RULES OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY OF CENTRE COUNTY. 1. The Democratic County Convention of Centre county shall be composed of one delegate for every fifty Democratic votes polled at the presidential or gubernatorial election next preceding the convention. The allotment of delegates to the several election districts in the county shall be made by the standing committee of the county at its first meeting in every alternate year succeeding the presidential or gubernatorial elections and shall be in proportion to the Democratic votes east in each district at such election.

2. The election for delegates to represent the cast in each district at such election.

2. The election for delegates to represent the different districts in the annual Democratic county convention shall be held at the usual place of holding the general election for each district on the Saturday preceding the second Tuesday of June in each and every year, beginning at three o'clock p. m. The delegates so elected shall meet in County Convention in the court house, at Bellefonte, on the Tuesday following at twelve o'clock p. m.

welve o'clock p. m.

3. The said delegate election shall be held by an election board, to consist of the member of county committee for each district and two other Democratic voters thereof who shall be appointed or designated by the county committee. In case any of the persons so constituting the board shall be absent from the place of holding the election for a quarter of an hour after the time appointed by Rule Second for the opening of the same, his or their place or places shall be filled by an election, to be conducted viva voca, by the Democratic voters present at that time.

4. Every qualified voter of the district, who at the late general election voted the Democratic ticket, shall be entitled to a vote at the delegate election; any qualified elector of the district who will piedge his word of honor to support the Democratic ticket at the next general election shall be permitted to vote at the delegate elections.

5. The voting at all delegate elections shall be by ballot; upon which ballotts shall be written or printed the name or names of the delegates voted for together with any instructions which the voter may desire to give the delegates. Each ballot shall be received from the person voting the same by a member of the election board, and by him deposited in a box or other receptacle provided for that purpose, to which no persons but members of the board shall have access.

6. No instructions shall be received or recess.

bers of the board shall have access.

6. No instructions shall be received or recognized unless the same be voted upon the ballot as provided in Rule Fourth, nor shall such instructions if voted upon the ballot be binding upon the delegates unless one-half or more of the ballots shall contain instructions concerning any office, the delegates elected at such election shall be held to be instructed to support the candidates having the highest number of votes for such office.

7. Each election board shall keep an accurate list of names of all persons voting at such elections, when the list of voters together with a full and complete return of such election, containing an accurate statement of the persons elected delegates and all instruction voted, shall be certified by said board to the county convention upon printed blanks to be furnished by the county convention.

printed blanks to be furnished by the county convention.

8. Whenever from any district qualified Democratic voters, in numbers equal to five times the delegates which such district has in the county convention, shall complain in writing of an undue election, of false returns of delegates or of instruction, in which complaint the alleged facts shall be specifically set forth and verified by the affidavit of one or more persons, such complaints shall have the right to contest the seat of such delegates or the validity of such instructions. Such complaint shall be heard by a committee of five delegates to be appointed by the president of the convention; which said committee shall proceed to hear the parties, their proofs and allegations, and as soon as may be report to the convention what delegates are entitled to seats therein, and what instructions are binding upon such delegates. Whereupon the convention shall proceed immediately on the call of the yeas and nays to adopt or reject the report of the contesting parties; in which call of the yeas and nays the names of the delegates whose seats are contested or whose instructions are disputed shall be omitted.

All delegates must reside in the district they represent. In case of absence or inability to attend substitutes may be made from citizens of the district.

10. Delegates must obey the instructions given them by their respective districts and if violated, it shall be the duty of the president of the convention to cast the vote of such delegate or delegates in accordance with the instructions, and the delegate or delegates so offending shall be forth-with expelled from the convention, and shall not be eligible to any office or place of trust in the party for a period of two years.

11. In the convention a majority of all voters shall be necessary to a nomination, and no person's name shall be excluded from the list of candidates until after the third ballot or vote when the person receiving the least number of votes, shall be omitted and struck from the roll, and so on at each successive vote until a nomination be made.

12. If any person who is candidate for any nomination before a county convention shall be proven to have offered or paid any money or other valuable thing or made any promises of a consideration or reward to any delegate for his vote, or to any person with a view of inducing or securing the votes of delegates, or if the same shall be done by any other person with the knowledge and consent of such candidate, the name of such candidate shall be immediately stricken from the list of candidates; or if such facts be ascertained after his nomination, he shall be struck from the ticket and the vacancy supplied by a new nomination, and in either case such person shall be ineligible to any nomination by the convention or to an election as a delegate the reafter. And in case it shall be alleged after the adjournment of the convention that any candidate put in nomination has been guilty of such acts or of any other fraudulent practice to obtain such nomination, the charges shall be investigated by the county committee, and such steps taken as the good of the party may require.

13. If any delegate shall receive any money or as the good of the party may require.

13. If any delegate shall receive any money or other valuable thing, or accept the promise of any consideration or reward to be paid, delivered or secured to him or to any person for such candidate as an inducement for his vote, upon proof of the fact to the satisfaction of the convention such delegate will be forth-with expelled, and shall not be received as a delegate to any further convention, and shall be ineligible to any party nomination.

14. Cases arising under the Eighth, Twelfth and Thirteenth Rules shall have precedence over all other business in convention until determined.

15. That the term of the chairman of the county committee shall begin on the first day of January of each and every year. 16. That the delegates from the several boroughs and townships be authorized, in conjunction with the chairman of the county committee, to appoint the members of the committee for the various boroughs and townships. J. K. Johnston, Secretary.
