

In Memory of Samuel Martin.

Resolutions in memory of Samuel A. Martin by St. Mark's Sunday school.

WHEREAS, in the providence of God, our brother S. A. Martin has been called from our midst to his eternal home, and

WHEREAS, he has been a life long member of our Sunday school, therefore be it

Resolved, that we humbly bow to the will of our Heavenly Father in this affliction, knowing that wisdom and love mark all His ways.

Resolved, also, that we record our high appreciation of the pure, noble, faithful Christian life he lived among us and that though we sadly miss his presence, his memory shall abide with us an inspiration to every duty.

Resolved, further, that we as a school, extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family in their loss of a devoted husband and father and pray the God of all comfort, to grant them consolation.

Resolved, that these resolutions be recorded in the minutes of the school and published in the county papers and also church paper.

Pine Grove Mention.

Most of our farmers are at work plowing.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gibson has moved to State College.

And now Henry C. Bloom has to be called papa. Yes, it's a fine big boy.

Prospects for a bountiful wheat crop are very poor; consequently a larger acreage of oats and corn will be put out.

D. J. Meyer Esq., of Centre Hall, one of the staunch Democrats of Potter township, was up this way, buying cows, recently.

Maggie Keichline, William and Luther Fye and Daniel Koch are among the students enrolled at the Boalsburg Academy this term.

Ira V. Gates is the proud father of twin boys, weighing 7 and 8 pounds. The mother and Dewey and Schley are getting along nicely.

John Thompson, of Platt, Barber & Co., Philipsburg, switched off his usual track recently and drifted in this way to buy up some 55ct potatoes.

Elder D. W. Miller of the Presbyterian church in this place, accompanied Rev. Hessler to Osceola, where the Huntingdon Presbytery is in session this week.

Miss Hannah Royer is prostrated at the home of Isaac Reish. Her attentions at the bedside of her sister were so assiduous as to completely exhaust her.

Hon. Leonard Rhone, of Centre Hall, recently spent several days in town, noting the changes that have been made since he was last here. He was a guest of postmaster J. G. Hess.

One of our artists, Davy Tate, who served with battery I, 7th N. Y. artillery, who was having a royal time at home for a few days, has left for Philadelphia, where he has gone to fill his former position as bill clerk in a large bicycle establishment.

Mr. Austin Brungart, of Zion, was among the attendants at the funeral of Mrs. Reish, on Monday. Mr. Brungart is interested in some valuable ore lands in this township, which furnished considerable of the ore consumed in the Bellefonte furnaces, when they were in operation.

Mrs. S. S. McCormick, of Hublersburg, accompanied by her two bright little girls, are welcome visitors at the old Dannelley home, on Main street. Mrs. Dannelley's injuries from her recent fall were more serious than were supposed to have been. She is suffering from ruptured ligaments of her wrist.

On last Monday special deputy grand master J. C. Meyer Esq., of Bellefonte, installed the newly elected officers of State College lodge, No. 1032, I. O. O. F. Dr. William Frear presided at the organ and furnished music appropriate for the occasion while the following were inducted into office: N. G., L. R. Morgan; V. G. James William; recording secretary, S. S. Grieb; corresponding secretary, Frank Weaver; treasurer, Benj. Beaver; warden, Geo. Graham; conductor, Newt Hartwick; chaplain, Prof. L. L. Holmes; R. S. to N. G., Clark Herman; L. S. to N. G., C. H. Evey; R. S. to V. G., James Aikens; L. S. to V. G. John Hartwick; R. S. S., John H. Miller; L. S. S., Geo. Kline; O. G. Demer Pierce; I. G., Prof. F. F. Pepper; Rept. to grand lodge L. R. Morgan.

Pennsylvania Lodge No. 276, I. O. O. F. held its semi annual installation on last Saturday evening, post grand J. B. Heberling was deputized and installed the officers elected: N. G., S. E. Goss; V. G., W. K. Goss; corresponding secretary, A. J. Fortney; chaplain, W. H. Roush; R. S. to N. G., A. J. Tate; L. S. to N. G., Dr. R. M. Krebs; R. S. to V. G., H. M. Krebs; S. S. to V. G., H. W. Frantz; O. S. G., A. B. Tanager; warden, W. H. Fry; conductor, J. B. Heberling; I. S. G., W. H. Goss; R. S. S., J. W. Fry; L. S. S., Gordon E. Harper; Rept. to G. L., J. B. Heberling. The order is in a flourishing condition adding new names to the rolls, and will attend the 90th anniversary of Odd Fellowship, to be held in Bellefonte on April 26th, to a man.

On the morning of April 8th, Barbara, wife of Isaac Reish, died at her home on the old C. H. Struble farm near Pine Hall. Her death was due to a complication of diseases brought about by an attack of grip with which she had suffered all winter. But when the end came she calmly and peacefully fell asleep thus quietly closing what had been a noble, Christian life and ending her days of usefulness as wife, mother and friend. Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints of which she was surely a bright one, for her pew was never empty in his sanctuary and her good works continued, day by day. Her pastor, Rev. Aikens, officiated at the funeral, assisted by Rev. A. A. Black. Deceased was the eldest daughter of Amos Royer, deceased, who was one of the pioneers along the White Hall road. She is survived by her husband and two daughters, Mrs. Jacob Cramer, of Penn Hall and Mrs. Collins Brungart, of Zion, and two sisters, Mrs. Sharer and Miss Hannah Royer. She was 64 years, 2 months and 5 days old. Her funeral, on Monday, was largely attended.

The family desire to return thanks to those who so kindly aided them during their affliction.

Centre Hall.

Grandmother Boozer is ill with pneumonia. J. T. Lee and A. S. Kerlin were in Altoona this week on business and pleasure.

Rev. S. H. Eisenberg was unable to fill his appointment in the Reformed church Sunday, on account of sickness.

Mrs. P. F. Keller just left the sick bed, beginning of this week, having had a serious attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. F. O. Bairfoot will make some improvements on her house by the addition of a bay window and porch.

The auditor's statement of the borough finances is posted, and every tax payer can see where the funds were applied.

Mrs. Lucy Henny returned from Philadelphia and New York, whither she had gone to purchase her millinery stock.

George Flory has leased the gravel and sand pits along the pike on the mountain and will be ready to supply those commodities in unlimited quantities.

Colyer had a mishap with his large engine at the station that did considerable damage and will necessitate a few days delay of work for the mill to make repairs.

Hoffer Dale is home from New York State, where he has been since last fall. He was called home on account of his sick father, J. C. Dale, who, however, is improving.

Summer Hosterman is paying his parents a visit for a few weeks. Hosterman is reading law in Lancaster with a prominent law firm in that place. He is a close student and will make his mark at the bar.

Prof. Wagoner opened his normal school Wednesday with an attendance of twelve scholars, large and small. Miss Annie Bartholomew opened the same time with pupils numbering over twenty, with more to follow. F. A. Foreman will begin his school next week.

D. J. Meyer is in Alexandria, where his son John taught a very successful term of public school. Hon. A. K. McClure of the Philadelphia Times is the principal speaker at the commencement exercises of the Alexandria schools of which the junior Meyer is principal, and it is to hear this flood of oratory that the elder Meyer went over.

Boyd B. Wilson, of this place, and Gertrude V. Wilson, of Beech Creek, were married Thursday of last week. Mr. Wilson is connected with the creamery at this place doing business under the firm name of Howard Creamery Co., which, by the way, is doing an extensive business. The bride and groom will take up quarters in one of the new Luse houses.

Among the half dozen candidates for county offices in town last week was H. A. Moore, of Howard, for county treasurer, and asked the undivided support of the Democrats at the primaries. Mr. Moore is surely capable and would treat all who happen to have business with him in a most agreeable way. If he is selected as the candidate his election would be assured.

George W. Koch still has a notion that Harrisburg would be a very agreeable place to spend a winter or two as the representative of Centre county in the State Legislature. Although a poor man, he would without a doubt, place his honor so high that all the proceeds from shaking the Quay plum tree put together wouldn't induce him to vote for aught but Democratic principles and Democratic candidates for the U. S. Senatorship.

The average attendance of the High school was about ten for the term, the grammar average was eighteen, and the intermediate and primary each over thirty. For a good part of the term the average of the intermediate and primary schools was close up to forty. At no time was the combined average attendance of High school and grammar school above that of either the intermediate or primary. The point wished to be developed is that assuming the schools were properly graded the past term the directors will of necessity have to add an additional primary department. There will be quite a number of children reaching school age before the next term opens. The wisdom of continuing to crowd the primary departments is surely questionable. It is not giving children a fair show; it is not in accordance with advanced ideas of the best public school systems.

From another point of view it cost on an average of six dollars per capita in the High school; one dollar and eighty cents in the grammar; one dollar in the intermediate and ninety cents in the primary department per month to furnish instruction. It appears at least reasonable that the smaller children should receive a larger share of the money expended for school purposes, and it is the plain duty of the directors to make such additions or alterations as will at least comfortably situate every child in the primary department.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The borough public schools closed their seven months term on Monday. The last few days of the term were taken up in examinations for promotion. There are about one hundred and thirty-five children of school age in the town, but the school report will show that not nearly this number attended. Last fall a fourth school was added, owing to the numerous and just complaints that the primary departments were too much hampered for room and proper instruction. This was true, and when the fourth grade was added considerable relief was felt by those whose children attended the junior schools. At the opening of the term in the fall Prof. Wagoner, principal, graded the school. The number assigned to each was as follows: High school, fifteen; instructor Prof. Wagoner, with a salary of $80.00 per month; grammar, twenty-two; instructor D. W. Geiss, salary $33.00; intermediate, forty-five; F. A. Foreman, instructor, salary $30.00; primary, forty-five; instructor Miss Anna Bartholomew, salary $27.00.

TRIMMED HATS

A hundred handsome new Hats come from our workrooms today—as smart and stylish as our best milliners could conjure them. There are face hats, narrow-back sailors, toques and walking hats, trimmed in very latest and most beautiful style. Prices $1 to $12.

And they are hats that might fairly be priced at $10 and $30, so excellent are the materials and so stylish the trimming.

WOMEN'S TAILORED SUITS

Wonder who the lucky few will be to share this mite of good fortune. We have fifty Tailored Suits—cheviot, herringbone and covert cloth—with fly-front and tight-fitting silk-lined jackets.

The skirts are stylish, too, and percaline lined. Some are circular. One could choose with closed eyes and fare well along with the best.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.

Among the bright new muslin under-garments pressing forward for a well-deserved showing, are Petticoats in the longer length demanded by the longer dress skirts. All of the sorts told of today range from 38 to 44 inches in length. And there is new prettiness to the garments as well as thoroughly well done sewing. These hints of sorts

PETTICOATS—
Petticoats of fine muslin; lawn ruffle, edged with deep open embroidery; dust ruffle of cambric.
Petticoats of cambric; very deep ruffle of lawn, trimmed with one row of lace insertion and edged with lace; cambric dust ruffle.
Petticoats of fine cambric, deep umbrella ruffle of lawn; with cluster of six fine plaits; trimmed with row of dainty insertion and edged with ruffle of embroidery to match; cambric dust ruffle.

CORSET COVERS—
At 25c—Corset Covers of cambric; high neck back, Y-shape front, embroidery trimmed. Similar style with high round neck at same price.
At 65c—Corset Covers of cambric; similar style as above; lace trimmed, with narrow ribbon drawn in neck.

TRIMMED HATS

A hundred handsome new Hats come from our workrooms today—as smart and stylish as our best milliners could conjure them. There are face hats, narrow-back sailors, toques and walking hats, trimmed in very latest and most beautiful style. Prices $1 to $12.

And they are hats that might fairly be priced at $10 and $30, so excellent are the materials and so stylish the trimming.

WOMEN'S TAILORED SUITS

Wonder who the lucky few will be to share this mite of good fortune. We have fifty Tailored Suits—cheviot, herringbone and covert cloth—with fly-front and tight-fitting silk-lined jackets.

The skirts are stylish, too, and percaline lined. Some are circular. One could choose with closed eyes and fare well along with the best.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.

Among the bright new muslin under-garments pressing forward for a well-deserved showing, are Petticoats in the longer length demanded by the longer dress skirts. All of the sorts told of today range from 38 to 44 inches in length. And there is new prettiness to the garments as well as thoroughly well done sewing. These hints of sorts
