

Pine Grove Mention.

The finder of a gold watch chain will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at J. B. Krebs' store.

The building of the new school house at Pine Hall has been awarded to Joseph Meyers.

Miss Maggie and Mary Thomas, of Latrobe, are spending several weeks with their sister, Maggie Gates, on Church street.

Mrs. Mary A. Fry, who has been in feeble health for some months, has recovered so as to be able to visit Bellefonte relations.

Farmer Frank Black has his 220 foot well completed with a Bosman wheel that throws an abundance of pure cold water, of which he has 125 feet, which means no more water hauling.

S. M. Bell, the bustling dealer and agent, of Boalsburg, is this week rushing business in this section. J. W. Tressler is his right bower. All business or work entrusted to their care will be attended to with dispatch.

Our Pine Hall neighbors will hold their annual Harvest Home picnic in Johnson's grove, on Saturday next. Music, speeches, and refreshments of all kinds will be plenty. As it is for a good cause we hope to see a large attendance and a liberal patronage.

Harry Fye, son of E. C. Fye, of Pine Hall, and who has been an invalid for a number of years, died at the residence of his father, on the evening of the 24th, aged 18 years. The funeral which took place at Pine Hall cemetery on Tuesday was largely attended.

Grandmother Bell, of Harrisburg, accompanied by her daughter Amanda are taking their usual summer outing among "Glade" friends. They arrived at the Furnace Saturday evening. The old dame endured the trip very well for one who is almost 85 years old.

The late copious showers will revive corn and late potatoes. The grain crop is all barned or stacked and much has been threshed but the yield does not come up to the expectation of some farmers and is some shriveled. Oats is ripening slowly and is short in the straw. Prospects for clover seed are poor, although the late rains will revive it some. Apples are scarce and faulty and are dropping off.

Within the last year track bosses on the Tyrone Branch Joe, Tom, and James Heberling have been moved along the Bald Eagle valley railroad, as track bosses—each with a five mile section beginning west of Eagleville toward Lock Haven. James was the last one, moved last week, and will be a good acquisition to the Democratic ranks down there. Miles Dixon, of Scotia, succeeds him on the Tyrone Branch.

At a school board meeting, held last Saturday, the following teachers were elected for the ensuing term of six months at $26 per month: Pine Grove, 1st grade, M. E. Heberling; second grade, Sue Dannley; Branch, W. Kerlin; Kepler, Maggie Keichline; Glade, Bessie Walker; Baileyville, Sadie Keichline; Furnace, Clara Walker; Tadpole, Mary Bolinger; Gatesburg, Wm. H. Roush; Center, Andy Gregg; White Hall, Wm. Fry; Oak Grove, A. J. Tate; Pine Hall, Catharine Weiland; Krumrine, Newt. Hartswick; Maringo, Beckie Bolinger.

THE LAST OF THE GENERATION PASSES AWAY—Sidney Sholl, a former Fairbrook boy, died at his home in Akron, O., on the 21st, of cholera morbus coupled with heart trouble after a few hours illness, aged 59 years, 6 months and 8 days, leaving a wife and eight children to mourn the death of a father. His parents died here some years ago at a ripe old age. His brother, Lafayette, was killed at the Inka and Harry was wounded at the battle of South Mountain and died of the wound a month later. His three sisters died here. The last one about a year ago.

The harvest home picnic at Baileyville park, last Saturday, was a success financially and socially. The day was all that could have been desired. Streams of conveyances came from every quarter, but the crowd was biggest at 2 o'clock when many came to enjoy the sport and witness the game and races. The Warriors ball team took the honors. And Al. Brown's old mare Mambriano performed very creditably for an old campaigner, winning first prize easily. She is in kind hands and will have it easy the rest of her life. By 9 o'clock p. m. not an ounce of candy nor a toby could be had. 80 gallons of ice cream were consumed. It was indeed a red letter day for the P. O. S. of A's treasury that was replenished almost two hundred dollars.

The family reunion at the home of Andy Jackson Tate, near Lemont, last Sunday, was a happy event in the history of the old couple. All the children gathered home to greet their brother David who was home on a 48 hour furlough from Harrisburg, where he was on recruiting duty for Battery I. of the 7th U. S. artillery stationed at Camp Slocum N. Y. The gathering was a happy one, indeed, as it was reported the day previous that he had died from vaccination, and the joy of his friends when he stepped off the train at Lemont, on Saturday evening, looking every inch a soldier in good health and cheer. He left on the Monday morning train for Harrisburg from whence he goes to Trenton, N. J., where his duties as recruiting officer will end. His legion of friends wish his safe return, free from the ravages of fever and escaped from Spanish bullets.

If any of our readers can spare the time for a trip to the Sea Shore this season, they will have the opportunity to go on the Pennsylvania railroad excursion Thursday, August 4th.
