THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

Are you going to the minstrels to-night? They will be good. Basket ball at State College to-night, Bucknell and State will play in the armory. Michael Flavel, of Blanchard, has been granted a pension lately. He will get $6.00 a month. Dr. Colfelt's lecture on "Assyrian Discoveries," next Friday night, in the Presbyterian church, will be well worth hearing. Daniel Hess, of Linden Hall, was considerably bruised and sprained by falling down the stairs at his home, one day last week. Rev. R. P. Cobb, of Rahway, N. J., will preach in St. John's Episcopal church, in this place on Sunday, at both morning and evening services. R. H. Crosswaite, formerly a resident of Bellefonte, fell on an icy Altoona pavement, Tuesday morning, and broke both bones of his right forearm. Tom Beaver and Rufus Strohm, two Bellefonte boys very well known, will appear in the caste in "The Rivals," at Garman's, Monday night, Feb. 21st. Dr. J. M. Locke will move his office and residence into the Brew house, on North Spring street; Harry Brew and family already having moved down to live with D. Z. Kline. While helping to open up the road for the passage of his father's funeral cortege David Treaster, who lives a short distance west of the Old Fort, fell on the ice and was seriously hurt. May Taylor, a daughter of W. H. Taylor, of Bishop street, has accepted a position as book-keeper in Yeager & Sourbeck's cafe, in Brooklyn. Mr. Sourbeck is very much pleased with his new business and reports that it is running far beyond expectations. While attending the state association of public school directors' convention, at Harrisburg, yesterday, D. F. Fortney, of this place, addressed that body on the question: "Are school teachers selected with regard to their competency and efficiency?" Inasmuch as C. P. Hewes Esq., is closing up his law business in Centre county, preparatory to moving to Erie, Fortney & Walker have rented and will occupy the offices, in the Furst building, occupied for so many years by the firm of Spangler & Hewes. Dave Campbell was arrested near Hollidaysburg and brought to this place, on Wednesday evening, charged with having been implicated in the stealing of Jacob Woodring's cattle at Port Matilda. He waived a hearing and went to jail. If the officers keep on they will have more thieves corralled than there were cattle. The Ransom entertainers include such artists as Elmer P. Ransom, magician; Ellen S. Cornell, soprano; Dora Harman, mandolin soloist, and Fred Harman, whistler. They give a more varied program than any of the others in the People's course and will be sure to please. At Garman's, Monday evening, February 14th. The Daily News says "the little one died with pneumonia of the lungs." Judging from this we are to believe that pneumonia is not confined to the lungs, as is generally supposed, so you need not be surprised if the News next tells you of some one having pneumonia of the verni form appendix. Services at the Reformed church of Bellefonte in the morning, and at Zion, in the afternoon on Sunday. Rev. Dr. Eisenburg will conduct the services. Election for pastor will be had in connection with these services. Mr. Thomas Levan Bickle, of Reading, Pa., is the candidate submitted. The bachelors John Blanchard, John Shugert, Tom and Joe Mitchell and those two light (?) eaters, Harry Keller and Quigley, entertained themselves, last Saturday evening, with a drive down to the club and had a first class feed. The evening was perfect and some of the after dinner jokes good, if all they tell is true. On the 16th the appeal of James Cornely from the decision of the court of Centre county, refusing him a new trial, will be heard by the Superior court in session at Williamsport. If the appeal is refused he will go to the western penitentiary at once to begin his long term for being charged with having fired the Armory in this place. While coasting on Bishop street, last Friday night, Mac. Heine had his leg cut and sprained and his head cut. He was carried home unconscious. Harry Bell was steering a sled that ran into a telephone pole in front of Brown's and he had the life knocked out of him for a while. Lillie Smith was on the same sled and suffered a sprained ankle. The sociable last evening at Rev. Dr. Laurie's was a very pleasant affair. It is the beginning of a series the Presbyterians intend having for the benefit of their manse. Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes, with a chicken and waffle supper; Mrs. Charles Gilmore, a lawn fete at her cousin Will Humes' and so on 'til the much needed improvements are made.

THE END OF JANUARY COURT.—Up to the time we had gone to press last week the business of the second week of court had not been entirely disposed of and the case of Alice Garbrick vs J. B. Gentzel, to recover for a narrow strip of land lying between their farms below Bellefonte was still on trial. On Friday morning the jury brought in a verdict of 6cts. for the plaintiff. George Garbrick vs J. B. Gentzel, trespass, plea not guilty. Two cases settled. John F. Potter, administrator of etc., of George Mc Potter vs. the Union Central life insurance company of Cincinnati, Ohio. Continued. Calvin Davidson vs Harriet Stere, Priscilla Stere and Eli Stere, slander, plea not guilty. Three cases, one against each of the above named defendants. Settled. Milesburg building and loan association, now to the use of James Lincoln Miller vs William Miller, George W. F. Miller, Sarah Miller, Mary Butler, J. Lincoln Miller, John Miller and Curtin Miller, heirs of James S. Miller, deceased. No defence was made and a verdict was taken in favor of the plaintiff for $991.98. Harry M. Carlisle vs L. C. Bullock, trespass, plea not guilty. Settled. John P. Harris, use of Linnie Benner vs Frank P. Blair, surviving administrator of etc., of Wm. H. Blair, deceased. No defence was made and a verdict rendered in favor of the plaintiff for $600.25. Lehigh Valley coal company vs Anthony S. Mayes, summons in ejectment, plea not guilty. No defence was made and a verdict was rendered in favor of the plaintiff for the land described in the writ. Mark C. Treaster vs J. W. Mitterling, administrator of etc., of John Mitterling, deceased, summons in assumpsit, plea non-assumpsit. This action is brought to recover for taking care of and nursing John Mitterling, who was suffering from chronic bronchitis from the latter part of November, 1894, to March, 1895, for about eighteen weeks at $10 per week. The defendant alleges that the plaintiff and her family lived in decedent's house rent free, and had free use of fire wood, cows and chickens, for which she had contracted to attend to Mr. Mitterling. Verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $51.71. Court adjourned on Friday evening. COUNCIL IN SESSION.—Seven members were present at the meeting of council last Monday night and transacted the little business that came before them. The Millheim electric telephone company was granted permission to erect poles and maintain a line over the various streets and alleys of Bellefonte. Fire marshal Wise reported that the two engine companies have about eighteen hundred feet of second class hose on hand. And a request for a hose drying tower for the Undine engine house was referred to the Fire and Police committee. The Street committee reported the cleaning of Water street and the completion of the new side walk and curbing in front of the public building at a cost of $257.84. J. L. Montgomery appeared on behalf of the Atlantic refining company and asked council if there would be any objections raised to the re-building of the oil house that was burned a short time ago. He stated that a piece of ground has been purchased from the Thomas estate and that a $3,000 plant will be built. All the buildings will be brick and the tanks will be mounted out in the open air so as to reduce the danger of fire to a minimum. Council decided that since the company had already been granted a six year permit, which has not run out, there was no need for further action. Bills to the amount of $573.93 were approved and ordered paid. The treasurer's statement showed a balance due him, Feb. 7th, of 805.70. SOME CHANGES THAT WILL OCCUR IN THE SPRING.—From present indications the 1st of April, 1898, will see more business changes in Bellefonte than that season of moving has ever before presented here. Of course there are always hosts of family movings, but few business houses like to move and rarely do so except under what they consider very advantageous circumstances. After the 1st furniture dealer Frank Nagney will be found in the Linn room further south on Allegheny street than his present location in the Reynolds' bank building. Jacob Runkle's green grocery will leave its quarters in the Aiken's block and be transplanted in the Hale building on the corner of the Diamond, where W. T. Achenbach was located while here. A. S. Garman will leave the Garman house to his brothers Cornie and Bruce and he himself off to Tyrone to take charge of his new hotel there. Philip Beezer, the butcher, will quit the room in the Brockerhoff block and move around the corner to the Benner building. El. C. Rowe will close out his furniture business and rest for a year or so. THE HORSE WAS KILLED.—Edward J. Maloney, of this place, assistant Sup't of the Central Penna. telephone company, had an exciting experience while driving through Aronsburg and Millheim last Tuesday. He was looking after some work that his company is doing in that section and had hired a horse and sleigh from liveryman Spigelmyer. On the way home the horse ran away from him and, dumping him out in the snow, continued its wild flight to Millheim. When it reached the hotel Musser it ran mane. Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes, with a chicken and waffle supper; Mrs. Charles Gilmore, a lawn fete at her cousin Will Humes' and so on 'til the much needed improvements are made.

Guy Brothers minstrels at Garman's to-night. Up to last evening the Central railroad company had shipped 1200 tons of ice off the dams at Hecla park. Colonel James B. Coryell has given Williamsport the cold shoulder and gone to Philadelphia to practice law. A fractured bone was the result of a kick that a horse gave John McNaull on the arm, at Salona, last Friday morning. J. H. Bibby, once proprietor of the Spring Mills house, is to be the new proprietor of the Irvin house at Lock Haven. "The Thespians," a dramatic organization composed of students of the Pennsylvania State College, will present "The Rivals," at Garman's, on Monday night, Feb. 21st. A delightful evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Finnegan, corner of High and Thomas streets, Wednesday evening, by a large party of their friends and neighbors. The Ransom entertainers are the next attraction of the People's popular course. They come to Garman's, on Monday night, February 14th, and give a varied and pleasing program. A team of large horses broke through the ice on the river at Lock Haven, on Monday afternoon, and only by choking both animals were they brought to the surface and hauled out by the men. The Bucknell University basket ball team will play the State College team this evening. The game will take place in the armory and will be called at 7:30 sharp. The admission price will be 25cts. The members of Co. B, 5th Reg., N. G. P. will give their second annual military ball, in the armory, on Thursday evening, Feb. 17th. They have secured first class music and are making preparation to entertain their guests nicely. S. Miller McCormick, one of Lock Haven's best known attorneys, was married to Miss Phoebe Catharine Canfield, on last Tuesday, in Newark, N. J. The bride is a cousin of Joseph Holter, of this place, and is well known about Curtin and Bellefonte. Frederick Zettle, aged 73 years, 6 months and 8 days, died at his home in George's valley, after a long illness. Deceased was the father of twelve children, ten of whom survive him. Intment was made on Tuesday morning, Rev. Rearick, of the Lutheran church, having officiated. It had been seventeen years since George A. Walker, of Tyrone, visited this place so when he came down last week to spend Sunday with Hamilton Otto, of Penn street, he found a few changes at least. When a resident of Bellefonte Mr. Walker ran a green grocery on the corner where the Centre county bank now stands. Dr. J. T. Rothrock, forestry commissioner of Pennsylvania, will deliver an illustrated lecture, "Beautiful Pennsylvania," in the chapel of the Pennsylvania State College on the evening of Feb. 15th. The lecture is under the auspices of the State College scientific association, admission is free and all interested are cordially invited. It is reported that the Morrison & Cass paper company, of Tyrone, will move their big plant from that place to Cumberland, Md., but the report is said to be untrue. The Morrison & Cass company admit that they are contemplating the building of a mill at the latter place, but it will, in no wise, interfere with their Tyrone industry. One of the most delightful sleighing parties of the season was given last Friday night by Thomas K. Morris, who came over from Tyrone and took a number of his friends up to State College. The moonlight was perfect, the sleighing excellent and the time at the University Inn enjoyable and gay. After supper the party attended the basket ball game at the Armory and then Miss Brew's dancing class, which is one of the Friday night attractions at the Inn. The affair was given in honor of Miss Anna Stewart, of Pittsburg, who is visiting Miss Morris, of Tyrone. On Friday morning an explosion occurred at the residence of L. T. Runk, in Philipsburg, which sent the stove in pieces all over the room and tearing great chunks out of the ceiling and walls. Mrs. Runk was standing in front of the stove at the time stirring oatmeal. Almost miraculously she escaped with only a bone broken in one hand and a few bruises. The water had frozen in the pipes leading to the bath room, and prevented the steam from escaping from the water in the range. REV. CHARLES GARNER IN DISTRESS.—The people of Bellefonte will be sorry to hear of the distress that has overtaken Rev. Charles Garner, formerly of this place. It will be remembered that when he moved from Bellefonte he located in Tyrone, where he got along quite well. Later he was sent to Jersey Shore and has been there ever since. His church is very poor, however, so that he has had a very hard time to get even enough to eat. In telling of his distress the Spirit says: A four cent loaf of bread was all that he and his family of seven children had to sustain life for one day last week. The wife divided among his children, and ate nothing himself. The little ones could not sleep and about 2 o'clock at night their cries awoke him and when he inquired if they were cold they said "No they were hungry." He left the house and made his wants known. He received some money that night and since then the citizens have taken steps to see that the family is well provided for.

DEATH OF MORGAN M. LUCAS.—After a painful and protracted illness, Morgan M. Lucas, of Boggs township, died, on the 3rd day of February, 1898, aged 73 years, 7 months and 22 days. He had been married to Barbara Hawk, from which union sprang four sons and six daughters, all of whom grew up to manhood and womanhood, and all with their mother survive his demise. Mr. Lucas was the last survivor of a family of twelve stalwart and robust children, belonging to the ancestral settlers of Pennsylvania. He was faithful as a husband, provident as a father and householder, and peaceable as a citizen. In religion he was not as active as he might have been, but did not live without hope in Christ as his Saviour. His remains were interred at the Fairview cemetery on the 6th inst. in the presence of a large concourse of people, many of whom came from distant points to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of one esteemed by all who knew him. His immediate family, including the widow, with the eighteen grandchildren who mourn his death, share the sympathy and condolence of their neighbors and acquaintances. Religiously the occasion was solemnized by contemplation on I Cor. 3:10. "But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon." By Rev. J. Zeigler, assisted by Rev. Kelly. LIVED NEARLY A CENTURY.—Elias Fair, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frances Salsman, in Lock Haven, on Friday, would have been one hundred years old had he lived until the 9th of March. He was one of the oldest persons in this section of the State and during his life had served in three wars—the Florida, Mexican and civil. Mrs. Ira C. Showers, of Ashcroft, was operated on, at Philipsburg, a few days ago for a tumorous growth in the stomach. Her case had been left so long that she had become so weakened as not to be able to recover from the shock of the operation, and she died on Wednesday morning. Mrs. John Wiselather died at her home, in Sunbury, last week, at the age of 39 years. Deceased was a daughter of John Musser, of Gregg township, this county, and is survived by a husband with six small children. William Neese, a respected farmer and citizen of Penn township, died at his home, near Penn Hall, on Sunday. Deceased was 71 years old and single. Burial was made at Heckman's church yesterday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Flaack are mourning the death of Nelson, their two year old son. It occurred at their home, in this place, on Tuesday morning and internment was made yesterday. Measles caused the death. Jesse Solt, the four month old infant of James Solt, of Logan street, died on Monday morning and was buried on Wednesday. Pneumonia was the cause of death. Mrs. Sidney Douty died at Loganton, on Friday, after a six weeks illness with pneumonia. She was 22 years old and is survived by a husband and one child. Measles caused the death of 3 year old James Odenkirk at his parents' home, at the Old Fort, last Friday. Funeral services were held on Monday. THE BAD PREACHER HAS LEFT CENTRE HALL.—An unexpected end has been made of the great ministerial scandal that was promised this community and now all that remains of the foxy preacher Erdman and the young woman he tried to save (?) is a realization that their actions have placed a stigma on the clergy that will surely bear bad fruit and the knowledge that there must be a broken and sorrowing family somewhere, as the result of his illicit amours. The full story of preacher Erdman's wrong doing was published in last week's WATCHMAN and it was expected that the details would be brought out at the hearing that was set down for Tuesday, but on Saturday the preacher got the case settled by paying the costs and promising to leave the country at once. William Crust withdrew the charge against him and he boarded the 2:15 train for Centre Hall, where he was joined by Mrs. Erdman and their six little children and the family continued on to Mt. Carmel, her home, to which point their furniture was shipped after them. The preacher had been in Centre Hall about two years and bore a good reputation until he fell in with the girl with whom he was finally caught. His wife bore the esteem and sympathy of the whole community in which they lived. Erdman got off very easy. Vicks, the old reliable seed establishment of Rochester, N. Y., have sent out a most attractive catalogue illustrating and describing their wonderful assortment of plants and seeds. Next year will be their golden anniversary, and if you are at all interested in flowers or gardening it will pay you to consult their catalogue, which they will send you free, for they are beginning the celebration by offering many new and valuable varieties and all the old standard seeds and plants at most reasonable rates.

Minstrels to-night at Garman's. The venerable Perry Steele is seriously ill at his home near Axe Mann. The production of "the Rivals" by the State College students, at Garman's, Monday night, will be quite a society event. A large house is promised. The Asbury Park, N. J., Bulletin says: "Guy Bros." minstrels attracted a large and appreciative audience at the Park opera house last night. The show throughout was a very fine exhibition of minstrelsy, coupled with fine specialties. W. H. Guy made a big hit in negro specialties. At Garman's this evening. MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, G. W. Rumberger, during the past week. E. P. Lucas and Nora I. Spotts, both of Union township. James W. Campbell and N. Mable Orris, both of Milesburg. Rev. Charles W. Hipple, of Mt. Holly Springs, Pa., and Miss Maggie Murray, of Boggs township. A WOMAN ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—Mrs. Walter Hendershot, of Allport, Clearfield county, is only 19 years old, yet she must have thought she had lived long enough when she undertook to shoot herself. The attempted suicide occurred on the grounds of the Cottage hospital, in Philipsburg, where she had called to see her child that was there undergoing treatment. The woman being told that she could not see her child during "doctor's hours" started, with her husband, to return to their buggy, when she suddenly produced a revolver from the bosom of her dress and shot herself in the breast. She was walked back into the hospital and the bullet was taken out of her back. It had gone clear through her. Mrs. Hendershot gives no reason for her foolishness. News Purely Personal. Mary G. Meek, has gone to Dover, Del., for a month's visit. Mrs. A. T. Hall, of Unionville, spent Monday among the Bellefonte stores. Abe Markle, of State College, was among the visitors in town yesterday. Miss Annie L. Williams, editress of the Philipsburg Ledger, was a Bellefonte visitor, on Monday. M. O'Donoghue, formerly superintendent of the Valentine iron company, spent Sunday at the Bush house. Mrs. F. K. Lukenbach and baby daughter, of Philipsburg, arrived in town last evening to visit relatives for a few days. Wilbur F. Harris returned to his duties at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, after having been home since last Friday. I. O. Meek is up from Philadelphia visiting his country relations and looking after his hardware store at State College. Martin Hogan, of Union township, was a familiar figure on Bellefonte streets, on Wednesday. Martin is such a jolly little fellow that nearly everyone knows him and when he comes to town it keeps him busy getting around to call on all of his friends. Andrew Jackson Greist, of Fleming, came to town on Monday to tell his friends that he is getting too tired to walk from his home to his mill anymore and thinks he will invest in a horseless carriage. He has a horse, but says he'll sooner walk than hitch it up. On Friday Samuel Harper, Jr., and his cousin, Washington Gates, drove down from their homes at Gatesburg and enjoyed the fine sleighing immensely. Mr. Gates is a son of the famous old greenbacker, George Gates, whom nearly everyone in the county knows. Martin Viehdoerfer, the Pine Glenn lumberman, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday. Mr. Viehdoerfer lives in the very heart of the coal regions, but has never done much in that line, preferring to give his time to lumber operating for which he is splendidly equipped, both by experience and accoutrements. Ex-Judge and Mrs. A. O. Furst entertained a jolly house party the fore-part of the week in honor of their son Jack and his bride, nee Miss Houston, who were married recently in Williamsport. The guests were Miss Herman, of Carlisle, Miss Shantz and Katharine Lawson, of Williamsport, and W. S. Furst, of Philadelphia. F. A. Kneiss, of Tyrone, was in town between Tuesday, on Saturday, and spent the time looking after some business here. Though his hair and beard have grown white as snow Mr. Kneiss is still active and hearty enough to be the boss bridge carpenter of the Tyrone division, and a good one at that. Mrs. C. J. Stamm, of Oak Hall, spent Saturday in town doing some shopping and making arrangements for the sale of their farm stock, that will be made on the 8th of next month. Mrs. Stamm is one of those wide awake women who can look after the business end of the farm as well as attend to the domestic duties. George T. Bush left, Monday, to attend an executive meeting of the L. A. W. which is now in session in St. Louis, Mo. Deputy secretary of agriculture John Hamilton, who stands in well with the League, on account of his advocacy of good roads, is one of the speakers of the meeting. He went West Saturday evening. Mr. Nevin Meyer and his father, J. H. Meyer, of Boalsburg, were in Bellefonte, on Monday, together. They are both practical farmers and live about a mile west of Boalsburg, where they have a pleasant home and enjoy the fruits of judicious labor. It is pleasant to see father and son so heartily interested in one another; they are and much of the success of their place has been brought about by the perfect harmony with which they work together. H. J. Garbrick, of Zion, one of the most prosperous farmers in Nittau valley, and as good a Democrat as there is in the country, spent Saturday in town and favored us with a call. Mr. Garbrick is the fortunate owner of one of the prettiest farms in Walker township and that doesn't represent all of this world's goods that he has been able to accumulate by practical farm sense and energy. Mr. Garbrick has a family of children, most of whom are grown up, of which any parents might be proud. James R. Alexander, whose home high up along the side of Muncy mountain commands a fine view of Bellefonte, is one of the Centre county farmers who has seen some good and made some money out of other things than grain and cattle. For years he has given considerable time to the cultivation of a peach orchard, until now it is in a paying condition and, with his strawberry beds, adds very materially to the earnings of the farm. It is seldom that all of his crops fall the same year, so you see the wisdom in such diversity that gives him something to fall back on all the time.

MR. FOSTER'S PREDICTIONS FOR COMING WEATHER.—My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm waves to cross the continent from February 6th to 10th and 12th to 16th. The next disturbance will reach the Pacific coast about the 16th, cross the west of Rockies country by close of 17th, great central valleys 18th to 20th, eastern States 21st. A warm wave will cross the west of Rockies country about the 16th, great central valleys 18th, eastern States 20th. A cool wave will cross the west of Rockies country about the 19th, great central valleys 21st, eastern States 23rd. Temperature of the week ending February 16th will average about normal in the northern and above in the southern States. The rainfall of that week will be about normal in the northern and above in the southern States. A climax in the weather will occur in the southern States about the 14th to 18th, resulting in great disturbances. One feature of this great weather disturbance will be a hot wave with unusually hot temperatures. Before the apex of this hot wave the temperature will go up very rapidly, and following it the temperature will go down with no less rapidity. The cool wave following it is not expected to go very low. Short, heavy rains will occur during this disturbance and severe storms are probable. A similar climax in the weather will occur in the northern States from the 6th to 10th. A high temperature wave, a general thaw, followed by a great fall in temperature from the 7th to the 10th. During this great fall in temperature heavy rains and snows will fall in the northern States, particularly east of the Mississippi. "ASSYRIAN DISCOVERIES."—Dr. Colfelt will lecture in the Presbyterian church, in this place, on Friday evening, February 25th, for the benefit of the ladies' mite society of the church. His subject is one that will afford an opportunity for Dr. Colfelt to deliver a lecture that will be at once pleasing and instructive. The price has been fixed at 35cts. so that all can afford to avail themselves of the benefits that to be derived from hearing him. "The Rivals" at Garman's on Monday night, February 21st. Sale Register. The experience of those who have used the WATCHMAN Sale Bills and "Register" in the past has been so gratifying that we have no hesitancy in procuring them the best advertising medium in Centre county for Public Sales. This spring the WATCHMAN bills will be better and cheaper than ever. Don't think you can get them cheaper elsewhere, for you can't. You can get your bills done here just as cheap as anywhere, you can get better satisfaction, have your sale advertised better and be fitted out with the necessary sale supplies.
