THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

The Lutheran Sunday school from Salona picnicked at Hecla park yesterday.

Nelson Flack, of this place, has had his pension increased from $8 to $10 per month.

The WATCHMAN published the story of the attempted swindling of Wm. Whitmer in last week's issue.

About the biggest young lady who has come to Bellefonte in a long while is the eleven and a half pound girl who arrived at the home of assistant postmaster Howley on Saturday.

The last of the series of summer dances will be given in the armory in this place this evening. It will be the annual golden-rod dance and being the last one of the season it may be expected to be a brilliant one.

Charles M. McClure, eldest son of Jas. I. McClure, has passed a satisfactory preliminary examination and has been registered as a student at law in Centre county. He intends studying with Reeder and Quigley.

The Centre county Prohibition convention will be held at Hecla park, on Thursday, September 8th. Because Dr. Swallow is going to be there Rev. J. Zeigler, the local prohibition leader, thinks you ought to be there also.

After looking in at the dance at the Armory, last Thursday night, and seeing all the beautiful girls there, a stranger in town remarked that Belle-femme would be even a more appropriate name than Bellefonte for our town.

Among the Phillipsburg weddings of the past week was that of Mr. Charley Robinson, one of the attaches of Kessler's store and Miss Margaret Dorman, of Du-Bois. The happy event came off on Monday, and many congratulations and presents are showering in upon them.

Manager J. Mitchell Cunningham of the Brokerhoff house, probably thinks that last Sunday was the only day on the calendar. It was an eventful one at his home, for a fine boy arrived there that day. It is Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham's first child and they have been the recipients of numerous congratulations.

The new grange hall, at Centre Hall, is nearing completion and the further the work progresses the more pleasing the appearance of the structure becomes. The slate roof is about completed now, so that it will not be long until the inside work is finished. Progress grange is meeting in the Foundry hall until the new building is completed.

Steele Crissman, of Phillipsburg, has purchased the drug store of W. K. Saxton, in Lock Haven. This doesn't mean that Mr. Crissman intends leaving Phillipsburg, for his "old corner" drug store in that place is too good a thing for Steele to let go of and being a big toad in the Republic puddle in this county he would not likely elect being a little toad in Clinton. J. W. McLees will manage the new purchase for him.

At the meeting of the school board, on Monday night, Miss Gertrude Taylor was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Boyd A. Musser, who was Miss Anna MacBride. The appointment of Miss Taylor is not to Miss MacBride's school. The new teacher will be one of the primary grades, and promotions will be made in the regular corps. Miss Taylor is a sister of Capt. Hugh S. Taylor, of Co. B.

Millheim will hold a special election on September 12th to decide whether the borough will bond itself to the extent of $7,000 with which to install a public water service. It is contemplated to pipe the water from Philip's creek in "The Narrows," about a mile north of the town. A good move, old town. Carry the proposition through. Let the borough own your water works and you will find it an economic, as well as a satisfactory blessing that you will wonder how you got along without.

At a public meeting held in the Evangelical church, at Centre Hall several weeks ago Mrs. H. W. Kreamer, Mrs. Annie Boozer, J. W. Henney, Mrs. W. F. Bradford and Mrs. S. W. Smith were appointed a committee to solicit a fund, which the town of Centre Hall has already sent to Co. B. They raised $34.20 and sent it to Capt. Taylor to be expended in relief work for the sick and needy of the company. That the fund reached its destination and the thoughtful kindness of the people of Centre Hall was appreciated is attested by the letter which Capt. Taylor wrote them immediately upon receipt of their offering.

A farmer friend up in College township, who has been watching the experiments about the College Station, and trying to get a snich on selecting good cows, writes us that he thinks he has struck it, and gives the following as his ideas: In a poor cow the thigh runs down straight, so there is no space between the thigh and the other. One of the best ways to tell what kind of a cow you have is her temperament. A good dairy cow has a sharp spine, strongly developed nervous system and sharp hip bones. A good cow has a large, wedge-shaped stomach, for she must have a large and powerful digestive system to use up her food quickly and make the best returns for it.

CENTRE COUNTY GIVES ANOTHER OF HER SONS.—The second one of our soldier boys has answered his last roll call, and the life of another martyr has been recorded against the authorities who have kept thousands of men at Chickamauga, without proper sanitary and hospital regulations.

Charles H. Garis, color sergeant, 5th Reg. Penna. Vols. died in the division hospital at Chickamauga on Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. He was stricken with typhoid fever several weeks ago, and as soon as his condition became serious word was sent to his friends here. Mrs. Garis went to Chickamauga three weeks ago and was with him when he died.

This death is a very sad one, for it leaves a young widow with three small children without the love and care of a husband and father, who was everything that an honorable man should be. Only a short time before he was taken ill he was home to bury his baby that had taken sick while he was away. He reached home here only a few hours before its death. That was the first bitterness in the happy home that has now been saddened by deepest grief.

Charles H. Garis was born in Loganton, Clinton county, May 14th, 1868, and was 30 years 3 months 14 days of age. He was what may be termed a self-made man. Born of poor parents, he managed by hard work to secure a good education. He learned the stone mason's trade and moved to Centre county where on March 27th, 1890, he married Sarah Emma, daughter of Wm. Miller, of Axe man. He is survived by his wife and three interesting children. Their names are William, Louise and James.

During his early life he made his home with W. H. Stiver, at Potter's Mills. After marrying he built the cosy home he has near the grange hall, out at the railroad station at Pleasant Gap. It is almost paid for and he leaves enough life insurance to clear it of debt. It is one of the thriftiest looking homes along the pike and is a monument to the energy and economy of a hard working, sober young man. Deceased was a substitute, mail carrier for Bellefonte, having passed a satisfactory civil service examination. He stood highest of all the applicants. He was a man of unpretentious character, sturdy and true in his life and his memory cannot but be an honor to his friends. His career as a soldier was marked by the highest appreciation of his duty. He enlisted in Co. B under Cap't. Amos Mullen in 1869.

The remains arrived in this place on Tuesday morning and were taken directly to his home. Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church at Pleasant Gap, Wednesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock and interment was made in the church cemetery there. Rev. Bickel, of the Bellefonte Reformed church officiated at the service.

The pall-bearers were Grant Hoover, Edward Garrett, G. W. Rees, Charles Bartley, Boyd A. Musser and Earle C. Tuten, all old members of Co. B. The squad that fired the final salute over the grave was made up of Sergeant Claud W. Smith, commanding; Corporal Richard Taylor, James Noonan, W. T. Noll, Harry Williams, Harry Eberhart, Joseph Thal, Harry Miller, J. Noll, bulger William Derstine and drummer Al Roberts, also old members of Co. B. The floral offerings were exquisite and among them probably the most beautiful one was given by his comrades, the members and ex-members of Company B. It represented the gates ajar and over the gates was a beautiful dove. Another very handsome tribute was a floral pillow the gift of his Sunday school class in the Reformed church.

A TRAIN JUMPER KILLED NEAR JULIAN.—Another warning to the boys who persist in jumping on and off moving trains, thereby continually risking their lives, comes from the vicinity of Julian, where there is sadness over the shocking death of Harry Hall, the 14 year old son of James Hall. The latter is a farmer and occupies the tenant house on the Cridler Mattern farm, about two miles above Julian.

On Monday evening, the boy went down to Julian on an errand. Knowing that a freight train was scheduled to leave there shortly after 10 o'clock, he waited for it to ride home. The train left Julian at 10:35 and Hall was on it. When at a point nearly opposite his home he jumped off and was thrown under the wheels. His right leg was cut off between the knee and the ankle and his left foot was crushed, besides being so badly bruised that there was no hope for his recovery. He was hauled home in Mr. Matern's buggy and lingered until 5 o'clock Tuesday morning, when he died.

Funeral services were held at the house on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock and interment was made at Dix run cemetery.

CURTIS DEHAAS DIES SUDDENLY.—The venerable Curtis DeHaas died at his home, in Howard, on Monday afternoon, at the age of 76 years. Several years ago he suffered a partial stroke of paralysis and had not been in good health since that time. His death was not unexpected, as he had been confined to bed for a long time and his friends realized that he could not survive long.

Deceased was a highly esteemed resident of Howard and for years, while able, had been the mail carrier there. He was a veteran of the late war; having lost an arm in the service. His widow and sons Jacob, John and Joseph survive.

Funeral services were held at the house on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. E. E. Manley of the Christian church officiated, assisted by Revs. Wharton and Sechrist. Interment at Howard.

CLEVAN DINGES.—It is with much regret that we announce the death of Mr. Clevan Dinges from typhoid fever, which occurred at his home in Williamsport Tuesday morning. Although he had claimed Williamsport as his home for the past eight years he was so well known here, having once lived among us and also having married Miss Katherine Green, daughter of P. Potts Green, of this place, that his death is a loss to this community as it would be to anyone in which he had ever lived. But 37 years of age he had yet accomplished much, not only in business lines but, in every movement looking towards the elevation of mankind and when sure of the justness of his convictions was wonderfully courageous in upholding them. Thus he was strongly identified with the prohibition movement and last fall served as candidate for a state office on that ticket. Conscientious, ambitious, generous, a man determined to win success and that by the utilization of only honest and upright methods, his life was an honor and good to every person and place that knew him. For some years he has been very successfully engaged in the Fire and Life Insurance business with headquarters in Williamsport, but traveled much of the time in the interests of his company. His wife, mother—Mrs. Mary Dinges, of Centre Hall, two sisters and two brothers—Henry of Centre Hall, and Simon of Williamsport, survive him. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Lanrie, Thursday morning at the residence of Mr. Green and interment made in the Union cemetery, Bellefonte.

EDITH TATE DIED.—In the last week's issue of the WATCHMAN was noted, the critical condition of Miss Edith Bell Tate, of north Spring street, who underwent an operation for acute appendicitis on Wednesday, August 24th. She had been ill less than a week when it was decided to operate on her, but even speedily as the case was diagnosed the operation was too late to save her life. She never rallied and died Thursday evening at five o'clock.

Deceased was born in this place March 26th, 1870. She was the daughter of the late Col. D. K. Tate who was one of the town's prominent builders in his following.

Her mother survives her with the following sisters and brothers: Wilbur F.; Harry, Roanoke, Va.; D. Kirk, Phillipsburg; Benton D., Bellefonte; Mrs. Roy Temple, Beverly, Mass., and Mrs. George Beezer, Bellefonte.

Funeral services were held at the house on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Stephens, of the Methodist church, officiated.

The aged mother of Mr. John Kline, who died but a few weeks ago at his home on Curtin street, was not long in following her son into the great unknown. She had been confined to bed but a few days, with dysentery, at her home in Lauvertown, when death very unexpectedly came to her relief on Thursday last week. Mrs. Kline was the wife of Geo. Kline. She was born in Snyder county seventy years ago, and has lived the life of a pure christian woman. Her husband and the following children survive her: Harrison Kline, of Bellefonte; Rev. Robert Kline, Episcopal minister at Allentown, Pa.; Margaret, wife of ex-sheriff W. A. Ishler, of Bellefonte; Sarah, wife of Harvey Meese, of Benner township, and Miss Alice at home. Interment was made at Shiloh church on Saturday morning.

Greenburg Mayhue died at his home in Milesburg, last Friday morning, at 4 o'clock. He had been a sufferer for some time with dropsical troubles and was 68 years, 8 months and 29 days old. Interment was made in Baughman's cemetery on Sunday afternoon at 10 o'clock.

On Wednesday last, at his home in Boalsburg, Mr. Daniel Boone calmly passed to the great beyond. He was 82 years of age and one of Harris townships most respected citizens. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning.

The Fifth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers, had a hard time of it during its first hours in the Blue Grass State. The men reached Lexington, Ky., before 5 o'clock last Wednesday morning, but did not get unloaded from the trains until after 1 o'clock in the afternoon. They suffered greatly from being cooped up so long in the hot cars, and several men were so overcome with heat they could hardly stand. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon a perfect deluge of rain began falling and hundreds of the boys got a drenching before they could put the finishing touches on their tents. All the sick were left at Chickamauga, so that those who are in the new camp are in comparatively good health.

SOME OF CENTRE COUNTY'S SICK SOLDIERS AT HOME.—On Monday the hospital train that was furnished by the State, through the thoughtfulness of Governor Hastings, to bring the sick Pennsylvania soldiers back from the disease stricken camp at Chickamauga to clean cots and tender nursing in the hospitals and houses of their native State, reached Altoona. The train had left Chickamauga on Sunday and carried all the sick Pennsylvania soldiers who were at all able to travel. There were 218 of them on board, and the train was under the personal supervision of Governor Hastings throughout the entire trip.

Stops were made at Pittsburg, Greensburg, Johnstown, Altoona, Tyrone and all points east where men were to be left. At Altoona two of Co. B's boys were taken off the train and placed in the hospital there for it was seen that they were in too dangerous a condition to travel further.

D. O. Hasel Co. B, of Axe Mann, was left in the Altoona hospital. He is about 23 years old and is a son of Cornelius Hasel. He is suffering with a very bad attack of typhoid fever.

John Brown, Co. B, of Milesburg, was left at Altoona, suffering with rheumatism. It is reported that he will soon be discharged from the hospital.

Henry Schlater, Co. L, Phillipsburg, was in such an alarming condition when the train reached Pittsburg that he was taken off and sent to Mercy hospital in that city. He had typhoid fever in a bad form and was delirious.

W. J. Lathers, Co. L, Phillipsburg, was left in the Altoona hospital because of his serious condition with typhoid fever.

Victor Gray, Co. L, Phillipsburg, was left at Altoona because of his exhausted condition. He has typhoid fever.

The only one of the Centre county men, who came through on the train, to reach Bellefonte, was L. A. Walker, of Rebersburg. He is a member of Co. B, and is a convalescent from a severe attack of malarial fever. He was taken off the hospital train at Tyrone and brought on to Bellefonte, where he remained all night at the Bush house and continued his journey to Rebersburg on Tuesday morning.

One of Centre county's soldier boys who was unable to be brought home was Dr. Dale's son David, of Lemont, a private in Company H, fifth Pa., Regiment, who is down with typhoid fever in Chattanooga, Tenn. He was taken sick at Chickamauga, and was unable to accompany the regiment when it moved to Lexington, Ky. Luckily he has escaped the horrors of a camp hospital, and we understand that he is getting along well, being with a private family in the city, who with true southern hospitality is kindly nursing several sick soldiers. The men were all visited by Gov. Hastings, who intended bringing them home in the hospital train, but they were not in a condition to be moved.

Col. Amos Mullen, Dr. R. G. H. Hayes, W. H. Walker, Grant Hoover and W. H. Miller were a committee representing the citizens of the town. They met the train in Tyrone and were there ready to receive all of our sick boys and wait upon them during their trip to this place.

ONE OF THE HEROES OF SANTIAGO HERE.—On Tuesday Bellefonte was honored for the first time by a visit from one of the men who fought in the awful engagements before Santiago, De Cuba. A cleaner cut, more gentlemanly type of the regular army soldier than is George R. Dillett, who was the visitor, can be found nowhere. He is a private in Co. D, 17th U. S. Reg. and spent the day in Bellefonte with his father, Mr. William Dillett, of Centre Hall.

Many people cast admiring eyes on the fine looking soldier, as he walked about our streets, in his natty uniform. About 5ft 10in in height, an athletic, well rounded physique and a clean shaven face that looked so bright and intelligent that it almost invited friendships, were the principal features that marked him as an ideal soldier. But few knew that he had gone through both day's fights before Santiago only to fall a victim to the awful fever that did more damage there than Spanish bullets.

A little over three years ago Dillett was working at Lorain, Ohio. Becoming tired of his occupation, a bar keeper, he went to Cleveland and enlisted in the regular service. He was assigned to Co. D, 17th Inf. and sent to the barracks at Columbus, Ohio. At the breaking out of the war his regiment was among the first sent to Port Tampa and when the invading army left for Cuba this Centre county boy was on the "Cherokee," the boat that carried Gen'l. Shafter and his staff. He went through the battles and camp hardships unscathed, but after the surrender was stricken with fever and rheumatism. On July 10th he was sent to New York, on the steamer Olivette, and placed in the hospital of the college of Long Island in Brooklyn. He is home on a thirty day's furlough but as his time has expired he will not re-enlist. He says he has had enough of the army.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphans court clerk, G. W. Rumberger, during the past week: Frederick Brighton and Maggie Davis, both of Phillipsburg. Curtis R. Snook and Carrie M. Keen, both of Mingoville. Zenas E. Hoover, of Julian, and Almada Hoover, Fleming.

The Centre Hall school board has purchased a new heating and ventilating plant for the school building in that place. It is to be installed before the fall term opens.

THE MILLEES CONVENTION.—About 300 delegates are expected to be in attendance at the annual convention of the Miller's State Association, which will meet in this place on the 27th and 28th of the present month. Dr. Hyatt, of Lewisburg, who was the U. S. consul at Santiago, Cuba, at the breaking out of the war, has been invited to address the Miller's, and it is expected that he will be present. Our people should make preparations to give this body of representative men a warm reception. A little bit of attention goes a great ways, and nothing adds to the popularity and general good name of a town like hospitality shown to visitors. Bellefonte knows how to be hospitable, and the time is coming when a little of it can put to very good use.

SEE THAT YOU ARE REGISTERED.—Next Tuesday and Wednesday will be the last days for registering voters in order to qualify them to vote at the next general election. On those two days the assessors will sit at the polling places, when every good citizen ought to see that his name is on the registry list. It is the duty of every man to vote, and to do this with as little trouble as possible to himself as his name ought to be on the registry list. If he is not registered he cannot pay taxes and if he has not paid his taxes he cannot vote. Don't forget it. Register on September 6th or 7th, or previous to that time.

News Purely Personal.

Mrs. A. O. Furst, of Lion street, is in Milton visiting her father Wm. Chamberlain Esq.

Former sheriff John P. Condo, of Millheim, was in town on Monday attending to business.

Miss Julia McDermott, of Bishop street, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Harris, in Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Grauer, Lyon & Co.'s buyers, have left for Philadelphia to buy fall and winter goods.

Mr. I. G. Walker, one of the big, substantial men of Ferguson township, was a visitor for a few hours in town on Wednesday.

Tom Hamilton, more popularly known as "Teddy," is home on a visit of several weeks. He is in business with his uncle in New York city.

Mr. Geo. O. Boal and Mrs. Boal, two of Bellefonte's favorite citizens, now residents of Washington, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Longwell on Spring street.

Dr. Lee B. Woodcock returned to Philadelphia Wednesday morning after a week's pleasant stay at his old home here. He is on the resident staff of the Methodist hospital in that city.

Will Toner is here from Philadelphia for a ten days' visit with friends and relatives in this county. Will has a splendid position with one of the trust companies in the city and is getting along fine.

Geo. R. Meek, accompanied by his sisters Lulu and Winifred, are off on a trip to Colorado with the National Editorial Association. They expect to be absent about three weeks, and anticipate a most pleasant vacation.

C. C. Bell, superintendent of masonry and brick laying at the Huntington reformatory, arrived in town on Monday and remained here until Tuesday morning. He is very well pleased with his new position and from all reports seems admirably adapted for it.

Harry Powers, who had been spending six weeks with his sister, Mrs. James Nolan, in this place, left for his home in Philadelphia, on Monday. He is the youngest son of the late "Reddy" Powers, so well known in Bellefonte, and is now living in Philadelphia with his brother Edward.

John Toner Harris started for Buffalo, N. Y., on Friday evening with the expectation of accepting a position with an electrical contracting firm in that city. John was one of the best electrical engineers graduated from that institution.

W. P. Ard, one of the substantial, representative men of lower Pennsylvania, was kept busy on Tuesday transacting business about town. It is not often the Dr. gets away from his pleasant home in Woodward, but when he does he never fails to find hosts of friends who are always glad to greet him.

Balser Weber Esq., lower Bald Eagle's most substantial and influential business representative, whose illness from hemorrhages of the stomach, we noted a few weeks ago, is, we are glad to know, steadily improving. He was up in town on Wednesday, and although a little thin, is looking exceedingly well and able to attend to business as usual.

Mrs. Jacob Hassel, of Syracuse, N. Y., arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday morning and will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hamm, on east Bishop street, for a short time. Mrs. Hassel arrived just in time to see her sister, Mrs. Nathan Riesman, of Princeton, Ind., who had been here spending two months and returned to her home in the West on Tuesday afternoon.

Thos. K. Morris, of Leroy, N. Y., dropped in to town on Monday morning, to spend the day with his friends here, and they are legion. Since leaving Bellefonte he has been located at Leroy, near Buffalo, where he is superintending the construction of a stone crushing plant with which they expect to fill an enormous ballast contract for the Lehigh valley R. R.

Dr. J. H. Pickle and family left for their homes in Milesburg, on Monday morning. Mrs. Pickle and the little boy and girl had been here spending the summer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Twitmyer, on Water street. Dr. Pickle is an instructor at the Normal school at Millersburg and came up to take his family home before the opening of the fall term.

Col. Wm. T. McEntire, the poet of Pine creek, was in town over Sunday visiting his friends here. The "Colonel" prepared for Princeton at the Bellefonte academy and it was while perched on that rocky eminence, with the turbulent water of Spring creek lashing its base, that the muse grabbed him and inspired him with that memorable jingle on the Maine.

Mr. Will J. Kepler, accompanied by Mr. Goss were two of Ferguson township's visitors to Bellefonte, on Wednesday. Mr. Kepler was Centre county's representative to the Bedford meeting at which Mr. Jenks was formerly notified of his nomination, but was prevented from attending on account of the length of a honeymoon trip he was enjoying at the time. No one blames him, however, for honeymoons are scarce in this life and notification meetings are plentiful.

Dr. Geo. Meyer, who with his father J. H. Meyer Esq. has just returned from the Klondyke came down from Rochester, N. Y., on Monday, to shake hands with his many friends about Bellefonte. The Dr.'s experience while up in the frozen region of the North would fill many columns with exceedingly interesting reading. He looks as if the trip benefited him and reports his father as enjoying better health than when he undertook the dangerous journey. Neither of them care to return and both are satisfied to let others have all the gold that is in Alaska.

A METHODIST REUNION IN PHILIPSBURG.—The members of the Phillipsburg Methodist church are arranging for a week of reunion and revival. According to plans now being formulated it will begin on Sunday, September 25th, and continue for one week. As many of the former members of the Phillipsburg congregation as can be gotten will be urged to return and all the living former pastors are expected to be present.

The reunion will be made the occasion for the beginning of a church improvement undertaking which it is hoped will end in adding materially to the appearance and comfort of the building in Phillipsburg.

Among the former ministers who will probably be present are Rev. L. H. Day, who was pastor in 1840 on the Phillipsburg circuit; Rev. John Z. Lloyd, 1846; Rev. A. M. Barnitz, 1854; Rev. Samuel Creighton, 1861; Rev. George Leidy, 1864; Rev. M. R. Foster, 1865. Under Dr. Foster's pastorate, Phillipsburg was made a station. Following this, Rev. Reuben E. Wilson was pastor 1870, and during this term the present church edifice was erected. Rev. M. L. Smysner was appointed 1875, Rev. H. C. Parloe, 1876, and Rev. J. B. Polsgrove 1882. The present parsonage was built during Rev. Polsgrove's incumbency. Rev. J. H. McGarrath 1888, Rev. A. R. Miller 1893, bring up the list to 1897 when the present pastorate began under Rev. T. L. Tomkinson.

A FRUIT EVAPORATING PLANT FOR CENTRE HALL.—Centre Hall will have a fruit evaporating establishment in operation before many days. The party interested is Charles Miner, of Roise, New York, who was for some time looking for a favorable location in Pennsylvania, and finally selected Pennsylvania as a suitable field and this place for headquarters. Sufficient kilns will be erected at once to evaporate fifteen thousand bushels of apples, and if fruit is delivered to warrant additional kilns they will be constructed in due time. The establishment will require about two dozen laborers.

Mr. Miner has been in the business for some time in his native town, where fruit is extensively grown, and finds that the development of the industry should be extended to other localities. He will also establish a regular market for winter apples, which will be appreciated by those fortunate in having this fruit. A market for all grades of apples will net considerable money to farmers who, prior to this, were compelled to feed the fruit to hogs, or leave it to go to waste on the trees without profit. Part of Colyer's handle factory will be occupied by the new industry.

THE POWERS SHOE CO.—Last Friday George T. Bush, Herbert L. Shefer and Augustus Heverly bought the shoe stock and fixtures in the room occupied by the late E. L. Powers, in the Arcade. They intend continuing the business under the firm name of the Powers Shoe Co. Mr. Heverly will manage the business while the other parties will have an interested oversight.

The stand is an excellent one and there is no reason why the young men should not make a great success of it. According to the articles the firm cannot be dissolved in less than three years.

Work has begun on the construction of a telephone line from Lock Haven to Renovo. The telephone has come to be such a necessity to a town that it seems impossible that Renovo has had no connection with outside places up to this time.
