

held a ticket for the Decker reunion to be held at the Fred Decker home on the branch on Thursday. Mr. R. was accompanied by his son Bruce, a chip off the old block.

Frederick Myers and John Fry, having invested in a steam threshing outfit, started out this week to assist in separating some of the grain from the chaff.

With favorable weather the annual harvest home picnic to be held at the Baileyville park next Saturday will be unusually well attended. The committee who have the matter in charge are sparing no time or labor in putting the track in first class order for trotters and bicycles. Everybody is invited.

The scramble for our little post office is at an end and a good acquisition has been made to the Swallow party from our Republican ranks. On Tuesday J. G. Hess was officially notified of his appointment and accordingly filed the usual documents for his commission in order that he can draw the salary that a Democratic incumbent has been lifting for the last six months. Mr. Miller has been one of the best officials the office ever had, always kind and obliging and we doubt if there can be any improvement in the distribution of our mails, although this is not Mr. Hess' first attempt in that line. He has been tried and not found wanting.

Mrs. Hannah Fox, wife of G. A. Jacobs, of Shingletown, died suddenly at the home of her son-in-law, John Leech, near Penna Furnace, where she was visiting. Upon her arrival the daughter and grand children set about to make her visit as pleasant as possible. Before retiring on the night of the 15th, ice cream was served of which the old lady ate heartily; retiring shortly after 10 o'clock. Owing to her having heart trouble her daughter went to her room soon afterwards and was horror stricken to find her mother cold in death. Undertaker Weber, of Boalsburg, was sent for and the next day conveyed the corpse to her home in Shingletown, where the whole community looked upon her as a maternal friend and counselor.

Deceased was born in Berks county 72 years ago. She moved, with her father John Fox, to near Shingletown, on the Branch, while quite young. February 17th, 1845, she married George Armstrong Jacobs. This union was blessed with six children: Dr. W. A. Jacobs, of Centre Hall; Luther, of Illinois; John, of Shingletown; Mrs. Resides, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Sowers, of State College; Mrs. John Leech, of Graysville. They, together with a grief stricken husband and two sisters, Mrs. Ramsels, Mary and John Fox, of Shingletown, mourn the sudden death of this old mother in Israel. Interment was made in the Boalsburg cemetery on the 17th at 10 a. m. Rev. Leshar, of whose church she was a member, officiated. A. Felty, M. Hess, A. Lytle, John Kuhn, O. Thomas and Wm. Hoover were the pall bearers. Services were held in the Lutheran church at Boalsburg.

Rebersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stover were visiting friends in Pennsylvally over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smull started, on Monday, on a trip to New York and Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bierly, of near Lock Haven, are at present visiting Mrs. Bierly's mother who is dangerously ill in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodling, of Greater New York, are visiting their many friends in this valley. Charley is one of New York's hustling business men.

The hay and wheat crops of this locality are now housed in splendid condition and our farmers have much cause for thankfulness, for better crops were never harvested in this valley.

Rev. Warner, of Northumberland, who is soliciting funds for the endowment of a professorship in Susquehanna university in memory of Dr. Day, lately deceased missionary to Africa, preached in the Lutheran church last Sunday.

Mrs. Burd, who had accompanied the remains of her deceased husband, the late Dr. E. J. Burd, to this place for burial, has returned to Snow Shoe where she will settle up the accounts of her husband, after which she will return to this place and make her future home with her parents Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Stover.

Our school rooms are at present being scrubbed and everything put into first class condition for the schools which will open early in September. Mr. Loose, who has charge of the building here in town, is now serving his sixth year as director and during this time has shown himself thoroughly up to date and progressive and at the same time has maintained the confidence and support of the people. Such men are a blessing to a community.

4th AND LAST WEEK OF OUR GREAT

—NINE CENT SALE—

Our success in this remarkable sale has been unprecedented in our business experience. We have more than doubled our last year's sales. We have given remarkable values, and the public has been quick to appreciate them. We have been converting dull times into unusually busy periods. Profits have been lost sight of in this remarkable sale. Our reasons for this is easily told. We were anxious to convert all our Spring and Summer goods into money even at a loss, believing it unwise to carry goods over from season to season and on some lines we were overstocked. This coming week winds up our 9 cent sale, and we have placed some more remarkable additions on our counters.

Our Summer Wash Goods which we have been selling at 15, 20 and 25 cents all go in now at 9 cents a yard.
All our fancy shapes in Ladies Hats that have been selling at $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 all go in now at 25 cents.
Materials for trimming the same are equally reduced, and no charge for the work done.
Good Calicoes 3 yards for 9 cents.

Good Gingham while they last, don't think they will hold out all week, 3 yards for 9 cents.
Good Outing Cloth 2 yards for 9 cents.
Towelings 3 yards for 9 cents.
As good a Muslin as you want to use 4 1/2 cts. a yard, you can take as much as you want. No limit to the quantity.
All our small wares and notions as advertised for the last 3 weeks, are also included in this sale at the same price.

Bear in mind, this is positively the last week in which these goods will be sold at these

—REMARKABLE LOW PRICES.—

As we confidently expect our stock will be exhausted by that time.
