TYRONE HOISTS HER WORLD BEATING FLAG.—A great many Bellefonters were in Tyrone, last Saturday afternoon, to see the big flag they have been prating so much about up there flung to the breeze. The day was ideal for such a ceremony and Tyrone was jammed with excursionists from every direction.

The flag had already been placed in position on the cable that stretches from mountain top to mountain top, and all that remained to be done was to pull a cord and the little roll of bunting that was seen hanging so high in air quiveringly unrolled in the bright sunshine and floated grandly out, the largest flag in the world.

The cable which supports this mammoth flag was manufactured at Trenton, N. J., and is 3,200 feet in length, one-half inch in thickness and is composed of six strands of wire and weighs 1,740 pounds. The north end is anchored on Bald Eagle ridge, near the Huntingdon county line, and the south end finds a holdon on Brush mountain, in Snyder township, Blair county, and stretches across "Logan's Narrows." The flag was manufactured of American bunting at Easton, Pa., and is 102 feet in length, 60 feet wide and weighs 300 pounds. The stripes are four feet six inches in width and the stars are one yard from point to point. One thousand yards of bunting was used in its manufacture. The cable is 638 feet above the surface of the Juniata river and 1,538 feet above the level of the sea.

W. L. Pasco Esq., of Tyrone; Hon. T. H. Murray, of Clearfield; and Rev. C. D. Spangler, of Somerset, delivered addresses. There was also a big parade.

MARRIED AT UNIONVILLE.—Owing to the great demand for space in last week's issue it was impossible to note a wedding that created no little furor in Unionville on Wednesday evening of last week.

The marriage of John H. Harpster to Miss Margaret H. Peters was one of the most brilliant that Unionville has ever witnessed. It was solemnized in the new Evangelical church, which had been effectively decorated with national colors and potted plants, and Rev. W. H. Goodling, of this place, officiated. John Harper was the best man and Miss Hall was maid of honor.

After the ceremony the young couple went to the home of Solomon Confer, where a delicious wedding supper was served. The groom is one of Union township's very successful young farmers and it is in his fine home, about a mile and a half above Unionville, that the bride and groom will reside in the future.

THREE GOLDEN WEDDINGS TOGETHER.—A very notable event occurred out in the German settlement, Cooper, township, Clearfield county, on Tuesday night. Such an one as is indeed rare and probably another such can be found on record nowhere.

That day Mr. and Mrs. Christian Hartel, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rader, and Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Rosenhoover, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. They were all originally from Bellefonte, and went to Cooper township, where they bought 300 acres of timberland, cut the timber, cleared the land of stumps, and then went to farming, their farms adjoining. No better kept farms are to be seen in that section, and no persons are more respected. Each have eight children, and a great number of grandchildren. The notable event brought together many relatives, and was attended by friends for miles around. The men assisted in erecting the first Catholic church in Clearfield county.

Nittany Items.

The daily huckleberry brigade to the mountains returns heavy laden. Berries are in abundance and sell at 5 cents per quart.

The many rains have been very injurious to the oats harvest; the oats was promising in yield but since the rains it has rotted and is unfit for use.

Last Sunday evening Mrs Luther Shafer was suddenly taken ill with heart failure. At present she is some better and we sincerely hope may fully recover.

The Snydertown Sunday school will hold a picnic in the church yard Saturday, August 27th. Supt. J. H. Beck is busily engaged making arrangements to add pleasure for the pupils, that those in attendance may enjoy the day.

Our valley was highly honored last Sunday evening by the presence of Gov. Hastings and Hon. J. L. Spangler, who were accompanied by their families in a carriage. enjoying the pleasant drive through the valley. Both men seemed to throw off their dignity and greeted humanity in a very pleasant manner.

The Commercial telephone company construction gang have the poles erected as far as Lamar. They were called back last Monday to complete the line from State College to Pine Grove and will return here after finishing at the last named place. The laborers employed were gentlemen in every respect, using utmost courtesy to citizens and were rapid workmen of which the company can well feel proud as well as of their manners.

Pine Grove Mention.

Miss Maggie Watt, of Tyrone, is a visitor at the old home in the Glades.

Miss Maud Heberling, of Eagleville, is having a pleasant visit among relatives here.

Revs. Ermintrout, of Graysville, and J. C. McCracken, of Johnstown, exchanged pulpits last Sunday,

Mrs. Mary Hewitt, of Kansas City, after a ten years absence, is circulating among Huntingdon and Centre county friends looking hale and hearty.

The erection of the new telephone line has begun, this week will see the poles up to this town, hence to Fairbrook, Penna. Furnace, Warriorsmark and Tyrone.

Wm. H. Hammer, an old stand by in the Penna. railroad shops at Altoona, spent several days here looking up fall and winter supplies for his little family.

Luther Sunday lost his pet Jersey cow last Sunday night. She was in good health at sunset. After the family returned from church they found the cow bloated and dead.

Mrs. Charles Wolf, of Williamsport, is spending her yearly outing with her friend Sadie Hess, at Shingletown, where she thinks the refreshing mountain air is doing her good.

Tussey council 515 Jr. O. U. A. M., of this place, recently received its new paraphernalia, new guns, and a beautiful sword. The order is on the increase and financially on good footing.

Rev. Dr. Barren L. L. D., of Hollidaysburg, is spending a week here at the home of his early manhood noting improvements time has wrought. On Sunday evening he preached in the Presbyterian church to the large and appreciative audience that always greets the aged divine who so remarkably retains all of his abilities as a pulpit orator.

We are sorry to note the demented condition of Edward Rider, of Gatesburg. Ever since the death of his father his friends have noticed his changed condition. A few days ago he became violent by attempting to kill his wife, but failed. Subsequently he jumped from an upstairs window, but was caught in time to save his life. He will be taken to the asylum for treatment.

On the 17th inst. John W. Floray with his bride, Miss Ethel A. Edminston, interviewed register Rumberger who granted the young lovers the necessary documents to get married which ceremony quickly followed at the M. E. parsonage in Bellefonte, Rev. Stevens officiating in the presence of a few relatives. The newly married couple returned on the afternoon train and were met by Ad. Louck, who gallanted them to his home, where a splendid wedding feast was served. Only a few special friends were present. The young couple are spending their honeymoon on the banks of the rippling waters of Tadpole.

While out driving one evening last week John Stam and wife experienced a frightful buggy ride. An old saying is that all is well that ends well, as was the case at the end of this eventful ride. The horse took fright at a traction engine on the road and soon became unmanageable and ran away, oversetting the buggy and dragging Mr. and Mrs. Stam quite a way. Fortunately Mr. Stam escaped with but a few bruises and scratches, but his wife did not fare so well. At first reports she had a limb and several ribs broken and was in a critical condition. We are glad to say that no bones were broken. But she was badly shook up and bruised, though she is getting along nicely and from now on until the threshing season is over prefers walking to that of riding behind a spirited and uncontrollable steed.
