

—Argument on the Centre Hall Water company injunction case was postponed last week, until the regular April term of the Supreme court's sitting in Philadelphia.

—Shem Spigelmyer intends retiring from the Racket store and locating at Jersey shore, where he was formerly associated with Mr. Gheen, in the wholesale tobacco business. It is rumored that it is a very tempting offer that has induced him to quit Bellefonte to go back to his old partner.

GREGG POST OFFICERS INSTALLED.—Very entertaining installation ceremonies were held in the Gregg post rooms, in the Harris block, on High street, last Saturday night, when the officers of the post for the ensuing year were inducted into office. After the formality of the ceremony had been gone through with a camp fire was lighted and a literary program begun. It included a solo by Miss Ella Twitmore, who sang the soldier's favorite, "The Vacant Chair"; addresses by Hon. A. O. Furst and W. C. Heinle Esq., and a graphophone entertainment through the courtesy of Mr. Geo. Bush.

The officers for the ensuing year are: Commander, Samuel B. Miller; senior vice commander, Thomas Donahy; junior vice commander, David Walters; quarter master, H. B. Pontius; officer of the day, John I. Curtin; chaplain, James Harris; adjutant, F. Peebles Green; surgeon, A. Johnstonbangh; quartermaster sergeant, Samuel Sheffer; trustees, Charles Eckenroth and Charles Taylor.

Pine Grove Mention.

The snow is gone and the fields are green as spring time.

Our mutual friend J. Wm. Kepler has, for some days, been housed up and under the doctors care on account of a bilious attack.

Our young friend John Sausserman is convalescing from a slight attack of typhoid fever. John G. Miller is also improving, but slowly.

Last Monday George F. Gardner started for the Smoky city where his brother, Harry, has secured him a lucrative position. But oh dear the girl he left behind.

L. W. Walker is whiling away the long winter evenings by himself these times and there is no place that an evening can be spent more pleasantly than with Levi.

Frank Koeh went to Pittsburg last week to catch the prosperity train and get aboard if possible. His wife and little one will await the result with Bellefonte friends.

The Democratic caucus to put in place the nomination of township officers will be held at Centre school house, January 22nd, at 1:30 p. m., a full turn out is requested.

Miss Lizzie Fry was up from Bellefonte this week saying good bye to her family before going to Philadelphia, where she expects to make her home for a time at least.

F. W. Thomas, Captain Kepler's right hand man on his farm, is rejoicing over the advent of a young son. W. H. Myers is also smiling on account of a little Billee Bryan at his home.

On March the 8th, C. J. Stam, on Dr. Hale's farm at Oak Hall, will sell his horses, cows, young cattle, hogs, sheep and a big assortment of farming implements, good as new. The sale is at 10 o'clock with Wm. Goheen as auctioneer.

The shooting match at Andy Lytle's was O. K. The turkeys went at one eighty and two dollars a piece. Four of them were brought to our town by Jas. A. Decker and Isaac Martz both crack shots. The next big day at Andy's will be when his pet bear is disposed of, which has a fondness for fresh pork or any thing else it gets its paws on. $40 is the price that has been placed on his scalp and any one who is a good shot can get him at that price.

A PLEASANT REUNION.—The Homan home on the White Hall road now owned and occupied by G. W. Homan, one of our prosperous farmers, was the scene of a happy reunion on last Saturday. Sixty relatives had been bidden and most of them were there to share the sumptuous dinner that consisted of all good things the market afforded. A thirty pound gobbler graced the table and the day was most pleasantly spent. It was an occasion long to be remembered and the best part of it everyone who was present, with a single exception, were true loyal Democrats.

went to her son, George who is suffering from consumption. Last summer he spent several months here for his health and his many friends are sorry to learn of the change for the worse. Wm. H. Smith accompanied his mother.

THE BOALSBURG FEAST.—The banquet held under the auspices of the Odd Fellows social club, of Boalsburg, at the cosy home of R. B. Harrison, on Main street, last Friday night, was a decided success. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison did their part well in taking people in and making them comfortable. They extended the right hand of fellowship to members and old acquaintances and the 16th anniversary of the Boalsburg lodge was greatly enjoyed as well as the chicken, oysters, ice cream and cake prepared by Mrs. Harrison. The village blacksmith Condo, whose white locks proclaim him to be the senior member of the lodge, was the centre of attraction during the after supper exercises. Helen Myers presided at the organ and made the balance of the evening enjoyable with vocal and instrumental music. R. B. Harrison was elected toast master but confined his remarks to making his guests welcome. Mamie Wibly recited a poem and so well that the entire audience were pleased. Midnight the guests took their departure wishing that the feast came semi-annually instead of annually.

Nitty Items.

Alex McCoy shipped a fine lot of cows from our valley this week.

A number of our teachers expect to attend the local institute to be held at Pleasant Gap, on Jan. 22nd.

Mr. Ruhl, of Centre Hall, has rented the hotel at this place and expects to move here by the first of April.

Amos Overdorf, one of our aged citizens, has been seriously ill but, by the skillful treatment of Dr. McCormick, is improving.

Ellis Askey, of Ridout, Ill., is visiting friends and old acquaintances of this valley. Mr. Askey has reached the advanced age of eighty-one years.

Mrs. W. E. Shafer is mourning the loss of her mother, Mrs. H. C. Allison, who died on Sunday, Jan. 9th. Her remains were laid to rest on Wednesday, at Cedar Hill cemetery. Rev. W. K. Diehl assisted in performing the last rites.

Our skillful blacksmith, N. C. Shafer, has been very busy in waiting upon his many customers and his work is giving general satisfaction. He has also added a new vocation to his list, that of accommodating horse jockeys, one more deal and we shall write his name as "Jockey Shafer."

Wednesday, Jan. 5th, was the loveliest eve for sleighing we ever witnessed and the opportunity was grasped by every person owning or hiring a conveyance, two sled loads visited Doc McCormick's, at Hubersburg. A jovial sleighing party, consisting of the Clintondale grammar school, chaperoned by R. Hoekman, teacher, visited the Hubersburg grammar school, last Friday, where both schools took an active part in literary exercises.

DRY GOODS, MILLINERY AND CLOTHING.

GREAT REDUCTION SALE NOW IN PROGRESS

Beginning on the 1st of January we have gone through our entire stock and have reduced the price on every article in the store, as we are desirous of closing out as much stock as possible before we replenish for the Spring season.

Particularly has this been the case with all classes of Woolen Goods, suitable for this season of the year, as we always like to start in the Spring with new and attractive merchandise.

CONVERTING DULL TIMES INTO

BUSY AND PROFITABLE MERCHANDIZE.

We are safe in saying that the prices we are selling goods at during this month, will be a revelation, and the opportunity will be eagerly taken advantage of by bargain seekers.

DRESS GOODS.

We have 15 patterns of silk and wool Novelty Dress Goods former price $1.25 a yard, now go at 80c. 8 patterns same kind former price $1.00 a yard, now go at 65c. 20 patterns formerly sold at 75c, now go at 50c.
