

J. William Kepler is confined to bed with pneumonia. He has been very ill but is now improving and his friends here, where he was a daily visitor, hope his recovery will be rapid.

On last Friday Ross Grove, while chopping cord wood on the mountain, cut his foot across the instep almost severing the artery. When Dr. Woods reached him he was so faint from the loss of blood that it was feared his life could not be spared. The cut was a bad one and will lay him up for many weeks to come.

The sale at C. J. Stamm's, on the 8th, was one of the largest this end of the county has had for many a year. Bidding was fast and everything sold at fair prices. Sheep, brought $5.70 per head; yearling calves, $11; two years old, $19 and $20 per head; cows brought more than horses and the sale amounted to nearly $1,300 so you see it pays to advertise in the WATCHMAN.

Communion services will be held in the Presbyterian church next Sunday afternoon. Preparatory services will be held on Friday and Saturday evening and the annual congregational meeting on the afternoon of the 14th, at 2 o'clock. Business pertaining to the church is to be transacted, a treasurer for one year, a trustee for two years and one for three years elected.

It will take fifty persons to secure the special train to State College on the evening of the 17th, when Mrs. Clara C. Hoffman lectures there. She is one of the brightest women of the national W. C. T. U., and a champion of the cause we all have reason to be interested in. There should be no trouble in securing that many passengers for the lecture will be first-class and is free.

Ed Eckley is still in the land of the living and is visiting relatives at Port Matilda. He left home some time ago and before starting told some one that he was going to the Klondyke so when a young man was killed at Harmony, last week, answering in every detail to a description of him it was reported he had been killed. His grief-stricken father left for Tyrone at once and there found out where his son was.

The Woman's H. and F. missionary society, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Frantz, on the evening of the 8th, was a pleasant gathering of social, jolly folks fairly well attended. The refreshments were first-class, and notwithstanding the boys stole a freezer of cream, the proceeds were creditable. It is about time that our bad boys were taken into hand for when they will do anything so mean and contemptible as to steal from a missionary society then it is about time forbearance ceases. The law does not provide a whipping post but the law and community will stand by any one who will give such soundreels a good sound thrashing, and if that does not do send them to jail where they belong.

Centre Hall.

Samuel Durs will move on the Orlady farm at Earlston which is occupied by W. A. Boal at present. The latter gentleman, it is stated, will move to Tyrone with his family.

The United Evangelical congregation were given possession of their church again by the Evangelical Association. The members of the original Evangelical church are in the best of spirits after again owning their "first love."

Dr. A. D. Potts filled a general synod Lutheran pulpit at Lilly, Pa., on Sunday of last week, and it is intimated that he will receive a call for that congregation. Dr. Potts is an exceptionally able minister, and whatever congregation secures his services will be well served.

The borough council met Monday evening in regular session organization was effected by electing C. F. Deininger, president; B. D. Foreman, secretary. The remaining councilmen are Dr. John Ritter, W. F. Bradford, M. L. Emerick, C. W. Luse and John G. Dauberman.

The party who purchased the car of old horses has announced that he will be at Centre Hall on the 10th, 17th and 18th of this month and asks all persons having horses to sell to bring them to this place at that time. Now, gentlemen, you have been complaining for a number of years that horses are no sale. Here is a chance. Will you take it?

The teachers' local institute for district No. 2, held here Friday and Saturday was well attended and proved quite interesting to those who were able to be present at all its sessions. The principal speaker, Friday evening, was Dr. Colfelt, who talked for an hour and a half upon the topic of "The Man with an Open Eye." The Doctor through his lecture held before the audience the Prophet Balaam of whom it is several times recorded that he was a man with an open eye. The talk was not only interesting but instructive, and everything was presented in a practical way. The teachers took an active part in the discussion of the topics announced in this program, and in many instances they could be commented upon in a very complimentary manner.

Centre Hall will have a new post-office—new in all phases. Post-master B. D. Brishon on Tuesday commenced remodeling the interior of the building purchased by him some time ago and will have it fitted up in the best of style before April 1st. The room will be large and commodious, well lighted and ventilated, and in every respect will be a model. The post-master also purchased new post-office fixtures, from beginning to end. There will be a larger increase of lock boxes an up to date affair. The other part of the building will be arranged for A. J. Reesman to continue to do business in. The tin shop and post-office, however, will be entirely separated and entrance gained by separate doors from the outside.

C. C. Loose returned from Hughesville last Tuesday. He had been a delegate to the United Evangelical conference, which met at the above named place.

The smile which overspread the genial countenance of John Page last Friday, has not left it yet. The cause of it all is the arrival of a little girl at his home, who he says is going to stay.

Harter's school, H. A. Anman, teacher, will have an exhibition next Friday evening. All are invited. Admission five cents. The proceeds will be applied to purchasing decorations for the school room.
