

munion Sunday morning. Pastor Eisenburg was assisted by Rev. Black of the Boalsburg charge, and Rev. Potts, of this place, while Pastor Christine called into services Rev. Laurie, of Bellefonte, and Rev. Potts. The services were interesting, and well attended by the people in general.

The borough Democratic caucus will meet Saturday evening to nominate candidates to fill the expired terms of the following officials: councilmen, Jerry Miller; M. L. The township Democrats will nominate Saturday afternoon at Centre Hill. The vacancies to fill are elective board, assessor, auditors, overseer poor. There will be somewhat of a contest for some of the nominations.

Pine Grove Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Garbrick Sundayed with Spring Mills friends.

Mrs. C. T. Aikens has been called to her home in Hanover by the serious illness of her father, Mr. Gitt who is in a very critical condition.

G. B. Campbell has purchased the G. W. F. Gray farm of 170 acres adjoining his own. This in connection with the other two farms, will give him plenty of outdoor exercise.

Word has been received from John Archev, who is at the University hospital in Philadelphia, where he endured a successful operation for appendicitis, that he expects to return home shortly.

S. M. Keller and J. C. Ward, members of the Jr. O. U. A. M. at this place, enjoyed a visit to Good Will council, at Tyrone, on the evening of the 13th. They report having had a joyous time.

We have often heard of people being snowed in but Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Brumgart, of Zion, who came up in the sleigh to attend the Homan reunion, were snowed out i. e. after waiting for two weeks for snow enough to get back home on they had to borrow a buggy to make the return trip.

Mr. Charles Lutz, an Illinois farmer who visited his Centre county friends last summer, has written his friends here that he will dispose of his stock and farm implements in the spring and after securing comfortable quarters for his family, will journey to the new gold fields in Alaska.

Hon. J. T. McCormick has in his possession an old relic in the shape of a school order, No. 63, drawn in favor of his father for repairs while director, 34 years ago. It is properly signed by Christopher Gates, president, and Wm. Burchfield, secretary, of the board and never was paid.

Prof. G. W. Weaver, of Clearfield, has purchased the W. E. Meek property on Main St. and not the Glenn sisters as reported. Thus the property is again in the Weaver name. Henry Weaver, the professor's grandfather, owned and lived in it the early part of the century. Miss Mary Hess and Mrs. Maria Goss will occupy it April 1st.

Dr. I. C. Ward, one of our Pine Grove boys who several years ago swung his shingle to the breeze in the Windy city, is arranging for a trip to the gold diggings in the Klondike. His party will be made up of a physician, a dentist, a carpenter and a miner, the latter having been through that country before and knows the requirements for the trip. They will take supplies to last two years and plenty of money. They are going in the interest of a New York syndicate and will start in March. Todd, for by that name he is better known, we trust will find it better pay than making grinders, and return with much of the precious yellow metal.

Last Saturday evening past commander J. M. Keller installed the officers-elect of Tussey council, No. 515, Jr., O. U. A. M. for the ensuing term:

Counselor, J. C. Ward; vice counselor, G. E. Harper; secretary, Wm. B. Ward; assistant recording secretary, E. E. Royer; financial secretary, J. L. Murphy; treasurer, J. A. Decker; conductor, J. A. Wright; warden, F. B. Krebs; M. S. Sentinel, J. M. Keller; O. S. Sentinel, C. H. Martz; chaplain, Wm. Bottorf; past commander, J. R. Smith; trustees, Keller, Harper and Krebs; Rep. to State council, J. M. Keller; alternate, J. C. Ward; Rep. to F. B. A., C. H. Martz.

The order is in a flourishing condition. The auditors show a snug sum of almost $300 in the treasurer's hands.

HAPPILY MARRIED.—On Thursday, Dec 23rd, 1897, Esther Grip Ewing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hezekiah Ewing, of Fairbrook, and W. C. McCollough, of Pittsburg, were married at the home of the bride's aunt Eliza Jane Archev, at Orbisonia. The marriage was the outcome of a romantic courtship but from all appearances will be a very happy affair. The ceremony was celebrated in the presence of a few friends, whose only lament was that the bride had bestowed her heart on a man whose habitation was in a far-off country while so many eligibles at home would gladly have had her genial presence. The groom is a comparative stranger in the community but on the occasion of his several visits he has made a most favorable impression by his agreeableness and refinement. He is said to be well to do and prosperous and after the wedding trip, which was spent at State College and Mill Hill, where Morrison Ewing, the bride's brother, entertained them royally, they will go to Pittsburg, where elegant quarters have been prepared for their occupancy. We wish them all happiness and prosperity.

Obituary.

Jacob C. Smith, a well known and highly esteemed resident of Howard township, Centre Co. Pa., departed this life, on Jan. 8th, 1898 at the age of 81 years.

An unusually large congregation assembled on the occasion of the funeral, Monday Jan. 10th, a large proportion being elderly people, old neighbors, and friends, between whom and the deceased there existed the warmest friendship and confidence. Those who had known him for years spoke tenderly of his worth and integrity.

Mr. Smith had been for about forty-five years, a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, having united herewith in 1853, when services were held in the "Pine Grove" school house, Howard with Rev. F. M. Mills, pastor.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Geo. E. King, of Milesburg, a former pastor assisted by Rev. Mr. Seachrist, and the present pastor. Mr. King spoke in appreciative terms of the deceased and in tender sympathy to the bereaved, of whom, besides Mrs. Smith, there were present their daughters, Mrs. Frank Confer, and Mrs. Hays Schenck, of Howard, and Mrs. Smeltzer, of Illinois, and their sons, Valentine and Mitchell, of Centre Co.

A Correction.

ED. WATCHMAN:—At the Republican caucus in Boggs township, on Saturday, the assertion was made that I, as overseer of the poor of said township, for the year 1896, had thrown all my poor orders into Wetzler & Sons store. I take this method to contradict the falsehood, and as proof beg to submit the following statement:

Orders to A. Newman - - - $126.21
" " Wetzler & Sons - - - 280.47
" " James Lucas - - - 210.79

I would also state that in settling the accounts of my predecessor in office, for the year 1895, I paid orders to Milesburg merchants amounting to $1436.09.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES KREBS, Overseer.

Announcement.

We are authorized to announce H. A. McKee, of Spring township, a candidate for the nomination for Frothington, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention.
