Lived off Bread and Milk for Years. 9 Home Doctors Failed to Cure me, Dr. Salm Succeeded in Curing.

For more than four years I have had a bad case of catarrh, stomach and general trouble. Took cold continually. For one and a half years I could eat only bread and milk. Tried nine different doctors, to get rid of my misery, but got worse and worse. So I went to Dr. Salm for treatment, and to-day I am as strong as ever, can eat anything, and don't take any more cold, and consider myself cured of this terrible disease.

People Think Dr. Salm Has Done Another Wonderful Piece of Work.

I have had a very bad case of catarrh and sore eyes for more than eight years, and consequently it gave me a world of trouble. I was obliged to see Dr. Salm, under his treatment the change is wonderfully rapid. My friends are astonished, as well, and think with me that Dr. Salm has done another wonderful piece of work.

A Case of Catarrah and Throat Trouble Cured by Dr. Salm.

For more than three years two children have been suffering from catarrh and throat trouble, also enlarged tonsils. They were continually taking cold. Could hardly breathe at night. Their constitutions became undermined. After a short course of treatment with Dr. Salm, they have almost entirely recovered from their miserable disease.

Couldn't Walk 15 Yards at a Time, Was no Earthly Use to Any One, Thought I Was Going to Die, but Dr. Salm Cured Me.

For 2 years or more, I have had a fearful trouble, began to get very weak, my limbs would not carry me any more, couldn't walk a stretch of 15 yards, and my heart would beat a fearful rate, at the least exertion. It seemed my blood was turned to water, I gradually became pale as lead, I was no earthly use to any one, and all my neighbors and relatives thought I was going to die. Home doctors couldn't help me, so I went to Dr. Salm, and to-day, I am happy to state, that I am stronger than ever, can eat anything, do a full day's work, and enjoy life as much as any one, and my color, any one may be proud of.

Suffered for 15 Years With Nervous, Inward and Ear Trouble, Tried a Half Dozen Doctors, and a Pile of Patent Medicines, but Had to go to Dr. Salm to be Cured.

For 15 years I have suffered very much with nervous, inward and ear trouble, and my condition grew worse and worse. I tried a half dozen doctors, and piles of patent medicines, to no avail. I went to Dr. Salm, and, thanks to his knowledge as a physician, I consider myself entirely cured. Those pains, which came every month, and the fearful nervous prostration resulting therefrom, has entirely left me and I feel happy once more.

Much has been said about the protection of the song birds that are fast decreasing in numbers and many laws have been enacted to that effect and heavy penalties in the way of fines are used to prevent people from killing them, but all to no avail. They are still killed by the thousands for the simple purpose of adorning the headgear of those who profess to be Christians and claim to be lovers of all of God's creatures, yet who will see the innocent birds ruthlessly slaughtered in order that they may adorn themselves. If the practice is to continue, it will only be a matter of a short time until a song bird will be a curiosity. If a law was passed fining every girl and woman who appeared with the plumage of a bird on her hat, the question would be settled without further discussion.

The public debt increased more than eight million dollars during the month of October. And the revenues from the Dingley tariff are still on the decrease.

A Dear Winter in Dawson City.

All Alliance, O. Doctor Who is There Says the Suffering Will be Great.—The New Field is a Wonder.—He Says That Gold by the Ton Will be Sent to the States in the Spring.—Greatest Field on Record.

Dr. John J. Chambers, a former resident of Moulton, a village near Alliance, O., has been in the Alaskan gold fields for two years. Last winter he spent in Circle City and achieved the distinction of being the only man in the camp who did not drink whisky.

Last March the news from the Klondike country started him in the further quest for gold and he made the trip up the river on sleds before the ice broke. But even at that early date he was too late, as the following intensely interesting letter to his wife will show. The letter was mailed at Dawson City September 13 and reads as follows:

We have about 5,000 people here. I notice by a paper I saw from the States that much is said about our country (meaning the Yukon). No doubt you have heard about it in this way. Let me tell you and confine myself to the truth. This is without doubt the richest camp ever struck. Gold is found everywhere, in the creek beds and mountain tops.

DUG GOLD WITH HIS HANDS. A friend of mine scratched out from a sidehill 400 feet above the creek (Skookum Gulch) $35 in two hours, using his hands, as he had no shovel. The very rich spots are scarce. Other friends of mine have scoured the country since last November and found nothing, broken down in health and some with scurvy. The wealth of this country is all right, but may the Lord have mercy on the poor boys lying on a foot of snow under a tree in the mountains to-night.

The Sisters have established a hospital here this summer, and it is the only one on the Yukon. Counting myself there are three physicians here, and we all have plenty to do, as we have had a good deal of sickness the past summer, principally typhoid fever and dysentery. It used to make my heart ache to visit a fever patient lying on the ground in a tent in this swamp, the sun beating down on the tent with a temperature in the shade of close to 100. Poor fellows! Some of them kissed a wife, mother or sister a last good-by when they started for the Yukon. The suffering this winter will be something awful. Three thousand people living in tents, and only a few weeks till the mercury will reach 40 below zero!

NOT FOOD ENOUGH FOR ALL. Reports come in that 2,000 more are coming over the trail. Poor fellows, there is not food enough for all of them. I have enough to live on for the year in my house now, but will try to get more, so I can feel that I can a little more than live. This camp will make about 50 men rich. The balance of us will have a variable amount; good wages to the workmen and good feed in my business; but to strike it rich I got to the camp to late, but will make the best of it, for it is much better than in the States.

I will try it another year. I am well, feeling fine since I cook for myself. I lost 12 pounds boarding at the restaurant, where I paid $1.50 per meal. Some beef cattle have been brought over the trail. The meat sells readily for $1 per pound. The Indians here never saw a cow before. They point at them and say "all same noose." There is little difference in a taste of the meat. I am interested in the number of mines, but don't know the value of them at present.

I will run a dog team freighting this winter. Will hire a man to drive them. Will have eight dogs. Think they will make me $1,000. Gold will go out on the boats next spring by the ton (not pounds) from this camp. I mean just what I say.

BEAUTIES OF THE NORTHERN LIGHTS.

As winter approaches it looks funny to see the sun appear about noon and apparently slide along the ground for a half hour or so, and then sink out of sight for 23 hours or more, till, finally, it fails to rise at all. When the long winter night has begun the Northern lights are something grand in the extreme, and beyond description.

At first I was impressed with a sense of fear and awe, though my feelings are not easily moved. You can imagine great lights roving over the entire heavens from the Arctic regions called aurora borealis, in colors of the rainbow. Monstrous fans sweep down to within 20 feet of the ground, so you can throw a stone through them.

You can form a faint idea of the waving, dancing, twisting, jumping, curling, twinkling, sparkling, flashing rainbow lights of the Arctic regions called aurora borealis. These things are every night affairs. At first I regarded the peculiar action of the elements with a certain amount of fear; but now I think of them as my guardian angel as I sleep on my moose skin bed in the corner of my lonely log cabin on the Yukon.

Killed by an Anaconda. It crushed the life out of a Valuable Trick Pony, in Philadelphia.

A huge anaconda, on exhibition in Philadelphia severely injured Samuel Masher, the museum warden, and crushed to death a valuable trick pony on last Saturday. The pony was tied to a feed box alongside the anaconda's cage. Masher saw that the reptile had worked one of the boards of its cage loose and had stretched its tail out a short distance. He pushed the board back, but the anaconda would pull within cage again. Instead it wriggled out and wrapped itself several times about Masher. The latter screamed for help and the pony, frightened by the big reptile, began jumping about.

This probably saved Masher's life, for the reptile unwound itself from him and completely encircled the pony. Masher fell to the floor unconscious, while the big snake continued to crush the pony until life was extinct. When a number of the employees reached the scene, the snake had gotten ready for more flight. He was kept aloof until a lasso had been obtained and the anaconda finally made secure. Several of Masher's ribs were broken and he was removed to a hospital.

The Baldwin locomotive works, Philadelphia, have booked orders for fifty-six new locomotives. They go to Finland and Brazil and are to be shipped by January 1, 1898.

Irvin Shaw, Esq., of Houtzdale, recently appointed consul to Barranquilla, will leave New York harbor for his new post of duty on Saturday, Nov. 20th.

Greatest Sheep Farmer.

Australian Breeder Who Will Shear 1,250,000 Animals.

Samuel McCaughey, of Coonong, Rivonia, N. A. W., is the largest sheep farmer in the world, both as regards numbers, and what is more important, quality. He is the most progressive sheep farmer of the age, and has brought his stock to great perfection. He shears 1,250,000 sheep this season, and would have had more, but lost 250,000 in the drought two years ago, but thought nothing of it, as every year he has between 300,000 and 400,000 lambs. At Toorak and Danlop, his stations on the Darling river, he shears 600,000 sheep this year. He bought them from his uncle, Sir Samuel Wilson, and has developed them magnificently. There is literally "water, water, everywhere," what, with dams, tanks and artesian wells; and all is fenced in and subdivided into paddocks. The area is about 1,500,000 acres in all. He has also a fine property in Queensland, on which he is shearing 400,000 sheep. His Coonong station is only his stud farm. It is only 41,000 acres in extent, and he has upon it 15,000 of a very high quality, which he sends annually large drafts to improve the breed on his other properties.

Mr. McCaughey is able to boast, that he has a result of long continued efforts, that he has increased the yield of his own sheep yearly as an independent and present low range of prices, a pound of clean scoured merino coming is worth less than 18 pence, so that it follows that this enterprising man has increased his wool returns by the value of £100,000 per annum. These victories Mr. McCaughey are not merely "no loss" but "much more" than he has gained on the northwest frontier of India.

It was only 14 years ago that the owner of Coonong first became convinced of the value of the Vermont breed of merino sheep. It was in 1884 that he purchased about a dozen of this breed of rams, which had been imported into Sydney. So convinced was he that he had as it were, struck oil, that three years later he visited the finest man in that State, and the following year the flock was added to by a further importation of 300 more. From that time to the present almost every year has found Mr. McCaughey importing more of these wonderful creatures.—Led's Mercury.

Reverend Doctor Swallow, who polled a hundred and twenty thousand votes as an independent, and mainly Republican protest against the Republican machine in Pennsylvania, is out in an open letter to Governor Hastings and Senator Quay, which makes about the most peppery political reading the people of Pennsylvania have had a chance of enjoying for years. He is an independent and spares not neither the governor nor the senator. Dr. Swallow is even to extravagance of speech, and therefore we cannot say how much of truth or of exaggeration there is in his "open letter." Certainly it contains statements which neither the governor nor the senator can permit to pass by without some sort of response. Included in the indictment of the Republican machine in State affairs are the names of a score of Republican heeled, high and low, of the second and rear ranks, after Quay and Hastings. It will not do to pooh-pooh the doctor's letter as an independent and spares not neither the governor nor the senator. It will not do to pooh-pooh the doctor's letter as an independent and spares not neither the governor nor the senator. Dr. Swallow is even to extravagance of speech, and therefore we cannot say how much of truth or of exaggeration there is in his "open letter." Certainly it contains statements which neither the governor nor the senator can permit to pass by without some sort of response. Included in the indictment of the Republican machine in State affairs are the names of a score of Republican heeled, high and low, of the second and rear ranks, after Quay and Hastings.
