

Centre Hall.

Miss Roxana Brislin, on Monday, returned from Atlantic City and Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Morgan, of State College, spent Sunday with the latter's sister, Mrs. S. W. Smith, in this place.

A number of citizens, men, women and children, went to Bellefonte on Wednesday to see Company B draped for Mt. Gretna, and declare that the privates looked brave and true.

E. M. Hewett is gathering his material for his saw mill, which will do business in the Seven mountains. Mr. Hewett has purchased a number of large, fine tracts of timber in the mountains mentioned and will operate on a large scale.

Druggist J. D. Murray removed the wooden awning in front of his popular drug store, which gives his store rooms more light.

The national colors are flying over the diamond, and places of business are decorated with bunting.

War news is bulletined in Centre Hall as soon as it reaches other and larger towns.
