

The entertainment by the pupils of St. John's parochial schools will be the next event of much interest in town. It will be given on the night of June 24th.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, G. W. Rumberger, during the past week:

Charles Shokey and Bessie Viola Whitton, both of Phillipsburg.

Michael Merrick and Annie Besterman, both of Phillipsburg.

Charles A. From, of Boalsburg, and Catherine A. Keller, of Lemont.

A hoisting derrick made out of 8x8 timber that was being used for placing rock on the pier that are being built in Spring creek for the new C. R. R. of Pa. extension to the Bellefonte furnace fell, on Saturday, and nearly crushed the life out of Ed. Swiler, one of the workmen engaged there. They were pulling out one of the coffer dams at the time when a heavy iron hook that fastened one of the guy cables to the top of the derrick straightened out and caused the accident. Had Swiler not been knocked into the creek he would probably have been killed. As it was he suffered painful cuts and bruises on the back that will lay him off for several weeks. John Munson was sitting over on the railroad track watching the workmen and was struck on the head by one of the heavy cable guys. He was dazed by the blow and didn't know whether he had been run over by a train or not, but when he regained his senses he made tracks for the Central station about as fast as any train ever covered that distance. Arrived there it was discovered that an ugly gash had been cut in his scalp.

ARRIVED IN TYRONE.—Mr. E. S. Latschaw, who left Howard with his family, several days ago, for a trip south in a house wagon, reached Tyrone Wednesday morning.

Mr. Latschaw is principal of the Howard schools and conceived the rather original idea of traveling around in such a way to spend his summer vacation for a three fold purpose. It is healthful, free and easy and instructive.

He has as near as possible a house on wheels and Mrs. Latschaw and the children are with him. They have their home always with them and go until they are tired, then stop to rest. They are leading a regular nomadic life and expect to enjoy it. Two fine horses draw their house wagon.

At the conclusion of the regular ceremonies the members of Co. B assembled at the grave of Frank Taylor, their late comrade, and there held services in his memory. Col. D. F. Fortney read a splendid address, the band played "Jesus Lover of my Soul" and the salute of the dead was fired. It was an impressive service and the crowd that assembled to participate in it recalled the sorrow stricken throng that had seen his body lowered into that grave just as the sun went down nearly one year ago.

The flowers were unusually beautiful this year. It was a matter of general comment that they were so fine. In fact they more than made up in quality what they lacked in quantity and comrade R. C. Irvin, who is always in charge of that part of the work, desires to return thanks in the name of the Post to all who so generously aided in the work of gathering them.

The list of contributors included the following:

Dora A. Antes, Arthur Wagner, Sarah McGinley, Rachel Shuey, Margie Bernice, Wesley Wagner, Sarah Anna, Ernest Anna, Lila Miller, Margaret Brachbill, Lila Toon, Agnes Shaugnessy, Lenis White, Mary Conley, Wm. White, Fred Chambers, Edward McKee, Walter Rankin, Mrs. Houge, Walter McClelland, Helen Gardner, Anna Schler, Edward Hayes, Flora, Ellen, Fred Brachbill, Montgomery Blair, Frank Smith, Mrs. Amos Garbriek, Helen Lettie, Edward, Emma Parsons, Fergusson Parker, Goldie Kane, May Bryan, Elsie Bidwell, Berta Morrison, Harrison Whippo, Helen McClelland, Grace Steele, Hugh Ertter, Harvey, Albert Egan, Hazel Crider, Emily Philip, Anna Card Steele, Willie Gares, Nanna Malory, Harry Pearce, Pearce Wagner, Larence McClure, Isaac Chambers, Frank Steel, Mr. Eckenroth, Ogden Malin, Mr. S. E. Miller, George Jackson, Mary Koehler, Harry Thompson, William Shope, Edward, Clara Barry, Helen Wian, Edward Mary, Armory, Willis Struble, Henrietta Schler, Ralph John Steele, Loretta Williams, Eddie Overton, John Smith, Joe Toner, Lucy Storm, Nellie Soli, Norman Grauer, Hazel, Mrs. F. Wallace, Lulu Cox, Violet Longacre, Cornelia Cox, Helen McCafferty, May Smith, Helen Russel, Emma Smith, Annie, Madeline Garret, Mary Stewart, Jennie Kuntz.

Centre Hall.

Mrs. H. G. Stromberg, who had been very ill for a week, is gradually recovering.

John Van Pelt on Wednesday went to Hastings, where he may remain for an indefinite period.

Mrs. Widder, nee Annie Harpster, of Harrisburg, and little son George, are in town as the guests of Mrs. Jerry Miller, a sister.

Wm. Wolf, after attending the general synod of the Lutheran church at York, Pa., is making an extended visit to his brother, Dr. E. J. Wolf, at Gettysburg.

The festival held by the Lutheran congregation on Decoration evening was a success from a financial standpoint. Something over fifty dollars being the net receipts.

Miss Ella Fischer, second daughter of Rev. W. E. Fischer, D. D., of Shamokin, graduated at the Shamokin high school on June 1st. She took the Latin Scientific course.

Mrs. Breen, widow of Peter Breen, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. R. D. Foreman in this place, is improving in health. Her illness was of a very serious nature, and it was thought at one time that she would not recover.

Eugene Shadle and wife, of Williamsport, are paying Mrs. Shadle's father, John Biter, a visit. Mr. Shadle is one of Williamsport's rising business men, and with his wife, is popular here with both young and old. They are driving a splendid team of bays.

There is much complaint among the farmers about the corn not coming up. The recent heavy rains followed by high winds and hot sun formed a hard crust on the soil which the corn sprouts were unable to penetrate. Some fields are being replanted, and few have a perfect stand.

The decoration day program was gone through as usual. Hon. W. C. Heinle orated. Samuel Shannon post and the Sons of Veterans participated in the ceremonies. Both organizations were well represented and in uniform. The Potter Mills band furnished the music for the occasion. Miss Annie Bible read an original poem suited to the occasion.

DIED AT INDIANA.—Frank Donohue, who died at Indiana, Pa., on the 10th ult., was originally from this county. In the early fifties he was the head moulder at the old Erb foundry, near Pine Grove Mills, but left there in 1855. When the war broke out he enlisted in Co. A, 61st Penna. Vols. and served with such distinction that he was promoted to a captain.

After the war he studied law with James Tobb. Deceased was 71 years old. Heart disease caused his death. He is survived by a widow and several children.

DIED AT CLEVELAND.—Mrs. Temperance Orwig Butler, widow of the late Joseph G. Butler Sr., died at the home of her son, James W. Butler, on Wednesday morning, May 25.

She was born in Salem, Columbiana county, O., on July 23, 1815, and at the time of her demise was nearly 84 years old. In 1835 the deceased was married at Bellefonte, and in 1836 moved to Mercer county, where her father was engaged in the iron business. Mr. and Mrs. Butler continued to make Mercer county their home until 1841, when they moved to Niles.

From 1841 to 1854 Mrs. Butler lived in the house next to the modest dwelling wherein President McKinley first saw the light of day, and the deceased and the President's mother formed a warm friendship which continued until the time of her death. Mrs. Butler lived at Niles until 1857, when she moved to Warren, where she and her husband occupied the old Butler homestead for 30 consecutive years. They made Warren their home ever since their removal from Niles with the exception of two years, which they passed in Cleveland.

Her husband died in 1895 and a coincidence noticed is that both of them passed away while they were on a visit to their son in Cleveland.

MEMORIAL DAY IN BELLEFONTE.—Tuesday was one of nature's best efforts in the way of atonements for disagreeable weather on past Memorial days. It was clear and cool and the sun kissed the garlands that were spread on the graves of loved ones that day.

As usual Gregg post had charge of the ceremonies in this place and they were of more than common interest. The parade moved from the Diamond at 2:15 o'clock under the command of Adj. John Noll; the Coleville band leading, followed by Cos. B and M, Gregg post, speakers and old veterans in carriages, scholars from ten of the public schools, Logan engine company and the P. O. S. of A. After passing over the route already announced the line moved to the Union cemetery, where a hollow square was formed about two designated graves and the ceremonies began.

The rituals were gone through with by commander Samuel Sheffer and chaplain James Harris prayed then a dirge by the band brought the ceremony up to the oration by former Governor Daniel H. Hastings. It was a fine oratorical effort, carefully prepared and admirably suited to the occasion. At the conclusion of the oration two designated graves were formally decorated in honor of all soldiers and sailors and then a volley of three shots was fired in honor of the dead. General decorations followed until every soldier grave in the cemetery had been marked by the colors its sleeping occupant had once defended and the cemetery was a perfect bower of flowers.

During the work of decoration Governor Hastings spoke feelingly at the grave of Governor Curtin and there, also, three volleys were fired as a salute.

At the conclusion of the regular ceremonies the members of Co. B assembled at the grave of Frank Taylor, their late comrade, and there held services in his memory. Col. D. F. Fortney read a splendid address, the band played "Jesus Lover of my Soul" and the salute of the dead was fired. Pine Grove Mention.

James Homer and Willis Ripka, two of Altoona's young citizens spent Decoration day here.

Prof. J. A. Weaver gave a large audience at Paradise a rare musical treat last Saturday night.

George Bailey and his entire family from Altoona, are here for their regular summer outing.

Ira Hess, who has a run on the Pennsylvania railroad between Altoona and Pittsburg, is on a visit to his friends hereabouts.

Levi Walker has laid away his carpenter tools for a few days because he has to give his entire attention to one of Job's comforts on his hand.

The venerable William Powley is in a precarious condition with heart disease at the home of his son-in-law, G. W. Reynolds, at Shingletown.

Walter and Miss Mary McCormick are visiting friends in Butler county. They went by way of Pittsburg and expect to be gone two weeks.

Mr. Willis Shiffer and his daughter, of Sunbury, are spending their summer vacation at the old Shiffer home here, the corner now owned by Dr. Woods.

Postmaster and Mr. James Lytle, with Miss Etta Ross, drove up from their homes at Lemont, last Sunday, to spend the day with Pine Grove friends.

Rev. Ralph Illingworth, of Fairview, Erie county, preached to large congregations here last Sunday. He filled the pulpit in the Lutheran church in the morning and the Presbyterian in the evening.

Charles H. Smith, of our town, procured a job at the Jenkins & Lingle foundry while in Bellefonte to see the circuit on Monday. Charles is a good workman and will doubtless fill the bill.

While playing in the yard at her home last Sunday, Ina, the little daughter of W. H. Roush, fell and broke her arm. This is the second break of the same arm that the little girl has suffered this spring. Dr. Woods reduced the fracture and she is getting along nicely.

The new cemetery here was in nice condition for Decoration day. Among the recently fine monuments erected there is one to Heister C. Hoy, by his father, Albert Hoy; and one to George Smith, Mrs. Smith having come up from Harrisburg to superintend its erection. Both are of the finest granite.

Standing room was at a premium in Bethel church last Sunday, when Rev. A. A. Black commenced his Memorial sermon. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with flags, flowers and emblems of the event. The reverend gentleman admonished his hearers to be valiant in waging war against sin as had been the soldiers in the war that had made Memorial day part of the nation's life.

OUR MEMORIAL DAY.—Memorial day has come and gone and it is now only a part of the memory that we cherish for our heroic dead.

At 10 o'clock in the morning ceremonies were conducted in the cemetery at Penna. Furnace under the direction of Washington camp, No. 506, P. O. S. of A. The Tyrone band furnished the music and Rev. Noble, of State College delivered the oration.

The graves at Fairbrook were decorated at 11 o'clock by a detail from Cap't J. O. Campbell post 272, G. A. R.

At 2 o'clock p. m., the parade was formed in this place, several organizations participating, and marched to the new cemetery, then into the old church yard. The Pine Grove martial band furnished the music for marching, while a well trained choir with Miss Annie Fortney presiding at the organ, led the singing during the ceremonies that followed. After the flowers were strown Maj. Milton Weaver, of State College, was introduced and delivered a splendid address, it having been favorably commented upon on all sides.

Pine Hall cemetery, one of the most beautiful in the county, was the next to be visited and at 6 o'clock in the evening a large crowd gathered there to pay tribute to the dead. The State College band furnished the music and Prof. Shed, of State College, was the orator. At the conclusion of the program a vote of thanks was tendered to all who had so kindly aided in the loving work and after the usual greetings of friends who meet over the graves of their dead, annually, the day was spent and ended.

Nittyany Items.

Elmer Snavely, boss carpenter, is erecting a stable for Perry McCabe.

Howard Zerby and wife spent last Sunday with "papa" at Spring Mills.

John Williams, who has been employed in Johnstown at the carpenter trade, has been called home on account of his wife's sickness.

Robt. Kreamer, division boss on the C. R. R., has been busily engaged in repairing track, for the picnic season's heavy passenger traffic.

Miss Jennie, Maize and Gertie Bennison, of Howard, attended Decoration services at St. Paul's church. Their parents are buried in this valley.

The Nittyany cornet band will hold a festival on June 10th. This organization has been advancing rapidly and should receive the patronage of the community.

The wire gang on the Commercial telephone, rested over Sunday in our town, and their department was such as to mark them gentlemen in every respect.

A large flag was wafted to the breeze in Snydertown on Decoration. The purchasing was started by the teacher, Miss Grace Beck, and a worthy one, it was. Long wave "old glory."

Elwood Winkelman is employed at Woodward's brick erecting wire fence. His work in the past has given satisfaction and his services are in demand in various parts of the county.

Edward Robb, who has been doing clerical work in the mining districts, has returned home to stay. Edward expects to take charge of the ticket office at Clintondale, as the present official, Mr. Ferguson, goes to Salona, and Rumberger to Bellefonte, to fill the vacancy there.

Decoration services were observed at Mt. Bethel and St. Paul's church. The Knights of Golden Eagle headed by the Nittyany cornet band, formed at their hall, in Lamar and marched to the cemeteries where they were met by the Sons of Veterans; of Salona, quite an assemblage gathered at St. Paul's church to listen to the eloquence of comrades, Lundy and Wolfe, of Mill Hall.

Roland.

Howard Neff and wife, of Johnsonburg, are visitors in this place.

Some of our farmers are still planting corn. It is time all corn should be in the ground, that is to be planted.

A number of our people took in the Wallace show on Monday last. Some had business in town and just took the children along to see the parade.

The M. E. Sunday school have chosen a program to practice for children's services, to be held at the church on Sabbath evening, June 18th.

Rev. Wharton was orator here on decoration day. There were nearly fifty soldiers graves decorated. The instrumental and vocal music was good.

Repairing is being done at the house of Frank Smith, our miller. When completed this will be a much more convenient home to live in and will add to the appearance of the place.
