

PROCEEDINGS AT COURT THIS WEEK.

There have been more lawyers than others at court this week. Some of the cases taken up were of considerable importance.

They have been disposed of as follows: John P. Harris, Wm. E. Gray and Samuel T. Gray vs. Jacob Thielman, Samuel Marsh and George Chapman. Continued at the cost of the defendants.

John P. Harris, Wm. E. Gray and Samuel T. Gray vs. Jacob Thielman, Samuel Marsh, Geo. M. Chapman, Morrell Marshall and Sabe Kellinger; ejectment, plea not guilty. Continued at the costs of the defendants.

Samuel Lewin vs. Arnold Kohn, A. J. Rosenheim and A. M. Kohn, trading as Kohn, Rosenheim & Co., A. Rosenheim and American Surety Co., summons in assumption. Voluntary non-suit entered.

Jesse Long vs. Jeremiah Snavely, executor of, etc., of Polly Royer, deceased, summons in assumption. Settled.

Jesse Long and Samuel Long vs. Jeremiah Snavely, executor of, etc., of Polly Royer, deceased; summons in assumption. Settled.

J. V. A. McEntire vs. Israel Runkle, summons in ejectment, plea not guilty. Continued at the cost of the defendant.

M. D. Snyder vs. J. N. Krumrine, summons in assumption, plea non-assumpsit. Case to be submitted to arbitrators voluntarily chosen by the parties by virtue of an agreement.

M. D. Snyder vs. Jas. P. Aikens and J. N. Krumrine; summons in assumption. Suit discontinued.

Lehigh Valley coal company vs. The Beech Valley coal and iron company. Continued generally.

J. H. McCooly vs. Peter D. Auman, summons in trespass, plea not guilty. Suit discontinued.

First national bank of Bellefonte vs. Deborah E. Valentine and Geo. Valentine, Jr., administrators of, etc., of Jacob Valentine, deceased, who was a member of the firm of Valentine & Co., composed of Robert Valentine, Geo. Valentine, A. S. Valentine and Jacob Valentine; summons in assumption. Continued.

J. T. McCully, use of Charles F. Cook, vs. Jerry Shearer. Voluntary non-suit entered.

J. T. McCully, use of Chas. F. Cook, vs. Jerry Shearer. Voluntary non-suit entered.

S. M. Buck, use of J. D. Shugert, vs. Annie Thompson and Jas. Thompson, her husband, with notice to Jennie M. Jackson, widow, and George L. Jackson, H. A. Jackson, W. Fred R. Jackson, Katharine Jackson Brew, and Geo. T. Brew, her husband, and Isaac Mitchell, guardian of Maurice A. Jackson, heirs, being the widow and heirs of George W. Jackson, deceased. This action was brought to recover on a mortgage dated December 30, 1891, given by the Thompsons on a house and lot on North Allegheny street, which Mr. Jackson afterwards became the owner of during his lifetime. Verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $249.38.

On Tuesday morning Geo. M. Watson and George W. Beals, of the Lackawanna county bar of Scranton, were admitted to practice.

Wm. A. McCausland, now use of Annie Richmond and Rachella Beals, vs. L. Milton Watson. This case grew out of the sale of some coal lands in Rush township, this county, by Mr. McCausland, upon which Mr. Beals and Mr. Richmond had an option and who effected the sale of the land to L. Milton Watson for thirty thousand dollars, Mrs. Beals and Mrs. Richmond receiving one thousand dollars and Mr. McCausland fourteen thousand dollars and a mortgage for fifteen thousand dollars in the early part of 1896. Mr. Wilson took the property in trust and a coal company was to be formed and afterwards was formed, known as the Freeman, Wilson coal company, in which Mr. Beals and Mr. Richmond were partners. The mortgage which Mr. McCausland held was afterwards assigned to the use of plaintiffs, who are the wives of Mr. Richmond and Mr. Beals, as the defendant alleges without any consideration to Mr. McCausland, and therefore a fraud on their co-partners, and further alleges that it was understood by Mr. McCausland, Mr. Beals and Mr. Richmond at the time of the sale that Mr. McCausland was only to have fourteen thousand dollars for his land, and that therefore this mortgage cannot be collected as against this defendant, thus giving some members of the firm the advantage over other members of the firm. The case was sharply contested from start to finish and went to the jury yesterday morning. Verdict for defendant.

Laura Mull et al vs. Jacob Walker. Ejectment. In 1870 or earlier the defendant began clearing a tract of timber land in Burnsides township. He had cleared 27 acres up to 1876 and had it fenced up as part of his own property. Suit was brought to recover same to the Hale estate its original owners. Defendant plead ownership by virtue of peaceable possession for 21 years. Verdict for defendant.

James Duck vs. Benjamin Lambert. Case arose over the fencing of a lane between their properties in Gregg township. The lane had been fenced for about forty years with a worm fence and lately Mr. Lambert took the old fence on his side down and replaced it with a wire fence. He placed his posts on a line with the points where the outside stakes rested. Duck complains that the lane is thereby made too narrow and the new fence should be on the line where the rails formerly rested. The lane is 49 rods long and the land in contest is insignificant in comparison with the costs that will be incurred. Case now on trial.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS LAST WEEK. At the time of our going to press with last week's edition the jury cases had been disposed of but sessions of court were held Friday and Saturday to dispose of the following:

Commonwealth vs H. S. Alexander, charge, practicing medicine without a license; prosecutor Dr. J. Y. Dale, of Centre county medical association. True bill.

Commonwealth vs George C. Peiffer, charge false pretense; prosecutor W. H. Corman. True bill.

Commonwealth vs Michael Moyer, charge false pretense; prosecutor Jacob Quiggle. Bill ignored and the prosecutor to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs Forest Bullock, charge larceny; prosecutor L. C. Bullock. Bill ignored and the prosecutor to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs John Dusenbury, charge assault with intent to rape; prosecutrix Amelia Hazel. Bill ignored and county to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs Abram Frantz, charge larceny by bailer; prosecutor Alexander Watkins. True bill.

At the Saturday morning session the equity case of Geo. L. Jackson and Geo. T. Brew, administrators of the estate of Geo. W. Jackson, deceased, vs Jackson, Hastings & Co., bankers, was taken up but after Mr. Hewes had been heard for the plaintiffs further hearing was postponed until next Monday, at which time Hon. H. C. McCormick, one of the partners, will appear and argue for the bank. The case was brought to enforce an accounting by the bank of the late Geo. W. Jackson's interest therein. The bank sets up the defense that deceased was in debt to it in sums sufficient to offset whatever interest he held and that, therefore, an accounting is unnecessary.

—Rev. C. S. Long opened a series of meetings at Mackeysville Tuesday evening.

—Harry Condo, son of former sheriff John P. Condo, of Millheim, well known in Bellefonte, is suffering with a bicycle heart.

—If you know of anyone, in this county, who can put in a splint or rush seat in an old fashioned chair you will confer a favor by sending their address to this office.

—Our "Fancy Patent" is equal to the best grades of spring wheat flour and costs less. Muslin sacks. Try it. Phoenix Milling Co.

—George S. Good, of Lock Haven, is at the head of a fishing and hunting club that is being organized to place a retreat at the head of Rattlesnake run.

—J. C. Smith, one of Millheim's leading merchants, accompanied sheriff Cronister to Pittsburg, on Tuesday, to assist in landing Ed Gill safely in the western penitentiary.

—Mrs. Lila Crouse, of Aaronsburg, underwent an operation for the removal of a tumor in the Episcopal hospital, in Philadelphia, on Monday. It was very successful and she is reported to be doing nicely. It is the second one she has undergone in two years.

—Ask your grocer for our flour. "Finest" and "Fancy Patent" brands lead all others.—Phoenix Milling Co.

CRAWLED OVER ICE ROADS WITH A BROKEN LEG.—Last Sunday evening Jack Delaney, who lives in Marion township, started to walk across the Ridge to Nittany. When on the mountain he fell and broke his leg. As there was no one with him and he was several miles distant from the nearest house he realized that he must either crawl on, dragging his broken leg, or perish in the bitter cold. He tried the former and had crawled about a quarter of a mile when his cries of distress attracted the attention of Mrs. E. J. Peck, who was driving over in a buggy. When she saw the man's terrible plight and found herself unable to help him into her buggy, she hurriedly drove to Nittany, where she got Horace and Elwood Winkelman to go to his rescue. They procured a conveyance and went back after the man who was well nigh exhausted and succeeded in getting him home.

As a physician could not be found that night the man had to suffer until Monday morning, when Dr. McCormick went over and set the broken bone. If Delaney had not displayed the nerve that he did he might have frozen to death before the arrival of Mrs. Peck.

CENTRE COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—A Sunday school convention will be held in Bellefonte for the schools of Centre county under the auspices of the Pennsylvania State Sunday School Association, March 23rd and 24th.

The attention of each Sunday school superintendent and other Sunday school workers is hereby called to this meeting. Your co-operation is earnestly desired. You are interested in making your school better and in making the schools of Centre county better and enlarging their influence.

The work of the association is interdenominational. All evangelical denominations working together. The meeting is not in the interest of any one, but all are interested. That there may be sent to your address programmes and other interesting matter please kindly send your name and address and the name of your school and also the names and address of other superintendents in your community to Rev. A. Z. Myers, Phillipsburg, Pa., who has been appointed president by Rev. Chas. Roads, D. D., general state secretary.

Pastors and other workers who would be willing to take part in the programme or are interested in the work will confer a great favor by communicating with Rev. Myers, as above.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, G. W. Rumberger, during the past week:

Joseph Carl and Minnie Ewy, both of State College.

Arber J. Cummings, of Linden Hall, and Nora M. Stoner, of Tusseyville.

James E. Cowher and Annie Leona Price, both of Port Matilda.

Peter Brilla and Mary Chovanecy, both of Hawk Run, Clearfield county, Pa.

Andrew Gregg, of Fair Brook, Pa., and Blanche Sweeney, of Centre Hall, Pa.

Geo. W. Reishard and Myrtle Carney, both of Sandy Ridge.

Sylvester Schenck, of Howard, and Sarah E. Gorsch, of Blanchard.

John Novoc and Mary Soltis, both of Hawk Run, Clearfield county, Pa.

Harry Baney, of Phillipsburg, and Rella Gunter, of Gearhartville, Clearfield Co.

—Eat wheat and ask your grocer for Phoenix Milling Co's "Finest" flour.

Nittany Items.

Doc. Winkelman has been smiling the last week, his wife having presented him two babies, a boy and a girl. His leisure hours are now consumed by giving catnip and paregoric.

A large bear was shipped from Lamar to Williamsport, last week. It weighed 240 lbs. While at the depot it attracted the attention of the school children and one would infer that ticket agent, Geo. Pletcher, was having a full fledged menagerie under his care.

Mrs. Mary Milligan, an aged resident of this valley, died in Lock Haven, and her remains were brought to Jacksonsville, last Sunday, where she was interred. Mrs. Milligan's maiden name was Shields. She was born and raised near Washington Furnace.

One great nuisance was abandoned last Wednesday, when the Nittany valley turnpike road Lock Haven was thrown open. There are still two miles of pike in Centre county on the main road that should be vacated. Stone have been allowed to remain in the road, uncovered for years past, the public has been crowded to the sides of the road until it is almost impossible near the residence of William Mauk, at Huston.

Sickness is very common in this vicinity. It is shown by the large practice of the doctors.

Ira Hazel, who was suddenly taken sick on Monday night, is somewhat improved at this writing.

Mrs. Polly Deibler, of Shamokin, is visiting her aged brother Elias Miller, in this place.

U. S. Shaffer and wife left, on Monday evening, for Jacksonsville to be at the bedside of Mrs. Shaffer's mother who died on Tuesday.

The farmer's institute, which is being held at this place this Thursday and Friday shows, thus far, success, and a large crowd of people are in attendance.

The firm known as A. J. Hazell & Co., of this place, is doing extensive business in the mercantile line. Everybody is cordially invited to call on them.

Mrs. Daniel Lambert spent the fore part of the week visiting her father in Sugar valley, who recently met with a serious runaway accident and is not very much improved.

The result of the Democratic caucus held at Rebersburg on Saturday for this end is; supervisor, John Shultz; school director, B. F. Miller; West precinct, U. S. Shaffer, judge of election; Frank Hockman, inspector, and Arthur Rachau, registration assessor.

Centre Hall.

Daniel P. Houser and wife are confined to bed by sickness.

W. H. Kuhn, of Jersey Shore, will pay this place a visit next week.

Harry Dinges sports a gray team of horses, having disposed of his blacks.

Hon. William Allison, of Spring Mills, is seriously ill with bronchial pneumonia.

Seventy cent wheat is bringing business to grain dealers, Messrs. Ocker and Bartholomew.

Rev. J. M. Rearick has sufficiently recovered from his illness to be out of bed. Ditto, John T. Lee, who is on the streets.

The ice houses are about all filled. The crop harvested this week was in good condition. Ice ponds are a profitable investment here.

George Reish, west of town, will move into the borough provided he can secure a house. Mr. Bron, of Nittany valley, will move onto the farm vacated by him.

Jered Mowery will move to Spring Mills in the spring and follow his trade—wagon-making. He is a splendid mechanic in his line, and has been a good citizen.

Mrs. W. H. Bartholomew has had a peculiar affection for the past few months. A very painful abscess formed on the right side of her head to the front of the ear. After that had healed another formed on the left side, which is causing her much pain to-day. Beside this she is scarcely able to open her mouth sufficient to admit food, her jaws being stiff and no treatment seems to avail. At present Mrs. Bartholomew is able to be about the house, but is not strong enough to perform household duties.

Chairman Dauberman called the Democratic town caucus to order Saturday night, when W. B. Mingle was called to the chair to preside. There was an unusually large attendance. The ticket nominated follows:

Judge of elections, John H. Krumbine; inspector, Olie Stover; school directors, H. G. Strohmeyer, Jerry Miller, S. W. Smith; council, John Dauberman, Clement Lose, W. H. Bartholomew, John Puff; treasurer, Miller Goodhart; constable, W. H. Runkle; overseer poor, Byron Gearis; high constable, John A. Geary.

Tuesday afternoon was the first need of the fire company at the south end to turn out for business. William Keller's smoke-house took fire at that time from a too brisk fire into which apparently a ham had fallen.

Mr. Wilson, of the creamery company, gave the alarm, and in a short time the hose cart and sufficient firemen to handle the same were on the scene. A stream was played on the building from a considerable distance, but the force was sufficient to rip the roof off on the first pop. The fire, of course, was immediately extinguished. Had the fire occurred at night it would have taken prompt action to avoid a serious conflagration, owing to the fact that it could easily have communicated to Mr. Keller's residence and thence to the planing mill of Luse & Son.

Pine Grove Mention.

Wm. Powley is convalescing from a severe illness.

Samuel Bressler has his fighting rig on for the who did away with his fox hound.

J. E. Ard is able to be about on crutches after having been confined to the house for several months.

John and Scott Bressler are home from the Simrey coal mines with no increase in their bank accounts. Scott is at home and John is back at W. E. Meek's.

George and Hannah Hoy are mourning the death of Devey, one of their little twin babes, who died of pneumonia. Internment was made at Pine Hall last Saturday.

William Marts lost a valuable brood mare last Sunday night, which he did not know was sick 'til a few hours before she died. Adam Hartwick is also lamenting the loss of his Maud S.

County superintendent Gramley visited our schools last week and found them in fairly good running order. Not well attended, however, on account of sickness among the children.

James C. Hammer, of Altoona, has been the guest of J. W. Kepler for a week and a royal good time he has been having. Rumor says he is about to join the benedicts and to him we extend a welcome.

The new creamery at Pine Furnace will soon be ready for "butter" making and our people are looking forward to it with much satisfaction. It means better prices and better rations for neglected cows.

Wm. Lytle, an old veteran, is lying seriously ill with Bright's disease at his Barren's home, known as the Blair farm. He has consulted a number of physicians and not any of them give him any encouragement.

Mary Frazier, wife of Jacob Bartz, died at Simrey Cambria Co., on the 25th, and was buried in the Ross burying ground on Saturday afternoon, with Rev. Runyon officiating. Her death was caused by grip and pneumonia.

Glenn Bailey, an employee of the Altoona shops, is home at his parents, W. H. Bailey's, sick. Several years ago he was in the hospital for five months deriving very little benefit so that when he was taken ill this time his parents insisted on having him at home, where they can give him every care and attention.

On last Friday George Haines, an old soldier of Graysville, died suddenly in his 75th year. After being out doing his morning's work he complained of being cold and fell from his chair dead. He was born in Adams county and was an iron worker by trade. He was a member of Co. G, 83rd Penna. Vol. His wife and six of his twelve children are living. He was buried Sunday at Penna Furnace with Rev. J. C. Snook officiating.

Andy Gregg, teacher of the Centre school at Fairbrook, imagined he was getting the grip last Friday and dismissed his school early. During the evening, however, he recovered sufficiently to drive to Centre Hall, where he was married on Saturday. His bride is a daughter of George Sweeny and a lovely girl who will do her part in life's work. Sunday they arrived at their furnished home back of Fairbrook, where the Misses Gregg were waiting to receive them. Monday the groom resumed his duties in the school house, where he was heartily congratulated by his pupils.

At the caucus, last Saturday evening, the untried Democracy turned out en masse and made the following winning nomination: Jacob Keller, for justice of the peace; W. H. Roush, constable; Frank Miller and H. C. Campbell, supervisors; J. W. Kepler and Isaac Gates, school directors; D. L. Dennis, auditor; and James R. Smith, township clerk. For judge of election, of east precinct, Wm. K. Corl; inspector, H. M. Krebs; registration assessor, A. B. Tanyer. For judge of election, of west precinct, John R. Lemon; inspector, Ellis Lytle; and registration assessor, Wilson Gates. The ticket is a good one and should be heartily supported by every Democrat in the township.

Reuben Tressler met with another misfortune last Thursday and he surely has been sadly afflicted in the last four months. First one of the mill stones fell on him, crushing his hip, then a falling timber struck him on his head, from that he has not entirely recovered, and now he has had to have two fingers amputated from being crushed in the rolls. Three were caught and crushed but Dr. Woods thinks the middle one will not have to be taken off. Mr. Tressler indeed unfortunate as he had just taken charge of the mill from the millwrights and had everything in excellent running order. P. F. Bortoff is the business manager and Mr. Tressler is confident that he will be able to look after the milling in a few days.

DEATH OF MRS. LYTLE.—On last Sunday Mrs. Catharine, wife of Samuel Lytle, died at their State College home after a long illness of asthma and a heart trouble. She was born in Dauphin county, Feb. 26th, 1828, and in 1857, married Samuel Lytle, then a blacksmith near Centre Hall. She was a devoted Christian, a good wife and a kind mother. Her husband, her children, Mrs. Nora Ferguson and Nannie, in Kansas; Mrs. New't. Hoy and Mrs. G. E. Corl, Struble's; William, John Hall; James, Colorado; Charles and John, State College; and Mary, at home, and two sisters Mrs. Moore, Buffalo Run, and Mrs. Lydia Emeling, Ohio, survive her. She was buried Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Pine Hall cemetery with Rev. C. T. Aikens officiating.

Your Opportunity.

This is only a reminder if you have failed to take advantage of our offer—good to the 1st of February—to furnish this paper for $1.00 a year, that the time contemplated by that offer is drawing to a close. Do you intend letting it go by? Foolish, very foolish if you do. You would grasp the opportunity to save 33 per cent on any other purchase. Why not save it in the price of your newspaper? You intend to know, but you are wasting time, and losing the opportunity. It will slip by before you are aware of it, and then when you are paying $1.50 for a paper that your neighbors are all receiving for $1.00, you will wonder how you come to be so neglectful. Remember that if you have an old account standing, that it can be settled at the advance rates charged during the years it accumulated, and that a note will be taken in settlement of it, in order to give you the advantage of the present low price for the coming year. On this you would also save 33 per cent. Do you thoroughly understand what we are offering and what you are neglecting or overlooking.
