

Pine Grove Mention.

A new telephone line will soon reach our town.

Our supervisors are talking of purchasing another crusher.

Farmer D. Meek lost one of his best cows, recently, with paralysis.

Miss Mand Musser of Altoona is the welcome guest of her grandmother Krebs on Main street.

G. W. Keichline, who has been confined to his room for many weeks, is able to be about with the aid of crutches.

Rev. W. C. Dunlap, his wife and a little Hoosier are visiting Centre county friends, and enjoying the pure, fresh air of old Tussey mountain.

James G. Tyson has bought a two hundred acre farm down in Howard township where, after next spring, he will turn his attention to farming and raising blooded stock.

Dr. Todd Ward, who is on his way to the Klondike, in writing home says I have lost 32 pounds of flesh but still have an abundant crop of red whiskers and pluck and courage. He expects to reach his destination about July 1st as he has yet 300 miles to traverse.

Harry Shuey, who disappeared so suddenly the latter part of March, has returned from Chicago, where he was employed in a R. R. shop. His parents were almost frantic about him until they found out, only recently, where he was and his arrival home has given them much satisfaction. The shops in which he was working and earning fair wages were destroyed by fire, hence his arrival home.

Last Monday was auditor's day and all orders were accounted for and a snug balance remains in the hands of the treasurers Dr. Houser and J. G. Fortney, both efficient members who zealously looked after their work, were succeeded by Jos. H. Hoy and George Keichline. The new school board was organized by electing John Musser, president; C. B. Hess, secretary and Jacob Harper, treasurer. The need of a new school building at Pine Hall is being agitated by the citizens of that district and the board will consider the matter until the 17th, when a meeting will be held to decide the question.

ANOTHER OLD SOLDIER GONE.—On last Sunday morning at 5 o'clock, John G. Rider, one of the best known men of this part of the county, died at the home of his son, D. F. Rider, after a long and lingering illness. For many years he suffered with heart disease and had spent several seasons in southern California and Florida, in hopes that a change of climate would be beneficial. With the exceptions of the years he was in the war he lived and died within sight of his birthplace in Gatesburg. He enlisted Sep. 1st, 1861 in Capt. Henry Stevens' Co. E. 45 P. V. with Col. Thomas Welsh commanding the regiment. Oct. 21st the regiment was ordered to join G. Howard's brigade at Bladenburg, where comrade Rider was reported sick and sent back to Harrisburg where he lay through a long siege of fever and was finally discharged. He was a member of the Lutheran church and the William S. Furst G. A. R. post of Stormstown, his wife, five sons, one daughter and several brothers and sisters survive him. He was buried at Gatesburg on the morning of the 7th with Rev. C. T. Aikens officiating.

Notice of Withdrawal.

Hon. J. N. Casanova, of Phillipsburg, hereby formally announces his withdrawal from the contest for the endorsement of the Democratic voters of Centre county for Congress. When he entered the field it was with the belief that Hon. J. L. Spangler did not desire a renomination, but since the latter's announcement Mr. Casanova has decided to withdraw, thanking those who had thought kindly of his candidacy.

Notice of Withdrawal.

Bellefonte, Pa., June 8th, 1898.
To the Democrats of Centre County:

I beg to announce that I am no longer a candidate for the nomination for prothonotary at the convention on June 14th. I have, however, the interest of the party just as much at heart, and therefore ask those who would have given me their support to give careful thought to the selection of a candidate this fall, who in your sober judgment you think will add the greatest amount of strength to the ticket.

In explanation of my withdrawal it may be due my friends to say that when I entered the field for this office I did so with the expressed determination to spend but one month, the month of May, in canvassing; on April 28th the state troops were called out and I dropped my prospective campaign and went with them, where I spent a portion of the month of May until the headquarters to which I was attached was broken up by the disorganization of the National Guard; on my return home still more time was consumed by sickness and other matters over which I had no control so that it has left me with no time to make even a semblance of a campaign, and while I have had the most cordial assurances of support from many loyal Democrats over the county I feel that it is better under the circumstances not to enter any further into the contest.

The voluntary assurances of good will and loyalty from many warm friends over the county has been a great deal of pleasure and satisfaction to me and more than repays me for what time and energy I have spent in my own behalf, and to these I extend my sincere thanks. Very respectfully,
ROBT F. HUNTER.
