Quay is Satisfied.

Has Nothing to Say Regarding His Candidacy for Senator Quay arrived in Philadelphia from his home in Beaver last evening and was in consultation with A. S. L. Shields at the Walton for several hours last night. He came to consult with Mr. Shields regarding his trial on the conspiracy charge in connection with the state funds in the Peoples bank.

"I am well satisfied with the result of Tuesday's election," he said in answer to a question.
"Are you a candidate for re-election?"

he was asked. "I suppose from all that has been said the members of the Legislature have that idea" he responded.

What do you think of the outlook for your re-election?" asked the reporter.
"Well, I cannot say. I guess the members of the Legislature elected on Tuesday can tell you best. Leach will be able to give you their addresses, I guess. Senator Quay referred to Frank Willing Leach, who, with Senator Penrose, state chairman Elkin, and several other friends were conferring with the Beaver Senator Quay declined to discuss politics, except to say that he was glad Colo-nel Roosevelt had been elected in New York. Senator Quay, accompanied by Senator Penrose, will leave to-day for Florida.

In Memory of Past Grand Bro. Balser Weber.

Beloved brother! Farewell and hail! Removed from sight, yet not afar, Still through this earthly twilight veil Thou beamest down, a friendly star.

The prophet's blessing comes to thee, The crown He holds in view is thine;

Forevermore thy memory In Heaven and in our hearts shall shine. Resolved-First, that in the death of our deceased brother, our Order has lost one of its most worthy members, our Lodge one of its devoted and active workers, and the com-munity has sustained the loss of one of its noblest citizens. Second, that the memory of Past Grand Bro. Balser Weber should be fondly cherished by each and everyone of us. We can never forget his nobility of character, his faithfulness to his Lodge, his zeal and steadfastness in the principles of our Order, his kindly greeting and his generous charities.

"Faithful in life; he was true to the end."

Third, that the good example set by our lamented brother should be followed by every member of this Lodge.

Fourth, that in this affliction our hearts go out to the beloved wife and children of our departed Brother, to whom we extend our heartfelt sympathies.

Fifth, that these resolutions be spread on the minutes of our Lodge; and that the recording secretary be ordered to forward under the seal of the Order a copy of the same to the family of our deceased Brother. H. A. MOORE, D. K. WILSON, GEORGE H. WISTAR.

Pine Grove Mention.

Mrs. Henry Koch and J. C. Stauser spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Goss.

Rev. Illingworth was home to do his share towards bringing about honest government. Samuel Harpster is having his house freshened up with a new coat of white and green paint. Miss Mary, daughter of Hon. J. T. Mc-Cormick, is slowly improving from a serious 43-43-3t attack of illness. Rev. John Houseman, who was down SMALL FARM FOR SALE.—A from Altoona visiting his aged mother, assisted Rev. Aikens. last Sunday.

Jake Wagner, of Oak Hall, was so anxious to know of the Quay sentiment that he drove up on election day but his drive home would have been very lonely had it not been for his jolly Democratic wife.

Miller Reuben Tressler is hobbling around with the aid of crutches because a millstone came very near crushing the life out of him. Farmer Henry Bloom is also obliged to lean on artificial support on account of being seriously injured by a falling tree. The politicians were favored with the best weather the bureau afforded and in consequence good old Ferguson stood solid for clean and honest politics. The Republican bosses deserted the ship early and retired, while the unterrified and victorious Democrats painted Our old friend Davy Dennis took a backward tumble off a load of corn fodder and in consequence is laid up with a broken rib and lamed shoulder which kept him home on election day and deprived the Democratic ticket of one big X. He has missed but two elections in all his life.

Sarah, widow of the late Daniel Frank died at the home of her son Samuel in Graysville on the 3rd, of old age. She was a kind, helpful woman to everyone in need and a member of the Lutheran church. She was 87 years of age and is survived by ber two sons Thomas and Samuel and several daughters and grandchildren. She was buried in the Graysville church yard on the 5th.

Judge Riley's hunting gang passed through here Tuesday en route for their old camping ground on Tussey mountain above Graysville. The right wing of the Modocs, under command of H. M. Krebs, joined the main column at Lee's woods for a ten day's hunt. Their old captain Jas. Condo was not able to accompany them on account of sickness at home, but some of the younger sports are doing effective work. Harry Bailey brought down his first venison over near the Meadows, it was a fine four pronger, while J. Dunlop Tanyer is boasting of three pheasants and thirteen cotton tails all in one day. Joe Goss was not so successful, for he was only ten paces from a fine doe and his companions say he did not even hit the mountain.

The young people of the town propose rendering a play some time this winter in Grange hall. There is an abundance of talent here to give a good performance, and if it is undertaken, success will crown the

The election passed off quietly. The Democrats did nobly and chairman Dauberman saw that all voters were at the polls that could be reached. The south side of the county, of course, had the bulk of the majority to furnish.

Progress Grange will give a chicken and waffle supper Thanksgiving evening, the proceeds to be used in furnishing their new hall. Arrangements are being made to have everything in good order, and those who join with the patrons at this time will not be sorry. There are still a number of minor improvements going on in town besides the new houses that are being erected. The apple evaporator is just about finishing up its work for this season. A large number of apples were worked up. Nothing goes to waste-parings, core and all are dried and shipped to foreign markets.

Grange hall will soon be finished and a creditable piece of work it is. Nothing has been omitted in making the building complete and in appearance it is an ornament to the town. It is ventilated, heated and equipped according to the most improved methods and State Master Leonard Rhone, upon whom the chief management devolved, has built for Progress grange a monument worthy of the cause.

It may be appropriately asked "who skinned the county?" in furnishing the voters with transparent ballots? Between the Republican commissioners and the printer lays the job. If the commissioners did not specify that they wanted a diaphanous blanket ballot the blame is with the printer, yet the county's servants ought to have had suffi-cient judgment to refuse to accept such a ballot as was distributed on this side of the county. There is nothing secret in voting with such a ballot Every cross could be seen by the election officers—no matter how faint that little X was made. If the next county statement contains a large item for "toilet paper," under the head of court house expenses, the voters will know that they, for once, had the pleasure of using this luxury enjoyed daily by county officials, and that it counted all the same.
