

At the first annual convention of the state Dairy union in Williamsport the Spring Mills creamery was awarded 2nd prize for general excellence of butter exhibited in class No. 1. Shook Bros. took 2nd prize in class No. 2.

The Democratic factions in Clearfield county have become so greatly entangled that they are in a continual turmoil. Their latest difference was kicked up because one of the members of the one side was called upon to make the speech of welcome to the teachers attending their county institute.

BROKE HIS LEG WHILE ACTING.—A literary entertainment at Jacksonville, last Saturday night, had rather an unfortunate ending, as George Russell, one of the performers, broke his leg below the knee. The entertainment was being given in the school house, which was crowded, for the benefit of the organ fund. During the last act Russell was in a struggle with one of the other actors in the play, when he tripped on the stage carpet and fell, with the above result.

The injury is a serious one to him as he has a family to support and is a poor man.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, G. W. Rumberger, during the past week:

John H. Musser, of Pennsylvania furnace, and Mamie A. Campbell, of Fairbrook.

Blair Mingle, of Birmingham, Huntingdon county, and Ida McCaleb, of Nittany, Walker township.

Charles E. Heaton and Mollie E. Poorman, both of Boggs township.

Wm. B. Southard and Amanda M. Oswald, both of Philipsburg.

Harry J. Hoy, of Marion township, and Anna M. Fisher, of Boggs township.

Charles M. Houser and Lyda M. Shreffler, both of Bellefonte.

Always in the Lead.

The Christmas number of "The Pittsburg Sunday Post," issued last Sunday, was the finest newspaper in appearance and all-round excellence ever published in that city. It consists of 32 large pages, every one filled with interesting and timely material. There were 44 half-tone pictures, 63 zinc etchings and over 200 columns of reading matter. "The Sunday Post" is certainly Pittsburg's best newspaper.

A Mountain Filled With Gold.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Dec. 19.—For two years Colorado Springs city engineers have been drilling a tunnel a mile long, under a shoulder of Pike's Peak, above the timber line, to join Lake Montano to the lakes on the west end. It has been driven 2,000 feet and penetrated a thick vein of ore which has assayed $500 to $1,000 gold a ton. The city owns the land and will get 25 per cent. royalty. Experts say the vein contains millions of dollars worth of ore.

Centre Hall.

Will Booser is still confined to the house. W. W. Boob was in Williamsport last week on business.

It is reported that William Lohr will remove to Centre Hall from Lewisburg.

D. J. Meyer has been housed up for the past few days, having taken a severe chill.

A large number of fat hogs could be bought in this valley. The market is low and very dull.

Emanuel Fye, tenant on the farm of Mrs. F. O. Bairfoot, will remain there instead of moving as reported.

Mrs. Flora O. Bairfoot went to Philadelphia Thursday to spend the Christmas season with friends.

S. J. Rowe is agent for the Lambert gas and gasoline engines, and hopes to place several engines of that style in the valley.

There are more applicants for positions in the new telephone exchange than would volunteer to become the better-half of a millionaire.

Mrs. E. M. Hewitt and little daughter Lela are visiting Mrs. Hewitt's parents at Warrensville, Pa. Mr. Hewitt went thither to accompany them home.

The Howard creamery company located at this place is working up an extensive trade. Milk is collected every other day, and the skim-milk returned the same day.

Miss Romie Van Pelt is home from Wilson college to spend the Christmas season with her mother, Miss Grace Alexander, a student at State, is also home for the vacation.

At a meeting of the Centre Hall fire insurance company, on Tuesday, at this place, the claim for the Pine Stump school house was adjusted. The township was allowed $555.00.

The Centre Hall implement works are busily engaged manufacturing their spring supply of the famous Centre Hall corn planter. This planter is shipped to all sections of the Union and sells on its merits.

At the meeting of the State Dairyman's association in Williamsport last week the Spring Mills creamery butter was classed second on the list, which speaks well for the quality of butter turned out at that creamery.

Prof. A. E. Houck and wife, of Millburg, spent the week with the latter sister, Mrs. Ed. Nearhood. Prof. Houck teaches school near Millburg, and is the kind of instructor that should be more generally employed.

Gross Yearick, of Philadelphia, accompanied his mother to his place from the city where she has been on an extended visit. Mr. Yearick is one of the firm of Yearick Brothers, who do an extensive coal business in Philadelphia. He is the guest of his sister, Mrs. W. B. Mingle.

A snow slide from the roof of the bank building caused an excitement Tuesday morning. The building has a high roof and the snow on one section began to slide. The mass was intact and extended over the eaves of the roof nearly two feet. F. E. Arney volunteered to go on the roof, and by being held by a rope was able to shoot the snow off in sections.

Last week mention was made of the return of Emma Wolf from a Philadelphia hospital where she had been treated for spinal disease. A few days after her return she was stricken with diphtheria but the case has been very successfully handled by Dr. J. F. Alexander, who used anti-toxine. The patient is able to be about the house and the remainder of the family, so far, have escaped the disease.

Pine Grove Mention.

A merry Christmas to all.

H. H. Goss and wife are spending a week among Altoona friends.

Mrs. Maggie Meek has gone to Altoona to spend Christmas with her daughter.

Carl Musser, of Altoona, was in town the early part of the week looking after some real estate.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boop will celebrate their twentieth anniversary on Saturday the 24th at Baileyville.

The commercial telephone poles have been put in place as far as Penna. Furnace and the wire stringers will go to work next week.

The necessary stock for the new creamery at Baileyville has been subscribed and now all that is to be done is to go ahead and erect it.

Among the beautiful Christmas presents to be distributed this evening at the Lutheran entertainment is a handsome book case for Rev. Aiken.

Sam Felty is down from Altoona with the same jolly laugh that he had before he was resolved to lead a different life. Sam was always "wonnernausic."

Tom Gramley went through here Wednesday, driving a spanking team of hays, on his way to Fulton county, but he did not forget to stop and wish his friends well.

The many friends of Mrs. Jonathan Hess will be glad to know that she is improving, even if slowly, from a serious attack of heart disease at her Williamsport home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Meyers have issued invitations for their silver wedding. The celebration will take place at their Alexandria home on Thursday, Dec. 29th, at 2 o'clock.

Miliken McWilliams has been discharged from the navy on account of rheumatism. He was on the St. Paul during the Spanish-American war and enjoyed the excitement about Santiago and Porto Rico thoroughly.

The shooting match at Fred Meyers, on last Saturday, was well attended by our sports and after the smoke had cleared away Wes. Myers, of Boalsburg, had nine gobsbers out of twelve shots to his credit. Gum Hubler got two, and Jim Decker one, while a whole lot of other fellows got none.

Some of the enterprising citizens of Boalsburg have taken a step in the right direction to put that little village in the way of prosperity. Naturally it is delightfully located and with an abundant supply of good water, which is now in contemplation, the contract having been awarded to Malone Bros., of Hollidaysburg, it will be an ideal place for a home or enterprise.

Luther Smith, formerly of Pine Grove but now one of Johnstown's hustling business men, with his wife and son, Henry Kosman, were in town this week visiting his mother and noting the improvements. Luther is jubilant over Johnstown's prospects of becoming the county seat of a new county to be created out of parts of Cambria, Somerset, Westmoreland and Indiana.

Last week a van in charge of a clever Heber arrived here laden with glittering yellow metal made up into watches and jewelry which he disposed of at surprisingly low figures. He claimed they were bankrupt and fire goods and was not at all particular about the money, as he took notes for any time to suit the purchaser. In a short time he disposed of a big stock and it is said that four gold watches were purchased by one family, so we can no longer complain of hard times.

Walker Adams, a well known and respected citizen of Spruce creek, died of pneumonia on last Friday after a brief illness. He was born at Adam's Forge, of which his father was owner, 48 years ago and had lived most of his life there but in recent years he resided in Altoona, where he was engaged in the coal business. He was a consistent member of the Spruce creek church and is survived by his wife, three daughters and one sister, Bertie. He was buried on the 20th in the churchyard at Graysville by the side of his father.

HAPPILY WEDDED.—A large and fashionable assemblage witnessed the marriage of Mary Pennington Campbell and John Howard Musser at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Campbell, near Fairbrook, yesterday at noon. Promptly at twelve o'clock the bridal march played by the bride's sister, Mrs. Herbert Meek, announced the procession. The ushers, Milo Campbell, Frank Bailey, Marshall Musser, and Clay Campbell, the bride's maid, Miss Margaret Campbell and Miss Belle Musser, and the bride and groom entered the parlor and took their places where Rev. Asbury Guyer awaited them.

After the ceremony a fine wedding breakfast was served to the one hundred and fifty guests and until the bride and groom departed on the evening train for their brief trip to Barnesboro, the day was spent in social gayeties. Upon their return a reception will be given them at the Musser place on Tuesday, which will be their home after April 1st. The bride is an excellent, accomplished young woman, while the groom is one of our enterprising young farmers and we wish them all success and happiness.

What Do the Children Drink?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more GRAIN-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. GRAIN-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about 1/4 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c and 25c.
