

Hubbersburg.
Dr. S. S. McCormick is kept very busy attending his patients, but he does it successfully.
The sudden change of the weather makes the people of our town hug the fire places pretty closely.
Rev. J. M. Runkle, left on the 7:39 train on Tuesday morning for Mechanicsburg to officiate at a grand wedding.
On Tuesday morning a party of our boys went out to the mountain on a hunting expedition and in the evening came home with a fine bear as the booty.
Wm. Decker, one of our practical farmers, who has been in the building business during the summer, has locked the doors of his new mansion, to resume work next spring.
Pine Grove Mention.
The sleighing is good and party goers delight.
Miss Annie Kline is visiting in the Mountain City.
Mrs. Alma Gettig has returned to her home in Altoona after a prolonged visit at Henry Meyer's.
The snow drifts have interfered with the erection of the new telephone poles.
Matilda Rumberger is home from participating in the butcherings along Tadpole.
John Lindsey and Amos Straw are smiling over the arrival of young sons at their respective homes.
With the thermometer 14 degrees below zero tons of eight inch ice have been stored away this week.
Miss Nancy Bailey is home from a two month stay in Altoona, where she was taking care of her brother Glenn's new boy.
George E. Harper was obliged to kill one of his fine hays last Tuesday on account of its having had its leg broken by a kick from another horse.
Frank Zeiwig left for Marion, O., Monday to enter the employ of the Huber Manufacturing company, where, no doubt, he will become an expert engineer.
Mr. Enoch Isenberg is down from Yellow Springs seeing his young grandson and giving him his first lessons in Jeffersonian principles as the little fellow is but half a Democrat.
Geo. W. Hoy's wife has presented him with another pair of twins making the second pair in the family. A coincident in connection with the event was that it was the fourth pair of twins born in the room.
On Thursday of last week while Allen, the six year old son of George Hoy, was carelessly swinging his pen about, he struck his eye and injured the pupil so that Dr. Woods gives no encouragement that he will ever be able to see with it.
Jacob M. Kepler left Monday for Lancaster to spend a week with A. C. Kepler. From there he will go to Tionesta to stay some time with his daughter, Nellie, before going to the Hot Springs in Arkansas, where he spends every winter in quest of better health.
To Prof. G. W. Weaver, superintendent of public instruction of Clearfield county, we are indebted for an attractive and finely arranged program of the institute to be held in Clearfield county from Dec. 19th to the 23rd. Mr. Weaver has secured some first class instructors and his institute promises to be the best they have ever had.
Our young friend Joe Meyers had a thrilling experience last Sunday night, while sleighing through the barns where he caught sight of a wolf. Fortunately he was driving a 2:30 stepper which landed him safely at Fred Meyers west of this place. There he halted for some time before venturing on to his Bardsburg home and while the snow prevented our sportsmen from following up the wolf, the next morning, J. M. Kepler's trap bore evidence that the wolf was the biggest red fox ever caught in this section.
HAPPILY MARRIED.—On last Thursday evening at the residence of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Osman, near Pine Hall, Nora Osman and Henry C. Bloom, were united in marriage by the Rev. C. T. Aikens. The bride and her sister Eva, as maid of honor, were dressed in white organdy while the groom and his best man, James Hubler, wore conventional evening suits. Mrs. Aikens played the wedding march and the ceremony was performed in the presence of a number of guests. After the congratulations and while everyone was enjoying the sumptuous supper, the calisthumpians put in their appearance and would not be satisfied until the bride and groom appeared. The evening was pleasantly spent in social chat and inspecting the many and useful gifts presented. The bride is the second daughter of L. H. Osman and a niece of Hon. J. T. McCormick. She is bright, intelligent and in every way capable of making a good helpmate. The groom is the oldest son of W. Harrison Bloom and like his father is a farmer, industrious and sober. The following evening a reception was given them at the groom's home at Bloomsdorf. Upon their return home from their bridal trip in Mifflin county and down in Penns Valley, they will go to housekeeping in the Yarnell corner where we wish them prosperity.
A SUCCESSFUL PASTORATE.—Recently Rev. C. T. Aikens completed his tenth year as pastor of the Pine Grove, Gatesburg and Pine Hall, Lutheran churches and on last Sunday morning he reminded his congregation here in a quiet but forcible manner that individually and collectively they had great reason to be thankful for many blessings and that in the aggregate they had progressed with the years.
The following are some of the facts mentioned in his summary:
Number of sermons preached, 1,152
Funeral services, 114
Marriage ceremonies, 63
Children baptized, 365
Members received, 292
Miles traveled, 1,900
Pastoral visits, 4,000
Collections, Pine Grove, 7,750
Pine Hall, 3,980
Gatesburg, 2,880
Total, $14,610
Rev. Aikens' career has been noteworthy and successful. During his ten years pastorate here he has become a leading and influential citizen with a strong and devoted people. Though a man of peace he is resolute in his own beliefs, tolerant of the views of others and opposed to any controversy. The affection of his congregation for him is simply remarkable and cheers and sustains him in every action. He is actively interested in everything tending to the advancement of our town and in addition to his ministerial work has taught several terms in the Pine Grove Academy.

THERE is as much difference in newspapers as there is in anything else. Some are good, others are otherwise. Everybody likes the best, or people of good judgment do, and of course you are one of them. You can get the BEST county paper from this time until Jan. 1st, 1900 for only $1.00, provided you subscribe before the 1st day of February next. We are surprised that YOUR name is not already among the thousands of other subscribers to the WATCHMAN, and earnestly hope that it will be soon. Can we not count on hearing from you within the week?

Your Opportunity.
HUNDREDS, since the last issue of the WATCHMAN, have taken advantage of the opportunity to get the BEST county paper at the price of the cheapest, and are now happy with a receipt for payment for the WATCHMAN, to January 1, 1900, in their pocket. You intend to take advantage of the same opportunity. We know you do, for you know a good thing when you see it, and you won't let it slip. But you are losing time. Of the fifty-four weeks to which you are entitled to this paper for $1.00, one of them has already gone by. We only refer to this to remind you of what you are missing.

CHRISTMAS.—Everybody ought to try to be happy on Christmas. In fact they ought to try to be happy all the time. The world would be brighter and people would live longer if they were. Kindness makes happiness. A little remembrance on Christmas, makes the donor and receiver both happy. You have some one you want to please—want to remember, and want them to remember you. You have one away from home who would be delighted to get all the home news. Some one who you can make happy fifty times a year, by sending them the WATCHMAN. It will only cost you a dollar, and is the nicest Christmas present you can make. Try it.
