

John W. Vogel's Afro-American Mastodon minstrels are advertised to show at Garman's opera house on Friday evening, Oct. 14th.

The ladies' Bible class of the Lutheran Sunday school held a pumpkin pie social at the home of Mrs. L. H. Wian, east of town, last evening. These socials are to be of weekly occurrence with the Lutheran Sunday school workers, for they have assumed a portion of the church debt and propose to raise it in this way.

A very polished, sleek gentleman, calling himself Sydney Gray, arrived in Clearfield a few weeks ago and because of his fine testimonials from Williamsport hotel men he was given a job at the Witter Inn as clerk. He staid just long enough to borrow two mileage books from a guest of the house and he is evidently traveling yet, for they haven't heard from him since.

Last Thursday morning 276 tickets were sold from Coburn to the Lewisburg fair. It is estimated that three thousand Centre countians were in attendance. If three thousand will travel that far to a fair, how many more thousands would go to one nearer home? There is a business problem for you Grangers who are running Grange park and ought to make a great exhibition out of it.

A FINE MISSING WORD CONTEST.—One of the nearest missing word contests we have heard for some time is this: The other evening the good natured parson of our church came to call at our house and just about the time he was ready to sit down my little brother Johnny laid a bent pin on the seat of a chair. Fate landed the parson in that very chair, but the pin encouraged him to rise again. And as he sprung rapidly toward the ceiling, with both hands clutching frantically at the broad bosom of his trousers, he uttered a sentence of only two words. The last word was "it."

To the first person who sends us the missing word and a check for $1.50 we will send the WATCHMAN for one year.

Mrs. Sarah Bumgardner, relict of Joseph Bumgardner, died at her home at Beech Creek, on last Friday. She was 81 years old. Rev. Eian, of the Baptist church, conducted funeral services at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Foresman. Four other children survive.

Robert Packer, a well-known farmer of the lower end of Bald Eagle valley, died suddenly while visiting his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Earon, near Lock Haven, on Sunday afternoon. He was 78 years old and had just complained about a severe pain in his chest when he rolled out of the chair in which he was sitting. He was dead when picked up.

Frederick Brumgard, of the lower end of Nittany valley, died at his home on Monday. He was stricken with paralysis on Sunday, having survived the stroke only a day. Deceased was 81 years old. Two sons, W. L., of Nittany valley, and E. J., of Hughesville, survive. Services were held at the house, on Wednesday afternoon, and interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Jacob W. Jones, one of the earliest settlers of Tyrone, died early Monday morning. He was born in Chester county in 1819 and when he was only four years old his parents moved into Spruce creek valley. He was one of the first councilmen elected after Tyrone was erected into a borough, in 1857. He also lived a while in Philipsburg, where his remains were buried on Wednesday.

CYRUS WASSON IS DEAD.—Last Thursday Sept. 29th, Cyrus Wasson died at his home near Lemont as the result of stomach trouble and an affection of the heart. He had suffered with his stomach for a number of years. He was born near the place of his death on July 11th, 1827, and had spent the whole seventy-one years of his life in that vicinity. A widow and three sons survive him. The latter are John F., Samuel B., and Robert U.

Revs. Hepler and Black conducted services over the remains on Monday morning and interment was made at the Branch.

DEATH OF AN AXE POLISHER.—John Kelly, formerly of Bellefonte and at that time employed at Mann's axe works, died at his home in Mill Hall, last Thursday morning, after a lingering illness with axe maker's consumption.

Deceased was 50 years old and is survived by three sons and three daughters, his wife having died several years ago. The remains were brought to this place, on Saturday morning, and interred in St. John's Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. Elizabeth Roller, relict of John Roller of near Fillmore, died at the home of her son, Benner W. Rumberger, at Hublersburg, on Wednesday. She had been ill for several months with general debilitation consequent upon old age and her death was a blessed release from her suffering, for she was an estimable christian woman and fully prepared to meet her Creator. She is survived by four children of her first husband, Martin F. Rumberger. They are Mrs. Susan Smith, of Chester Hill; Benner W., Hublersburg; James R., Altoona, and Jennie, in Canada. The children of her second husband, John Roller, are Ada and Elmer E., both in Ohio. The services will be held at the house early Saturday morning and interment will be made in Gray's burying ground, in Half-moon, at noon.

THE GLOBE'S MILLINERY OPENING.—The fall opening of millinery novelties at Katz's, on last Tuesday, was an event of no small importance to the ladies of Bellefonte. They were out in force, and the millinery department of the big store was thronged during the day. Any hat that would create a sensation anywhere else looked very commonplace among the many beautiful ideas shown by Katz & Co.

The ladies expected to see something out of the ordinary and they were not disappointed. The originality of the designs was the most striking thing in evidence, and was a signal and noteworthy tribute to the skill displayed. Others were copies of French ideas, toned down to suit the American taste.

Velvets, in fancy designs, tucked and braided, fancy quilts and ornaments seem for the time being to have usurped the place formerly occupied by ribbons and ostrich feathers as ornaments for woman's head-dress. This department is, as usual, in charge of Miss Lanier, who vied with her assistants in making the occasion pleasant for their visitors. We understand more orders were taken than at any previous opening.

THE LYON-ZEHNDER WEDDING.—Because of Henry D. Lyon's popularity while in Bellefonte and because there are many of our readers, both in this place and in the county, who will be interested in knowing all about his marriage to a very charming girl, we publish the following account of it, taken from the Danville Intelligencer of last Friday.

Before a large and fashionable assemblage comprising friends and relatives of the young couple from this and surrounding cities, Henry Lyon and Miss Alice Zehnder were made man and wife in St. Paul's M. E. church at 11 o'clock on Wednesday last, Dr. G. D. Pennepacker officiating. They were attended by Mr. Philip Waddel, of Bellefonte, as groomsmen and Miss Zehnder, of Scranton, niece of the bride, as maid of honor. At the appointed time the organist, Miss Lillian Keiser, of Hazleton, struck up "Lohengrin" on the church organ and to his strains the bride, preceded by the ushers, Messrs. Carl Irwin, Harry Rebnan, Charles Lyon, brother of the groom of this city, and R. B. Barber, of Hazleton, and her maid of honor marched up the aisle to the chancel rail, where she was met by the groom who accompanied by his best man, had approached from the other side of the church and awaited her there.

The altar was profusely banked with greens and palms and before it the knot was tied. Immediately upon the conclusion of the services the party was driven to the home of the bride's parents where a breakfast and reception followed.

The reception was a brilliant affair and was attended by about 150 guests. The decorations of the house were in touch with the season of the year and autumn leaves and golden-rod predominated and were strewn everywhere. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents, among them valuable pieces of silverware, china and cut glass.

The bride wore white organdy and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and looked charming. The maid of honor was in white also and carried pink roses. The groom and his supporters wore the conventional black cutaways.

The event was one of the most interesting of its kind for many months, due to the decided popularity of the contracting parties. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Zehnder, of Market street, and is a young lady of many accomplishments and is well and favorably known by nearly every resident of the town. The groom is one of our most successful grocers, who for the last two years has been one of the leading merchants in that line of business in this city. Coupled with this is a genial personality that has made him popular with all. The newly married couple have our kindest wishes for a life of future felicity.

They left at 12:30 on the Pennsylvania road for Philadelphia and New York where a week will be spent before they return to this city to take up their residence at the home of the bride's parents.

Among the guests from a distance that were noticed at the reception were Mr. Harry Simpson and sister Stewart, Mrs. Charles Weichel and Mrs. C. H. Zehnder and two young daughters, of Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Zehnder and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Zehnder, of Lebanon; Mrs. William Lyon and Mr. Jacob Lyon, of Bellefonte.

Pine Grove Mention.

Grant Carter, of Altoona, is visiting his Fairbrook friends.

Mrs. George Behrer is slowly recovering from an attack of dysentery.

A. M. Brown's new barn is being freshened with a new coat of pink and brown paint.

The wire stringers have about finished their job and now everybody is anxiously awaiting their phones.

Our old friend Wm. Foster is short a barrel of new cider that he had in his yard for apple-butter making.

Annie Yearick, of Woodward, with her bright little boy is visiting the home of her childhood, Geo. Kustaborder's.

Davy Dennis' new house is nearing completion, Reed Bros. are the contractors. The building when completed will be a plume in their hats.

Squire Keller has turned the key in his law office on Main street preparatory to taking a peep at the Templar's big parade in Pittsburg next week. His wife accompanied him.

The venerable John Strohm, one of Walker township's representative men as well as one of the Democratic leaders in that section, is spending the week at State College the guest of D. I. Johnson.

John Corrigan, a member of Co. E, 6th U. S. cavalry is laid up for repairs because of attempt to mount an unbroken colt without a bridle. It will be some time before he attempts rough riding again.

Our mill is closed down for repairs. The large water wheel is to be replaced by a turbine wheel to be run by water from the upper dam, eighteen inch pipes are being laid, new rolls are being put into position and when finished the mill will equal the Reynolds mill at Bellefonte.

Our young friend Ed. Savage Erb is now sole proprietor of State College laundry and his patrons say he is giving satisfaction. We wish him success in his new venture.

On Wednesday there was an exodus of our young people to the educational institutions they are attending. J. G. Miller to the Carlisle law school; Frank W. Bailey to the Pennsylvania University in Philadelphia and J. B. Krebs to the same school. This is Baker's last year and soon we may expect to see his dental shingle swinging in the breeze.

At a cost of $265 a beautiful eight foot granite shaft marks the last resting place of Andrew Merryman in the north corner of the new cemetery. The plot is raised and one of the nicest in the yard. Isaac Merryman footed the bill for the monument which will be an enduring one for his name and especially when we consider that he earned the cash by grubbing and chopping cord wood.

Annie Duff, wife of Harrison Knarr, passed from this life, on last Saturday, after a lingering illness with catarrh of the stomach. She was born in Huntingdon county sixty years ago and came to this place fifteen years ago to keep house for the late Wilson Leech. Here Mr. Knarr met and married her and she resided in the old Daniel Musser home on the Branch while he has been traveling in the West. She was buried on last Monday, at 2 o'clock, in the Branch cemetery.

THE LODGE.—Last Monday evening the lodge room of the I. O. O. F. at State College was fairly crowded to witness the installation services which were so well conducted by Dr. D. G. M., J. C. Meyer of Bellefonte. Mr. Meyer was assisted by A. C. Mingle as secretary; W. B. Rankin, marshal; W. H. Fry, treasurer; C. H. Evey, guardian and J. C. Kline, warden. The following officers were installed for the ensuing term. W. S. Meese, N. G.; L. Ray Morgan, V. G.; S. S. Grieb, secretary; James Williams, assistant secretary; B. H. Beaver, treasurer; C. H. Evey, R. S.; N. G.; Demer Pearce, L. S.; N. G.; J. L. Holmes, chaplain; Prof. F. Peffer, R. S.; T. G. Thos. Decker, L. S.; V. G.; P. Rudy, I. S. guardian; James Aikens, O. S. guardian; Clark Herman, warden; B. H. Beaver, Rep. to G. lodge; Newt. Hartwick, R. S. supporter; H. D. Meek, L. S. supporter; John Hartwick, conductor.

Remarks were made by Dr. Wm. Fresh and deputy J. C. Meyer, who was much gratified at the handsome new quarters of one of Centre county's banner lodges.

Last Saturday evening was a red letter event for the Boalsburg lodge 894 I. O. O. F. Degrees were conferred and officers installed by Wm. Fry, of Penns Valley lodge 276, assisted by a corps of officers. The following officers were duly installed: W. C. Raymond, N. G.; A. G. Blazer, V. G.; R. Bruce Harrison, secretary; W. H. Myers, assistant secretary; James Poorman, treasurer; P. S. Ishler, representative to G. L. J. J. Condo, who has been sick for some weeks, was surprised by a snug little donation which made his heart fairly throb for joy. He has been a member of the organization for 26 years and his lodge is one of the most prosperous in the county. Its quarters above Weber's store are as comfortable as any lodge could desire and its total assets are $700. The receipts last year amounted to $236, while $265 were spent on the relief and working expenses.
