

The epidemic of grip has about run its course but there is yet much sickness in the town. The most serious cases are Mrs. William C. Heule, who is failing so rapidly that there is no hope of her life being prolonged more than a few days, and Mrs. John Anderson, of Bishop street, who is so seriously ill with stomach trouble that only members of her own family are allowed to see her.

There will be no election at State College tomorrow for the purpose of deciding whether that borough is to be bonded for $15,500 to either install a new water plant or buy out the old one. Since the order was given for holding the election the council and the old water company have made up their differences, the latter agreeing to pipe the town suitably and place plugs for fire protection and, also, to give the people sprinkling privileges.

A. L. Bolger was, on Monday, appointed postmaster at Philipsburg to succeed Albert Walton, removed. Mr. Bolger was one of five applicants for the place, after it became evident that the department could not be prevailed upon to retain Mr. Walton. He has been an active Republican in that section for years, one of Congressman Arnold's friends, and it is understood that the latter's endorsement had weight to influence his appointment.

Rev. S. W. Pomeroy, who has served the Presbyterian charges at Bald Eagle and Nittany valley since Feb. 11th, 1886, formally took leave of his old congregations on Sunday, preparatory to moving to Harrisburg. During his pastorate down the valley he increased the membership of the Mill Hall church from 113 to 150, built the handsome new church there and raised $26,035.77 in the aggregate for benevolence, etc. At Beech Creek the membership was raised from 52 to 90 and they contributed $6,069.50 to benevolence, etc.

At a special meeting of the Bellefonte council, held Monday evening, the borough 4 per cent bonds amounting to $100,000 that were sold, Feb. 1st, 1893, to Col. W. Fred Reynolds, were ordered to be called in and a new series will be issued to replace them at 3 per cent. Edward C. Jones & Co., New York brokers, offered, through Charles F. Cook, borough treasurer, to take up the entire issue at 3 per cent and council accepted their proposition. The 4s were redeemable, at the option of the borough, after Feb. 1st, 1895, so that there will be no difficulty in calling them in. The new bonds will be of $1,000 each and will mature April 1st, 1929. They will be made redeemable, at the borough's option, $15,000 on or after April 1st, 1909; $20,000 on or after April 1st, 1914; $20,000 on or after April 1st, 1919; $20,000 on or after April 1st, 1924.

ONE OF THE FIVE.—Walter B. McCaskey, a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College in 1896, and captain of State's famous football team of '95 has just been appointed by President McKinley to a position in the regular army. He is one of the five Pennsylvanians who were fortunate and though he has not been specially fitted for the office by instruction at West Point there will be few of the academicians who will surpass him in either the theory or practice of military matters.

He is a brother of Capt. E. W. McCaskey, 21st U. S. Inf.

NEARLY BURNED THE CLOTHES OFF HIS BACK.—While in Bellefonte, Monday afternoon, George Shull, a Benner township farmer, had an experience that he will not soon forget, as it cost the one side of his suit of clothes and the half of a good overcoat.

He was carrying a bottle of nitric acid in his pocket, intending to use it in mixing some horse medicine, but when in front of the Jackson, Hastings & Co. bank the cork popped out of the bottle and before Mr. Shull discovered it the acid had run down his entire right side. It smoked and burned as if his clothing had been on fire and before he could get it stopped great holes were burned in his overcoat, waist coat, vest and trousers.

The moving fever prevails this spring bad as ever. Many are over with it but others will have it 'til April the 1st when a new directory will be needed to locate your friends. John Nolls is going from the McBride house on Bishop street to one of Purner's new houses on W. Logan street. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Musser will move into the McBride house which belongs to Mrs. Musser. Dr. Holloway goes into the Cowdrick house on east Linn street, while Mrs. Annie Swartz Caswell takes possession of the one he vacates on Penn street. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wetzel have moved from the Valentine house on E. Curtin street to F. H. Thomas' house on Willowbank street lately occupied by Calvin Ray, who has taken rooms over McCalmont's store. J. G. Heylman and family will move from the Curtin house on the corner of Howard and Allegheny streets to the Valentine house on east Curtin street. Sylvester Ray leaves the Linn house on Spring street for one of his own on Howard street and J. P. Smith moves into it from the corner of Allegheny and Logan street. S. D. Pine is going from one of the Twitmore houses on Water street to one of the Joseph houses on east Logan street, while Frank Campbell moves into the Twitmore house. Mechtleys and Finkbinders move from the Humes house on Howard street to the old Foster house near the spring now occupied by the Campbells. Thomas Donahy takes possession of the Strickland property on Bishop street and Mrs. Jane Welch and Mrs. Laura Elliott will occupy James Harris' new house on Spring street when it is completed.

AN OLD COPPER BUTTON.—Several days ago the Philadelphia Record told the story of an old copper button that is owned by a resident of Bristol, Penna. Its history dates back to the time of the revolutionary war and it is apparent that the button craze that has been supposed to have been of such recent origin had its beginning with the earlier men of the country.

Col. Austin Curtin, of Roland, this county, who is now superintendent of the Chester Spring orphans school has written to the Record relative to one of the buttons in his possession, as follows: "I have had for ten or twelve years one of those buttons. I believe the buttons were in existence before General Washington was President, and I think they must have been worn on coats or overcoats of some, if not all, the officers, and, perhaps, some of the men, who served in the revolutionary war. Just after the close of the war John Holt, who had been an officer in the army, settled in the Bald Eagle valley, adjoining Boggs township. His descendants reside on the same land now. Archibald Bathurst, a grandson of another revolutionary soldier, ten or twelve years ago, while fishing, stirred up the sand on the shore, and brought up this button from a depth of about six inches. The knowledge I have of the button was gained in talking with the older members of the Bathurst and Holt families. My theory is this button once belonged to Col. John Holt, and was lost, and after probably 100 years, was dug up by Mr. Bathurst. By him it was presented to me, and I have carried it in my pocket ever since."

STATE'S BASE BALL SCHEDULE.—Prospects are better for a strictly first class base ball team at State College this spring, than they have been since the days when such college stars as Atherton, Stuart and Rice were there and in their glory. Already a large squad of men are practicing for places and as there is no dearth of material to select from captain Johnson ought to have no trouble in putting one of the best teams State has ever had in the field. With plenty of men on the bench, all eager for work, there will hardly be any let up in earnest work among the ones who have been fortunate enough to be placed.

Happily for the lovers of the sport in this place the management has arranged for quite a number of games at home. The schedule is as follows: April 8th, Susquehanna Univ. at State College. " 14th, Susquehanna Univ. at Selingsgrove. " 15th, Univ. of Penna. at Philadelphia. " 22nd, Gettysburg at State College. " 28th, W. & A. at Washington. " 29th, D. C. A. C. at Pittsburg. May 1st, W. U. P. at Allegheny. " 6th, Dickinson at State College. " 18th, Franklin & Marshall at State College. " 20th, Bucknell at State College. " 27th, Fordham at New York City. " 29th, Sefton Hall at Orange, N. J. " 31st, Lafayette at Easton. " 31st, Princeton at Princeton. June 1st, Bucknell at Lewisburg. " 14th, Cuban Giants at State College.

THE COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION NEXT WEEK.—The program for the convention of the Centre county Sunday schools, to be held in the court house in this place next Thursday, March 23rd, has been issued and will be found in full below. Each school in the county is entitled to two delegates, in addition to its pastor and superintendent. Rev. A. Z. Myers, pastor of the Philipsburg Baptist church, is president of the association and has written every superintendent in the county, so far as he has been able to secure proper addresses, but if there are any who have been missed it is his desire that such accept this as a personal invitation to be present and participate.

Three sessions will be held, beginning with the morning session at 9:30 a. m. The meeting promises to be full of interest and quite helpful. Many Sunday school teachers deeply feel their lack of training for the work entrusted to them. Dr. Roads will give an address on this subject during the morning sessions of the convention.

Mrs. J. W. Barnes, state S. S. primary superintendent, will give a drill to a large class of children at the convention at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. Barnes is a teacher who has few peers and to hear her at this time will be quite a treat. She will also speak at the evening session.

The invitations to the wedding of Milton Keller and Miss Sadie Markle, of Grazierville, Blair county, have been recalled on account of the gentleman's illness.

David L. Dennis moved into his new mansion home on last Tuesday and is now monarch of all he surveys. John I. Markle will occupy the house he vacated, after April 1st as a retired farmer.

Waldo Rhone, one of the promising youths of State College, is packing his trunk to move to Allegheny county where he expects to take charge of a creamery at Wexford. We wish him success in his new undertaking.

Isaac Gates went to Danville last week and succeeded in getting Edward Rider, released. They arrived home Saturday evening and Mr. Rider is somewhat improved although not greatly for a six month's stay. The Academy, at this place, will open April 3rd with Rev. C. T. Aikens as principal and Musser E. Heberling as assistant teacher. Both gentlemen have been tried and not found wanting and all signs point to a first class school.

John H. Weber, of Boalsburg mercantile fame, has bought H. P. Corman's entire stock of merchandise at Oak Hall. On April 1st he will take charge of the store while his brother Samuel will conduct the business at the old stand in Boalsburg.

According to many reports heard at the annual meeting of the State Veterinary Medical Association in Philadelphia, last week, stockmen need have no fear of the early extinction of the horse. They are in greater demand than ever and prices are good.

George Y. Meek, of Tyrone, and surveyor Henry, of that place, are at the old homestead on Fairbrook this week locating lines and corners for the new purchaser. Mr. Meek says his trips to Fairbrook will not be so frequent since some one else will have to oversee the ranch.

Mrs. David Frantz left Tuesday morning for Glasgow, Cambria county, in response to a telegram stating that her son, Rev. Welsh, was dangerously ill. Mr. Welsh visited here several months last summer and his many friends will be sorry to hear of his illness.

John Jacobs was in a chopping mood one day last week and cut down several dozen trees in Mayor Ross' tract near by. John thought it sport to see the trees fall but to us it seems a dire calamity to see the mighty monarchs down and so few people interested in the supply of the future.

The dog court that convened at Squire Miller's last week to adjust Ross Ellenberger's loss of sheep awarded him $132. A big dog belonging to Mr. Nideigh, of Huntingdon county, killed eleven and wounded thirty, so that many of them had to be killed, in one night. Fortunately the dog was discovered in the act and promptly killed.

Last Sunday while John Kline and wife were driving to church in a two horse buggy it came unoccupied and the occupants were thrown out onto the ground. Mr. Kline held to the lines and escaped with a few scratches but Mrs. Kline was not so fortunate. She was injured seriously about the head and shoulders and is still under the physician's care.

Centre Hall. W. H. Kuhn, of Jersey Shore, is here on a visit.

Photographer Thomas Bartges is a happy papa since Tuesday. Tom is doing a big lot of good work in his gallery these days, and a good part of the proceeds will go to buy the baby an outfit.

Katie Keller celebrated her thirteenth birthday by inviting a host of her little friends—boys and girls—to her home to partake of refreshments Saturday evening. She was surprised to receive a number of handsome presents.

Three large sales took place near Centre Hall this season. James Durst's amounted to $1,700; Frank Bradford's summed up $2,137 and Hiram Durst's amounted to about the same sum. Cattle of all description sold well. Sheep and hogs were in good demand and brought top figures. These parties had excellent stock and in fine condition.

Landlord Shaver did a good business on the day of Bradford's sale. A large number of farmers, placarded as "going to sales for a free dinner" by county newspapers, stepped up to Shaver's dinner table and partook of a hearty meal and planked down the price of the same. This is evidence that farmers will, if the opportunity is afforded them, pay for their meals at sales as well as for all other honest bills.

Spring Mills. John Runkle opened a meat market here on Tuesday last. Mr. R. will serve home dressed beef exclusively.

Rev. Fans, of the M. E. church of our village, delivered his last sermon to a very large and attentive congregation on Sunday evening last.

Sarah Vanvalzah, daughter of the late Dr. F. H. Vanvalzah, has been very seriously ill for the last two or three weeks. Her present condition is very critical.

Miss Mabel Sankey, a very accomplished teacher, will begin a spring and summer session of school in our village for the "little people" about the tenth of April.

The grip is abating in this neighborhood. Of course colds, and the ailments attending early spring are quite prevalent. A few cases of pneumonia are also reported.

E. S. Shaffer, of Madisonburg, Democratic candidate for the nomination for sheriff, made us a flying visit on Saturday last. Mr. S. is a very pleasant and affable gentleman and comes from an old and influential Democratic family, very popular and his character ranks high in Brush valley. While here he created quite a favorable impression.

C. P. Long, the enterprising merchant, is erecting a residence and shop on the avenue to be occupied by J. G. Graden the reliable shoemaker of our village. Mr. Long is also converting the large new barn located on the south side of the creek, a short distance above the iron bridge, into a shop for wheelwright J. L. Roper. The literary society held their meeting on last Friday night. It was a success in every particular excepting the order. The debate on the question, resolved: "That the United States should not enter into imperialism" was waged hot on both sides. The question was decided in favor of the affirmative side. The "News" was as laughable as ever.

Books, Magazines, Etc. Admiral Sampson has written for the April Century an illustrated article fully describing the work of "The Atlantic Fleet in the Spanish War," and drawing its lessons. The more important features of this paper are a plan setting forth the character of the blockade of Santiago harbor; maps showing the relative positions from day to day of Cervera, Schley, and Sampson; and a series of bird's-eye plans of the engagement of July 3rd, showing the positions of the vessels at different stages of the fight. In a footnote the Admiral tells this good story: "As we passed the Teresa and Oquenda, a Spanish sailor was seen struggling in the water on the seaward side of the New York. In response to his calls for help, one of the crew seized the chaplain's reading-desk, which was stowed on the main deck in the passage between the two cabins, and which had a cross-shelf on it. As he did so, he cried out grimly, 'Cling to the cross and you'll be saved!' The Spaniard followed instructions, and was saved."

VIOLA ALLEN'S LITERARY ASPIRATION.—Miss Viola Allen, the "star" of Hall Caine's dramatization of his popular novel, "The Christian," has always aspired to be an author. She has said that there are two things which she would rather do than act; write a book, or be a trained nurse. She will now make her literary debut in an article which she has written for The Ladies' Home Journal, reciting and explaining fully "What the life of an Actress Means."

Your Opportunity. THIS is only a reminder if you have failed to take advantage of our offer—good to the 1st of July—to furnish this paper for $1.00 a year, that the time contemplated by that offer is drawing to a close. Do you intend letting it go by? Foolish, very foolish if you do. You would grasp the opportunity to save 33 per cent on any other purchase. Why not save it in the price of your newspaper? You intend to know, but you are wasting time, and losing the opportunity. It will slip by before you are aware of it, and then when you are paying $1.50 for a paper that your neighbors are all receiving for $1.00, you will wonder how you come to be so neglected. Remember that if you have an old account standing, that it can be settled at the advance rates charged during the years it accumulated, and that a note will be taken in settlement of it, in order to give you the advantage of the present low price for the coming year. On this you would also save 33 per cent. Do you thoroughly understand what we are offering and what you are neglecting or overlooking.
