Bellefonte, Pa., Mar. II. 1898.

Correspondents .- No communications pub

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-Smith, the Millheim photographer, is locating a gallery at State College.

---One thousand more Iowa quail were turned loose on the Hecla hunting preserve on Friday.

-C. U. Hoffer, of Philipsburg, is the latest Democrat in the field for the prothonotaryship.

-Philipsburg has fourteen licenses of various classes, while Bellefonte is content with only six.

-James Shirk, of Valentine's furnace, has gone to Punxsutawney where he has secured permanent employment.

-Sarah E. Confer, widow of the late John Confer, of this place, has been granted a pension of $8 per month.

barber shop. Cal. Green shaves for five cents and cuts hair for ten cents. -Montgomery & Co., have installed a novel system of displaying the clothing they have to sell and you would be interested in seeing it. --- "The Wizard of the Nile" will be sung in Lock Haven this evening and Fanny Rice is to appear in "the French Ball," at Philipsburg, soon. -Jacob Meese has been arrested for stealing brass from the Bush estate. Warrants are out for Charles Lucas and James Reed Jr., for being mixed up in the theft. Meese is in jail, but the other boys have skipped.

-It will be interesting reading for the tax-payers of Bellefonte to watch the forthcoming auditor's statement and see what a Democratic poor overseer has done. Mr. Trafford promises a good report and no doubt it will prove such.

-Mrs. Mary Snyder, of Snow Shoe Intersection, came home from the Johns Hopkins hospital, in Baltimore, on Saturday, almost entirely recovered from the effects of the operation for a tumor that she recently underwent. The operation was highly successful.

appointed a trustee of the Danville asylum, vice Wilson M. Gearhart, deceased. The appointment ought to prove very satisof the best business men of our town and a officiate. man whose integrity is beyond cavil.

-The chicken and waffle supper, under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Rankin, on Saturday night, was a success financially. They cleared about $52. The supper was held at the Hastings home, on north Allegheny, street and the proceeds are for the Presbyterian parsonage improvement fund.

---In mentioning the fact that deputy county treasurer Wm. Rover's family had been increased to the extent of a girl, in our last issue, we were not aware of the fact that commissioner's clerk N. E. Robb had been measuring grins with Billy because his wife had presented him with a fine boy baby on Monday of last week.

-It will doubtless be a surprise to most of our readers to know that the 60. 000 bu. grain tanks, just completed at the Phoenix Milling Co's. plant, in this place, are the only ones in Pennsylvania and that the improved oscillating process for manufacturing flour that has just been installed is the only one of its kind in the world.

-The Pennsylvania State College basket ball team easily defeated Cornell, on Friday night. There were about three hundred people in the Armory to see the game, the only redeeming feature of which was the skillful rapidity with which State was able to score. The Cornell team were beaten from the start. The final score was 27 to 6 in favor of State

-The Pennsylvania State College mandolin club will give a concert in the chapel at the College, on Tuesday evening, March 15th. On the evenings of the 17th and 18th they will play at Philipsburg and Clearfield. Mr. C. M. H. Atherton, pianist; Mr. D. E. Wentzel, barytone; and Mr. J. W. Gray, violinist, will assist the

---Miss Anna McBride, who was ult., was reported, yesterday, to be getting for years it is supposed that he was out along fairly well. Unfortunately for the visiting his ranches when killed. along fairly well. Unfortunately for the young lady her constitution was not as robust as is conducive to a speedy recovery from such an operation and in addition she has developed a slight bronchial trouble.

---Henry Kline, a snapper boy at the glass works, met with quite a painful accident while at work on Monday. He was carrying a roller of glass, when it suddenly collapsed and the fragments of sharp glass cut him fearfully on the back of the hand. Several blood vessels having been severed it was some time before the bleeding could be stopped.

-Old Dr. Fredericks is nothing if not original. Some time ago he distinguished himself by getting hypnotized in front of Cruse's cigar store and stood there for an entire day, in a state of total catalepsy, do- His wife, Nancy Glenn, a member of the ing duty as an Indian. Yesterday morning | Ferguson township family of that name, is the bright sunshine reflected a glass or so in his face and he went off again. This time he imagined Charles Saylor's old wheel-barrow to be a swell road cart and reclined Mrs. Lebkecher, and their other child, in it with all the indolent ease of a Sultan Neither did he move as Charles took him riding out Water street at a break-neck Intersection. Rev. Wright, of Milesburg,

J. HARVEY McCLURE SUDDENLY EXon the streets early in the evening, but at did not agree with him and soon after com- mains were brought back to his old home plained of feeling unwell. The family physician was called in and found him almost in a condition of collapse. He had year or more and had suffered with slight and Rev. Mumma preached the sermon. cramps for twenty-four hours before he indiscretion. When the physician arrived he was able to give him some relief and when the family went to see how he was resting, at 3 o'clock, he was dead. Heart failure had caused it.

Deceased was born in Clinton county, near Salona, Jan. 4th, 1820, making his age 78 years. Having learned the saddlers trade with the elder Clark, in Mill Hall, he located in this place in 1840. He opened his first shop in a room located where -Bellefonte has a five and ten cent moved across the street next door to the old Aull house, which stood where Joseph Bro's. store is located and thence to "old Strychnine," where his store was destroyed in the fire that first wiped out that famous corner. After the fire Mr. McClure located on Spring street, where he built himself the building now occupied by his son James

Four years after coming to Bellefonte he married Sarah Riddle, a native of county Down, Ireland. She died about six Charles, who is a ranchman near San Diego, Cal.

During his active life Mr. McClure was fact, early in the sixties he, with Wm. group of prominent men of the town. Always a radical Republican he never sought office except some municipal trust passed that. For more than fifty years he the bereaved family. -F. W. Crider, of this place, has been was a member of the church and died satisfied of his salvation.

Funeral services will be held at his late home, on Spring street, to-morrow mornfactory to the State, for Mr. Crider is one ing at 10 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Stephens will of Christ, as he joined the United Brethren day. She was in her 96th year. church in 1842.

> THE VENERABLE ABRAM HOUSER IS DEAD.—Abram Houser died at the home of his son, James Houser, on east Bishop street, this place, on Tuesday evening at to Philipsburg for burial. 7:30. He had been failing a long time with troubles consequent upon old age and his death was not unexpected.

His grandfather settled in Houserville, naming the town after his ancestors, in 1774, two years before the "Declaration of Independence" was signed. His wife preceded him to the grave six years ago.

He leaves to mourn his loss four children, eighteen grandchildren and thirteen greatgrandchildren. He also leaves two sisters and one brother. The names of his children are : Mrs. Lydia Hite, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Wm. Shreck, of Lemont; Mrs. Uriah Evey, of Shiloh, and James Houser, of Bellefonte.

Short prayer services will be held at the Houser home this morning and then the body will be taken to Houserville, where services will be held in the U. B. church at that place.

Utah. Mr. Hoy was a native of Centre contents were undisturbed. county, having been a son of Henry Hoy, an early day store keeper at Jacksonville. He was a cousin of Hezekiah Hoy, Mrs. John Rishel, Amos and John Garbrick, all of this county. Mr. Hoy went west early in the sixties, accompanied by his brothers Edward and James. He was one of the cattle kings of the north-west and owned great ranches in operated on for appendicitis on the 27th Utah. While he has lived in Lincoln The telegram from Vernal, Utah, dated March 3rd, states that one of the gang, named Bennett, had been captured and the others were surrounded in the mountains with little prospect of their escape. Mr. Hoy was about 60 years old.

A GOOD OLD MAN .-- Mr. William Robinson, an aged and respected resident of Snow Shoe Intersection, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Michael Lebkecher, on Tuesday evening, after a 'long illness, due to old age. For weeks and weeks he suffered terribly with dropsy and convulsions, his heart not being able to supply his brain with blood, but always was most eighty four years old and until recently they were a remarkable couple for their Mrs. Mary Nyhart was near enough to them to spend every day with them.

DIED IN BEAVERTOWN.—Last Saturday his luncheon he drank some cold milk that his death was received there. The rewhere the funeral took place, Tuesday forenoon, and was attended by a large conbeen threatened with heart trouble for a vices were held in the Lutheran church

Mr. Smull was a tailor by trade which called the physician, as the result of dietary calling he had followed in Rebersburg for cash and some letters were carried off. staunch Democrat, never at any time wafinally the patient fell into a sleep, but vering from, or doubting the justice of the Bro's store of cigars, shoes, etc. The last He was frequently elected to local offices and was postmaster at that place during both of Cleveland's administrations. As an official he was strictly honest and painstaking. His age was 75 years. His wife and wore long overcoats. They were preceded him to the spirit world twenty passed on the streets by several rail-road Temple Court now stands, from there he years ago. He leaves to mourn his loss one son Ira, of Valley Falls, Kans., and two daughters, Miss Ida, of Chicago, and residence Mr. Smull died.

Mrs. Mary Mallory occurred at her home formerly installed as pastor. in Altoona, on Friday morning, March 4th, after an illness of nearly a year with conand George Mallory, of Bellefonte. The remains were brought here on Monday recognized as a leader in Bellefonte. In morning, and burial was made from the home of Mrs. Charles Heverly, on Spring McClelland, Nicholas Hillibish, John T. street, that afternoon. Dr. Laurie, of the Johnston and others now gone, made up a Presbyterian church and Dr. Stephens, of the Methodist, officiated.

Mrs. Mallory will be remembered by many of the older residents of the town as with which his fellow citizens often honor- a most estimable woman and during her ed him. He was in council, over-seer of many years of residence here made friends the poor and tax collector. Though zealous whose sincere sorrow at her death is in in politics his zeal in Methodism far sur- sympathy with the pall that has fallen over

> -Joseph C. Streamer, a prominent young business man of Philipsburg, died at the home of his parents, at Cribbs, Westmoreland county, on Monday night. Mr. Streamer had not been in good health for some time, but his friends thought he was improving, when he left his clothing store and went to his parents' home on a visit. There he died. The remains were taken

Mrs. Alice J. Dare, mother of Mrs. N. K. Dare, formerly of this place, and Abraham Houser was born at Houserville, Mrs. Andrew Brockerhoff's grand mother, Feb. 8th, 1813. He was 85 years old and died at her home in Newville, Pa., on over fifty-six of these he has been a follower Tuesday, and interment was made yester-

> -Mrs. Edward Meese, aged 80 years, died at Coleville on Sunday. Interment was made in the Myer's cemetery, Buffalorun, on Wednesday morning. Rev. G. W. McIlnay, of Pleasant Gap officiated.

-Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Eskridge, of Philipsburg, are mourning the death of their infant son Roy, who died last Thursday with spinal meningitis, caused by teething.

-H. E. Herman, the eye specialist, will be at Galbraith's, Bush house block, on Tuesday, March 15th.

---While C. P. Loveland, of Lock Haven, was driving to this place recently has just reached Bellefonte of the killing of the road and when near Curtin's Works

> -At a Tyrone council meeting, on Monday night, the matter of a paid fire a citizen wrote a letter to the Herald disit would cost $1.745 per year to maintain one of the cheapest kind of companies and all volunteers, on $800 a year and very efficient service is had.

> -The new tunnel under the five tracks of the main line of the Pennsylvania railroad at the Tyrone station has been completed and is now in use. At the one entrance it is twenty-two steps deep and at the other one twenty. The tunnel does away with all danger to life by obviating the crossing of the west bound tracks by passengers getting on or off east bound trains. The tunnel was built by Gall Bros., of Lancaster, and is lighted by electricity.

-Constable Wm. J. Butler, of Howard, arrested Frank Devitori, an Italian patient and considerate. He was 89 years | fruit vender of this place, for cruelty to | send Rev. T. L. Tomkinson back to that old, a member of the Presbyterian church animals on last Friday. One day last week place. of this place, and a life long Democrat. the Italian started on horseback for Lock Haven. When he got a short distance below Howard, he tied the animal to a tree in the woods, and jumped a freight train. years. For some years they have made The animal remained there in the cold storm for over two days without any food or shelter. The man was arrested and after agreeing to pay about $15 costs and was buried on Thursday morning at the take better care of the animal he was released. He only paid $7.50 for the horse dent manager of the Last Chance gold minin the first place

AN ALL AROUND NIGHT FOR BURGLARS PIRES.—Though he had lived beyond man's the news of the death of John C. Smull AT JERSEY SHORE.—Burglars had a high ner, Morrow & Co. bank, of Hollidaysburg, allotted time the death of J. Harvey Mc- reached his old home in Rebersburg, this old time in Jersey Shore, on Monday night. Clure was a great surprise to this commu- county, from Beavertown, where he had Notwithstanding the bright moon-light and nity when it was announced at his home died. Mr. Smull was for many years one the constant passing to and fro of Beech yesterday morning. He had been in his of the most honored and most respected Creek rail-road trainmen they pried open usual health all day Wednesday and was citizens of Rebersburg and it was with the front doors of five business places in feelings of sincere sorrow that the news of that town and carried away money and

The first place they entered was deaf and dumb Charles Stabley's shoe shop. A shot from a revolver wouldn't waken him, course of relatives and friends. The ser- but they went to his bed and shook him until he got up, then took what small change he had and departed. The post- home. office was entered and a small amount of many years. He was always a true and Miller's barber shop was robbed of a stock of razors and barber's supplies and Sallada principles of the party. He possessed a place they visited was Griffith's restaurant, bright mind and a good memory and few where they were eating oysters when the were better informed in political matters. owner, who had heard them, opened fire with his revolver. They ran and are supposed to have left the place on a Beech Creek rail-road train.

The men were fairly well dressed, tall employees, but nothing was suspicioned.

DR. H. C. HOLLOWAY INSTALLED AS Mrs. Dr. Wolf, of Beavertown, at whose PASTOR OF THE LUTHERAN CHURCH .-Impressive and interesting services were held in the Bellefonte Lutheran church, on MRS. MARY MALLORY.-The death of Sunday, when Dr. H. C. Holloway was

The Lutherans of Bellefonte have been without a minister since the departure of sumption. Deceased was born in Belle- Rev. Hoshour for Hanover, but have held fonte, November 14th, 1828, and was the services in their chuch just whenever they widow of John Mallory who preceded her | could get a supply. Some time ago Dr. years ago, leaving three sons to care for to the grave a number of years ago. Six Holloway, of Harrisburg, was here to preach their venerable father. They are James children survive her. They are J. C., A. for them and the congregation were so I., and William M., of this place, and H. and H. B. Mallory, of Altoona; R. C. pleased with him that they decided to ex-Mallory, of Osceola; Mrs. Charles Heverly tend him an invitation to accept the charge permanently. It was done and after mature deliberation he decided to come.

> The installation services were held in the morning. Rev. Dr. J. R. Dimm, president of the seminary at Selinsgrove, delivered the charge. He took for his text the words from Acts 20:28.

Take heed therefore unto yourself and to all the flock over which the Holy Ghost has made you over seer, to feed the church of God, which he has purchased with his own

Rev. C. L. McConnell, of Mifflinburg, delivered the charge to the congregation, his text having been from Galatians 6:6. Let him that is taught in the word com-

The hour for evening service was taken up by a memorial to David A. Day, deceased Lutheran missionary to Africa.

DR. LAWRENCE M. COLFELT RECEIVED IN THE PRESBYTERIAN MINISTRY AGAIN. -By a vote of 74 to 22 the Presbytery of Philadelphia decided, on Monday, to receive Tuesday afternoon; there to take charge of a Rev. Lawrence M. Colfelt, who has held a gang of men for F. H. Clement & Co., the conchair in the faculty of The Pennsylvania tractors who are widening the old Portage tunnel State College for almost a year, as a candi- for the Pennsylvania company. date for the ministry.

Dr. Colfelt was examined as to his personal experience and his call to the ministry. For four hours his case was before the Presbytery, much of the time being taken up in discussing technicalities. Some of the members contended that, having once been ordained, he was always a minister and his name should be enrolled in for the purpose of having a family photograph as such, while others held that he must go taken. Mr. Garbrick is one of Spring township's through the same routine as any other can- has a fine home about a mile and a half below didate for the ministry, making ordination Pleasant Gap. He has a family, too, with which necessary.

The Presbytery adjourned that evening to reconvene next Monday, when it is supposed that a call from his old church at Broad and Oxford will be placed in Dr. Colfelt's hands.

UNITED EVANGELICAL APPOINTMENTS. -At the conference of the United Evan-

the following appointments were made: Presiding elder, A. Stapleton; Bellehe lost his purse containing $40. He got fonte, C. H. Goodling; Milesburg, G. W. KILLED BY OUTLAWS IN UTAH .- Word up early next morning and drove back over Heiney; Howard, J. R. Sechrist; Nittany, H. T. Searle; Rebersburg, W. H. stover; Valentine S. Hoy, a wealthy stock-man of found it lying in the road. Several Centre Hall, W. W. Rhoads; Spring Mills, Liucoln, Nebraska, near Brown's Park, wheels had evidently passed over it but the W. M. Brown; Millheim, J. J. Lohr; Sugar Valley, G. F. Garret.

> --- The Presbyterian organ recital that is scheduled for Thursday evening, April department was talked of. The next day 10th, promises to be more pretentious than was intended when it was first proposed. couraging the idea because, as he showed, Mrs. Hayes, the organist, has secured Miss Winifred Newbaker, of Philadelphia, who is just home from home several year's study now they have three engine companies, a abroad and is reputed to be very fine to hook and ladder truck and a fire patrol, play. In addition, several other eminent musicians will be on the program for that his house. It is quite probable, in fact almost a

--- The new United Evangelical church, just completed at Linden Hall, will be dedicated on Sunday, March 20th. Among those who are expected to participate in the services are Bishop Stamford, of Harrisburg ; Dr. A. E. Gobble, of New Berlin ; Rev. C. H. Goodling, of Bellefonte; J. J. Lohr, of Millheim; and their pastor, W. W. Rhoades, of Centre Hall. The new church is a neat frame structure.

-At a Methodist congregational meeting, in Philipsburg, on Sunday, it was

I. N. GORDON WILL LOCATE IN JU-"Newt" in his old home here, left Pittsburg, last week, for Juneau, Alaska. For years he had been connected with the Fairnew Eldorado, where he will become resiing company.

are to get 4 per cent on the dollar.

Benjamin Gentzel, of Spring townbuy a car load of draft horses.

-The Philipsburg Ledger reports that Hon. J. N. Casanova, of that place, is to enter the congressional race in this district.

-Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gephart expect to move to Loganton, Clinton county, ere long. They will make that place their

-Those wanting their eyes examined or glasses fitted, will find Mr. H. E. Herman, the specialist, at Frank Galbraith's, on Tuesday, March 15th.

----Mr. H. E. Herman, specialist in the examination of eyes and fitting glasses, will be at Galbraith's jewelry store, Bush house block, on Tuesday, March 15th. --- The News says T. H. Harter, editor of the Gazette, and judge John G. Love transacted business in Washington this week. It wouldn't take a very long head to surmise what they were after -Millheim's town council organized for the new year, on Monday night, by electing F. O. Hosterman, president; H. E. Duck, clerk and A. Walter, treasurer. They made high constable, W. N. Auman, street commissioner, and appointed the various committees.

News Purely Personal.

-Miss Mary Copelin, of Tyrone, is the guest of Miss Emma Crider, of east Bishop street -Hon. James North, gay and lively as ever, came ver from Mifflin yesterday for a short visit to his laughter, Mrs. F. W. Crider.

-Mr. and Mrs. George Marshall are entertainng their niece, Miss Jennie Klinger, of Lemont, at their home on west High street.

-Miss Blanche Long, a daughter of Wm. Long, of Reynolds avenue, has gone to Altoona cept a clerkship in a store in that city.

-Hard P. Harris and Clement Dale, Esq., are Bellefonters who have been enjoying the fine weather in Philadelphia this week. -John Schrom, after spending a few days at his home in this place, left for New York, on Wednesday, there to enter the service of the U. navy. He will ship on the monitor Terror. John is a graduate of the school ship Saratoga. -Sam Harpster, that hustling young Demo ratic farmer from up at Gatesburg, was piloting his friend, Scott Bressler, around town, on Saturday. The two young men are both good fellows and met lots of people in town who were glad to

-A. A. Pletcher, of Nittany, was in town, on Saturday afternoon, informing his friends of his intention to enter the race for the prothonotaryship. Al is a good Democrat and would make a competent official if he should be lucky enough to get the plum. -Michael Conley Esq., track foreman of the

-Joe Barton, of Unionville, was in town on Monday and says he is not going back to Grampian Hills to run that store again, because the tore is not there now. When Joe came down ere to attend the January court the man who was left in charge neglected to look after the stove pipe and it fell down, burning the store

-Mr. J. J Garbrick, Mrs. Garbrick, Charley, John, Esther and Harry, in fact the whole family were in town last Friday afternoon, having come any father might be proud to have himself

-Christopher McKinley, supposed to be fortyecond cousin of the President and one of the really noted characters of Bellefonte, started for Salt Lake City, Utah, on Saturday afternoon, with a railroad ticket, $2.50 in cash and a bundle of lunch large enough to supply a Klondyke expedition. Christopher has a niece in Salt Lake who wanted him to go out there to work in a boiler works, so she sent him a ticket and he started. gelical church, at Hughesville, last week, If the job is satisfactory he is to send for his family later. -G. W. Forrey dropped into town from Clyde, Ohio, on Monday morning, and while he was as silent as the grave as to what brought him here those who recognized him began to talk railroad at once. It will be remembered that Mr. Forrey was one of the engineers on the Central R. R. of Pa. survey and also helped run the proposed line of the Bellefonte and Clearfield road. He is a nephew of Samuel Brugger, the well known civil engineer of Unionville, and left that place for Ohio a year or more ago. It might not appear so to others, but Mr. Forrey's return appears to us significant. -Mr. J. I. DeLong, one of our oldest subscribers, not in years of life but in the length of time he has taken the WATCHMAN, was a Bellefonte visitor on Monday. Mr. DeLong is one of Liberty township's best known men and has been identified with the Eagleville hotel so long that few people who have ever traveled that way have not known him and been hospitably entertained in certainty, that he will move out of that town in the spring, for he is now building a tenant house on his fine farm that lies along the rich bottom land between the Pennsylvania station and Eagleville, with the view of moving onto the farm, there to spend the rest of his days managing it It is certainly a fine property and stretches along the banks of the Bald Eagle for a distance of a mile and a quarter. The management of such a place ought to afford him ample occupation and a

-Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fortney, of Boalsburg were Bellefonte visitors on Wednesday and their arrival in town in the "big wagon" brings to our notice the havoc the rail-roads through Buffalo Run, Nittany and Penn-valleys have played with trade in Bellefonte and travel hither by wagon or buggy. Neither Mr. Fortney nor the writer could unanimously voted to ask conference to be classed as old people, yet it was fresh within the memory of both that at one time "all roads led" to Bellefonte and during the winter season the town was jammed, day after day, with sleds bringing in grain and hauling away coal and pro visions. The rail-roads have made a coal yard, NEAU.-I. N. Gordon, better known as grain elevator and good store possible at nearly every small town in these valleys so that Belle fonte is no longer the Mecca of the country peo ple and they come to see us only when they need something that they can't get at home. Mr. and bank's scale company, of Pittsburg, but Mrs. Fortney are very pleasant people and enresigned to locate in the gateway of the joyed their trip immensely. He came down to to his house and she came along "for company,"

MERRY WEDDING BELLS .- The home of James Carson and family, about 11 miles east of Bellefonte, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Thursday, March 3rd, at high noon, when Miss Carrie V., fourth daughter ship, has gone to La Salle county, Ill., to of Mr. Carson was united in bonds of holy wedlock to Mr. John Spearly, of near Curtin's Works.

To the soft strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Anna Kline, the happy couple to be made one. marched into the parlor, attended by Mr. Clark Carson, brother of the bride, and Miss Bertha Armstrong, cousin of the bride. Rev. G. W. McIlnay, pastor of the Pleasant Gap circuit, spoke the words which with the proper responses made this couple one for life.

The bride is well-known to the writer. and is a model young lady. The groom is an industrious young man of good habits. They start out in life with bright prospects of a happy voyage. Such may it be, is our

The following guests were present: Anna Kline, James Armstrong and family, Mrs. E. G. Bouse, Mr. and Mrs. Keister, Mr. and Mrs. Pletcher, Mr. and Mrs. John Korman, Mrs. Harry Lyons, James Fleming and daughter, Ida Carson, Clara Spearley, Mr. and Mrs. Will Conley and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Will Larimer, Mrs. R. G. Larimer, Mr. F. Garber and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. Wian, Mr. and Mrs. S. White, Miss Grace Blackford.

The presents were many and were of such a character as to be both useful and ornamental. May many anniversaries of this happy event be celebrated by this

AN EVENING WEDDING.-Mr. Charles Eckenroth was married, on Tuesday evening, to Mrs. Elizabeth Kerlin, of Roopsburg. The ceremony was performed at the residence of Dr. H. C. Holloway, pastor of the Lutheran church, and was witnessed only by Mr. and Mrs. Osmer, intimate friends of the couple.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Eckenroth went at once to their home, on Howard street, where a brilliant reception was tendered them by Gregg post, of which the groom is an honored member. The members marched to the house in a body and made it right royal for the new bride and groom. The Undine band tendered them a serenade during the evening.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphans court clerk G. W. Rumberger during the past week:

Daniel M. Stover, of Woodward, and Rebecca R. Guisewite, of Aaronsburg. Harry E. Smith and Katie Rossman, both of Woodward.

Robert M. Keith and Esther Bradley, both of Spring township.

Charles Eckenroth, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. E. E. Kerlin, of Benner township. Charles W. Rote, of Bellefonte, and Ivy May Shearer, of Spring Twp.

Frank Humphrey, of Philipsburg, and Inez Hutchinson, of Rush Twp. James M. Hazel, of Spring Twp., and Nellie Spotts, of Bellefonte.

---Two young fellows struck Millheim last week and advertised to give an entertainment in the town hall. During the day they made pin money by selling the Millheim folk "fresh Florida peas," that were nothing more than old peas that they had soaked in a tub of water up at the hotel before going out to sell them.

---Robert McCalmont, manager at the lime kilns of McCalmont & Co., who has been sick ever since the death of Col. Shortlidge, was reported much better yesterday. He has been suffering with neuralgia. Three of the men were ill at one time: Robert, Roy and Mr. Woomer.

HIS HENS WERE MANUFACTURING EGGS FAST .- During the month of February, twenty-eight buff leghorn hens, the property of G. W. Musser, at Warriorsmark, laid 400 eggs. Mr. Musser will be remembered as a former resident of this

-Peter Haines, of Snow Shoe, has been granted a pension of $6 per month. Sale Register.

MARCH 15TH—At the residence of P. W. McDowell, at Mackeyville, horses, cows, young cattle, sheep, hogs and implements. All of the finest. C. W. Rote, auctioneer. Sale at 10 o'clock a. m. March 16TH.—At the residence of H. Ewing, at Fairbrook, in Ferguson township, horses, cows, cattle, implements and household goods. Sale at 10 o'clock, a. m. Wm. Goheen, auctioneer. March 19TH.—At Unionville, Contractions of the contraction of MARCH 19TH.—At Unionville, Centre county, Pa., a saw mill, portable 30 H. P. engine, chestnut and pine shingles, lumber, etc. Sale at 1 o'clock.

MARCH 197H.—At the residence of J. F. Garner, ½ mile north of State College, horses, cows, young cattle, implements, household goods. Sale at 10 o'clock a. m., Wm. Golbeen, auctioneer. March 21st—At the residence of John H. Strouse, on the John T. Fowler farm, in Taylor township, 13 horses, cows, young cattle, sheep, hogs and farming implements. Sale at 10 o'clock, a. m. Wm. Goheen auctioneer.

horses, 5 cows, 11 head of young cattle, 21 head of fine sheep, 50 head of Poland China hogs and brood sows, farm implements, etc., on the premises one mile north of Fillmore. Sale begins at 9 a. m. Wm. Goheen, Auct. Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by the Phænix Milling Co. The following are the quotations up to six clock. Thursday evening, when our paper goes

		TOTAL	-
ess:
ed Wheat, old				c
i i ii	••••	•••••		å
ed wheat, new
ve, per bushel				š
ab alled non bushel	•	•••••
rn, shelled, per bushel				ē
rn, ears, per bushel				å
ats, per bushel, old				5
ats, per bushel, new				:
rley, per bushel				š
Diagton non ton	••••		•	٥
ound Plaster, per ton			8	3
ickwheat, per bushel				š
overseed, per bushel$6	0	0 +0	47	ē
overseed, per businen	, 0	0 10	4.	ā

Bellefonte Produce Markets. Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.