ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

ANOTHER CENTRE COUNTY BOY AT SANTIAGO.—Clifford A. Lucas, a son of Nelson A. Lucas Esq., formerly of Coleville, this place, has followed in the foot steps of his valiant sire and in years to come will be known as one of the veterans of the Santiago campaign. He is ranking corporal of Co. J, 1st Reg. District of Columbia Vols. and has seen some hard service in Cuba.

BROKE ONE OF THE LARGE PLATES.—While workmen were engaged in putting the large plate glass windows in the new front in Joseph's store, on Allegheny street, last Friday morning, the glass that was intended for the north window broke clean in two. The glass had been gotten almost into position when one of the workmen tried to pry it with a stick. He pried just a little too hard and it split from bottom to top. The glass was a 7 x 12 ft. plate and was valued at $40.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan court clerk G. W. Rumberger during the past week. John E. Harpster, of Union township, and Margaret H. Peters, of Unionville borough. Chas. E. McClellan and Robie J. Hicks, both of Phillipsburg, Pa. Nincent Rinjora and Nellie E. Twigg, both of Rush township. John W. Flory and Ethel Alice Edmiston, both of Ferguson township.

FOSTER SAID THIS WAS TO HAVE BEEN A HOT WEEK.—Temperature of the week ending August 22nd will average above normal east of the Rockies and below west, and the hottest period of August east of the Rockies. My forecasts for July were remarkably verified. The culmination of the long foretold drought and its injuries to crops in July is a substantial proof of the practical utility of these forecasts. With all their government paid for records and weather knowledge the national weather bureau can not make a beginning toward such accurate and valuable forecasts as were contained in these bulletins for July. Last week's bulletin gave assurance that the drought would continue through Aug., materially injuring the corn crop. The southern drought has been severe, but has not injured cotton to as great an extent as usual. The drought will continue to the south through August. How much cotton will be injured is a problem.

THE GYPSY QUEEN ELOPED.—The people of this vicinity will recall the Harrison's, who come through here every spring gypsying. There is a great colony of them and they travel in fine style, with gaudy wagons and lots of camp equipage. They are typical gypsies and the women tell fortunes [and] beg while the men swap horses.

When they were here in the spring they camped below Milesburg where Harmonica Harrison, a daughter of "Big Pete" the chief, attracted marked attention by her striking beauty. She is a handsome brunette, 17 years of age, tall and graceful, and will be remembered as having worn a gaudy red dress with a flaring black hat. The costume set off the dusky beauty to fine effect and she attracted no little attention in this place.

She was the queen of the camp and created a sensation among her tribe at Cumberland, Md., on Saturday night, by eloping. Previous to going into camp there, the young queen had met and fallen in love with a young man of fine appearance, whose name the gypsies have so far refused to divulge.

Saturday night the couple boarded a train for Pittsburg. The father of the girl learned of the affair, and wired ahead of the train to have the queen arrested. She was caught at Hyndman and taken back to Cumberland by an officer on Sunday.

THE HARVEST HOME PICNIC AND FARMERS INSTITUTE.—The one day farmers' institute and picnic held at Grange park, Centre Hall, on the 11th inst., proved more of a success than the most sanguine had hoped for it. There was a good crowd in attendance all day and every feature on the program was carried out to the letter. All the speakers were there, Col. John A. Woodward, the chairman, Deputy Sec. of Agriculture John Hamilton, Gen. James A. Beaver and Col. D. F. Fortney.

The meeting came to order at 10:30 and both morning and afternoon sessions were held. All the talks were on agricultural subjects, highly instructive and entertaining. The musical numbers were contributed by the Pleasant Gap band and a choir under the leadership of P. H. Meyer. State Master Leonard Rhone made the address of welcome to the picknickers, to which John Hamilton responded. Miss Florence Rhone contributed an entertaining number during the day, and, on the whole, it proved quite a delightful outing for those who were there.

Mr. S. W. Smith, secretary of the local committee, whose untiring efforts and energy in getting everything in readiness and making all necessary arrangements by which the visitors were so royally entertained, deserves special credit and judging from the many favorable compliments paid him, his abilities have been fully appreciated.

The following resolutions were presented and adopted at the meeting.

Resolved, by the farmers and friends of Agriculture in Centre county, assembled to celebrate their harvest home, that it is an eminently fitting occasion to express our thanks to a kind Providence for the bountiful harvest bestowed upon the people of this county and the entire country.

Resolved, that the great agricultural interests of the country, admittedly the backbone of the Nation, should receive that beneficial attention from our halls of legislation which such an important interest deserves, and that it is regretted that it too often receives minor attention when it should stand foremost in the estimation of our lawmakers.

Resolved, that we appreciate the effort made by the Department of Agriculture of the State of Pennsylvania to benefit the farmers of the State by the dissemination of scientific knowledge on various branches of agricultural pursuits; through the medium of farmers' institutes and the various agencies made use of by that department.

Resolved, that we hereby return thanks to the county Grange for kindly tendering the use of Grange Park and buildings for the holding of our harvest home picnic; to the ladies of the decorating committee; to the speakers; to the Pleasant Gap band, and the choir for the excellent music furnished. And to Col. John A. Woodward for his efficient services in behalf of the institute and picnic and to all others who have labored to make it a success.

Our man of hammer and tongs, Eckley, is laid up for repairs with lumbago.

Bill Tibbens, one of College township's up-to-date farmers, was on our streets huxtering plums on Tuesday.

Mrs. David Frantz is quite a sick woman with heart trouble, from which she is slowly recovering.

Masters Harold and Arthur Ward, of Bellefonte, are here bound for a good time for a week with uncle Herbert.

D. L. Dennis is breaking ground for a new home on his newly purchased farm near town; the old Glenn homestead.

Mrs. Mary Ward is visiting Bellefonte friends. The objective place being at her son's, Dr. Ward's, on Curtin street.

Dr. Woods has been confined to his room for some days unable to attend to his patients who are being looked after by Drs. Houser and Glenn.

After a month's visit at the Bailey mansion, near town, Mrs. Wash McWilliams and little folks left for their Philadelphia home on Tuesday, delighted with their stay here.

A. A. Miller, one of State College's representative men, on Monday, passed through our town, enjoying a drive over old Tussey mountains into Stonevalley, and did not forget to stop long enough to talk a little politics in the interest of Democracy.

Mr. Isaiah Beck, one of Half Moon's pushing farmers, with his wife and daughter, sampled postmaster Heberling's plums on their way home over the mountains from Huntingdon where they visited their son Elmer, superintendent of the reformatory farm.

The many friends of Riley Thompson will receive the news of his death with sadness. Having died at his home, near Charter Oak, in Stone valley, last Sunday afternoon, after a short illness with kidney trouble. He was aged about 56 years. Mr. Thompson was a successful farmer and a useful citizen, one that any community could ill afford to lose. His place in the home and church will be hard to fill. He is survived by his second wife and six children, one a babe, who mourn the death of a noble man and indulgent father.
