All Through Brushvalley.

Miss Lulu Erhard is on the sick list. Mr. Wolf, the tree agent of Sugar valley, is among our people this week.

The United Evangelicals gave a foreign mission entertainment on Sunday evening.

Mr. Binkly, of New Berlin, was a prominent figure in our valley during the past week.

Charles Bartges, the Rockville jeweler and fireman, left last week for Loganton, where he has charge of Bartges' jewelry store.

Lloyd Walker, who recently moved to Kreamerville, is assisting C. O. Malory to churn butter—and now is alles hendich eagaricht—not so Cal?

The Brushvalley teachers are bound to take full advantage of the teacher's institute this week at the county seat. No doubt but they will be full of Sam Jones' facts.

Andrew Ocker, one of our supervisors, is improving the road along the Centre Mills dam and creek by making a fence along the high and dangerous bank. If such wise work had been done years ago many accidents might have been prevented. Again the supervisor would do a wise work, by making a fence along the road just west of John Wolfe's iron bridge where there is a high wall on each side of the road.

Madisonburg.

Mrs. James Bierly was seriously ill last week, but has about recovered at this writing.

Mrs. W. E. Bierly, of Clear Springs, is visiting Mr. Bierly's parents.

Samuel Beber, who left here six years ago, and is now located in Afton Wis., is visiting his native town.

George Noll, while helping his father to butcher last Wednesday, met with a bad accident. While he was helping to remove a kettle full of boiling lard his grip broke and the lard was spilled over his feet, scalding them badly. We hope he may soon recover.

Measles are prevalent to an alarming degree.

Mrs. David H. Meek, of Altoona, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Lytle, and other relations here.

Mrs. Dannie accompanied by her daughter, Sadie, has returned home from a month's visit at Dr. McCormick's at Hublersburg.

Fred Bortoff, who has been so ill as to necessitate a sub in the person of J. A. Goss at the railroad station, is improving nicely.

Mrs. G. W. Keichline is recovering from her operation in the University hospital so satisfactorily that her husband expects to bring her home before Christmas.

The Odd Fellows will hold their annual banquet at the St. Elmo hotel on the evening of the 28th. The members, their wives, sisters and sweethearts are cordially invited to be present.

The Presbyterians will have a cantata on Christmas eve while the Lutherans will be satisfied with a treat as the Gatsburg Sunday school is preparing an elaborate entertainment.

Mr. John Musser has carried off the palm this season, as the champion pork raiser as his two porkers tipped the scales at 390 lbs. Mr. Musser is not farming but spends much of his time looking after the interests of the school board of which he is president.

The remains of Mrs. Margaret Hammer and William Sausserman were recently taken from the old and re-interred in the new cemetery. Mrs. Hammer's hair which at the time of her burial was almost white had grown to a dark, rich brown while Mr. Sausserman's was jet black and at the time of his death it was pure white.

Last Saturday after William Love, formerly of this place but now of Lovellville, returned from Tow Hill, where he had been looking after some delinquent taxes, he went to work at his carpenter bench but soon felt a peculiar sensation in his side and called to Mr. Fisher, who was near, for assistance. Mr. Fisher caught him and finding that his side was paralyzed sent immediately for Dr. Thompson. He is at home but improving very slowly.

DRY GOODS, MILLINERY AND CLOTHING.

A LETTER FROM SANTA CLAUS.

NORTH POLE, Dec. 1st, 1897.

Dear Mr. Katz:— Please inform all the little children, within 50 miles of Bellefonte, that I will make my headquarters this year at your store.

I will arrive there about two weeks before Christmas. I have nearly all my toys made for the good children, and those that I have not yet done I will finish in your store. Please have my workshop ready, so that I can go to work as soon as I come there, also have a letter box made so that the little children can write to me what they would like to have, and I will try to satisfy them.

Yours truly,
SANTA CLAUS.

A very HANDSOME DRESSED DOLL which opens its eyes and goes to sleep and a nice sled will be given to the little girl or boy who write the best letter to Santa Claus.

Our Store is given over now to the display of HOLIDAY GOODS.

We have the largest and best assortment we have ever shown, not only in toys and playthings for the children, but also in useful and desirable presentation gifts.
