

A LOUD BLOW FOR PHILIPSBURG.—Philipsburg was full of blow on Friday last. It was the day of the annual band tournament of the North Western Pennsylvania and Western New York band association, and a small regiment of bands competed for the various prizes offered. Those winning were the following: Volunteer band, DuBois, first prize, $150; Tyrone city band, Tyrone, second prize, $75; Falls Creek band, Falls Creek, third prize, $40; South Fork band, South Fork, fourth prize, $25; Excelsior band, DuBois, fifth prize, $10. All the contestants played the same overture, Franz von Suppe's "Jolly Robbers." The judge was W. H. Anstead, editor of the Metronome, New York city. He was placed in a tent where he could not see them, and knew only by numbers. Out of a possible 100 points the winning band scored 99; Tyrone, 96; Falls Creek 95; South Fork 74; Excelsior 69. The Excelsior band, of DuBois, won $10 offered by the proprietor of the Lloyd house for the band making the best showing in musical ability and appearance while playing a quickstep on the march and during a short halt. The next convention and tournament of the association will be held in Tyrone in June, 1899.

My next bulletin dated June 25th, will give a general forecast of July weather and as the 1898 drought will be most effective in July and August it will be of unusual interest to know in what parts of the country the drought will be severe enough to injure crops.

Pine Grove Mention.

Our post office still hangs fire. A midsummer wedding is near at hand. Mrs. Maggie Orr and sister, Mrs. Bronse, were welcome visitors at the Murphy home, on Water street, this week. John Sausserman, one of our young hustlers who went to Johnstown last week with the promise of a job, is back home again. Samuel Musser and wife, of Altoona, visited Centre county friends last week and enjoyed the drive as well as the visit. Will Keichline, of Bellefonte, is visiting his agricultural relations here with a view of taking lessons in haymaking. Mrs. R. M. Illingworth, of Oil City, and her two children are with her parents for the summer. The Rev. Ralph will join them later in the season. George Miller is nursing a broken finger while Jim Tanyer is making wry faces over a mashed thumb. Both accidents occurred in a stone quarry. Dan Keoch, John Weaver and Wm. Keller all young, though successful, school teachers are among the recruits for company B, from this vicinity. Mrs. Alice Bowersox, who spent several months in a Philadelphia hospital, has recovered sufficiently to visit her Fairbrook relatives. Mr. J. Shank, of Lock Haven, spent several days in our town, with rumor says, matrimonial intentions. He is a whole souled genial gentleman whom it is a pleasure to meet. Clara C. Walker was confined to her bed and under the doctors care for a week suffering from an abscessed jaw. Finally a tooth was drawn and transplanted and she is recovering. This week most of the hay will be made and a very good crop it is. The wheat crop is the best in years and will be fit to cut next week. Corn is doing well, oats is at a stand still. The children's day services in the M. E. church, last Sunday evening, was the best ever held. The program was conducted by Rev. Guyer who highly complimented the teachers, scholars and the excellent choir. On Saturday evening the young people of the Lutheran church will have a Japanese lawn fete on the grounds at the parsonage. It promises to be a delightful affair and you are cordially invited to be present and have a good time. David Gilliland, a former Centre county man a stock dealer of South Dakota near Yankton, is east with a choice lot of horses for the eastern market. He is now visiting Centre and Mifflin county relatives after an absence of some 22 years. He tips the scales at 290 pounds and aside from his gray locks time has touched him lightly. While here he was entertained at the hospitable home of postmaster Miller. He reports crops good in his section and will be ready to cut by the 20th of July. While handling hay, one day this week, Wm. E. Meek fell from his hay wagon and lacerating on his face broke his nose and battered up his head generally. He has had more accidents than would have ended half a dozen ordinary men and yet he lives and enjoys living. When a mere boy he fell from the roof of a barn and cracked his skull so that he has been obliged to wear a silver plate on his head ever since. Then one of his eyes was so badly injured that the sight of it is entirely gone and almost every bone in his hands or fingers have been broken or dislocated in runaways or falls.

A. M. Brown's new barn was raised last Tuesday. N. B. Ward is the builder which accounts for the close fit of every tenon. The raising was up by noon and after a sumptuous dinner all hands turned in and hoisted a 100 foot flag pole in front of Dr. House's mansion in Baileyville.

DEATH OF MRS. TYSON.—On Friday the 24th, Margaret, wife of Amos Tyson, died at her home, three miles north of this place of brain trouble. For some years she had been in failing health and a relapse, several weeks ago, completely prostrated her. She was a woman who was esteemed and loved by every one and her entire life was spent in doing for the Methodist church and humanity.

Of English parentage, she was born at McAlevy's Fort about 61 years ago. Her maiden name was Aston and most of her life was spent in this vicinity. Of her father's family Mrs. Frank Brown, of Boalsburg, Mrs. Jas. Searson, of Linden Hall, and Mrs. F. Jones, of Kylesburg, are living. Of her own family, her husband and two daughters, Lizzie, at home, and Mrs. Frank Knarr, of State College, survive her. Rev. Guyer assisted by Rev. Aikens conducted her funeral services on Sunday the 30th, after which she was buried at Pine Hall.

DEATH OF GEORGE SMITH.—On last Monday after a long illness George Smith died at State College of consumption. About six years ago he met and married Miss Ellen Tice, of Harrisburg, after which he engaged in business at the Capital until his friends, last fall, persuaded him to come back to the mountains in hopes of restoring his health. The change failed to benefit him and he gradually weakened.

He was the fourth son of the late Judge Smith and was born in this town 37 years ago. He was a member of the Knights of Malta, Red Men and Independent Order of Heptasophis, of Harrisburg, all of which were represented at his funeral. He was buried on Thursday at 3 o'clock in the new cemetery with Rev. Guyer officiating, assisted by Revs. Aikens and Hepler. His wife, mother two sisters and five brothers have reason to mourn for he was a faithful good boy ever mindful of the comfort of others. He left a comfortable bank account and a $2,000 life policy in the I. O. H.

Howard.

Walter Jenkins spent Sunday in Lock Haven. Thos. Greninger, John Teats and Bruce Barnheart were in town on Sunday visiting friends.

Newlin Irwin, one of Bellefonte promising young men, spent Sunday with Al. Irwin, near this place.

Miss Tillie Heck, who has been living with Wm. Weber and family for sometime, started for Pittsburg on Tuesday morning.

Messrs. H. A. Moore and John A. Woodward attended the Democratic convention in Altoona on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Children's day exercises were held in the Methodist church on Sunday evening, June 29th. They were a success in every particular.

Wm. Mitchell, who was recently married, spent Tuesday and Wednesday visiting with his wife in this place. They were at Mr. Mitchell's mother's home.

800 men, women and children wanted—to eat ice cream, cake etc., at a festival, to be held in the school house yard on Saturday, July 2nd, for the benefit of the G. A. R.

A poetical social was held at Dr. L. R. Hensyl's residence, on Main street, on last Friday night. The proceeds were for the benefit of the United Evangelical church.

Madisonburg.

Chas. Grimm wears an extra smile since the enlarging of his family circle. Miss Ella Ruhl, of Mill Hall, is at present staying with her aunt Mrs. Garis.

Andrew Acker and daughter, Della took a trip to Sugar Valley the fore part of the week. Making hay is the principal work of our farmers at present the grass crop this year being good.

Jacob Smith, who several weeks ago was injured in a runaway, is again seen about in the neighborhood, but is still unable to work.

K. A. Miller seems to have changed occupations. He is now engaged by his brother during the day, and to— from twilight on.

The silence of the correspondent from this place is accounted for by his hand being injured. It is greatly improved at present.

Rev. Schlongenhanf, of Hazleton, preached a very able sermon on Sunday evening in the Evangelical church, his topic being "Saul's Conversion."

Mr. Joseph Shaffer, of Coburn, was laid to rest in the Union cemetery on Saturday. Rev. Runkle and Lohr conducted the services. Mr. Shaffer was formerly a resident of Nittany valley but at the time of his death he resided at Coburn.

THE GLOBE OUR ANNUAL 9c. SALE THE GLOBE

KATZ & CO., Ltd. NOW IN PROGRESS. KATZ & CO., Ltd. BELLEFONTE, PA. BELLEFONTE, PA.

This statement within itself is enough to crowd this store with people from morning until night, for the fame of our 9-cent sales has spread far and wide throughout all Centre county, and yearly it is looked forward to by our patrons with increasing enthusiasm. For the next two weeks 9 CENTS will be "the power in the chair of state"—12c. prices, 15c. prices, 20c. prices, 25c. prices and even some articles marked as high as 30c. have succumbed to the magical power and have helped to pay that price tribute which so many people eagerly look forward to. For three years our 9c. sales have been the talk of all Bellefonte. Competition has been unable to originate anything that will rival the force of these bargain prices or arrest the attention of that stream of people who always accord our annual invitations a hearty response. This is the third year of that BRIGHT BARGAIN GALAXY. We hope to make it shine farther and brighter than any of its preceding companions. Below is the list. Read carefully. Every item is a hot shot aimed at the target competition, and every one of which will ring the bell. Come with the crowds.
