ANTI-QUAY MEN ISSUE AN ADDRESS.

State Their Position With Reference to the Battle Against Machine Rule.

Harrisburg, April 27.—Anti-Quay members of the legislature held a meeting and unanimously decided to issue the following address:

"To the Republicans of Pennsylvania:—
"The anti-Quay members of the senate and house of representatives of the state of Pennsylvania, being about to separate, after the closing of the memorable session of 1899, make the following statements:
"The evils of Quay and Quayism, against which we have been and shall continue to contend, have succeeded in forcing an adjournment of the legislature without the passage of any of the laws for which there is such crying need and without the electing of a United States senator.
"At the election of 1898 the people, at the polls, clearly indicated their opposition to ex-Senator Quay by the selection of a majority of the members of the legislature opposed to his return to the senate. The minority supporting Mr. Quay has been large enough, however, to prevent the election of a United States senator, and has refused every proposition to elect some other man than ex-Senator Quay, their doctrine being that of 'rule or ruin'—the election of Quay or nobody.
"We have, from the first, stood ready and willing to elect any honest Republican of Pennsylvania to the United States senate, and to bring about that end have cast our votes at various times for such sterling Republicans and distinguished citizens as the Hon. John Dalzell, Judge John Stewart, Colonel E. A. Irvin, Hon. Charles W. Stone, Hon. Charles Tubbs, Colonel George F. Huff, Hon. Charles Emory Smith, Alvin Markle, Eng. Hon. Calvin Wells, Judge Charles E. Rice, Hon. Benjamin F. Jones and others.
"We have offered to place in nomination any distinguished Republican in Pennsylvania, at all times standing ready to vote for any of the great army of reputable men who would honor the state as its representative in the United States senate, but the men opposed to us have insisted that no election should be had unless we accepted a man who is under indictment, charged with the crime of unlawfully using the people's money, and who is now on trial in the city of Philadelphia.
"Every reason existing at the beginning of the session for opposing Mr. Quay existed at the time of taking the last ballot, with overwhelming additional reasons, and the evidence already given to the public in the trial of the case against him in Philadelphia has completely vindicated our opposition, if vindication were needed.
"It has been shown by the books of the People's bank, of Philadelphia, that he has been in conspiracy with the treasurers of the state, to use for his own personal benefit the moneys of the commonwealth. It has been shown that during the past 12 years he has had the use of over $1,900,000 out of the People's bank, of Philadelphia, alone, belonging to the people, and upon which he has not paid to the state one dollar of interest.
"And we call special attention to the astonishing fact that this corrupt use of state funds was being carried on at a time when the public schools, the hospitals, the asylums for the insane, homes for the aged, institutions for the deaf, dumb and blind, and many other charitable institutions of the state were suffering for the want of the money which had been appropriated to them by the legislature.
"But the whole truth within the covers of the books of the defunct People's bank will never be known to the public, as the defendant, Mr. Quay, has pleaded the statute of limitation, which confines the commonwealth to the period during which Haywood, another of the defendants, occupied the office of state treasurer. We have full confidence that the people of this state will not allow any man to represent them in the United States senate who pleads the statute of limitation to protect him from a criminal prosecution.
"The failure to elect a United States senator is only one of the many evils brought upon the state by the machinations of the Quay members of the legislature of 1899.
"The house of representatives of the first time in 20 years was an anti-Quay body, and the senate was as certainly controlled by the friends of Mr. Quay. Every good measure which was brought before the house was promptly passed, and every bad measure was promptly defeated. We assert, without fear of successful contradiction, that the record of the senate's work in this respect is the exact reverse to that of the house. Nearly every good measure sent to the senate from the house was promptly defeated, and the bad measures with which we have had to contend in this legislature have generally originated in the Quay faction of the senate.
"The house attempted to raise the necessary revenue to wipe out the deficit in the state treasury, to conduct the state government and care for its charitable institutions, by taxing beer and increasing the taxation on corporations, but both measures were promptly throttled by the Quay-controlled senate. The house promptly passed the bill submitted by the tax conference, which proposed to impose the burden of taxation impartially on all classes of property, but this bill met the same fate at the hands of the Quayites in the senate.
"The thoughtful men of all parties and factions admit that reforms are greatly needed in the present ballot laws of the state, and such reforms were proposed and passed by the house, the result in the senate being the same as with the other reform bills referred to it.
"The testimony developed by the committee of the house appointed to investigate the charges of bribery with reference to the election of a United States senator and the so-called 'McCarrell bill' was most startling in its character. The report of the committee, which was adopted by the house, recommends the prosecution for the crime of bribery and attempted bribery of no less than nine persons, including one member of the house of representatives, all of whom were operating in the interest of Mr. Quay, and in addition to these, there were a great number of cases, in which, although the testimony was not sufficient to recommend criminal prosecutions, yet, taking all of the testimony adduced, an unprejudiced mind must be convinced that the halls of legislation, from the beginning of the session until the end, were swarming with lobbyists of the most unscrupulous and desperate character, and that the whole official atmosphere of Harrisburg was laden with the stench of corruption. This testimony shows that sums as high as a thousand dollars were offered for a single vote upon the notorious 'McCarrell bill,' and that as great a sum as $5,000 was offered to secure a single vote for Mr. Quay for United States senator.

"We congratulate the people of the state, and especially those of our fellow citizens who are co-operating with us, on winning the first great battle of the campaign against the political syndicate known as the Quay machine, in the interest of common decency in public morals. And we take pleasure in making this public acknowledgment of the inestimable value to the cause to which we are all devoted of the aid and support given to us by the public press of the state.

"The political revolution which is in progress in Pennsylvania is so far advanced as to make the ultimate triumph of our cause now certain. We have defeated Quay, the man we propose to carry on the contest until we have defeated that monstrous system of misrule and corruption for which his name stands as the exponent. And, with renewed and heightened courage and confidence, we invite every one of our fellow citizens who loves his state better than his party, and who loves his party better than any individual or set of individuals in that party, to co-operate with us in our efforts to inaugurate an era of common honesty and decency in the administration of public affairs.

Blossom Jr.

ROBBED THE GRAVE—A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life and robbed the grave of another victim." Only 50c. per bottle at F. Potts Green's drug store.
