Democratic Matchman.

*

Bellefonte, Pa., Feb. 24. 1899.

CORRESPONDENTS .- No communications pub ished unless accompanied by the real name of the writer. that time it was thought best to wait until

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY the people were thoroughly accustomed to ---- The all day restaurant and dinner at should meet for such a demonstration. the Gregg post rooms, on Wednesday, was well patronized. The veterans realized behad become so effervescent by Saturday tween $170 and $180 out of it. night that it was deemed opportune to hold the formal function and it was done.

----Frank Bassett, formerly of this place, has recently been made a trustee in one of the suburban churches of Baltimore, in which city he is now engaged in business.

packed at its starting point and the multi--Mrs. Emery McAfee, of Stormstown, tudes that had gathered at the way stawho was successfully operated on for cantions-Centre countians interested in cer at the Cottage hospital in Philipsburg, their favored son-found no room and were has recovered sufficiently to be taken to compelled to remain at home. Even Saher home lona was passed, without gathering up any

---- Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hunter have of the fragments about the native heath of moved from the Lose house, on Spring the former Governor. street, to the house formerly occupied by One hundred and fifty tickets were sent F. H. Cota, corner of Howard and Spring to State College for free distribution and of streets. course the citizens up that way took ad-of the blowers at the Bellefonte factory. He has taken the place of James Conroy, No. 6. whose duties as manager take up all of his time

-The Christian Endeavor society of with one another in making things lively the Bellefonte Presbyterian church will about the court house until the hour for hold an old fashioned sociable this evening, the reception arrived, then they all assemto which everyone is invited. The chapel bled and played "God Save the Queeen" will be used for it.

-Philipsburg papers announce that it is the intention of Geo. E. Parker, of that arms of the populace. place, to be a candidate for treasurer. We There was a moment of breathless exmake this statement solely on authority of pectancy in the court room when Col. W. the Philipsburg papers. Fred Reynolds, James Harris, John Blanchard, Col. D. F. Fortney and Col. J. P. Co-----Memorial services were held in the burn, the committee of escort, arrived. Milesburg Presbyterian church on Sunday They formed in line and just as they startfor Francis E. Willard. Mrs. John P. ed to push themselves through the crowd Harris, Mrs. James Harris and Mrs. W. R. Gainsford, of this place, addressed the in the main aisle a band in the rear end of the hall struck up "Rastus on Parade" congregation.

and blew them clear to the judge's bench. -Forty-two applications have been Col. Coburn took the chair, with Gen'l. filed for license in Centre county, two of Hastings at his left and the ceremonies bewhich are for distilling, one wholesale gan. The chairman opened with one of brewer, eight wholesale beer, one for the his characteristically pleasant talks, but wholesale of liquor, and the balance are for the effects of the recent cold wave were tavern licenses. Last year there were but still hanging over the town and he did not thirty-seven licenses granted.

continue longer than to introduce the first -Harry Crissman, one of our former of the "formidable array" of speakers in residents, who left for Pittsburg on Monthe person of Ellis L. Orvis Esq., who beday, left us a legacy in the form of an old gan back at the time of the Medes and newspaper. It is the Lewistown Aurora. under date of May 23rd, 1853. The paper people having "turned their faces toward is in a fair state of preservation and has the setting sun." Dr. George W. Athermany interesting old news items and adton, president of The Pennsylvania State vertising propositions in it.

---- Next Monday night, Feb. 27th, Rev. cordial welcome and then the former Gov-Dr. H. C. Holloway's lecture on "Sights and Insights in Europe" will be delivered rose instanter and there was great cheering portion of the barn roof 20 feet wide and When a young man he was united in marin the court house in this place. Press notices of the lecture are very complimen- ed into a few stage whispers in the rear of fork, which was suspended from the rafters, B. Miles, of Milesburg, who, together with tion with a few of his friends and with half a mind

THE GOVERNOR IS HOME. LONG LIVE ----Sommerville & Co., are preparing to THE GOVERNOR .- In its way it was proba- install an electric haulage system at their bly the most cleverly conceived and faithmines at Winburne. fully executed affair that. Bellefonte has

The friends and neighbors in Bellefonte

From Mill Hall, over the Central R. R. of with such popular favor that the train was

-Rev. M. S. Blair has resigned his ever seen-the welcome home tendered to pastorate at Beech Creek and Rev. M. C. former Governor Hastings last Saturday Frick, of Big Run, has been chosen to fill night. Though our distinguished townsthe vacancy. man had arrived three weeks previous to

----Rev. Geo. H. Goodling will say farething about her at the age of 84, when the well to the United Evangelical congregahaving him among them again before they tion in this place next Sunday, preparatory to starting for conference. He does not the fall caused her continued illness until know whether he will be returned to Bellethe time of her death, though only the last fonte or not, but it is the earnest prayer of vear was she compelled to remain in bed. many of his congregation that conference will send him back. While among us Rev. Goodling has done admirable work and he Pa., a free train was run. The idea met has carned the respect of all who are acquainted with him. and 11 days. She came to this country in

-Loganton had a great Odd Fellows demonstration on Wednesday evening when the new hall of the order was dedicated. J. C. Berry was chief marshal of the parade, with A. M. Daugherty and C. S. Whitman as aids. Officers of the grand lodge; Lock Haven canton, Green Burr band, Booneville band, G. W. M. Post, G. A. R. and the Sugar valley lodge made up a very creditable parade. The dedication was made at 3 o'clock. In the evening Rev. vantage of the lavish generosity of the B. H. Hart, of Jersev Shore, lectured.

Bellefonte folk to have them all here to ju-----Philipsburg elected a Democratic bilate. They came and everybody jubilated. Five bands, the Undine, Coleville, auditor and a Democratic justice of the here ever since. She leaves two children peace, but all the other borough offices Pleasant Gap, Zion and State College, vied were captured by the Republicans. There Mary Cunningham and Merty Cunningwas a tie for council between John Hirst ham, both well known residents of Belleand Jesse Lukens in the 1st ward. Ira fonte. She also leaves eight grand chil-Howe, Democrat, defeated Charles Davis dren and nine great grand children. when the reception committee started to for constable in the 2nd and B. Crain, escort the guest of honor to the figurative Democrat, won the judgeship in the 3rd, while Jack Graham had himself elected to council in that ward. Aside from the minority inspectors all the other very oldest resdents she held an honored offices went Republican-wise.

> -The law social held at the home of George Kaup, east of town, last Friday evening, by the ladies aid society of the Reformed church, proved even more of a success than was anticipated. The free sleds that were run from this place were crowded and it took ten of them to carry all the people who wanted to go. There were about three hundred guests there and the ladies realized more than $50. The Kaup home was literally in the hands of strangers, but Mr. and Mrs. Kaup are such hospitable and courteous hosts that they were happy to have it so.

---- The Philipsburg Ledger tells of the his remains to the cemetery Thursday afterforce of the winds along the Alleghenies in noon. Persians and talked significantly about the the following; "One of the most astonishing freaks of the high wind of Feb. 13th comes to us from Mr. Aaron Woodring. who lives at the foot of the mountain be-College, followed with a few remarks of low Flat Rock. When the family rose 40 years he had been successfully engaged Tuesday morning they found that during in the mercantile business at Howard.

ernor was introduced. The temperature the night Boreas had playfully torn off a He was a member of the Disciple church. for awhile. When the ovation had subsid- 40 feet in length, rafters and all. The hay riage to Miss Rebecca Miles, sister of Wm.

DEATH OF OLD MRS. CUNNINGHAM.-News Purely Personal. Mrs. Eleanor Cunningham died at her home on east Bishop street last Sunday evening, after an illness that had extended over a period of two years. Up to the time she accidentally fell down the stairs in her was their bridesmaid cemetery.

-Miss Marie Marshall, of Uniontown, is spending a few days with Winifred B. Meek. -Mr. and Mrs. John P. Harris Jr., of Tyrone spent Sunday with Mr. Harris' parents in this -Edwin G. Hutchinson, who is reading law home she had been a woman of remarkable with W. E. Gray in this place, spent Sunday with vitality and her active interest in everyhis mother, at their home at Warriorsmark.

-Mrs. George F. Harris and her daughter mishap occurred, was the subject of won-Katharine left for Philadelphia, Monday morning, to do some spring shopping. derment, but the injuries she received by -Dr. and Mrs. John P. Sebring arrived in town Saturday evening and are 'living at the Bush house until they can get their home on Spring street ready for them.

Mrs. Cunningham's maiden name was -Chas. E. Dorworth, stenographer in the de-Eleanor Hogan. She was born in county partment of agriculture at Harrisburg, was here to spend Sunday with his parents on east High Clare, Ireland, on the 8th of March, 1812, making her age 86 years, 11 months

-Wilbur F. Harris, executive clerk to former Governor Hastings, returned to his home in this 1828 and in 1831 was married to Francis place, on Tuesday. He will remain at home for Cunningham, who was an old acquaintance the present.

of hers and came from the same county in -Wm. P. Humes, his sister, Miss Mila, Mrs. Charles Gilmore and George T. Bush were among Ireland. Their home was then at Curtin's the guests at the Humes-Heburn wedding, in Works. And we may state just here that Jersey Shore, last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham's wedding was

-Daniel Garman went up to Tyrone yesterday the first one that took place in the old morning to spend a few days with his son Al, at Catholic church, and Mrs. Farley, her sisthe Garman house in that place. Mrs. A. S. Garman is reported to be very ill. ter, who passed away a few weeks ago,

-Miss Olive Foresman, who had been the guest of Mrs. John M. Bullock, of north Allegheny Mr. Cunningham only lived a few years street, for two weeks, returned to her how after they were married. He died during Williamsport yesterday morning. the year of 1834; and in 1836 Mrs. Cun-

-A. Scott Harris left for Black Hawk, Col., yesningham moved to Bellefonte and has lived terday morning, having gone by the Central and Grand Trunk systems. He expects to accept a position with a mining company in the Clear to mourn her departure. They are Miss Creek canon.

-George Koch Esq., of Centre Hall, with his daughter, was in town vesterday calling on his friends while the young lady did some spring shopping. Mr. Koch hadn't been over since the Jenks meeting here last fall.

She was a devout member of St. John's -John S. Furst, of Williamsport, the new sec Catholic church and during her active life etary and treasurer of the Central Pennsylvania had been a woman whose christian works telephone and supply company, was in town on were numerous. As one of Bellefonte's Friday and spent the day with his parents, Hon. and Mrs. A. O. Furst, of Linn street.

-Mrs. Evelyn Rodgers, representing the Belleplace in the minds of most of our people. fonte chapter, Mrs. A. O. Furst, Mrs. W. F. Mass for the repose of her soul was cele-Reeder and Miss Mary Thomas are in Washingbrated Wednesday morning at ten o'clock ton this week attending the eighth continental and interment was made in the Catholic congress of the Daughters of the American Revo-

-Mrs. Henry Meyers was in town Tuesday between trains on her way to Altoona to visit her THE DEATH OF HIRAM T. LUCAS.-Andaughter, Mrs. Gettig. Before returning to her other of Howard's leading citizens has home, one mile west of Boalsburg, Mrs. Meyers passed away. Scarcely had the pall of sorwill spend some time in Huntingdon with her brother Peter Weber. row occasioned by the death of the late

-J. H. Spotts, of Fleming, who farms up in Balser Weber risen from the town when Union township, and makes his work pay, was in the other old and reputable merchant foltown on Saturday, not to attend the Hastings relowed him to the grave. Hiram T. Lucas ception, but to look after some business that needed his attention here. Like his esteemed father he died at his home there at five o'clock Monis an active, aggressive Democrat and keeps well day morning, after eight weeks illness with posted on matters political, as well as those in the kidney trouble. A large cortege followed agricultural line.

-Michael Karstetter Pleasant Gan's fine looking building contractor, was in town on Saturday. Deceased was born in Snow Shoe town-In fact during the sleighing season he came in most every day to keep in touch with what is goship, about 65 years ago, and when quite ing on in the business world and look after possiyoung moved with his parents to Howard, ble spring contracts. He has worked on many of where he resided ever since. For the past the big barns and houses in the county and when he takes a job it is always to carry it to successful completion.

secured a fair expression of opinion from his

-Dr. Mary Thompson, of Lemont, was in town between trains, yesterday morning, on her way to many interesting stories to the WATCHMAN from Centre Hall, was in town vesterday afternoon

Altoona. She has lately resigned her position in friends on the matter.

-H. S. Stuart, merchant, of Sandy Ridge, and a rother of John W. Stuart, of State College, was in town yesterday afternoon.

-Peter Robb Jr., of Romola, was a flying visitor to Bellefonte, Wednesday. He was in so much of a hurry that he could scarcely tarry here for a minute

-Joseph D. Mitchell and Lawford H. Fry, of Burnham near Lewistown, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Mitchell, of

-George M. Harter, a son of Daniel Harter Esq., one of Marion townships best known residents was in town on Saturday. Mr. Harter is a young farmer and has a fine home about two miles low Jacksonville.

-L. R. Lingle, who farms the Boal farm southwest of Centre Hall, was in town yesterday afternoon. He is a son of Jas. H. Lingle Esq., of be low Milesburg, and the few years he has been living over in Penns valley have made him a ful fledged enthusiast over it as the garden farming region of the county.

-Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gardner, of Howard, prothonotary M. I. Gardner's father and mother, arrived in town last evening and are spending a few days with their son. Mrs. Gardner celebrated the seventy-fourth anniversary of her birth yesterday and Mr. Gardner is three years her senior. They have just returned from an extended tour through the western part of the State.

--W. B. Turner was down from his home up near Unionville, on Monday, having brought Mrs. Turner down to do a little shopping. They were sleighing, but returned home early in the day because they had left their little grandchildren in care of their fifteen year old daughter and knew she would have her hands full caring for them and looking after the other duties about the place. -Dan'l Heckman, county commissioner. dropped in for a short call Wednesday the purpose of which was to announce his intention of running again. Mr. Heckman stands on his record of the past three years and is in nowise ashamed of the nanner in which he has acted. His hands having been tied by being the minority member o the board he has not had much opportunity to do anything.

-L. B. McEntire Esq., was in town on Saturday arranging for the sale of his household effects. which will be made on March 25th, preparatory to moving to this place. Mr. McEntire's departure from Fillmore will be like the blotting out of an old landmark. For twenty-two years he has kept a general store and been postmaster of the place and he will be missed by every traveler along the Buffalo-run road. The fortunes that have been made and spent, the laws that have proposed and the church troubles disposed of around the stove in that country store would set the world to think ing could they be known, but Mr. McEntire we'll venture, recalls many of the controversies and will probably retell some of them when he comes to make Bellefonte his home.

-'Squire A. G. Archev, of Pine Grove Mills was in town on Washington's birthday, presumably to hear the election returns from over the county. The 'Squire has taken up the struggle he so gracefully laid down six years ago, when he was defeated for the nomination for register, and will try it again. The rumors that there would he a number of other aspirants from Ferguson made him hold back until he found out that most of them were groundless and now he has decided to enter the field. He needs no introduction to the Democrats of Centre county, but he intends making an active canvass, nevertheless. In fact he declined to be a candidate for re-election to the supervisorship up there on account of his desire to give this more important contest his undivided time.

-When the Fall Brook railroad passes

-A. A. Miller, who has been hotel man, baker into the control of the New York Central and confectioner and liveryman since moving Co., it is rumored that Sup't. Palmer, of from Millheim to State College, was in town last Friday afternoon talking over the political situa- the Beech Creek, is to be placed over both systems and that the Fall Brook attachees

tary and Dr. Holloway will certainly enter- | the hall the guest of honor began his talk. tain all who go to hear him. The admis- It was quite apparent that he was deeply sion will be 25ets. Proceeds for the impressed by the gorgeousness of the af-Lutheran church.

-This afternoon the literary exercises | tell his "friends and neighbors" of their | that part of the county, the snow in many at the Academy will be made exceptionally mutual love and heartily thank them for the honor of the demonstration. After he entertaining because it happens to be Mirror day. The Washington's birthday number | had concluded John Blanchard Esq., W. E. of the Academy paper will be particularly Gray Esq. and Col. J. L. Spangler spoke lieschool teachers of district No.2, which was and the ceremonies being concluded the sparkling and everyone is cordially invited to attend the exercises. They will begin crowd surged forward to personally welat 1:30 o'clock. The primary department come Gen'l. Hastings back to his home. will participate. It was a memorable night in Bellefonte.

one that will scarcely be forgotten, either -Mrs. J. C. Andrews, who lives near by our people or the gentleman in whose Julian, has just received a letter from her honor it was arranged. brother E. B. Williams, stating that he has safely landed on Cuban soil. He is with THE ODD FELLOWS BANQUET .- The Co. H, 3rd U. S. Vol. Engineers and had fifty-third annual banquet of Centre lodge, been stationed at Macon, Ga., for quite 153, I. O. O. F., was served in their fine awhile. The regiment sailed on Feb. 2nd banquet hall in the Crider building last and arrived at Cienfuegos on the 12th. night and the place was brilliant with gal-"Bird," as he is popularly known in the lant Odd Fellows and their ladies. More upper end of Bald Eagle, writes that the than one hundred and fifty covers were days are delightfully warm and the nights laid and every place was occupied when cool and that Cienfuegos is a beautiful deft waiters began serving the various city. courses of the banquet. When the last course

-The recent cold snap did not interwas reached and the guests were lingering over their coffee, toast master C. M. Bower lin. fere with work at the Bellefonte glass factory further than to make it a little unrapped for order and proposed toasts and comfortable for the men. Some of them called for responses as follows: called for responses to a second seco would work before the furnaces until all in Friendship, Love and Truth, W. Harrison Walker Esg a perspiration and then, in going off to another place to complete their work, their The Degree of Rebecca, clothes would freeze before they could get The Irishman's Opinion of Odd-Fellowship, Hon. James A. Schofield. back to the fires. There were thirty-three The Ladies; What do they think of Odd-Fel-lowship? D. F. Fortney Esq tramps hung up beside the factory fires during the week, but the sunshine of the The Widows and Orphans, last few days has drawn them all out but Other speakers who added wit and reason two. to the flood of oratory were H. S. Taylor,

W. H. Musser. Chas. R. Kurtz, John G. -Last Thursday evening Mr. Walter Dubbs, W. I. Fleming, F. E. Naginey, J. Edmiston, of State College, and Miss Ida M. Cole, of Bellefonte, were married at the S. McCargar and H. B. Pontius. home of Rev. Dr. Stephens, on Linn street. The banquet was about the most elaborate The bride is a daughter of architect Robert of the many the Odd Fellows have treated Cole, of this place, and deserves every comthemselves to and away toward mid-night the merry gathering broke up, the men fort and happiness that is possible. She is glad that they had taken their wives and a most admirable young woman and will make the man of her choice an exceptional sweet hearts into the sacred precincts of help-mate. He is a son of Joseph B. Edtheir lodge and the latter all the truer bemiston, a well-to-do College township cause they had shared in the pleasures of the one open night in the year. farmer, and is a young man of admirable habits and industrious disposition.

-Samuel Solt, 9th U. S. Inf. arrived at his home in this place yesterday morning on a sixty day furlough. He is look. ing fine and says he'll never do anything else than soldier as long as he lives. Sam went out from here with Co. B, but was turned down by the examiners at Mt. Gretna. He then went to Williamsport and bouquets of the same material for $10. ery salad, cranberries and coffee, all for 25 and enlisted in the regulars, being sent to She has a valuable claim staked out and cents, with ice cream and cake as extras. Lithia Springs, Ga., from which place he has had so many offers of marriage that we The carnival, proper, begins at eight o'clock. was sent back to Plattsville, N. Y., and wouldn't blame the editress of the Philips- We have not been informed of its characassigned to the 21st, Reg. He has quis burg Ledger for dropping her blue pencil ter but know it is to be a first class enterthe 21st, however, and been re-enlisted in and taking to green ink when marking up tainment with music by the mandolin and Allegheny street, died on Tuesday afterthe 9th, which is stationed at Madison bar- the communications from her Klondike guitar club and some of the best musicians noon, at the age of nine months. Funeral racks. N. Y. correspondent.

loose from the heavy rope and chain by which it was secured and sons, James and Oscar, mourn the loss of thrown fifty feet into an adjoining field. fair, but not so much so as to be unable to The elements did their worst work over in loving father.

> places on the mountain being as high as a horse."

> > ----An account of the institute of the pubheld at Boalsburg, on Feb. 10th and 11th, came in too late for publication in last week's issue. It had been planned to make it a great success, but the severe weather had the effect of keeping the attendance down to only a few of the teachers. Those who did get there entered heartily into the discussions and received much inspiration and good. They were encouraged by large audiences, which showed that the people of Boalsburg are greatly interested in the cause of education. The program included addresses and papers by R. B. Harrison, B. M. Wagonseller, Prof. Geo. E. Fisher, of Susquehanna university; Miss Marion Murray, H. M. formerly lived in East Nittany valley, died Hosterman, C. E. Hower, Miss Hattie at Laona, N. Y., on Monday. Deceased Kaup, Supt. C. L. Gramley, Rev. G. W. was aged about 80 years. She is survived

SOCIETY AT STATE COLLEGE. - The series Leah Sheets, of Nittany valley, Mrs. Luof delightful entertainments given at State cinda Zimmerman, of Kansas, Mrs. Han-College this week made quite a pleasant nah Hansee, of Washington, and Mrs. change from the work of student life. On Bean, of North Sparta, N.Y. Tuesday evening Miss Elizabeth Stuart was hostess of a largely attended tea, given in honor of her guest Mrs. H. C. Nyce, of Reading. The dining room was artistical- Friday. For nine years he had been an ly decorated with carnations and smilax and the whole affair was especially nice. On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Irvin L. Foster nee Patterson gave a prettily ap- in Centre county and was a veteran of the annual bal-masque took place in the college armory, with lots of spectators and much fun. W. L. Atfelder, as Father Time, was awarded first prize and Mr. Miller, dressed as a Scotchman, carried off the second. CALICO CARNIVAL AND FAIR .--- The Methodists are preparing for a calico carnival and fair which they are going to have next Thursday afternoon and evening -A report from Miss Phoehe Hoover, in the rooms formerly occupied by E. C. the Philipsburg public school teacher who Rowe in the Bush Arcade. Aprons, cushions, went to the Klondike last fall, is to the dressing sacks, fancy bags, dolls, kitchen effect that she is not at all disappointed by comforts, candy and cake will be offered the get-rich-quick atmosphere there. She for sale during the afternoon and evening. is cashier in a restaurant at Rampart City From five until seven o'clock an excellent for which she is getting a big salary and as supper will be served, consisting of oysters, side lines she makes paper roses at $3 each cold ham, Saratoga chips, hot biscuit, celof the town.

R. A. Beck

Prof. A. R. Rut

his daughters. Nancy and Annie, and two up his mind not to enter the field without having an affectionate husband and a kind and

-Jackson Riley died at the home of the dispensary of the Woman's college in Phil-Joshua Foulk, on Borough street, at 1 adelphia and will locate permanently in Altoona. o'clock on Monday afternoon. Deceased Dr. Thompson is a daughter of John I. Thompson Esq., of Lemont, and in addition to having had was about 65 years old and had made his dispensary experience she has been on the staff home with Mrs. McFadden, on North of the Maternity hospital since her graduation Thomas street, until several months ago, from college.

when Joshua prevailed upon him to move -Howard Moore, the druggist and all around up to his quarters. He was ill at the time promoter of Howard, was a Wednesday visitor to Bellefonte. He never said a word of his election with kidney trouble and did not last long to the councils of that place the day before, but after the change. Mr. Riley was of English he did say that he intends being a candidate for descent and so far as it known had no relatreasurer this fall, if the Democrats deem it adtives in this country. He was a veteran of visable to make him their nominee. Mr. Moore was justly proud of his town, for having elected the Civil war and came to Bellefonte with every Democratic aspirant for office except the the Collins men, when they began operations auditor and the one inspector. here. Interment was made in the Union -S. W. Smith, whose versatile pen contributes cemetery Tuesday afternoon. 11 11

He didn't look broken hearted over having been -Mrs. Nancy Long, who was a defeated for school director by the narrow margin daughter of John Snyder Sr., and who of two votes. In fact he had the same old smile that we discovered him wearing on Monday, when his horse started to playing "ring-round-Rosy" with his sled and upset the whole thing. Wes came over to bring a pair of horses for a buyer in Leisher, E. H. Williams and H. M. Ker- by two brothers, John and Elias Snyder, of this place.

-H. E. Homan, of Oak Hall, spent the greater East Nittany, and by four sisters, Mrs. part of Friday in this place in quest of a market for his crop of clover seed, but he found the demand so limited that the price was away below the figure he had fixed to let his seed go at There was so much seed made in the county during the season of '97 that there has been little demand for it since. In fact the yield was so grea that season that few farmers made seed crops at -----Theodore B. Richards, aged 63 years, all last fall, the former one having been uncondied at his home in North Philipsburg, on umed. -Philip H. Meyer, who is conducting a very invalid from the effects of a stroke of aposuccessful singing convention out at Pleasan Gap this week, drove into Bellefonte, Tuesday plexy and the last year and a half of his afternoon, to formally announce to his friend life was spent in bed. Deceased was born that he is in the field for commissioner. Th fact of the matter is simply this. Mr. Meyer ha pointed tea and on Wednesday evening the Civil war. His remains were buried with been in the field ever since his defeat, three years ago, and he is asking the party for another chance to show what he can do. He bases his claims on the precedent that was established in the cases of W. Galer Morrison, Hon. John T. McCormick, Hon. James Schofield and others who suffered defeat vet were given opportunity to retrieve.

-Emanuel Noll spent Sunday with his daughter. Mrs. C. F. York, at Warriorsmark. While his visit was ostensibly to see how they are all getting along up there it is just as probable that t was inspired by the notion that Mrs. Noll and the young lady who makes her home with them had been away along enough. They were at Warriorsmark on a month's visit and that was about as long as the men could make things go in their bachelor's hall out on north Allegheny street. John Noll, who has been home sick for several weeks, is able to be about again returned to his work as a Malena salesman yesterday.

-T. Frank Kennedy Esq., of State College, was n town on Saturday pushing along the boom he has launched for the office of sheriff. He is one of the widely known Democrats in Centre county and has been in active politics for a great many years, though this is the first time he has ever aspired to county office. Mr. Kennedy is a contractor and builder, but we suppose he is perfectly willing to let others have all the contracts if he can get to be the high sheriff of Centre county. For a number of years he was instructor in the wood working department of the mechanics art building at The Pennsylvania State College.

at Corning will be moved to Jersey Shore and the Beech Creek offices at the latter place will be moved to Newberry. Newberry will then be made the end of the runs of Beech Creek train crews, instead of Jersev Shore. The transfer of the Fall Brook property has been made.

Sale Register.

MARCH 16TH.—At the residence of Cap't. John A. Hunter, at Stormstown, 11 horses, five cows, short-horn bull, young cattle, sheep and im-plements. Sale at 10 o'clock a. m. J. H. Waite, MARCH 25TH-At the residence of L. B. McEntire sleigh, harness, household goods, butcher's utensils, etc. Sale at 1 o'clock p.m. James Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.

8
Wheat-Red 743/4@75
" —Spring 7034@71
Corn —Yellow
" —Mixed
Oats
Flour-Winter, Per Br'i 2.25@2.50
" Penna. Roller
" Favorite Brands 4.10@4.25
Rye Flour Per Br'l
Baled hay—Choice Timothy No. 115.00@16.00 """Mixed "1 Straw
" " " Mixed " 1 14.00
Straw 8.00@10.00

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by the PHENIX MILLING Co. The following are the quotations up to six clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes

Red wheat, new		70
Rye, per bushel		40
Corn, shelled, per bushel		35
Corn, ears, per bushel		30
Dats, per bushel, new		25
Barley, per bushel		40
Fround Plaster, per ton	8	00
Buckwheat, per bushel	1	25
Cloverseed, per bushel$6 00 to	$7	00

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.

otatoes per busnel
Onions
Eggs, per dozen Lard, per pound Country Shoulders ard, per pound
Jountry Shoulders
0.1-

 $75 \\ 15$

Hams. Tallow, per pound... Butter, per pound.

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Pa., at $1.50 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $2.00, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher. Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-less paid for in advance. A liberal discount is made to persons advertis-ing by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows:

SPACE OCCUPIED	Jun	Uni	1-3
One inch (12 lines this type	$ 5	$ 8	1$ 10
Two inches	7	10	15
Three inches	10	15	20
Quarter Column (5 inches)	12	20	30
Half Column (10 inches)	20	35	55
One Column (20 inches)	35	55	100
Admenticements in enogial column	95 1	ner i	oont

Transient advs. per line, 3 insertic Each additional insertion, per line ocal notices, per line ... s, per line 10 cts. Job Printing of every kind done with and dispatch. The WATCHMAN office has neatness been refitted with Fast Presses and New Type, and everything in the printing line can be executed in the most artistic manner and at the lowest rates.

All letters should be addressed to P. GRAY MEEK, Proprieto the honors of war on Sunday afternoon. He is survived by his widow, three sons and three daughters.

-Mrs. Deborah Reeder, whose death occurred in Tyrone last Friday afternoon, resided in this place from 1871 to 1873. She was a daughter of Henry and Mary Haupt, of Irish valley, Northumberland county, and her brother Simeon Haupt is a resident of Bellefonte. She was 78 years

-A severe attack of whooping cough, which resulted in pneumonia, caused the death of Lucille, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Barnhart, of Punxsutawney, on the 1st inst. The Barnharts were

1

-Bessie, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Rhoades, of North services were held yesterday afternoon.