Wm. Weaver of our village feels several inches taller than he did last week-a daughter. Harry Frankenberger also feels at least a dozen inches taller-a son

The Spring Mills club played a game of baseball with the Rebersburg team on Saturday last, the score being 10 to 20 in favor of Spring Mills. The Rebersburg team can play better, but on Saturday both sides were considerably off, the Brush valley team especially-entirely too many runs to be healthy playing.

Hay is about all housed and farmers report a good crop. They say the weevil, fly and rust have damaged the wheat to some extent, potatoes are beginning to suffer for want of rain. The oats looks well and gives promise of a large yield. Cherries are a drug at 2 cents per quart. In this neighborhood they are exceedingly small, and nearly all more or less defective. Berries plentiful and cheap.

The school board of Gregg township have made the following excellent appointments, all being teachers of ability and capacity. Prof. D. M. Wolf, the grammar school at Spring Mills; -----Derr, intermediate, and Miss Mabel Sankey, the primary department; R. U. Bitner, Decker; W. A. Brown, Polk Hill; J. A. Wagner, Mountain; C. E. Royer, Beaver Dam; A. Puck, Penn Hall; Miss Mary Guise, Cross Roads; John Rearick, Toll Gate; G. W. Wagner, Farmer's Mills; J. B. White, Logan; A. J. Hazel, Murray and A. M. Brungart, Hoy. OUR CELEBRATION.-Fourth of July here was ushered in with the booming of cannon, guns and a general fusilade of fire crackers. Our village was thronged with visitors from early morn 'til long after midnight. Flags, streamers and the national colors floated from every building in the village. Both young and old seemed to vie with each other in good humor and patriotism. Music, mirth and fire crackers ruled the day and evening. In the morning we had a lively game of baseball between the "Sniddlefritz" nine and the "Wild Cat" club. The score proves that they were all expert players, being 16 to 17 in favor of the club. Immediately after noonday the fun and sport commenced in garnest. A tub race was the first on the program, the first prize was awarded to Harry Ruhl, the second to Court Shaeffer. After which the parade was formed in the followwhich the parade was formed in the following order. Dr. P. W. Leitzell, chief marshal, Spring Mills band and drum corps, followed by ten of our village beauties, handsomely attired in white dresses wearing sashes of national colors, and bearing a large Aperican flow. Next, were the very results of the same be furnished the Democratic Watchman, the Centre Democratic Watchman was at token of the esteem in which our members were held, the secretary is hereby instructed to prepare a copy of these resolutions, to be presented to the same with the same was at token of the esteem in which our members were held, the secretary is hereby instructed to prepare a copy of these resolutions, to be presented to the same with the same was at token of the esteem in which our members were held, the secretary is hereby instructed to prepare a copy of these resolutions, to be presented to the distributions. which the parade was formed in the follow-American flag. Next were the war worn veterans, J. I. Condo in command. These venerable warriors marched with banners unfurled. Then followed the K. of G. E., W. P. Alexander, marshal; the Sons of Veterans, with G. H. Long in command; and a large company of lads attired in navy blue uniforms armed with guns, W. B. Krape in command. The lads looked remarkably well and as they marched along with military precision were frequently applauded.

The parade halted a short distance above the iron bridge to raise the flag. The young ladies attached the flag to a cable and it was then thrown to the breeze amid cheering, music and a salute of musketry. When quiet was restored the young ladies sung "We'll stand by the Flag," and acquitted them-43-25 selves admirably. The march was then resumed to the grounds north of the village selected for the celebration. Here the committee had every arrangement made for the comfort and pleasure of everybody. Indeed nothing was left undone for the comfort and convenience of the visitors. Prof. D. M. Wolf delivered a patriotic address, giving a history of the American flag, and relating many interesting events connected with it. Professor Krise, of Centre Hall; also made a few appropriate remarks. The games then commenced, the wheelbarrow, potato, bag and pie races were all amusing and created considerable fun. Earl Bartley seems to have been in the zenith of his glory as he won all the prizes. The sham battle was decidedly good and exceedingly well mancuvered. The camp fire conducted by the veterans, their mode of housekeeping, cooking beans &c, while on the tented field proved quite interesting, giving us a fair insight of genuine army life.

In the evening Hon. John G, Love delivered a brilliant address, eliciting the closest attention from an enthusiastic audience. Thomas Harter of the Gazette also delivered a brief address. The celebration was then closed with a magnificent display of fire works.

The Sons of Veterans are to be congratulated upon their success in everything connected with the celebration. Nothing was left undone to make the occasion attractive and entertaining. The large number of people were evidently pleased and delighted, and unhesitatingly pronounced the celebration a complete success, excelling all previous efforts in Spring Mills.

Mrs. Theophilus Weaver, of State College, visited Mrs. D. G. Meek last week. J. C. Goheen and family, of Tyrone are spending a few days at his old home at Rock Springs.

The beautiful weather has enabled our farmers to harvest one of the heaviest wheat and hay crops we have had for years.

G. W. McWilliams has completed his new well with a turbine wheel and has 84 feet of water. In due time he will have it piped into his house and barn. Prof. G. W. Weaver, of Clearfield, spent several days here last week arranging for additional buildings on his Main street property, which he intends to improve until it is one of the best in the town. The burial of Heister Clymer Hoy in the new cemetery at this place, at noon on the 7th, was largely attended. He was a fine where he spent his boyhood. Bill Smith, one of the push farmers on the Branch, has been obliged to build up several stacks notwithstanding his big barn. From present indications much straw will be stacked for want of barn room. Miss Clara Walker has left her brother Levi in charge of the domestic affairs and gone to Virginia to visit her sister, Mrs. Harry Meyers. She started on the 6th in order to | 43-27

Specifications are posted for the construction of the new school house at Pine Hall. The bids will be considered on the 23rd, when the board meets at the Centre school house to choose teachers for the winter term. Neither the war nor low wages has hindered the directors from being flooded with applications from Lewisburg to Pittsburg.

Farmer Fred Myers is short a colt that committed suicide by hanging itself in the stable one day this week. He had a pair of them and feels the loss keenly.

Rev. J. T. Haughawout, of Clearfield, very ably preached in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening. He drove from Clearfield that day on his way to Kishacoquillas to officiate at the funeral of his old friend, C. T. Gibboney, on Monday. He preached here many years ago and his visit at this time was very much appreciated by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mitchell who entertained him.

On the 7th, just as the rays of the morning sun were gilding the east Sarah Alice, the little daughter of George and Alice Lutz, of near Pine Hall, entered into life eternal. She was a year and nine months old, a very bright child and one for whom her parents are almost heart broken. On the 8th she was tenderly carried to the grave by her four aunts and buried at Pine Hall with Rev. Black officiating.

Mr. Newton Neidigh has purchased the D. L. Dennis farm from Samuel Wait, who bought it two years ago. In addition to the original survey Mr. Neidigh bought all the cleared land west of the road leading to Scotia and five acres of timber from George Cronemiller which originally belonged to the David Fye farm. Mr. Neidigh is to be congratulated for the farm is one of the best in the valley and beside Newt. is a Democrat worthy of Ferguson's ranks.
