

Bellefonte, Pa., April 14. 1899.

CORRESPONDENTS .- No communications pub ished unless accompanied by the real name of

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

----Are you going to the sea-shore this summer? If so, why not be the WATCH-MAN's guest? It will cost you nothing.

-J. Albert Walton, former postmaster of Philipsburg, has accepted a position in the Moshannon national bank in that place. —The insurance office of J. Edward Lawrence is now located in the Exchange, in the room vacated by the late John B.

-Chas Shearer, formerly a blacksmith in this place, has moved from Centre Hall to Coburn, where he is hammering an anvil now.

-Ed. Brown Jr., a fireman on the Central, is lying in a precarious condition at his home in this place, as a result of a relapse of an attack of pneumonia.

highest number of new subscribers to the WATCHMAN at $1 a year is offered a free trip to Atlantic City, Cape May, Ocean Grove or Asbury Park - Jerry Stine will lead the young men's meeting at 4 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A., on Sunday. Jerry is a student at the Bellefonte High school and no doubt a large audience will be present to hear him.

--- Miss Margaret Munson, of Philipsburg, a sister of L. T. Munson, of this place, is to be married to Spencer Rhoades, a young business man of DuBois, next Wednesday. Their wedding will be a home

--- Captain Harry Simler, of Philipsburg, brought Blanche Twohey, of that place, to jail here yesterday. She is charged with being a common nuisance and every inch of her seemed to plead guilty as he escorted her from the train up to Ft. Cron-

----Mrs. John Lyon, of Pittsburg, is se riously ill at the home of her sister-in-law on Curtin street. At the time of her husband's death, several months ago, she was suffering from a stroke of paralysis and at that time her condition seemed critical, but she recovered and came here with her family to spend the summer. Sunday she had a third stroke and is now seriously ill.

-While working in stove No. 2 at the Valentine works, Friday, Lew Miller met with a mishap that came about as near killing him as anything could have done, without actually doing it. A fire brick fell from a height of about 40ft. and grazed his forehead, completely scalping it. Inasmuch as the brick weighed 13lbs you can imagine how effectually it would have crushed his skull had it struck fair, instead of glancing along his head.

silk mill here because, as their imaginations about everybody and learn to be economical housewives, their husbands would be problem wouldn't be near as much of a bugaboo as it is made out to be.

---The Pennsylvania State College base ball team failed to open the season, as advertised, last Saturday, because the weather was too disagreeable, but the good work kept over until Monday afternoon and then they trimmed the Susquehanna University up to the tune of 11 to 3. To-day a return game is being played with Susquehanna and to-morrow State will play at the U. of P. The blue and white is going to make itself heard on the diamond this spring.

-Do not forget the organ and song recital in the Presbyterian church on Tues- dings. day evening, the 18th. It will be well worth hearing. Miss Winifred Newbaker, the organist, will be assisted by Miss Harriet Rockefeller Woods, soprano soloist of the church of the Messiah, of New York city. Miss Woods has a highly cultivated voice and has gained a wide reputation for musical talent. This recital will be a treat to all lovers of music who may be fortunate enough to be present. The church will open promptly at 7:30 p. m.

---Centre lodge, No. 153, I. O. O. F. subordinate and encampment No. 72 of Bellefonte have already heard from all the lodges in the Central Pennsylvania district, including nineteen counties, and most of them are coming in full regalia to the great anniversary here on the 26th inst. Capt. H. S. Taylor, who will be grand marshal of the big parade, has selected patriarch R. A. Beck, of No. 72, to give the bugle commands for marching, as it is expected that the line of marchers will be so long as to make it absolutely impossible to command in any other way.

---On Tuesday, May 2nd, the public school directors of Centre county will meet in convention here to elect a successor to county superintendent C. L. Gramley. The convention will be called at 12:30 and a majority of those present will elect. For an eventful day in Bellefonte was that of school, and the share plan, they had $400 They are Mrs. Annie Walton, Mrs. Mary the performance of this duty each director Mr. Harry C. Taylor to Miss Jennie How- to start with in the morning, and during Hatch and William, all of Philipsburg. at Patton, Barnesboro, Spangler and all through will be paid $1 and 3 cents additional for each mile traveled in coming to and returning from Bellefonte. The law provides that the treasurers of the various school districts shall pay their directors these than was theirs and the solemnity of the the evening and went to the Lutheran about 63 years old. amounts upon presentation of proper vouchimpressive nuptial mass of the Catholic church. This showed a beautiful spirit 1:42 p. m. to-day and taken directly from from it, but his lamented father was sheriff of the country of the co convention are entitled to pay.

EASTER WEDDINGS.—The marriage of Miss Ella Howley, and Mr. Frank Mcwas the social event of the spring. An guests. Owing to the condition of Mrs. on Friday last. event not only on account of the promi- Taylor's health the tour that had been nence of both families represented and the planned was given up and they went directcause of its pleasing appointments and beautiful completion.

after eleven o'clock. The bridal party in- success it merits. cluded Katharine Dale, of Lemont; Rebecca Blanchard, Louise Valentine, Blanche Hayes, Caroline Orvis, Betty Breeze, Mary Blanchard and Jean Shugert, bridesmaids. Vance McCormick, of Harrisburg; J. Norris Bogle, of Howard; Malcolm Laurie, Edgar Burnside, Edmund Blanchard and Frank Shugert, ushers. Adaline Harris, the ---To the three persons getting the bride's sister, as maid of honor, and John Blanchard, best man. The bridesmaids entered the church through the vestry room, marched down the middle aisle to the door, where they met the bride and her father. the maid of honor and the ushers. In returning to the chancel the bridesmaids were preceded by the ushers and followed by the maid of honor and the bride accompanied by her father. Inside the chancel rail they separated and made way for the groom and his best man, who came out of the vestry room to meet the bride at the

> The bridal gown was of white moire brunette, wore a tulle veil and carried brides maids wore simple frocks of white white ribbon. Their hats were white chip, drug store." sailor shape, covered with pink roses, with the exception of the maid of honor, whose hat was trimmed with white and who carhad on frock coats, light trousers and carried silk hats. Following the ceremony a reception and breakfast were given at the Curtin home, on High street, where the bride's parents have always resided. To it only the relatives and the intimate friends had been invited, but the kinship on both sides is large and their circle of friends wide

Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. William Sage, of Ithaca, N. Y .; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Curtin and their daughter, Marion, of Philadelphia; Harriet Lawton, of Washington; Jean Parsons, of Williamsport; John Roberts, of West Chester, and T. K. Morris, of Tyrone.

The bride's going away gown was a grey tailor made suit and after their journey to Washington, on which they started on the —If some of the women in town who 1:45 train, they will make their home on east for a short course of training. are fussing away against the location of a Linn street, in the Woodcock house. The young people are popular and have every point out, there would be a dearth of girls | prospect of a happy and pleasant life. The for domestic duties, would get to work in | bride is a grand daughter of former Gover- | ed the "Mystic Midgets," that was given | war. their own kitchens awhile, stop gossiping nor A. G. Curtin, and the groom is the in the opera house there on Friday and happier and better off and the servant girl were the recipients of many exquisite and no end of trouble training them, we infer, valuable presents.

place, which was celebrated with high mass in St. John's Catholic church Tuesday morning, at 7:30, attracted quite a number of their friends to that place.

Accompanying the couple were Joseph McMahon and Miss Margery McMahon, the home of the bride, on south Allegheny diocesan priests and 5 regular; 50 churches B. Jones La Porte and J. Hunter La Porte, served and the reception followed. simply terrific. First the Undine band and Columbia. climbed the hill to the McMahon home and serenaded in a really pleasing manner, but musicians went up there with horse fiddles, ratchets, dynamite, bells and red fire.

bride a world of genuine happiness.

at 1441 Bald Eagle avenue. The bride is a daughter of Mr. John hundred guests fully appreciated the beau- The groom is a son of Irvin Taylor, of ly fully realized that her death could not ty of the scene. No attempt was made to Bellefonte, and for several years was em- be long delayed. decorate the church elaborately, but there ployed by the Adams express company

DUFFIN-MILLS .- About the swellest function colored society of this place has ever witnessed was the marriage of Miss Helen Mills, eldest daughter of William Mills, to Albert H. Duffin, of Harrisburg, which was celebrated in St. Paul's church Wednesday evening, in the presence of a large number of guests.

Smiths orchestra played during the ceremony and at the home of the bride during the reception that followed. The bride was unattended, except by her little sister as a flower girl and was escorted to the altar by her father, where she was met by the groom with his best man, William Mills. She looked sweet in a grey broad cloth traveling dress and deserves a life of

After a short tour east they will return to Harrisburg to live where the groom is

-Miss Sarah Tyson, a daughter of velour and with it the bride, a tall, slender Mrs. Edward Tyson, of Philipsburg, is to be married in the Lutheran church in that white roses. The maid of honor and the place to Mr. J. O. Brown, next Wednesday morning. The groom elect is in the drug swiss over white lawn trimmed about with business in Philipsburg; being a partner insertion and neck and waist bands of with S. C. Crissman in the "old corner

Heverly, of that place, on Monday of last

-Another large kiln is being built at the Mill Hall brick works.

-Tyrone is beginning to fuss already over the tournament of the northwestern Pennsylvania and western New York band association, which is to be held there Wednesday and Thursday, June 28th and 29th. $300 in prizes have been offered.

-It is expected that the student roll at the Lock Haven normal school will reach 400 this term. The spring term is always the busy one at the Normal schools, for then the country school teachers who have finished their winter work gather in eldest son of J. Dunlop Shugert and a Saturday nights, with a Saturday matinee. teller in the Centre county bank. They There was a whole army of youngsters and and it leads us to the conclusion that the candle couldn't have been worth the flame. WALZ-McMahon-The wedding of Mr. Bellefonte has had similar experiences. Frank Walz to Miss Celia McMahon, a Really meritorious home talent shows here daughter of the late Peter McMahon, of this have barely made expenses, while indifferent, easily arranged little entertainments have invariably netted handsome sums.

of the Catholic church on Tuesday, April two years. About 1834 he engaged in brother and sister of the bride. The ladies 25th, to fill the vacancy caused by the farming, buying the McWilliams farm in wore tailor-made gowns of blue broad cloth, recent death of bishop Thomas McGovern. with hats to match and the gentlemen wore The consecratory ceremony will be con- most a half century, or until 1882, when the conventional dress for morning wed- ducted in Philadelphia by arch-bishop Ryan. The diocese of which Rt. Rev. After the ceremony they were driven to Shanahan will be the third bishop, has 65 street, where a wedding breakfast was with resident pastors; 14 missions with of Philipsburg; Anson, Adolphus M., and churches; 15 stations, 25 chapels, 178 John La Porte, of Tyrone; and Mrs. C. B. Though the groom had a cosy home all members of sisterhoods, 13 ecclesiastical McWilliams, of Altoona. prepared for his bride they did not go to it students; 8 academies for young ladies until late Tuesday night, preferring to have with 232 pupils; 32 parochial schools, with done with the friends of the calithumpian 2,959 pupils, 2 orphan asylums, and a persuasion before going to their future Catholic institute for the blind. The bare Frank is one of the leading mem. Catholic population estimated at 42,000. The funeral took place at 10 o'clock bers of the Undine engine company and has The diocese comprises the counties of always been the king pin in seeing that Dauphin, Lebanon, Lancaster, York, every other benedict got the proper kind of Adams, Franklin, Fulton, Cumberland, a demonstration. It need not be wondered Perry, Juniata, Mifflin, Centre, Clinton, at, then, that he got the worst of all. It was Snyder, Northumberland, Union, Montour

---The Lutheran congregation of Bellethen a crowd of several hundred anti- fonte had a very successful day on the 9th most influential and wealthy men of that inst., in the effort made to liquidate their section in his day, and was born on a farm church debt. For some months they had near Pine Grove Mills. His early life was Such a din has seldom ever been heard in been preparing for this day and the gen- spent in the country about Pine Grove in Bellefonte and it lasted for several hours. eral secretary of the board of church exten-Discordant as it was the commotion was sion, Rev. H. H. Weber, was to have been teaching and carrying on a general mermade because Frank is a popular fellow with them, but was prevented on account who is leading an energetic, honorable life of sickness. He sent, however, an excel- elected to the office of register of Centre and everyone will wish him and his fair lent substitute in Rev. F. P. Manhart, of county. He was re-elected in 1878 and Baltimore, who preached to crowded houses, and did good work besides. The results public and honor to his party. TAYLOR-HOWLEY. - The first of the of the day were very gratifying. By the series of weddings that made Wednesday talent system, operated by the Sunday to which union three children were born. ley, which was celebrated in St. John's the day raised $1,200 additional, making a His second marriage was to Mrs. Mary that region are out on a strike and as Frank is in Catholic church at 7 o'clock in the morn- total of over $1,600. This reduces their Moran, only daughter of the late Hon. S. ing. Though very unpretentious it is debt over one-half. Some of the sister T. Shugert, who survives him, with her son seldom that a fairer wedding party is seen churches closed their places of worship in Townsend Moran. Mr. Burchfield was church lent additional charm to the affair. and was recognized by the pastor, Rev. Dr. 1:42 p. III. to-day and taken diffeorly from the train to the Union cemetery for inter-The bride was attended by her sister, Holloway in appropriate remarks.

DEATH OF MRS. WAGNER. -After a Katharine Curtin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. | Cann, of Tyrone, was the groom's best long illness and many months of failing George Fairlamb Harris, and John McCoy man. After the ceremony the party was health, Mrs. Alvira Johnston, widow of Shugert, which was celebrated in St. driven to the home of the bride's parents, David Wagner, long since deceased, died at John's Episcopal church on Wednesday, where a wedding breakfast was served the the home of her son-in-law, J. L. Spangler,

Some years ago she was taken to a hospital in Philadelphia and had an operation wide acquaintanceship of the bride; but be- ly to Tyrone, where they have a cosy home performed for cancer of the breast. She received the most careful attention that skill | Phoenix mill here. or devotion could give and was finally pro-The bright sunshine of a perfect April Howley, of this place, and is a very accom- nounced cured. Shortly after her return day seemed just a little brighter as it plished young woman, admirably endowed home, however, she was taken ill and since shown on the fair participants and the four with both social and domestic attainments. then has failed so perceptible that her fami-

As one of the older residents of the town were palms and ferns as a background in here, but of late has been the messenger and one who had lived her entire life here Gertrude have gone to Buffalo, N. Y., to make are so well known for their wonderful rethe chancel and massed about the organ. between Bellefonte and Tyrone on the she was well known throughout the com-W. B. Reeve, the organist, played some fine Bald Eagle valley. He was very popular munity. She was born here on the 22nd of selections, before and after the ceremony, in Bellefonte and is a young man whose April, 1822, and is the last of a large famiwhich Rev. G. I. Brown solemnized at half sturdy character will surely meet with the ly. Her husband was for many years one of the leading merchants of the town and in his life time they built and occupied the L. Montgomery, returned to Baltimore and her house on High and Spring streets, now the property of D. S. Garman, and then considered one of the palatial homes of the town. survive their mother, Mrs. Rachel Harris, on his way from New Haven, Conn., to Pittsburg, Mrs. Eliza Spangler, with whom she has where he has accepted a position in a machinmade her home for some years, and Mrs. Emma McLellan, of Sharpsburg. Her son, Winfield, died some years ago, but it is comparatively few years since her hospital in that city had assured him that Mrs. daughter Mrs. Brisbin, wife of General Stephens condition is not nearly as serious as he James Brisbin, passed away.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Spangler home, on Allegheny street, with Rev. Dr. Laurie officiating. Mrs. Wagner was a member of the Methodist church but her pastor, Dr. Stephens, was out of town, owing to sickness in his own family. Interment was made in the Union cemetery with the following pall If there is anything in making hay while the bearers: Messrs. John Meese, John P. Har- sun shines they ought to have harvested a big ris. L. A. Schaeffer, D. F. Fortney, H. S. Taylor and L. T. Munson.

one of the old Co. B soldiers has fallen from the ranks since the boys marched away from Bellefonte, just a year ago. On Monday evening James Abraham Stine, a son of Mrs. Rachel Stine, of Pleasant Gap, -Samuel Grenninger, formerly a resi- answered his last roll call and passed into dent of this place, but now living at How- the bivouc of the dead. He had been ill ried pink roses. The groom and his party ard, where he is employed by the Jenkins for several weeks with a severe cold, Iron & Tool Co. was married to Miss Ada which did not seem at all alarming until pneumonia developed and with it came congestion of the brain. Deceased would have been 21 years old on the 21st of this month. At the outbreak of the war with Spain he offered his services to his country and was accepted, but a will bring everything along in nice shape. severely sprained ankle rendered him unfit | -A. A. Pletcher, of Nittany, is spending this for service, so he remained at home until June, when a second lot of recruits left here for Chicamauga. He was among them and proved a good soldier all through the trying time in camp Thomas.

One of the saddest features of his death was that he was to have been married to Miss Ida Young last Thursday afternoon. His mother, his sister Mary and brothers

Funeral services were held at his late home yesterday morning; interment having been made in the Lutheran cemetery at -The Lock Haven Y. M. C. A. realized the Gap. A detachment of his comrades only $60 out of a juvenile production call- in Co. B buried him with the honors of

> DEATH OF A WELL-KNOWN HUNTING-DON COUNTY RESIDENT.—The Hon. John La Porte died at his home in Franklinville, Huntingdon county, early Monday morning, in the 78th year of his age. He had suffered a stroke of paralysis on the previous Thursday.

The deceased was born at Jersey Shore, Nov. 22nd, 1811. In early manhood he went to Warriors-mark, where he plied his trade as wagon-maker for a short time, -Rt. Rev. John Shanahan will be thence, after a brief season at Spruce Creek. consecrated bishop of the Harrisburg diocese going to Stone Valley, where he remained Spruce Creek valley, remaining there alhe removed to Franklinville, where he had since resided.

He is survived by six of his ten children:

In 1880, he was elected associate judge of Huntingdon county, and it was shortly after assuming the duties of this place that Wednesday morning.

W. E. BURCHFIELD'S DEATH.-After a lingering illness with diabetes, W. E. Burchfield died at his home in Philipsburg, Wednesday evening. He was a son of the late judge Burchthe various pursuits of farming, school chandise business, until, in 1875, he was served his two terms with fidelity to the Deceased was first married to a Miss Lytle,

News Purely Personal.

-Miss Celia Armour is in Philipsburg visiting -Mrs. A. S. Garman, of Tyrone, spent Sunda

-Among the out of town guests at the Wal-

Haas, of Howard. -Mr. Jacob Shaffer, of Zion, was in town yes terday to attend to a little business he had at the

-The serious illness of his son at that place ealled John E. Reilly, a cutter at the new Bellefonte glass works, to Muncy, Ind., on Wednesday -E. I. Geary Esq., one of the most promising of the young attorneys at the Clinton county bar, was here for the Easter assembly, Wednesday

-James Dolan, with his daughters Ellen and their future home. They left Tuesday evening. vesterday to stay until June. She was accompanied by her brother Edmund, who was home to attend the Shugert-Harris wedding.

-Miss Lillian Muffley, a sister of Mrs. Joseph studies at Notre Dame convent, Saturday morn ing. She had been here for her Easter vacation -F. H. Cota, former secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in this place, spent Sunday night at the home Of her family of six children three only of Robert Irwin, on north Spring street. He was

-Dr. W. A. Stephens returned from Philadel phia, Wednesday morning, very happy in the thought that the physicians in the Methodist thought when she went down last week.

-Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Irvin were arrivals in town from Tyrone, yesterday, and they will proba bly make their permanent home here. Ed. ha sed out his hardware store in that place and is back to go into the store here again, at least until he finds a better opening somewhere else.

-The political pot was kept boiling yesterday ecause George E. Parker, Philip Meyer, Cyrus Brungart and Judge Riley were all in town crop of friends yesterday, for the sun was certainly doing its duty.

-J. W. Orr, one of the leading Democrats o Marion township, and a man whose methodical ANOTHER SOLDIER IS DEAD .-- The fifth | manner of looking after his business affairs has made him quite comfortably fixed, was in town or wasn't holding his ears shut when the usual polit ical gossip was being passed his way.

-One of our Saturday callers was our old friend Michael Sennet, of Runville, and while we have | Milling Co. always known him to be well up on farming and woods matters we were quite astonished to hear him strike off on philosophy. His deductions are decidedly original, but they are interesting all the same and very entertaining. -H. F. Spotts, of Union township, thought he ouldn't find a pleasanter day than yesterday on which to travel, so he just came down and spent the day attending to some business in town. He says that the ground is a little too wet for plowing up in Bald Eagle, but a few more days like these week at his mother's home at Howard, doing a little spring work for her, we suppose, but yesterday was too much for him, so he hunted up another victim of the spring fever, in David Tanyer, the well known cooper down there, and they drove up here to spend the day talking to

-Judge Adam Larimer left for Mt. Clements, ably tramps, broke into St. John's Catholic Michigan, yesterday afternoon, to spend a few church in this place, Sunday night, and weeks at the baths there. While greatly improved in health by his two weeks stay in Bellefonte he thinks that Mt. Clements will remove the last trace of rheumatism with which he has been | much there was in the latter is not known, suffering. He will go direct to Sioux City, after | for it had not been opened for nearly three visiting the resort.

-Charles T. Noll, of Clearfield, spent Sunday with his parents in this place and inasmuch as he arrived on a late train Saturday night and John Noll, pere, having moved since he was last here, circumstances connected with the robbery he actually was at a loss to know where his home that seem to indicate that it was a Catholic, was. Charley has retired from the Witmer Inn: having leased the cold storage franchises of -The Hon. and Mrs. Robert M. Foster, of State College, went to Harrisburg, Tuesday, the former to attend to his duties in the Legislature, while Mrs. Foster accompanied him to be a guest at the marriage of Miss Nellie Parker Skinner, which island of Antigua, one of the British poswas celebrated at the Commonwealth hotel Wednesday. She is a daughter of Hon. George W. Skinner, of Fulton county, and the wedding was quite an event in Harrisburg.

-John Montgomery Ward spent Friday and on St. Paul street, the theme being the life Saturday at his old home in this place, visiting and customs of the people of the West Inthe Wards, the Bells and the Johnsons and his many other friends who are not so near of kin. Saturday evening he was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Montgomery, at a very informal little card party. It being necessary for him to be back in his law office in New York, on Monday morning, he was driven to Lock Haven, Sunday

-Thomas Dorris and his daughter, Miss Elvira. were arrivals in town on Saturday evening. They came up from their home at Cumberland Md., to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. David Wagner. When but a child of four or five years the Wagner family took Mr. Dorris and gave him a pleasant home until he had attained his ma ority. He naturally felt very deep affection for him. He is now in the jewelry business at Cum-

-Donald Sommerville, of Jersey Shore, was one of the guests at the Harris-Shugert wedding on Wednesday. Don'is sticking pretty tight to his stool these days, as the recent consolidation of the Beech Creek and Fall Brook systems has made two pegs for a great many holes down there and he is determined to do all he can to be the one best fitted for the position he has filled several years so satisfactorily on the Beech Creek He is one of the civil engineers and from what field, of Ferguson township, one of the we have heard railroad men say he need have no concern about his fate.

-Prof. and Mrs. E. E. Sparks, of Chicago, are t State College spending the week with Prof. and Mrs. L. E. Reber. Four years ago Prof. Sparks was head of the preparatory department t State, but was tendered the chair of American history at the Chicago University, which he accepted and has been there ever since. Just now ne is entertaining a proposal to become president of the Iowa State University, an institution with fourteen hundred students and lavishly supported by the State. Prof. Sparks is so nicely located at chicago, however, that he is loath to give up his osition there for the more distinguished but nore onerous duties as a college president.

-Frank Lingle is back in town for a few more days in the place he loves so much. The miners the coal business at the former place there is nothing for him to do but to wait. To look at him no one would think that he is old enough to have been born in the old Centre county jail, yet that is exactly where he first put in his appearance. the family of the sheriff resided in the jail.

-Cyrus Brungart, of Millheim, was in town during the fore part of the week looking up his political interests on this side of the mountain. He would like very much to be made sheriff of Centre county, so he says.

-Will Stewart and his brother Finley, who vere called home from Seattle, Wash., two weeks McMahon wedding were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. De- ago, by the death of their father, the lamented Dr. Stewart, of Burnside township, were in town the fore part of the week transacting business. Finley expects to stay in the East till June but Will will leave Harrisburg to-night on the limited for his home in the far West. He spent yesterday in Wilkesbarre, seeing his brother, Dr. Walter Stewart, and from there goes to Harrisburg this

THE EVANGELISTS HERE FOR A DAY .-Last Thursday evangelist Leonard Weaver and his singing co-worker, Weeden, who vivals in this place last year and the year -Miss Mary Blanchard went to Philadelphia before, were in Bellefonte spending the day with their old friends. Mr. Weaver is working in London now and finding a week's trip to America a business necessity he came over last week and thought his home coming would not be complete unless he included a day, at least, in Bellefonte. Consequently he gathered up Mr. Weeden in New York and the two came on for the day and a glorious one it proved to be. Both of them are so earnestly engrossed in evangelistic work that the best time possible in their estimation is when they are trying to save souls.

Bellefonte afforded the opportunity, for Mr. John Meese had spread the news of their coming, broadcast, and three great meetings were held in the court house, morning, afternoon and night. At the latter the crowd was simply immense, but men, women and children were patient under any inconvenience to hear Mr. Weeden sing again those old sweet songs and to listen to the convicting exhortations of Mr. Weaver. If possible he has gained force since leaving Bellefonte and when the day of meetings was over there were hundreds of hungry souls hoping that Bellefonte will have another season of spiritual feasting as it did in the tabernacle two years ago.

--Our "Fancy Patent" is equal to the best grades of spring wheat flour and costs less. Muslin sacks. Try it. Phoenix

WILL LOCATE IN TYRONE.-Robert T. Garman went to Tyrone, on Monday, where he has taken charge of the watch and jewelry business of George H. Andrews on Pennsylvania avenue in that place, which he lately came into the possession of by purchase. Robert has had years of experience in the business, both here and in Coatesville, and is a young man whose address and personality is so pleasant that he is certain to make friends and patrons of the Tyrone people.

He is the youngest son of Daniel Garman, of Bellefonte

THIEVING PROFANERS.—Thieves, probstole the gold chalice off the altar and the months. Entrance to the church was effected through a rear window. There are several though not one necessarily acquainted with St. John's church, that thus profaned the sacred place.

A SINGING EVANGELIST .- R. J. Scotland, a colored singing evangelist from the sessions in the West Indies, is in town and will lecture here this evening. The lecture will be delivered in the A. M. E. church. dies and the agricultural resources of the islands.

The lecture will begin at 7:30 p. m. Admission for adults, 15 cents; for children. 10 cents.

---It might require only one or two new names at $1 a year to win one of the WATCHMAN's free trips to the sea shore this summer. It will cost you nothing. Why don't you try it?

Sale Register.

Mrs. Wagner, who had been especially kind to him. He is now in the jewelry business at Cumberland.

April 2nd, at the residence of Robert Valentine in Bellefonte, household furniture, carpets, mattings, pictures, stoves, Smith Premier typewriter etc. Sale at 1 o'clock p. m.

Philadelphia Markets. The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening. Wheat-Red " -No. 2 . Corn -Yellow " -Mixed. Flour-Winter, Per Br'i...

Bellefo	nte Grain Market.
Corrected week	kly by the Phœnix Milling	00
The following	are the quotations up	to six clock, Thursda ress :	y evening, when our paper	goes
ed Wheat, old.		70
ed wheat, new		70
ye, per bushel.		40
orn, shelled, pe	er bushel	35
rn, ears, per b	oushel	30
ats, per bushel.	new	25
arley, per bush	el	40
ound Plaster,	per ton	8 00
ickwheat, per	bushel$4 00 to	25

Bellefonte Produce Markets.
Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.
oes per bushel
ns
, per dozen per poundtry Shoulders
try Shoulders
Sides
Hamsw, per pound