

FOSTER WEATHER.—My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent May 10th to 14th, and the next will reach the Pacific coast about May 14th, cross the west of Rockies country by the close of the 15th, great central valleys from 16th to 18th, and eastern States 19th.

A warm wave will cross the west of Rockies country about May 14th, great central valleys 16th, eastern States 18th. A cool wave will cross west of Rockies country about 17th, great central valleys 19th, eastern States 21st.

The temperature of the week ending 8 a. m., May 22nd, will average about normal in the northern, below in the southern and in the Pacific slope States. The rainfall for the same period will be below normal in the southern and the Pacific slope States. Severe storms are expected during the week ending May 22nd, followed by falling temperature and an increase of rainfall.

While Grant Hoover was bicycling near Jacksonville, last Friday afternoon, he had a tumble that resulted rather disastrously. He was considerably bruised and his wheel was practically demolished. He was able to get over to Howard and from there made the homeward trip to Bellefonte, by rail.

POMONA GRANGE MEETING.—Centre county Pomona grange will meet in the hall of Victor grange, at Oak Hall, on Friday, May 26th. The meeting will be called to order at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The Franklin and Marshall glee club quartet will sing here on the evening of May 26th.

Centre Hall.

Gross Yearick, of Philadelphia, brother of Mrs. W. B. Mingle, is here on a visit.

The Lutherans will give a chicken and waffle supper on the lawn Decoration day.

Charles Bartholomew, son of W. H. Bartholomew, is assistant bookkeeper in the Penns Valley bank.

The usual program on Decoration day will be gone through at the cemetery at 6 p. m. Hon. W. C. Heinle will be the orator.

Rev. S. H. Eisenberg on Monday will go to Tiffin, Ohio, where the General Synod of the Reformed church meets to which he is a delegate.

B. D. Brislin and W. F. Bradford had their respective dwellings repainted within the past week. They have a stylish appearance and are in accordance with the present fad.

The reservoir is receiving an overhauling under the directions of the town council. The town has been supplied since last Oct. without the main reservoir, but it is thought the part of wisdom to have the large basin in good order before the dry weather gets in.

Rev. John Keller filled the pulpit in the Reformed church, Sunday evening, in a very creditable manner. His subject was well handled—presented in a forcible and convincing manner. Mr. Keller has two years of study before him at Lancaster seminary.

The Lutheran and Reformed cemetery association held its annual meeting Monday evening. It is the purpose of the trustees to expend considerable labor in the cemetery this season. The mounds in what is known as the old part of the burying ground will be leveled off so as to permit mowing with a lawn machine, and an effort will be made to eradicate a poisonous flower that has been a pest for more than twenty years. The finances of the association are in a very healthy condition, although there is considerable money outstanding. The trustees are alive to their duty and will make an effort to greatly beautify the city of the dead.

Pine Grove Mention.

Mrs. J. D. Wagner is recovering from her recent illness.

Mrs. Mary Bloom Gates is down at Jacksonville on her annual spring visit to her daughter, Mrs. Pifer, and other friends.

Rev. R. H. Stine, of Farragut, Pa., is having a royal good time with his legion of Centre county friends after an absence of twenty years.

Arthur Peters, son of Emanuel Peters, is very ill with pneumonia. He had a severe cold and was caught in a shower last week and his illness is the result.

Our old friend Henry Fredericks is quite low with stomach trouble but as he is a rugged, robust man there is hope he will pull through.

Our friend Thomas Miller is off to Washington to sight see until after the peace jubilee. While there he will be the guest of his sister Mrs. Harriet Magee.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Sarah E. Kline and Edward Savage Erb on the evening of the 18th at the home of J. E. Heberling, on Main street. Rev. Aikens will tie the knot.

We are glad to know that Jake Wagner will hereafter toll the grain at Centre Furnace mill. Jake is a first-class miller and Mr. Thompson has made no mistake in intrusting him with his large milling interests.

Mr. Daniel Keller and wife, of Warren, Iowa, are visiting friends in and about Bellefonte, their native place. Both are looking well and Mrs. Keller, who as Sue Shoeneberger was the belle of that quiet little burg at the time of her marriage, still retains her attractiveness.

J. D. Miller, who aspires to handle the cash belonging to Centre county for the next three years, spent several days in this section recently making a good impression on our people. He was accompanied by Dr. McCormick who set the pins along the line.

Edward and Mrs. Lucas are mourning the death of their little son, Boyd, aged four years, who died on Sunday morning and was buried Sunday evening in the Bellefonte cemetery. Two others of the family are sick and the entire community sympathizes with them in their distress.

Last Saturday while John Breen, of the Branch, was hauling manure, the team his brother Alvin was driving ran away and frightened the other team, his son Daniel was driving, thereby causing a great commotion and some serious damage. Alvin was almost killed but young Daniel escaped with a few bruises.

Miss Annie Everts, of State College, is visiting her old associates here, where she spent the days of her childhood.

The beautiful custom of decorating the graves of our buried heroes will be observed, as usual, on the 30th. The scholars of the different Sabbath schools are expected to furnish the flowers and prominent speakers have been invited to participate in the exercises. The graves in the Pine Grove cemetery will be decorated at 2 o'clock while those in the Pine Hall cemetery at 5:30.

Last Sunday while W. H. Goss was driving home from church his team became unmanageable and ran away. After running almost a mile they were suddenly turned in against the fence, by one of the lines breaking, and the carriage overturned throwing the occupants to the ground badly injuring Miss Sadie Goss. The carriage was a complete wreck and the horses did not stop 'til they reached home.

EVAN WILLIAMS.—On Saturday the 13th, Evan Williams, one of the well-known citizens of College township, died at the home of his son-in-law, Thos. D. Decker, near Struble's station, of paralysis after a week's illness. More than a year ago he fell and fractured his hip from which it was feared he would never recover but it mended and he enjoyed reasonable good health until one week ago while visiting his daughter, Mrs. Decker, he was stricken with paralysis.

Mr. Williams was born 75 years ago at Lemont near which he has lived his entire life. Until old age compelled him to retire from active life he occupied his farm just east of Lemont. Forty-one years ago he married Miss Maggie Lytle, sixteen years his junior, who with their five children mourn his death. The children are Thomas Williams, Pleasant Gap; Mrs. Wm. Kanarr, Kansas; Mrs. Wm. Glenn, Fillmore; Mrs. Ed. Armstrong, Lemont; and Mrs. Thomas Decker, State College. He was buried in the old cemetery on the Branch with a wonderfully big casket and Rev. Aikens officiating.

On the afternoon of the 7th Joseph Meyers, probably better known as "Paps" and Miss Mary Wolf drove down to Centre Hall, where Rev. Rearick pronounced them man and wife. They were accompanied by Kate Keller, Jennie Meyers, Charley From and John Close to see that the knot was properly tied and after that ceremony they all drove over to the Old Fort and enjoyed supper. Upon their return to Bellefonte they went to housekeeping in their own house and since Paps has captured his Wolf we wish them happiness and good luck.

The above mentioned marriage reminds us that there are still a number of bachelors out there who would be the better of a good wife. There is Frank McFarlane with his broad acres and beautiful home; Sam Weber and his mercantile cares; Harry Bailey and his forenoon farming and if that wouldn't keep the wolf from the door he could take a hand at fishing and hunting, Charley Moore, the proficient school teacher, Frank Kaup, jolly and whole souled; Billy Hess, Bert Allen and Charley From, who has not a hair betwixt him and heaven are all worthy of charming, nice women. George Ishler, the butcher, has nearly run his race so we have not listed him in the market but the Druggist we had almost forgotten. He has a merry twinkle in his eye and the crows feet about his mouth would indicate that he is old enough but as for his other qualities we have not known him long enough to judge. Therefore we would advise some of our numerous nice maidens to show their preference a little bit and give the fellows to understand that matrimony was a state easy to attain.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

According to General Joseph Wheeler, the custom of seating apart a day for decorating the soldiers' graves had its origin among the women of his own State of Alabama. Unlike the men, they would not permit their dead "quietly to become a part of general history." Under the title, The Memory of Our Fighting Men, General Wheeler contributes to the Saturday Evening Post of May 27th a strong paper on the history and significance of Memorial day. General Gobin, of the G. A. R., also treats a similar topic, but from a differing point of view.

Among the fiction in this number is The Crump's Creek Tangle, a Decoration day story by John Habberton. It is one of the cleverest of Mr. Habberton's clever tales of plain people.

Another feature of the Decoration day number of the Post is a poem by Frank L. Stanton, that is a notable tribute to "The Fallen of the Fight." Oh, the story and the glory of the fallen of the fight! Does the clamor of the captains reach their ranks all ghostly white? Nay—they rest with rusted blades, All the glory-starred brigades, And the peace of God is on them in the splendor of the light.

OUT OF SEASON BUYERS

THIS IS A CERTAIN ADVANTAGE

that the out of season buyers enjoy over the Early Birds. It is in the matter of prices. The early buyers have the first choice, it is true, but the late comers save some dollars.

THIS SUIT SALE

In which we are now engaged is for the late comers. A late Spring leaves us with very much too large a stock on hand for the season. To carry it over means a certain depreciation in the value of the goods, not to mention the loss of the use of the capital that is locked up in it.

So while we have decided to sell this clothing while it is new and seasonable, and at a time when it is worth all that was ever asked for it. The prices are reduced in order to sell it now.

MEN'S SUITS, $6.00, $9.00, $12.00
BOYS' SUITS, $5.00, $7.50, $10.00

MONTGOMERY & CO.

These Suits are all arranged on tables by themselves in three lots, according to the prices. Not one of these $6.00 Men's Suits has ever been sold for less than $7.50. Some have been as much as $18.00, that are now offered at $12.00.

The Boys' Suits that are included in these three lots have heretofore sold for from $7.50 to $15.00. Children's Novelty Suits as low as $2.50.

We may not make any money at these figures, but we shall turn a lot of surplus stock into cash, which is something.

LARGEST FARM SUPPLY HOUSE

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA.

Their prices are right and their guarantee is behind the goods, which means a dollar to the farmer. The more conservative farmer wants to see the goods before he buys, and buy where he can get repairs when needed, for he knows that the best machinery will wear out in time. Goods well bought is money saved. Money saved is money earned. Buy from the largest house, biggest stock lowest prices; where the guarantee is as good as a bond; where you can sell your corn, oats, wheat hay and straw for cash, at the highest market prices, and get time on what you buy. All who know the house know the high standard of the goods, and what their guarantee means to them.

ARE WHAT EVERYBODY WANTS

WHEN FIXING UP THE HOUSE, OFFICE OR PLACE OF BUSINESS, and we were never better prepared than now to supply them. Papers are up in price a little bit, but you can still be suited out of our immense stock at a price that will be satisfactory.

Never before have we been in a position to decorate interiors as successfully and artistically as now.

The lincrease-walton, burlap, plastic and stucco designs are charming and can be used to such good effect and so inexpensive that they are proving very popular.

We have all grades of paper, the cheapest and the best. All we ask is for you to call and see them.

Now is the time of the year when a little fresh paint or varnish put on by good mechanics does more than anything else to brighten up for summer. We have a large corps of painters at work, but we are not too busy to give you prompt attention.

In picture and room mouldings there is nothing later than
