

An impudent tramp refused to leave the home of Mrs. Frank Aughenbach, at Mill Hall, last Thursday, when she ordered him to do so, then she called her husband from the fire brick works near by and he arrived just in time to catch the knight of the road. He punched the head nearly off his shoulders, and pitched him clear out into the street and it is likely that that impudent beggar has learned a lesson that will be valuable to him in the future. Several days ago one of this tribe of wanderers was admitted to the home of an honest, hard working mechanic in Bellefonte. The night was blustery and the kind hearted man took the tramp into his warm kitchen to give him his supper. The meal was modest, yet sufficient for the donor and his family, and you can imagine his indignation when the tramp turned about and impudently asked: "Don't you have any meat for me?" Well, it was only because he scooted that he saved himself from having a chair broken over his head, for the ire of that kindly man who was willing to share his modest meal was stirred to desperation by such ingratitude and he would have brained the tramp, then and there, if he hadn't fled.

At the meeting of district No. 2, of the United Mine Workers of America, at Tyrone, last week it was unanimously decided to demand an advance of wages from present prices to a two-thirds basis for chain machine work, and three-fifths for punching machine, or 30 cents per ton for chain and 27 cents for punch. This conclusion is reached on the general principle of a uniform 46 cent rate throughout the district, and involves the establishment of a general rule fixing eight hours for a day's work. At present a rate of about 22 cents per ton prevails. It is provided that the demand shall take effect on the first or second day of April. The district includes fourteen counties in Central Pennsylvania, with forty unions and about forty-five thousand miners. It is feared there will be a general strike in the region as the operators are said to be averse to making the demanded advance.

Arrangements are being made for an after Easter assembly which will be given in the armory here the night of April 12th. Hard P. Harris and Edw. Hoy are the committee in charge.

Ask your grocer for our flour. "Finest" and "Fancy Patent" brands lead all others.—Phoenix Milling Co.

Centre Hall.

Mrs. J. W. Wolf is visiting friends and relatives in Juniata county and the State capital.

Mrs. George M. Boal and Miss Lizzie Booser, daughter of D. A. Booser, went to Millerstown the beginning of this week to assist C. H. Meyer to move into new and more convenient quarters in that town. Mr. Meyer is engaged in the livery business and has a good patronage.

Roaland.

We hope the equinoctial storm is over and the weather will become warmer.

The Methodist Sunday school intends having an Easter service on the evening of Easter Sunday.

Miss Eliza Sanders, of Philadelphia, is visiting friends in this vicinity. She expects to return to the city in a few days.

Moving time has come and several fittings will take place here. We hope strangers coming into the neighborhood will receive a welcome.

Misses Cora and Alice Neff finished their term of teaching last week. They are now preparing to attend the spring term of the Bloomsburg Normal.

The chicken and waffle supper held in the hall, on Saturday evening, for the benefit of the Evangelical church was well attended and a neat sum realized.

Roads in this vicinity need repairing, as they are almost impassable in some places, and the supervisors ought to at least come and see what is needed.

Mr. Frank Smith, our miller, makes fine flour with the new roller process recently put in the old mill. Good bread is the consequence, which pleases "we men folks."

William Barger, the young sexton of the Methodist church, is prompt and deserves credit for doing his work well. The church is always comfortable, and the bell rung at the established time, calling the people thither to Sabbath school and church service.

Our school term, taught by Mr. Bruce Sheffer, closed on the 22nd inst., with a good exhibition the same evening. The scholars acquitted themselves nobly and much credit is due Mr. Sheffer for his assistance in dialogues and other parts of the exhibition. Samuel Bathurst Jr., Laird Curtin and John Barger helped in the program and stage arrangements.

We notice the old house on the homestead of the late P. M. Barnhart has been torn down. With its destruction many pleasant recollections of the long ago are being recalled, for it was one of the landmarks of the valley and many of the old people can remember the happy times spent in the old house on "Dowdy Hill." How cherished are the days of the past.

"This memory to the raptured gaze Can thus the past unfold."

Pine Grove Mention.

Grand mother Dandy is suffering with a fractured wrist, caused by a fall.

John H. Lytle is out again after an all winter's illness with pulmonary trouble.

George E. Corl is slowly recovering from an attack of pleurisy that confined him to bed for some weeks.

Mrs. J. K. From, while spending several days with her friends here, helped superintend Davy Dennis' fitting.

Last Sunday Mrs. Cyrus Goss' baby girl fell and broke her collar bone. Dr. Woods adjusted the break and the patient is getting along as nicely as can be expected.

Public sales and movings are all the go, with plenty of mud to spare.

Since our last mention John Lyon has had a telephone put in his residence among the Cedars at Penna. Furnace.

Farmer Bill Smith has his fighting humor on for the scoundrel who fed his valuable Scotch collie strychnine last Sunday night.

Some malicious person cut the wires of Dr. D. H. Custaborder's telephone last Saturday evening and for a short time the Dr. had a little rest.

Mrs. Sarah Heberling and daughter Estella are home from a ten days' visit with friends at Bellwood, where they had a very pleasant time.

James Stiver, son of Henry Stiver, left on the early morning train last Monday for the Buckeye State, where he will engage in agriculture for the present at least.

With the ending of this week most of our public schools close and on next Monday the Pine Grove academy will open for its spring term. Rev. C. T. Aikens and Prof. M. E. Heberling will be the trustees.

Last week some of the machinery in our new mill got out of order but an expert millwright quickly repaired it and the mill is now doing a rushing business and making excellent flour. Give Mr. Tressler, the miller, a trial if you would have good bread.

Clayton Struble's are moving from the Neidigh farm near Pine Hall to Mrs. Rebecca Robinson's farm on the White Hall road, which at one time was part of the Krebs tract and afterwards the property of Dr. E. W. Hale.

The Reformed church at Boalsburg is to be remodeled and beautified at a cost of six thousand dollars. As soon as the spring opens a lecture room will be added to the church and when the repairs are completed the church will be one of the finest in Central Pennsylvania.

Our people have their shot guns loaded for the moonlight huckster who has been robbing their hen roosts and corn cribs lately. About a year ago we were compelled to refer to this same subject and until quite recently quite prevalent along the lines. But now the parties are known and it is hoped they will take heed.

If one can judge from the consensus of public opinion the exhibition given by the High school at Boalsburg, last Friday evening, and repeated on Saturday evening, was a most enjoyable and profitable entertainment for that quiet little burg. The admission was ten cents and long before the time of the opening exercises standing room was at a premium. Many came from the neighboring villages to hear the music and recitations which were all creditably rendered. Prof. Hoover is to be congratulated on his first venture and all of the scholars for the part they took in the exercises and especially Winfield Scott Wieland, who played the part of 15th Amendment so well.

A SAD DEATH.—On last Thursday night our people were startled by the sad news of the death of John William Taney, youngest son of W. A. Taney, after an illness of three days with congestion of the brain. He was 22 years, 9 months and 29 days old and was an honest, industrious young man. His remains were followed to the grave in the new cemetery, on the 24th, by a large concourse of people attesting their regard for him. Services were conducted in the M. E. church by Rev. Aikens assisted by the Rev. Hepler. His father and mother, five sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Milton Shuey, Mrs. George Graham, of State College; Mrs. W. H. Imboden, of Graysville; Sarah and Margaret at home and James D. and Alex. B., of this place, mourn his untimely death.

Bellefonte, GEO. W. RUMBERGER, Register. March 25th, 1899.

Your Opportunity.

THIS is only a reminder if you have failed to take advantage of our offer—good to the 1st of July—to furnish this paper for $1.00 a year, that the time contemplated by that offer is drawing to a close. Do you intend letting it go by? Foolish, very foolish if you do. You would grasp the opportunity to save 33 per cent on any other purchase. Why not save it in the price of your newspaper? You intend to know, but you are wasting time, and losing the opportunity. It will slip by before you are aware of it, and then when you are paying $1.50 for a paper that your neighbors are all receiving for $1.00, you will wonder how you come to be so neglectful. Remember that if you have an old account standing, that it can be settled at the advance rates charged during the years it accumulated, and that a note will be taken in settlement of it, in order to give you the advantage of the present low price for the coming year. On this you would also save 33 per cent. Do you thoroughly understand what we are offering and what you are neglecting or overlooking.
