Democratic County Convention.

All in His Imagination.

The effort on the part of some of Governor HASTINGS' friends to relieve the sting of defeat, by trying to leave the impression that after DALE was turned down by the Republican county convention, the Governor and his fellows controlled the work of that body, and nominated anti-QUAY men for the Legislature, may deceive a few who want to be deceived, but it will not fool the honest anti-QUAY voter of the county a particle.

Governor HASTINGS, as any one else in his position would, feels the humiliation of defeat at home. In order to appear before the people of the State as exerting an influence over those who should be closest to him, he may claim that the two candidates nominated for the Legislature are anti-QUAY men; that the organization in the county is under his control, and that its chairman, W. E. GRAY, is one of his backers. But the Governor knows better, as does every citizen of the county who knows anything at all about the bitterness and contention in his party here at home.

The late Republican county convention was a QUAY convention from beginning to end. QUAY conventions do not nominate anti-QUAY candidates for the Legislature, when it is a question of QUAY or anti-QUAY, nor do they give the control of their local organization to the enemy, when they have the power to make it what they want.

The truth is, two men, who if elected, would be more subservient to the wishes and dictates of the boss, than JOHN A. DALEY and ELI F. TOWNSEND, could not have been found in the Republican party of the county, if they had been hunted for from Phillipsburg to the Brush Valley narrows. DALEY has been for years and is still under obligations to QUAY for positions that himself and son held in Washington under the HARRISON administration, and both head TOWNSEND are known to be pledged to vote for QUAY for United States Senator should he be a candidate for the position; and that they will do so, NEITHER OF THEM WILL DENY.

And so it is with Governor HASTINGS' victory (?) in the selection of the chairman of the Republican county convention.

Governor HASTINGS' principal opponent in his own party in the county is "his" Hon. Judge LOVE. He is the power, which, keeping under cover as much as possible, arranges the programs, sets up the jobs and encourages others in their onslaught on the Governor. He is a bitter and uncompromising partisan, and is for QUAY because he thinks his party is stronger with QUAY at its head, than it would be without. He has never liked the Governor, although it was through him that LOVELL was taken off the track and LOVE made the candidate for Judge, but the fact that he received some 400 votes in the county, than did the Governor at the same election, aroused animosities and created petty jealousies, that have made it a pleasure for him to stab the Governor, politically, wherever and whenever opportunity offers. The chairman of the Republican county committee is his nephew, his law student, his friend and his agent. What Judge LOVE wants, W. E. GRAY will do, and all the Governors that Centre county has ever had, if they were "in the push" to day, would not get him to do otherwise.

It is HASTINGS' enemies, and the friends of QUAY, who had the victory, but if the Governor can get any consolation out of trying to leave a false impression upon those who know nothing of the local situation there is no one hereabouts who is going to object very strenuously. The other fellows know what they have. The Governor's victory is one of imagination. And DALEY, TOWNSEND and GRAY are all for QUAY.

W. C. LINGLE, formerly of Phillipsburg, has been nominated by the Democrats of Cambria county for the Legislature. He is a brother of J. H. LINGLE, of this place, and ought to be able to make a good fight against the Republicans up in Cambria. It was once a great Democratic county, but political conditions have changed and if there is to be any future hope for Democracy up there such men as "Wick" LINGLE can encourage it.

State Reform.

Right along, ever since, the Democratic party, as a party, and Democratic speakers and newspapers have diligently sought administrative and legislative reform for the state. The writings of Democratic editors on this subject would make volume enough to fill a large library. The way to the needed reforms was clearly pointed out and the reforms themselves diligently and vigorously insisted upon, yet nobody ever heard, during all these years, either of Swallow or Wanamaker as reformers, though now they and their followers have the hardihood to contend that they made the discoveries, have proven their title to trust and are the only true reformers in the business.

As showing the difference between the cost of two years under the last administration in which the Democrats had control of the executive offices and part control of the legislature, and that of the last two years with Republicans at the top, the bottom, both sides and the middle of things; and as showing, further, that Democrats not only profess, but practice reform, the following series of figures will be found interesting. They cover the outlay for the executive, legislative and judicial departments of the state government for two years, 1883-84 under Pattison, as compared with that for 1897-98 under Hastings. The figures are all taken from the appropriation bills excepting those for printing and binding. No specific sum is voted under this head. As exhibiting, therefore, the enormous waste of the taxpayers' money through the public printing office, at the orders of the legislature and the heads of departments, we give the actual expenditures for 1883-84, as reported by the state treasurer, and the actual expenditures for 1897 as reported by Treasurer Beacom, added to his estimate of the amount that will be expended before the year has expired:

Table with columns for 1883 and 1897. Rows include Executive department, State department, Auditor general's department, etc.

Table with columns for 1883 and 1897. Rows include Legislative expenses, Salaries, mileage, stationery and postage for senators, etc.

Table with columns for 1883 and 1897. Rows include Judiciary expenses, Supreme court, Superior court, Common pleas courts, etc.

Table with columns for 1883 and 1897. Rows include Executive offices, Legislative expenses, Judicial expenses, Printing and binding, etc.

These figures need little explanation. They show that in fourteen years, under the unbroken direction of Republican law makers, executive departments have been multiplied, salaries increased, new and less deputies and clerks employed and contingent funds padded, until, from a half a million, our executive expenses have swelled to a million and a half for each two years.

They show that while the number of senators and members and the allowances for mileage, stationery and postage are the same as in 1883, by increasing the already large enough force of clerks and other employees, by adding enormously to contingent expenses to fee party favorites by awarding pay for regular committee services, by creating white-washing and fraudulent investigating committees, (whose perquisites were not vetoed), by piling up the cost of contested elections, etc., they have swelled the charge upon the people for holding a legislative session about $300,000 or over thirty-five per cent.

Sword for Dewey.

Design for it Determined Upon By Committee Having the Subject in Charge.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The design for the memorial sword the government is to present to Rear Admiral Dewey, according to a report of the committee acting on the subject to-day by the committee acting Secretary Allen, Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, and Professor Oliver, of the United States Naval academy. A great many designs have been submitted, some of them showing much artistic beauty. The one selected was submitted by Tiffany, of New York. The design is less ornate than some of the others. Its marked characteristic is its simple and solid elegance. The hilt of the sword, as originally submitted, showed an eagle's head, but this was changed to a plain and solid, but highly traced, gold handle.

The blade is "Damascened," being subject to that process by which the famous Damascus blades were made. One side of the blade bears the inscription, "The gift of the nation to Rear Admiral George Dewey, United States navy, in memory of the victory at Manila bay, May 1st, 1898." The scabbard is of light blue Damascened metal, with tracery of gold. One of the most marked features of the original design was at the end of the scabbard, where in miniature, a crown, presumably the Spanish crown, was being run through by Dewey's sword. The committee rejected the pierce-point feature, and instead of the dolphins there were substituted two dolphins.

Consultation Held.

On the Matter of Taking the Vote of Soldiers in the Field.

HARRISBURG, Aug. 23.—Governor Hastings and Attorney General McCormick had a consultation this afternoon on the matter of taking the vote of the soldiers in the field and decided that the provisions of the constitution of 1874, fully provided for this work with the exception that they do not provide the means. In order that there may be no hindrance to this important matter to advance the $7,000 necessary to call an extra session of the Legislature to appropriate funds.

The offer has been accepted and Secretary Martin has prepared necessary blanks and printed instructions to the commissioners who will be appointed by the Governor to take the vote of the soldiers in the field of the war of the rebellion, selected for the regiments recruited in their localities. It is expected that, before the vote is taken, at least half of the regiments from this State will be disbanded.

Clinton County Democrats.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., Aug. 23.—The Clinton county Democratic convention met in this city to-day and endorsed A. E. Grugan for Congress, W. H. Clough, for State Senator and Hon. C. A. Mayer, for president of the Assembly. R. B. McCormick, of this city, for district attorney, J. L. Eket, of Greene township, for sury., J. L. Eket, of W. Shoemaker, of Lock Haven, for coroner. G. A. Brown was elected chairman. Resolutions were adopted demanding reform in state government affairs.

Shafter Has All he Wants.

WASHINGTON, August 22.—General Shafter reports that he now has sufficient transports at Santiago to bring the remainder of the troops and ammunition to the United States. The Spanish prisoners being embarked to return to Spain, and Shafter expressed the belief that all will be en route to their home country by the latter part of the week.

Over 20,000 Spaniards Sent Home.

WASHINGTON, August 22.—A dispatch received by Adjutant General Corbin from General Shafter indicates that, with the fall of Santiago, 23,726 Spaniards surrendered. Of this number a few less than 3,000 were guerrillas and volunteers making the total number to be returned to Spain about 21,000.

A Rough Rider Charged With Murder.

TRENTON, N. J., August 22.—Governor Voorhees to-day granted the requisition of Governor Stevens, of Missouri, for the extradition of James Redmond, one of Col. Roosevelt's Rough Riders, arrested in Jersey City a few days ago. Redmond is charged with murdering Emma Shoemaker in Kansas City last December.

Two Pictures.

From the Scranton Times. The following is the beginning of an eulogy to the Republican party, in the declaration of principles of the Republican state convention in Wyoming, which appeared in yesterday's paper in one column: "The financial policy of the Republican party, having brought prosperity to the entire country."

In another column of the same paper appeared the following, a repetition of what can be found frequently in all sections of the United States where there are industries: "Hardly a wheel is turning in the Hooking Valley (Ohio) and all branches of business are depressed and suffering. Prospects are gloomy. Many persons lack the actual necessities of life."

The big strike of the clothing makers in New York city, some 15,000 in number, took place last Monday. The workers have been paid a stipend, that barely gave them a subsistence, in fact not the food, or clothing necessary for health or comfort, or any alternative, and rebelled against their masters. And this is the "prosperity" promised two years ago.

Taking Time by the Forelock.

From the Port-Allegheny Reporter. The Republican party evidently believes in the early bird and worm story. A recent action of the Republican League of Hawaii as one of their numerous vice Presidents. As he will probably be chosen the first Governor of those islands he will in a position to construct political fences in ways that will insure a predominance of Republican voters over our dusky wards when the occasion arises.

There Should Be No Doubt of It.

From the Evening Telegraph, (Rep.) On the strength of Mr. Jenks' determined stand in opposition to every form and phase of Quayism, and his exclusion of all national questions from the campaign, many independent Republicans will be found ready to give him their votes.

Patients Sleeping on the Floor.

MONTAUK POINT, L. I., Aug. 23.—Colonel Forwood to-day reports over 1,000 patients in the general hospital at Camp Wikoff and 200 or more sleeping on the floor, there being no cots for them. The Red Cross society is now giving special attention to the men of the regular army who have been overlooked in the distribution of delicacies and other things to make them comfortable. According to the best information to be had, President McKinley will go to Montauk Point sooner than was at first expected, as he is anxious to see for himself the condition of the men who fought at Santiago and how they are being cared for.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

The engine hauling the Lewisburg passenger train to this place broke down at Pardee, yesterday morning, and by the time another one was secured from Sunbury it was so late that the train did not reach here for three and a half hours after time.

The patriotic dance given by the young ladies in the army of Co. B, last night, was as delightful as it was novel and pleasing. The girls had the army exquisitely decorated in the national colors and in addition to doing it all themselves, they footed all the other bills, as well. A great many strangers from a distance were present and it was voted the most brilliant of the season's dances.

Cancer caused the death of Mrs. Hester Griffith, at her home at Pleasant Gap, about mid-night on Monday. Deceased had been a long sufferer with the disease. She was 75 years old and was the mother of John Griffith and Mrs. Harrison, of Pleasant Gap. Burial was made in the Lutheran cemetery at the Gap yesterday morning.

Edith Tate is lying in a precarious condition at her home, on north Spring street. On Friday she was suddenly seized with acute appendicitis and Dr. Klump diagnosed the case as needing an operation. Dr. Klump was summoned from Williamsport and an operation was performed Wednesday afternoon. Several abscesses were discovered in the abdomen and though the operation, itself, was highly successful her condition was so bad that no hope of her recovery is entertained. It was not expected that she would live longer than mid-night.

Farmer William Whitmer, of Buffalo Run, was in town yesterday afternoon to meet a party of Virginia capitalists, who represented to him that they were buying up Buffalo run lands. They were up the valley yesterday morning and Mr. Whitmer says they carried several bundles, each marked $5,000.00. As they didn't show up when he came to town to talk business to them it is suspected that they were swindlers and got scared off before carrying their game to completion. Billy was a bad man to tackle for such purposes anyway. He has lots of money, but it would take a slicker swindler than we have ever heard of to get any of it.

AN OLD HARD-TACK.—At the home of George Marshall, on West High street, is preserved a relic of the war of the rebellion that the flight of time seems to be making no impression, whatever, on. It is an army hard-tack that was sent home to them from the war by Mrs. Marshall's brother, Ephraim W. Klinger, a corporal in Co. H, 148th Pennsylvania Volunteers, the company which went from here and of which George A. Bayard was captain. It was in the year 1862 that it was sent home, just thirty-six years ago and it is in as good condition as when received. Klinger soon afterwards was captured by the rebels and died in Andersonville prison.

MARRIED IN PHILADELPHIA.—Robert Woodring was married in Philadelphia, Wednesday evening, to Miss Johanna Knudsen. Both are well known in this place and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. David J. Beal, of the Presbyterian church.

The young couple left Belleville on an early train Wednesday morning and were married after their arrival in the city. Miss Mabel Woodring, a sister of the groom, accompanied them. After a short honeymoon at Ocean Grove they will go to New York, whence the bride will sail for her home in Bergen, Norway, on Sept. 3rd. She expects to remain abroad until next spring, when she will return and they will go to housekeeping in this place.

Robert Woodring is the eldest son of former sheriff D. W. Woodring, of this place, and is employed as a mail carrier in the local postal service.

BREAKERS AHEAD FOR THE COLLEGE TIMES.—When the State College Times was started by the people of that vicinity who felt the need of a local paper and interested themselves in the enterprise, hoping it would remain a purely local institution, it was understood that the paper was not to take sides with any political party; but to remain as neutral as possible. Of course all the good people of State College encouraged and advised the paper, but it appears that the encouragement and advice of our former recorder friend "Shady" Harter has been the most weighty and gradually the destiny of the Times has been shaped into the Republican column. The paper now has the Republican ticket at its head and is apparently a full fledged Republican organ.

The Democratic supporters of the paper are kicking up high and have about determined to insist on having the Democratic ticket put up too, and unless it is done they will probably withdraw their support in a body.

The life of an editor is nothing, if not troublesome.

He was living in retirement, enjoying an annual allowance from a large estate. He leaves a wife, Anna M., daughter of John R. Lawry.

SUDDENLY EXPIRED AFTER TAKING A DRINK.—L. M. Paul, of Scotia, died very suddenly at the home of L. H. Schruder, in Ferguson township, on Wednesday. He was traveling along the road on foot and stopped at Schruder's house for a drink of water. After drinking the water he laid down and died in a very few minutes.

Deceased was 58 years of age and is supposed to have died from paralysis. He has several married children living about Scotia and Stormstown, with whom he made his home. Undertaker Heberling, of Pine Grove Mills, took charge of the body and prepared it for burial.

Nora, wife of Jacob D. Neidigh, died at their country home, near Loveville, this county, on the morning of August 15th, at four o'clock. Deceased was 23 years old and had been ill about a month with fever. She leaves a husband, with three small children, one only a babe. Mrs. Neidigh was a kind, good woman who was held in high esteem by all who knew her. Interment was made at Pine Hall, on Wednesday, August 17th. Rev. A. A. Black officiated.

LITTLE ANNA MARTIN DEAD.—On last Thursday death claimed little Anna Martin, the eight year old daughter of John Martin, of this place, and the pure soul of the crippled girl has been wafted to Heaven, where there will be no difference in children and all will be happy and bright together.

COURT IN SESSION.

The regular August term of the October quarter sessions convened on Monday morning with an unusually large attendance of out of town people. Judge John G. Love was on the bench and before the list of cases on the calendar was taken up the routine of organization had to be gone through with.

The grand jury was sworn and J. A. Aikens, of Belleville, named as foreman. Immediately after the body had gotten to work the reports of constables etc. were heard. With this done the balance of the morning session was devoted to a memorial to the late John Kline Esq. Different members of the bar spoke feelingly of their esteem and affection for the lamented lawyer and the following resolutions were adopted.

The members of the Centre county bar having heard with sorrow of the death of John Kline Esq., Bar Association, desire to place on record a minute and resolution of their respect for the deceased.

John Kline Esq. was born at Millheim, Centre county, Pa., May 10th, 1849, and died at his home in the borough of Belleville, July 22nd, 1898, making his age 49 years, 2 months and 12 days. His boyhood days were spent on the farm, working during the summer and going to school in the winter. He received his academic education at the Boalsburg Academy where he prepared for college and in September, 1873, entered the Freshman class of Pennsylvania College, at Gettysburg, Pa., from which institution he graduated with honor in 1877. After his graduation he taught school for several terms, in the meantime pursuing the study of law.

He was admitted to the bar May 4th, 1883, and at once attracted the attention of his fellow members and the public in general by the constant application to the duties of his profession. What ever was entrusted to his care, received his constant attention. He was noted throughout his common schools of his neighborhood, at the academy, at college or in study of law and at the academy, of his cases, until his embosbed health compelled him to relinquish the active duties of his profession. Nature had endowed him with a robust constitution and it was with surprise and sorrow that his friends learned, about one year ago, that a fatal disease threatened his life.

His temperate habits and consistent life endeavored him to battle against the disease for many months after it was supposed it would prove fatal. He was a noble, upright man, always seeking the good of others. In the view of his untimely death, he is resolved by the members of the Bar Association: That in the death of John Kline Esq., the profession community a good and useful citizen, his family loving and devoted husband and father. He is solved, that a copy of this minute and resolutions be spread upon the records of the Court and a copy be transmitted to the family of the deceased.
