

Instantly Killed—George Saxton, Brother-in-Law of the President.

A Tragedy in Canton, O.—Five Shots Were Fired, Three of Which Entered His Body.—Woman is Under Arrest—Mrs. Anna C. George is Charged With Having Fired the Bullets Which Ended the Man's Life, Etc.—Accused Answers no Questions.

CANTON, O., Oct. 7.—George Saxton, a brother of Mrs. William McKinley, was shot dead at 6:10 o'clock this evening before the residence of Mrs. Eva B. Althouse, widow of the late George Althouse, 319 Lincoln avenue, where he is presumed to have gone to make a call. Five shots were fired, three of which entered his body and Mrs. Anna C. George has been placed under arrest on suspicion of the murder.

Saxton was unconscious when neighbors arrived to investigate the cause of the shooting and was dead when the physicians and officers arrived, the former having expressed the opinion that death was instantaneous, three bullets having entered vital spots. His position indicated that he had been on the steps to the Althouse residence when the shots were fired. The body was taken to an undertaking room and placed in charge of the coroner.

Mrs. George is the divorced wife of Sample C. George, who formerly was a tenant of Saxton in his down town business block, conducting a dressmaking business. Her divorce was obtained in Dakota, and a proceeding later filed in court by the husband against Saxton charged that Saxton had sent her there to secure the divorce, the proceeding here being a suit for damages for the alleged alienation of the wife's affections. This case has been through all the intermediate courts and was passed upon by the state supreme court on an interpleading and finally remanded for hearing on its merits here. Before this occurred, and on Wednesday, a settlement was effected, Saxton paying George $1,825 on the claim set up of $30,000 for damages.

Into the Enemy's Country.

LONDON, October 10.—The representative of a Pittsburg company is negotiating for twenty acres of land on the banks of the Manchester ship canal, where it is proposed to erect a manufactory of non-corrosive metal which will employ 5,000 men.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

—You will miss a rare treat if you fail to see the great War-o-graph and Vaudeville specialties at Garman's next Monday night.

—“McDoodles Flats,” that comes to Garman's next Tuesday night, is a farce comedy, full of songs and dances. The company advertises nineteen people.

—The Pennsylvania State College athletic association met on Wednesday night and elected E. S. Williams, '99, as manager of the base ball team for next year. The newly chosen manager of general athletics is W. L. Affelder, '99.

—A daughter of John Harmon, a farmer who lives on the Wagner farm in the “Big hollow,” took washing soda in mistake for baking soda to cure a slight sickness and came very near ending her life. She was in an extremely critical condition for several days.

—Tom Fleming has a whole basket full of big potatoes on exhibition and he thinks they will beat anything he has heard of yet. One weighs just exactly 3 lbs., but then half the people who see it weighed don't know that Tom has it plucked full of shoe pegs.

THE ENGINE CAUGHT A WILD TURKEY.—When the Bald Eagle valley express train pulled into Tyrone Tuesday afternoon and engineer John Leisinger went to look over his engine he found a plump, young wild turkey imprisoned by the air brake pipe on the bumper of his engine. The turkey was alive but was bruised slightly about the wings. It had evidently been frightened into flight by the train and flew into its imprisonment.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, G. W. Rumberger, during the past week:

J. A. Alexander and Sarah Brower, both of Union township.
Joseph McCulley, of Bellefonte, and Mary Wain, of Spring township.
John E. Kuhn and Erna V. Womer, both of Benner township.

FARMERS' DAY AT THE NITTANY CLUB.—Last Saturday was the first of what the Nittany rod and gun club intends shall be one of its gala days of the year. It was what was known as Farmers' day and all the farmers of Walker township and those from adjoining properties in Marion were invited to share the club's hospitality. Mr. Andrew Brockerhoff, of Bellefonte, and Mr. Clarence Sprout, of Williamsport, were there to receive the guests and extend the freedom of the club property.

Seventy-five farmers registered and never was there a more jovial assemblage in Nittany valley. The morning hours were pleasantly spent in looking over the handsome club house and listening to musical numbers rendered by several of the guests. At noon the party was invited into the large dining hall, where steward S. Peck had spread a banquet calculated to please the taste of anyone. After the various courses had been served speeches were made by Hon. John G. Love, Hon. S. T. Foresman, of Williamsport, Hon. John A. Woodward, of Howard; Prof. Geo. C. Watson, of State College; Jacob Dunkle, J. W. Gephart Esq. and J. H. Beck.

The guests departed carrying with them the pleasantest memories of the day. Their entertainment had been so cordial and lavish that they were more impressed than ever with the fact that the Nittany club is a friend and a benefactor to that community, rather than an octopus that intends to usurp their rights and destroy their property, as so many would have had them believe.

SOLDIERS' FAREWELL AND VAUDEVILLE.

—What will more than likely prove the most popular entertainment ever given in Bellefonte will be the one that the members of Co. B are arranging for next Wednesday night at Garman's opera house.

It will embrace all the most popular features from the Vaudeville company's repertoire and have pleasing and spectacular camp scenes, choruses and duets. A wonderful “War-o-graph” has been secured to perfect the camp scenes that will be reproduced from Chicamanga and Lexington.

The entertainment was designed as a formal farewell on the part of the soldiers before resuming more peaceful pursuits and while they would like to have been able to entertain the whole community free no hall commodious enough could be secured, so it had to be taken to Garman's, where the seating capacity is limited and in order to make it possible for only those most anxious to see the entertainment a small admission of 35, 25 and 15 cents will be charged. If there should be sufficient profit in the enterprise the funds will be devoted to purchasing a set of chimes to be placed on the Undine engine house in memory of Frank Taylor, who was leader of the Undine band and the regimental bugler, and other deceased members of the company.

A LOST BOY.

—We are requested to publish the following:
A boy 12 years of age, giving his name as Charley Vincent, came to the home of Archie Hutchinson, near Tyrone, on Friday evening, September 16th, asking for work. He was a handsome, manly, intelligent child, well dressed and bore every appearance of coming of good people and being carefully and well raised. He said his father and mother were both dead, his father dying in February last and his mother the following June, leaving him all alone. A neighbor lady Mrs. Mary Nitzel, East Twenty-first street, Harrisburg, had taken care of him since, but he heard her speak of taking him to an orphan's home, so he ran away to hunt a home for himself. He was taken in and cared for until Sunday last, when he suddenly disappeared going in the direction of Spruce Creek. He wore a blue double breasted coat and trousers, tan shoes and stockings, white shirt and collar, blue and white checked cambric tie, gray cap and steel framed glasses, had light hair, blue eyes and round full face. Mr. Hutchinson's family learned that he afterwards told he had run off from his uncle's home in New York and the detectives were in search of him. If this is correct and the other newspapers will kindly copy, the friends of the boy may be able to get some clue to him.

It has since turned out that the boy answers the description of the son of A. Vincent, 1904 Twentieth St., Altoona, who ran away from home on Sept. 13th.

Madisonburg.

Klinefelter's cider mill is running full speed.
Miss Mabel Vonada is recovering from an abscess on her mouth.

Mrs. William Rubl, of Salona, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Carrie Garis, this week.
Louis Smith is in our midst on an extended visit to Centre and Clinton counties.

J. C. Smith is the happiest man in the neighborhood. He says teaching goes much better since the arrival of his little girl.

Mrs. Bickel and son, Joseph, of Mill Hall, visited her daughter, Mrs. Yearick, the fore part of last week. We are sorry to state that the young man had the misfortune of falling from a tree. No harm was done more than his face bruised.

Nittany Items.

Elmer Snavely has been repairing their residence.
Mrs. Late and daughter visited Mrs. Shutt, of Milesburg.

Misses Maggie and Tabitha Hoy spent one day in our vicinity.
The hog cholera is playing havoc among the farmers' hogs in this locality.

Reuben Loveland, of Lamar, shipped eighteen bushels of chestnuts last week.
A. A. Pletcher and David Musser, of Lamar, spent last Sunday at Aaronsburg.

During the moonlight nights, a short time ago, a party was found in Lew Beck's cornfield, filling up for a winter famine.
Elwood Winkleman and Mr. Kling attended the Milton fair last week and speak in the highest praises of the exhibition.

Mrs. Henry Snavely spent last week at the club house, assisting Mrs. Peck prepare food for the farmers who assembled there on the 8th ult.
Geo. McCaslin and wife have received from the Orphan society, of Pittsburg, a little child, four years old, which they have adopted in their family.

E. J. Peck and Clem Bowersox have purchased a ferret to exterminate the rats from their barn. It affords amusement to see the rats scamper for a new retreat when the ferret is placed in the mows in the barn.

Last Monday, John Zeigler, of Abdera, while picking apples, fell and was seriously injured, breaking one of his ribs. The shock has caused concussion of the brain. At present there is little hope of his recovery.

Mr. Philip Walters, an esteemed citizen, takes special delight in exhibiting perfectly developed almonds grown in his lot. In green form in the hull they resemble the walnut in size and until the period of ripening open about the same as a chestnut bur.

Last Thursday the community was again surprised to hear that the residence of Adam Decker, of Snyderstown, was robbed during the afternoon, between the hours of 2 and 4 p. m. The thieves secured a check for $30, $1 in money and a revolver. These articles belonged to his son-in-law, Hiram Long. Should the honest people of Nittany valley continue to be annoyed in this manner, it is high time to execute the shot gun policy and wipe from the face of the earth these marauders of the valley.

Pine Grove Mention.

Miss Phoebe Miller, of Shingletown, Sundayed with ex-postmaster Miller.
George Gardner left for Pittsburg last Monday where he is going in the hunt of a job.

J. C. Piper, quite a sprightly old gentleman for one of his years, is a welcome visitor at his son's home on Main street.
Mrs. Wilson Gardner is in Pittsburg visiting her son, Harry, and enjoying the big Conclave. She expects to be away a month.

Col. Patterson and Andy Lytle, of State College, passed through here a few days ago handling the ribbons over a spanking team of bays in search of feeders. Rumor says, however, they were Stoung Swallow.

Mr. J. Wash. Campbell with his wife and family are here from Harper county, Kan., for a month's visit in Central Pennsylvania. They report everything full and plenty in the Sunflower State this fall.

Wm. J. Meyers, of Alexandria, spent several very busy days at his old stand rendering valuable assistance in pushing H. M. Krebs' fall work along. They are putting the finishing touches on a number of fine turnouts for Patton, Pa.

Hamer Martz, of Patton, who was on the auxiliary cruiser St. Paul, is spending a week with his aunts and uncles here, where the enjoyments are many for a young tar. At the conclusion of his visit young Martz will reinlist and go onto the training ship Richmond.

William Gibson is here on a seven day furlough from Camp Meade to see his mother, who is spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Mitchell, before going South next week. He is now on the engineering corps but expects to be transferred to the signal corps under command of General Graham. Camp life seems to agree with him and he looks every inch a soldier.

OUR LODGES.—In the absence of D. D. G. M. J. C. Meyer, Brother H. B. Pontius, of the Bellefonte lodge, installed the officers of our Pennsvalley lodge, I. O. O. F., on last Friday evening. This is Mr. Pontius' first visit since No. 276 was instituted, more than twenty-seven years ago. The organization was effected in Judge Burchfield's house on Water street and of the charter members Judge Burchfield, Dr. J. R. Smith, Capt. Jas. Dunlop, Jacob Erb, George Ard and Joseph B. Erb, the latter is the only one living. Mr. Pontius missed the old faces but yet enjoyed the installation. The officers installed were John Gummo, N. G.; Sam. E. Goss, V. G.; J. G. Heberling, treasurer; A. G. Archey, secretary; Wm. K. Goss, assistant secretary; W. H. Fry, warden; J. B. Heberling, conductor; W. H. Roush, chaplain; H. M. Krebs, Rep. to G.; H. J. Tate, R. S. to N. G.; J. D. Tanyer, L. S. to N. G.; G. E. Harper, O. S. G.; A. S. Walker, L. S. G.; J. W. Fry, R. S. S.; N. E. Heberling, L. S. S.; C. M. Fry, R. S. to V. G.; J. A. Fortney, L. S. to V. G.

Last Thursday evening D. D. G. M. of Centre county, J. C. Meyers, of Bellefonte, installed the officers of Lemont lodge 717, I. O. O. F., for the present term. J. C. Hoy, N. G.; Sam. Zettle, V. G.; Nathan Grove, secretary; W. H. Grove, assistant secretary; G. R. Boan, treasurer; J. A. Williams, R. S. to N. G.; J. H. Williams, L. S. to N. G.; S. B. Wasson, conductor; Harry Evey, warden; G. W. R. Williams; chaplain; A. J. Hassinger, O. S. G.; Clayton Etters, I. G. G.; Thos. Houtz, R. S. S.; Thos. Fishburn, L. S. S.; James Grove, R. S. to V. G.; J. Cal. Bathgate, L. S. to V. G.; Nathan Grove Rep. to Grand Lodge. Upon taking his leave Mr. Myers complimented the members on their new and elegant quarters, recently fitted up. He laid special stress on his invitation to the various lodges in Centre county to be present and take part in the annual Odd Fellows association of Central Pennsylvania which will meet in Bellefonte, April 26th, 1899, it being the anniversary of Odd Fellowship in the United States. A number of cantons will be present and the object is to make one of the finest displays ever made in Central Pennsylvania.

Mrs. G. B. Meek, of Altoona, is spending a week with her mother, Mrs. Shiffer, at the home of Dr. Woods, on Main street.
