

THE GRACE ELDREDGE NOVELTY COMPANY AND ELECTRIC CARNIVAL.—Miss Grace Eldredge, for whom this company is named, is without a rival in the art of "Delicate." She stands above all others in this country in this work, and is known as the "Calisthenic Queen."

With the aid of the experienced electrician, Mr. A. C. Coit, she presents the beautiful and thrilling electric carnival and illuminated delart. This is the first appearance of this work in lyceum courses.

The monologue pianist, Joe Linder, of New York, is a wonder in his musical monologues and imitations of various instruments—in fact, everything from a jewsharp to a church organ—on the piano alone.

Trevela Martin, of Boston, is a most successful singer and there seems to be no limit to the compass of his voice. He always makes a hit with his sweet, pathetic rendition of the Scotch and Irish ballads.

This artists' organization appears at Garmans to-morrow evening, March 11th. Admission 50 cts. Seats now on sale.

THE COMING CONVENTION OF COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—Bellefonte is to have the annual convention of the Sunday schools of Centre county on Thursday and Friday, March 23rd and 24th. The association is inter-denominational, so that every organization for christian work among the young people is expected to participate and derive some benefit from the meeting.

Rev. A. Z. Myers, of Philipsburg, is president of the county association and in order that there may be a full representation of all the schools in the county superintendents are solicited to confer with him, either by letter or in person, relative to the program and general arrangements.

BORN ON BUFFALO RUN.—The venerable Abram Jackson, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Owen Jones, in Chester Hill, on Sunday evening, was born on Buffalo Run, a short distance west of Bellefonte, January 11th, 1814. When a very young man he learned the tailor's trade in this place and after working at it for awhile here he moved to Black Bear, near Philipsburg, where he kept a hotel for a long time, later moving in to Philipsburg for the same purpose. The greatest part of his life was spent at rail-road contracting, at which he made considerable money. About fifteen years ago he became a clerk at the Passmore house and continued at that until a year or more ago.

When tailoring in this place he married Mary Armor, who died twenty-seven years ago, leaving him with three children, all of whom are living.

The body of Mary Murphy, relict of John Murphy, was brought to this place, Saturday morning, and interred in St. John's Catholic cemetery. She had died at the residence of the Catholic priest in Columbia, from the effects of a stroke of paralysis. Deceased was 73 years old. After the demise of her husband, who lived at Axe Mann, she became a servant in the home of Gen. James A. Beaver, in this place, having accompanied the family to Harrisburg, at the time of their removal to the executive mansion. Later she entered the household of the late bishop McGovern, then moved to Centralia and, later, to Columbia, where she died.

At the age of 79 years, 8 months and 23 days, Mrs. Isabella Neidigh died suddenly at the home of her nephew, Jacob M. Neidigh, at Woodward, on Monday. She was a native of Snyder county, but later moved to the vicinity of Woodward, where she resided until they removed to Saint Joseph, Michigan, having returned to Centre county, in June, 1897. Since returning she and her husband divided their time between the homes of their son at State College and that at which she died. Interment was made at St. Paul's on Wednesday.

Heart failure caused the death of Mrs. Sara Quiggle at her home at Salona on Tuesday evening. Deceased was a most estimable woman and had spent her entire life in Clinton county. Two children survive her, Lewis, of Iowa, and Mrs. Archie Allison, of Spring Mills. She was a sister of Hon. A. O. Furst, of this place. Burial was made at Cedar Hill yesterday afternoon, services having been conducted by Rev. W. M. Spangler, of the Lutheran church, of which she had been a steadfast member for more than seventy years.

Mrs. Effie DeHaas died at the home of her father, William Scantlin, in Lock Haven, last Thursday afternoon. She was 22 years old and was the wife of I. C. DeHaas, of Eagleville, who has lately been a rail-road operator at Grampian. Interment was made in the Christian cemetery at Eagleville on Sunday.

Sophia Lehman, the 16 year old daughter of F. X. Lehman, at one time proprietor of the Brant house in this place, died at her home at Patton, on Friday. She had been ill only seventeen days with drowsy. Burial was made Sunday afternoon.

Edith Fearon Furst, aged 11 years, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Furst, at Beech Creek, Friday evening. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. W. Pomeroy, on Monday morning.

Walter, the five month's old son, of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brungart, of Wolf's Store, died last Thursday evening and was buried Sunday morning, the Rev. Salem, of the Lutheran church, officiating.

MONEY IN CHURCH ENTERTAINMENTS.

The calico carnival, supper and entertainment which was given by the ladies of the Methodist church, in this place, last Thursday afternoon and evening, proved more of a success than the most sanguine had expected. The booths at which aprons, shirt waists, pin cushions, pillows, dust and laundry bags, wrappers and rag dolls were sold were uniquely arranged and well patronized. In fact everything was sold but a few aprons. The supper was fine for 25cts, at least everybody pronounced it so, and the concluding entertainment netted $27. It was worth the 10cts. admission to see the presentation of Uncle Toms Cabin by Grant Hoover and Miss Lydia Moore, and to hear Mr. Phil. D. Waddell's song "The Stolen Music." Altogether the work netted $164 for the Sunday school library fund.

The remarkable success of church entertainments during the past season in Bellefonte has been a matter of more than a little comment. And experience has taught that the little things have paid best in every instance. The Presbyterians led off with a fair and festival in their chapel, in December, from which they realized $240. Next the Episcopalians had the birthday party at the home of Mrs. Wilkinson, netting them $165, but when they tried something far more pretensions, "The Roof Garden," they made only $70. Following almost directly came the Reformed sociable at the country home of George Kaup that netted the aid society of that church $38. Then Dr. Holloway's lecture made the Lutheran church $73 richer before two weeks elapsed and even while it was going on the Methodist ladies were getting ready for their carnival that netted $164.

Next will come the charity entertainment in the armory for the relief committee and by that time the United Brethren, Evangelicals, Catholics and A. M. Es will be entitled to a turn, then the fire companies, and the whole list will be ready to begin over again.

POSTER'S VIEW OF THE WEATHER.—My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from the 23rd to 27th and March 1st to 5th. The next disturbance will reach the Pacific coast about March 6th, cross the west of Rockies country by close of 7th, great central valleys 8th to 10th, Eastern States 11th.

Warm wave will cross the west of Rockies country about March 6th, great central valleys 8th, Eastern States 10th. Cool wave will cross the west of Rockies country about March 9th, great central valleys 11th, Eastern States 13th.

Temperature of the week ending 8 a. m. March 13th will average above normal east of the Rockies and below west. Precipitation for the same period will be above east of the Rockies and about normal west.

East of the Rockies temperature of the first half of March will average below normal, and the last half above. Average temperature of the month will be below normal—cold—in the great central valleys from the Gulf to the lakes and from the Rockies to the Alleghenies. West of the Rockies and east of the Alleghenies the temperature of the month will average from about to above normal.

Three cold waves will cross the continent from west to east during March and the lowest part of these depressions will reach the general north and south line of the Mississippi river about March 4th, 13th and 31st.

Three warm waves will move across the continent from west to east, reaching the Mississippi river about March 9th, 15th and 24th. The last one will be a great high temperature wave, and will be followed by a cold wave and blizzard.

THE WORK OF THE LICENSE COURT.—The annual session of the license court convened, on Tuesday morning, to take action on the forty-two applications for license in the various parts of Centre county.

All of the old applications were re-granted and six new ones were held under advisement until March 20th, when they will be finally disposed of. The fortunate are:

THE HOUSER SPRINGLESS LOCK CO.

At last one new industry is positively assured to Bellefonte and before many days have passed work will be begun erecting a building for the manufacture of the Houser springless lock, the product of local genius and capital.

At a meeting of the directors of the new company, Tuesday night, it was reported that all the stock had been subscribed and a charter will be applied for at once. The building will probably be located at the car shops grounds and will be a story and a half frame structure, 32 x 48.

Success to the venture. May it be only one of a great many new industries that will spring up in our midst in the next few years.

Madisonburg.

John F. Miller is very happy since the arrival of that boy visitor.

A. H. Vonada and wife spent Sunday in Nittany valley with his brother.

J. C. Smith and family spent Sunday in Sugar valley with Mrs. Smith's parents and other relatives.

Three of our boys, Chas. Miller, Cloyd Shafer and Herbert Stover, left for western States last week.

Mr. Yearick, principal of our school for the past five years, expects to leave us at the end of his present school term.

According to the appointments made by the conference of this district of the Evangelical association, Rev. Romig, of this charge, will move to Union county. Rev. Doerster, of the Sugar valley charge, will fill the charge vacated by Rev. Romig.

Centre Hall.

Charles Shearer, the blacksmith at the station, will move to Coburn.

Andrew Gregg will move into the Neighborhood property, just outside the borough.

Mrs. Catherine Nearhood, who makes her home with her son George, on Hofer street, is not improving much from a recent attack of sickness.

Dr. Ritter reports that Henry Potter, west of town, lost a valuable heifer this week. A portion of the blood of the dead animal was sent to state veterinary surgeon Pearson for analysis.

Frank Ross left on Wednesday for Clinton, Iowa, where he expects to remain for an indefinite length of time. Ross holds an assistant druggist's certificate, which under the laws of Pennsylvania is not an easy matter to obtain, but he does not expect to enter a drug store.

The Lutheran church is to be painted this spring. The matter was discussed some time last summer but the work was postponed, but it is a settled thing now that the church is to be put in prime condition on the exterior. One of the members of that church, Mrs. Catherine Durrst, will furnish the bulk of the money to have the edifice beautified. The color and specifications are as yet not ready, but will be prepared in a short time.

Nittany Items.

Mrs. Doc. Wipkelema has been very ill, but at present is a little better.

Miss Belle Emrick is visiting her brother, E. C. Emrick, at Williamsport.

Mrs. Harris, who has been seriously ill, has improved so that she is able to sit up a short time.

The protracted meeting conducted by the Disciples has closed. Quite a number were immersed.

Misses Emma Glantz and Mary Bower, of Mackeyville, visited William Karstetter and family last week.

Emma and Maggie Yearick, two of Nittany's accomplished young ladies, have been home for the last two weeks visiting their parents.

The silver cornet band is advancing in music very rapidly, and that their financial support should be maintained, held an oyster supper last Saturday evening and received liberal support.

Thursday, March 2nd, Nittany valley witnessed the hardest rain ever known for this season of the year. It continued from 5 a. m. until 7 a. m. and included an area from Nittany to Hecla. The railroad was overflowed and highways impassable.

Harry Zimmerman and wife, two of Pleasant Gap's esteemed citizens, visited their many acquaintances here last week. Mrs. Zimmerman was formerly Miss Jennie Martin, a relative of S. A. Martin, the invalid she came to see.

Last Thursday the barn on the Peter Dornblaster estate, was burned with all its contents. Mr. Brumgard, the tenant, was in the barn about 5 a. m. doing his feeding, when the lantern exploded with above result. Miss Puella Dornblaster had recently purchased the homestead.

Anyone stopping at Lamar depot would first infer he was viewing a Parisian art gallery, as the agent, Geo. Pletcher, has a number of original paintings. The most admirable is the avenue leading from the depot to the pike, which shows the artist is possessed of more than ordinary ability.

The I. O. O. F. lodge room, located at Huhlersburg, has been reaping a bountiful harvest. Six members were initiated last Saturday evening. R. Kreamer, Geo. McClain, John Shields, Chas. Emrick, and A. A. Pletcher are members who propelled the hand-car from here to see the strangers ride the goat.

Miss Mary Hurd came up from Lamar, last Saturday evening on the train, expecting to stay for the oyster supper and learning that R. C. Hockman, the teacher whom she boards, had returned unexpectedly, Miss Hurd promptly walked back to Lamar to prepare supper for him. Hereafter she should have Rolla practice culinary art over Sunday, a change from school work.

Pine Grove Mentions.

Ammon Bubb spent Sunday at his home here.

Miss Sadie Dannley is visiting her sister at State College.

Harry Bloom has broken ground for a new house at Bloomdorf.

James Poorman, one of College township's best citizens, has been housed up with grip and severe after-effects.

The venerable Henry Bloom is very ill with grip.

Charles Eronfeld and M. M. Nagney, up-to-date Mifflin county farmers, are visitors at the parsonage this week.

Jacob Stam and Lewis Ashler have decided to take Horace Greeley's advice and go West. They will go about the 10th.

H. H. Goss is having a serious time with an attack of rheumatism which has kept him confined to the house for weeks.

Lumberman John Royer, one of Potter township's hustling Democrats, spent several days here this week on business.

Harry Shuey, of Fairbrook, while chopping wood last Friday, split his left foot open so completely that it was necessary to bind it up with adhesive plaster.

John H. Lytle, the huckster, is still confined to his room with rheumatism and stomach trouble, which have occasioned much anxiety among his friends.

Mr. Thomas Devine recently purchased two up town residences from J. B. Ard & Co. He will occupy the one and Wm. Henry the other for the present at least.

Pennsylvania Lodge No. 276, I. O. O. F. has added a new suit of solid oak to its already attractive hall, in this place, and now it is as comfortable and convenient a wigwam as there is in the county.

Daniel Martz's blooded team of western horses got the better of him last Thursday and gave the wagon maker a job. As this is the third time they have run a way we would advise him to curtail their rations.

Mrs. Ed. Burchfield is down from Altoona for a little outing and to help at the John Jacobs' moving to State College. As Maggie Leech she was the belle of Shingletown and still retains that attractive magnetism which made her popular.

Andy Lytle, one of College township's push farmers and big cattle raisers, was seen on our streets, last Friday, shaking hands with the Republican bosses. Andy would like to fill Matt. Riddle's slippers in the county commissioner's office.

Last week Mrs. D. W. Miller was called to Mifflin county by the serious illness of her cousin, John Gilliland, whose condition is hopeless from a second stroke of paralysis. Years ago Mr. Gilliland lived at Oak Hall where the older people remember him as a genial, clever and useful citizen.

George Reed and Bertie Henry were united in marriage by the Rev. Hepler, at Lemont, this week. After the ceremony they returned to the bride's home, on Water street, where a fine layout awaited them and the friends who were there to wish them happiness. The bride is the oldest daughter of Wm. Henry and a lady of rare beauty, well fitted to fill the duties she has assumed. The groom is the youngest son of David Reed, and a whole souled jolly good fellow, who is to be congratulated.

On last Monday Fred Decker and his family left for their new home on Staten Island, N. Y., where Fred expects to wield a saw and hatchet. We hope his expectations will be realized and his efforts crowned with success. His sale, on Wednesday, the 1st, was well attended and most of the articles brought fair prices. In total it amounted to $1100 but more than $100 was unsettled for and he was loath to go but his goods had been shipped and he was obliged to follow.

Mrs. Sarah Wolf, wife of James J. Price, died at her home at Boalsburg on Feb. 28th, after long weeks of suffering. Her entire life of four score years were spent where she died so that her many Christian virtues will long be remembered in the neighborhood. Her husband and daughter, Mrs. I. J. Condo, survive and with a host of friends mourn her death. She was 81 years old. Interment was made in the Boalsburg cemetery on March 2nd, with her pastor Rev. Leshor, officiating.

HAPPILY MARRIED.—On Tuesday, the 21st ult., Warren P. Smiley and Ella Rebecca Goss, oldest daughter of the late Cyrus Goss, were united in marriage by the Rev. J. C. Finney, at the Presbyterian parsonage in Petersburg, Huntingdon county. The happy couple spent their honeymoon at the Lochiel in Harrisburg and thence went directly to Scranton, where Mr. Smiley is chemist for a large iron firm. For several years he was assistant in the chemical laboratories at State College and is a fair and square young man.

On Thursday of last week, Wm. C. Frank and his intended bride drove to the county capital to get guardian Rumberger's consent to their union. He willingly concurred, as he was never known to object, and directed them to Dr. Stephens who promptly united them man and wife. Upon their return to the groom's home at Rock Springs the usual wedding supper was served with a few guests present. The bride, Ida May Emigh, is a daughter of J. A. Emigh, of Pennsylvania Furnace, and the groom, the oldest son of T. A. Frank, is an industrious young farmer.

While in Philadelphia this week attending the annual meeting of the State Veterinary Medical Association we were royally entertained at the home of Dr. George P. Rishel whose bright young son, Hoy Rishel, did the honors of the home and showed us the lay of the city. Another pleasure was seeing four of our Centre county boys at their work. Samuel H. Gilliland, of Oak Hall, is assisting in the bacteriological laboratory of the State live stock sanitary board and he was recently promoted in recognition of his competent work. Hewett C. Meyers is pursuing his studies vigorously at the University medical school where he will graduate a year hence. F. M. Bailey and J. Baker Krebs will graduate in the art of making grinders this coming June and immediately after will locate some where and go on in their profession.
