Bellefonte, Pa., Dec. 24, 1897.

-H. C. Williams was appointed postmaster at Beech Creek on Saturday.

The Logan ball, next Friday night, should be patronized by everyone.

-Christmas evening go to the Methodist church and see the projectoscope. It will be a pleasant ending for the happyday.

-Philip McGinley, formerly of Bellefonte, but now located at Loraine, Ohio, was married to Miss Laura Caldwell, of Milesburg, at noon, on Wednesday. The ceremony was celebrated at the home of Mr. Charles Caldwell, the bride's father, and Rev. Geo. S. King, of the Methodist church, officiated. A wedding breakfast was served immediately after the ceremony and the bride and groom departed for Loraine, where a cosy home awaited them. Both are well-known young people in this place and have many friends who well wish them happiness.

-In our last issue we published a statement to the effect that the American ax and tool company contemplated concentrating its plants at a point in the Allegheny valley. Considerable excitement has been occasioned at Mill Hall, where the largest double-bit ax works in the trust are located. In fact the town is practically made up of ax-workers and everyone realizes that if the plant is moved it will be a serious blow to the town. While certain of the officials of the trust say it is not likely to be moved, yet the Iron Age, a most reputable trade journal, said, last week, that the Mill Hall factory would be one of the lot to be moved.

The Useful Holly.

If we believe Pliny, the Roman historian and naturalist, the holly is a potent tree, exclusive of its Christmas privileges. As far back as his time it was planted near dwelling houses to preserve them from lightning. The learned philosopher not only tells us this, but says that its flowers cause water to freeze, and that if a staff of its wood be thrown at any animal, even if it fall short of touching it, the animal will be so subdued by its influence as to return and lie down by it. As the American holly blooms in June it will be easy to try the effect on water.

Holly has also found a place in medicine, but it involves such heroic treatment that I fear the faculty will scarcely approve it. In many districts of England the country people advise you to thrash your chilblains with holly leaves and assure you that it is a perfect cure. It may be. There it has also been recommended in a decoction of the leaves for rheumatism and for intermittent fever. Lonicerus recommends it for a pain in the side commonly called "a winter, and branches are fed to cattle for fodder in France when other food is scarce.

The holly of Europe and the holly of the United States each will grow to be a tree of some 40 feet in height. The wood is even grained, white as ivory, except in the heart of old trunks, and takes an exquisite polish. It has been much used for "inlaying." Many articles said to be of ebony, such as the handles of teapots, etc., are holly stained.

Santa Claus.

Once upon a midnight dreary, as I pondered weak and weary over all the Christmas presents that a boyish fancy draws, while with sleep I tried to tussle, tried with all my might and muscle, suddenly I heard a rustle, like the noise of Santa Claus. Though with fright I fairly shuddered, for fright I had no cause—it was only Santa Claus. Then I listened more intently to the sound that crept up gently to my chamber, where my wonder almost caused my heart to pause, and I heard the candy spilling, as the stocking he was filling, and I wished I'd left a shilling there for dear old Santa Claus. And the noise I heard so plainly in the room adjoining pa's was only Santa Claus. Anxious now to get a peep, down the stairway did I creep, all impatient for a glance, although against the laws, and it filled my heart with dread, as with sudden fear he fled and jumped into mamma's bed-naughty, naughty Santa Claus! And the stories that we hear each year are as thin as summer gauze. Fraud stupendous-Santa Claus!

A Christmas Pie.

The following appeared in the Newcas-tle Chronicle of Jan. 6, 1770: "Monday last was brought from Howick to Berwick to be shipp'd for London for sir Hen. Sheep and deer will eat holly in hard Grey bart., a pie the contents whereof are as follows—viz, 2 bushles of flour, 20 lbs. of butter, 4 geese, 2 turkies, 2 rabbits, 4 wild ducks, 2 woodcocks, 6 snipes and 4 partridges; 2 neat's tongues, 2 curlews, 7 blackbirds and 6 pigeons. It is supposed a very great curiosity was made by Mrs. Dorothy Patterson, housekeeper at Howick. It was near 9 feet in circumference at bottom, weighs about 12 stones, will take two men to present it to table: it is neatly fitted with a case and four small wheels to facilitate its use to every guest that inclines to partake of its contents at table." Thus it is no wonder George Wither sung so merrily:

So now is come our joyfulest feast. Let every man be jolly. Each room with ivy leaves is drest And every post with holly.

Though some churls at our mirth repine,
Round your foreheads garlands twine,
Drown sorrow in a cup of wine, And let us all be merry

Christmas In Russia.

The Russian Christmas is ten days later than the English one, but is celebrated very much in English fashion. Families all meet upon that day and country house parties are many. The tree is a Christmas yew and is beautifully decorated. The gifts are placed on small tables near the tree. The churches are decorated with greens and so are the houses, but no mistletoe is used. Two or three days are public holidays at Christmas time, and the people greet each other with, "Happy feast to you." A huge pyramid of rice with raisins in it, which has been blessed at the housewife who would leave her Christchurch, is served at the Christmas dinner, and the meats are goose, duck and sucking pig. A great delicacy at a Russian Christ-mas dinner is veal which has been fed entirely upon milk for that special day.

Christmas Greens.

The fashion of decking the house with greens as we do at Christmas dates back into old Roman times, when a feast in honor of Saturn was celebrate and the temples of the dwellings were dressed with green boughs-possibly a remnant of that tree worship which, "in itself," says Ruskin, "I believe was always healthy," when "the flowers and trees are themselves beheld and beloved with a half worshiping delight, which is always noble and healthful."

The plants most in demand for church decoration at Christmas time in England as well as in this country are holly, bay and laurel. English holly is sometimes imported, but the American holly, which comes from Virginia and other sections of the south, is a very good substitute for it. The bay is the rarest plant of the three in this country, but ground laurel is commonly sold and is one of the most effective of the Christmas greens.

In decorating a room with Christmas greens it should be remembered that a very slight touch of color should be used with green and that the most objectionable of all things is too profuse decoration. Christmas greens are usually kept till after Twelfth Night, which occurs on Jan. 6, and they should certainly be cleared away by the 2d of February, or Candlemas day, or otherwise, as tradition says, a goblin will housewife who would leave her Christmas greens up for so many weeks, and goblins of discontent and uncleanliness would be sure to invade such a house.-Philadelphia Times

A CLOTHING SURPRISE IN THE HEART OF WINTER

BELLEFONTE, PA., Dec. 24th, '97.

Beginning to-day we will inaugurate a clothing sale of such "extraordinary offerings" as will eclipse any sale in the history of this community. It will be a harvest of exceptional value giving. It's a bold stroke for great business, figuring on a small margin of profit, relying on a tremendous response. Here is an opportunity to buy thoroughly reliable and stylish clothing for men and boys in the heart of winter, when they are needed most, and at "end of the season prices." We have included every garment of the "Vitals" brand make in this sale. Every item we print will bear the closest investigation. Those that come first naturally get the cream of selection.

Christmas Legends.

many nowers are believed to have sprung into existence the night on which the Christ child was born.

In France there is a pretty legend of the rose colored S-ain-foin. When the babe was lying in his manger, this plant was among the grass and herbs which composed his bed, but suddenly it opened its pretty blossom and formed a wreath for his head.

The black hellebore, or Christmas rose, is also called Christ's herb because "it flowereth about the birth of our Lord Jesus

In Sicily the children put pennyroyal in their cots on Christmas eve because it always flowers at the exact time of Christ's In the east the rose of Jericho is said to blossom at Christmas, close at Good Friday, or the crucifixion, and open again on er, or the resurrection morn. The peasantry in Spain believe that rose-mary brings happiness with its perfumes on Christmas eve because the Blessed Virgin hung the little frock of Jesus to dry upon the rosemary bushes.

The variegated thistle known as Our Lady's thistle was so called because of the Virgin's milk which dropped on it when nursing Jesus. Its healing qualities are

The snowdrop, or "fair" flower, of February blooms in memory of the time when the Virgin presented Jesus in the temple. The pretty little wayside flower known as "Lady's Bedstrand" was so called because Mary made the manger bed of it. The sycamore attains its great vitality and verdure because, the Mohammedans say, it is the tree of Joseph and Mary and sheltered them in their flight into Egpyt.

The Star of Bethlehem was so called because of its resemblance to the star which

The rose of Jericho is also called Mary's rose. It sprung up wherever the Blessed Virgin's feet touched the earth on her way to Egypt.

The juniper, which is sacred among the Celtic peoples, received its wonderful powers because when Herod's soldiers pursued the holy family the juniper opened her branches and covered them from sight. Another legend tells that the cross was made from juniper wood.

The pine, hazel, fig, date, palm and rosemary are all attributed with virtue as the shelters of the holy family.

when they passed through the forest, all the trees bowed in reverence; only the aspen remained erect and arrogant. So the Holy Child pronounced a curse, and "at the sound of his voice the aspen began to the combine through all her leaves and has not tremble through all her leaves and has not ceased to tremble to this day." There came not a breath of wind through the trees.

Then why did the aspens shiver? Another version is:

Once, as our Saviour walked with men below,
His path of mercy through a forest lay,
And mark how all the drooping branches show
What homage best a silent tree may pay.
Only the aspen stood erect and free,
Scorning to join the voiceless worship pure.
But see! He cast one look upon the tree.
Struck to the heart, she trembles evermore.

An old legend tells that by the fountain where Mary washed the swaddling clothes of the Holy Child beautiful flowers and bushes sprang up.

In Italy the lupine is said to be cursed by the Virgin because when she carried the Holy Bambino through a field they rustled so loudly she feared that robbers were following her to kill the Holy Child. Another version tells that they all withered and fell flat, and when she found out her mistake she blessed them, they grew erect and bore tenfold better produce than s and chickpeas rustled and crackled so loud that they brought Herod's soldiers near, and Mary cursed them. A Spanish legend tells that the holy family came to an orange tree guarded by an eagle. The Virgin begged an orange for the Holy Child. The eagle miraculously fell asleep and the Virgin plucked three oranges—one for Jesus, one for Joseph and one for herself. A Roumanian story is something the same, but of apples. The Christ Child is restless and will not sleep. The Virgin gives him her apple; then he throws his New Advertisements.

In accordance with the Act of Assembly regulating Triennial Assessments, and constituting a Board of Revision, the Commissioners of Centre county herewith publish the above Statement showing the Aggregate Statement and Assessments made by each Assessor in the county for 1898, upon properties taxable by law; and herewith give notice that the 7th and 8th of January, 1898, at the Commissioners' office in Bellefonte are fixed upon for determining whether any of said valuations of Assessors have been made above or below a just rate, as we further notice that the assessments as made and returned by the several Assessors will, from now until the days fixed for final adjustment, be open for the examination of all citizens. We invite information as to the value of property located in any of the districts, and hope all taxpayers will avail themselves of this opportunity to aid us in perfecting and adjusting the assessments.

Attest: N. E. Robb, Clerk. Commissionors' Office, Bellefonte, Pa., December 23rd 1897. M. F. RIDDLE, THOS. W. FISHER, Commissioners. DANIEL HECKMAN,
