first correct copy of Sir Arthur Sullivan's great song, "The Lost Chord," ever printed in America, direct from the composer's hand, will appear in the Christmas number of The Ladies' Home Journal. Over his signature Sir Arthur Sullivan states that of the millions of copies of "The Lost Chord" sold in America, all are incorrect, and that this is the first accurate copy of the song ever prepared by him, or for which he ever received a penny of payment. The complete music and words of Sir Arthur's copy of the song, expressly prepared for The Ladies' Home Journal, will be given.

The Christmas Ladies' Home Journal will have Christmas stories by Mary E. Wilkins, Ruth McCreary Stuart, Hamilton Gardner, Mrs. A. D. T. Whitney, Mrs. Mark Morrison and Lillian Bell.
