Last Friday as Katie Bowersox was tucking the robes in preparatory to starting home from Krebs' store her horse fell on the ice and only by the help of some bystanders was she saved from a serious runaway.

Mrs. G. W. MeWilliams was called to Altoona last week by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Olie Bowersox, who has not been well for a year. For weeks she was in a Philadelphia hospital and is now suffering with the grip in addition to a complication of diseases.

A. J. Tate's family, who are quarantined at the home of H. H. Goss. below town, with scarlet rash, are having other tribulations and trials. Mrs, Tate is confined to bed with pleurisy and Fred, an active youngster of five, fell from the cross loft of the barn and badly fractured his jaw, but the docter thinks they will be able to return to their Main street home before long.

chairman of the evening. The after dinner speakers were Rev. Aikens, Prof. Weaver, J. G. Heberling, Francis Speer, of Bellefonte, W. H. Sausserman, of Altoona, and J. G.

On Thursday the 22nd, Henry C. Goss, of this place, and Ida Randolph were married at the bride's home in Houtzdale, by the Rev. Hull. The bride is a niece of Wm. Henry of our town and has visited here several times. She is a practical, capable girl well fitted for a companion and help mate. Her husband is a son of the late Cyrus Goss, and is now employed with the Johnstown boiler works. The happy couple arrived here Christmas eve to spend the honeymoon with the groom's mother on Water street. A splendid wedding supper was prepared for them and after April 1st, they will go to housekeeping in Johnstown.

A FAMILY REUNION.—On last Tuesday the Smiths had a pleasant family reunion at the home of their mother on Water street. From Harrisburg, Clearfield, and Altoona, they gathered under the family roof to the number of 38. Dinner was served to more than forty persons and after feasting for several hours the day was finally concluded by photographer J. Herbert Ward grouping 38 Smiths on the front porch and getting them all on one plate, The picture was fine and the reunion so pleasant that the participants resolved to repeat it next year.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.-On Thursday the 29th, William C. Myers and his wife, Jennie Kanode, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding at their home in Alexandria with the assistance of more than one hundred guests. The groom, a Centre countain born on the David Glenn farm on the Branch, is 54 years old. He farmed for a time and after serving his apprenticeship went into the coach making business which he carried on here for 14 years. A year ago last Spring he sold his shops to H. M. Krebs and moved to Alexandria where he is doing a large business. In addition to repairing he has put out 50 new buggies and a number of spring wagons and carriages. Mrs Myers is a native of Alexandria and time has treated her more kindly than it has her husband, who is not in the best of health. Their family consists of four children, H. C., a medical student at the Luiversity in Philadelphia Edward Harviet. day the 29th, William C. Myers and his wife, children, H. C., a medical student at the University in Philalelphia, Edward, Harriet, and Frank at home. A sumptuous dinner was served and an afternoon and evening's reception followed. Mrs. J. C. Neff the brides' maid of the original wedding was present, and a fine array of handsome gifts were presented

FIFTEEN YEARS MARRIED .- On Tuesday, the 3rd, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Homan celebrated their crystal wedding at their comfortable home near Linden Hall with seventy some guests participating. Fifteen years ago they were united in marriege by the Rev. Trosler, at the parsonage in Boalsburg, and their wedded life has been prosperous and happy. The host and groom of the occasion is the youngest son of the late John Homan and like his father is a most industrious and successful farmer. He was born Oct. 16th, 1859, on the old Homan farm. His wife nee Annie Royer, is the only daughter of Henry Royer, who died in Virginia during the civil war and their thrift and industry has made their home one of the most pleasant and comfortable in the township.

At Twelve o'clock a dinner consisting of every delicacy the market afforded was served and at three o'clock Rev. G. W. Lescher presented the guests to the bride and groom who were assisted by their five children in doing the honors of the house. After singing, "Blest be the Tie that Binds" and "Home Sweet Home" congratulations were extended and Rev. Aikens felicitously greeted the host and hostess. W. A. Murray reminiscently related the history of the home which belonged to the Murrays from the time of William Penn 'til Mr. Homan purchased it, fifteen years ago, at executor's sale. He congratulated the couple on their prosperity, for at every turn comfort and thrift is in evidence. The affair was most gratifying to every one present and among the presents At Twelve o'clock a dinner consisting of gratulated the couple on their prosperity, for at every turn comfort and thrift is in evi-dence. The affair was most gratifying to every one present and among the presents was a handsome sideboard from Mr. Homan

COURT PROCLAMATION.—Whereas Last Thursday evening as James McCool and his family were at supper some boys on the street discovered the roof on fire and quickly gave the alarm. The creek was near and soon the bucket brigade had the fire under control with little damage except soaked carpets and furniture. This should be a warning to property holders to examine their flues and stove pipes for defects as a high wind was blowing at the time and it is a wonder the entire town did not suffer.

The annual feast of the Odd Fellows was given last Friday evening at the home of A. J. Tate, on Main street. In the absence of the host and his family, ushers met the guests at the door and made every one welcome. Miss Annie Fortney presided at the organ and Prof. G. W. Weaver, of Clearfield, was chairman of the evening. The after dinner records and silvent proper person and the Honorable J. G. Your Opportunity.

THIS is only a reminder if you have failed to take advantage of our offer-good to the 1st of February-to furnish this paper for $1.00 a year, that the time contemplated by that offer is drawing to a close. Do you intend letting it go by? Foolish, very foolish if you do. You would grasp the opportunity to save 33 per cent on any other purchase. Why not save it in the price of your newspaper? You intend to we know, but you are wasting time, and loosing the opportunity. It will slip by before you are aware of it, and then when you are paying $1.50, for a paper that your neighbors are all receiving for $1.00, you will wonder how you come to be so neglectful. Remember that if you have an old account standing, that it can be settled at the advance rates charged during the years it accumulated, and that a note will be taken in settlement of it, in order to give you the advantage of the present low price for the coming year. On this you would also save 33 per cent. Do you thoroughly understand what we are offering and what you are neglecting or overlooking.
