

THE QUAKER MEETING HOUSE.—The quaint old Quaker meeting house adjacent to the Bellefonte academy, so familiar to all citizens of Bellefonte, is undergoing extensive repairs. The meeting house was erected in 1836 and its interior arrangements were fashioned after the simple and unostentatious habits and customs of the Society of Friends. Alterations and needed repairs have been made from time to time to the exterior and interior of the building but without regard for its primitive condition. Now the Quaker society of our community are engaged in a work of restoration. After the completion of the alterations in progress the old meeting house will present the same quaint appearance it possessed some sixty years ago. All recent innovations will be displaced and originality will characterize the labor of construction.

THE O. U. A. M. AT SNOW SHOE.—On the 29th of Oct. 1917, council, number 274, of the O. U. A. M. was organized in Snow Shoe. Thus it is nearly twenty-eight years old and one of the oldest in the county. It is strong financially and numerically and on its roll of membership some of the best citizens of the community are listed. At the festival held by the committee of ladies, interested in establishing a branch order of the "Daughters of Liberty," $50.26 were cleared for that purpose. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Holt and Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Watson were especially diligent in contributing to its success.

The following officers have been installed for the ensuing year: Clarence Weaver, counselor; E. M. Watson, vice counselor; H. M. Witheright, secretary; Harry Sayers, Ass't. secretary; Harrison Watson, Fin. Sec.; O. J. Harm, treasurer; Joseph Little, I. P.; M. A. Casselberry, Ind.; W. G. Watson, X; Harris Watson, Op; A. C. Heaton, Jr. X C; M. A. Casselberry, J. F. Watson, M. B. Conovay trustees; H. M. Witheright, R. S.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, G. W. Rumberger, during the past week:
John C. Kennedy, of Williamsport, and Miss Austin, of Bellefonte.
Charles F. Scott, of Altoona, and Maude Willett of Port Matilda.
If L. Vaughan, of Phillipsburg, and J. Bennett, of Port Matilda.
James F. Jarrett, of Osceola, and Annie West, of Edendale.
Wm. H. Single and Sallie R. Bond, of Colyer.
John Edward Miller and Sallie R. Knapp of Bellefonte.
John B. Stover, of Rebersburg, and Elsie R. Brown, of Wolf's Store.

Fred Beezer, of Bellefonte, and Mary Mullen, of Pottersdale.
Harry T. Lyons and Emily Miller, of Howard.
Charles Cover, of Tusseyville, and Mary M. Jackson, of Colyer.
David Hampton and Alice Stover, of Bellefonte.
Harry Elmer Smith and Mary Ann Simpson, of Phillipsburg.

Rebersburg.

Miss Maud Ocker is ill with typhoid fever. Rev. Salem and wife are off on a two weeks vacation visiting friends in Snyder county. At a recent meeting of the school, board Claude Haines was elected teacher of the Brungart school. Brick layers are at work on the J. B. Kreamer mansion. Mr. Bell, of Bellefonte, is doing the work. The Fourth passed off quietly here, there being no special demonstration only the customary fire crackers. Oliver Gramley and family of Freeport, Ill. are visiting here. Mr. Gramley is one of the substantial farmers of Illinois, who believes in enjoying life. They will remain east one year. Prof. Brungart, of the faculty of the Lock Haven Normal is visiting in this valley at present. He says that in his opinion there is but one other valley in the State that will compare with ours for beauty.

The hay crop of the valley, is an average one. It was barned in excellent condition. The wheat is all out. It is long in the stalk and appears well filled. Oats promise a good yield. Potatoes and corn will be short, though, unless it rains soon. Charles Gramley, of Mifflinburg, and Estey Kreamer, of Kreamerville, were united in marriage last Saturday evening, by the Rev. George at the home of the grooms brother, Edwin Gramley. They are estimable young people and our wish is that their wedded life may be long and happy. Sabbath evening both the Reformed and Lutheran pulpits were filled by visiting pastors. Rev. Staby, of Selingsgrove, preached in the Lutheran church and Rev. France, of Dakota, Ill., in the Reformed. Mr. France went West with his parents from Sugar Valley when only a boy and is here now visiting his relatives and friends. Wednesday morning at 2 o'clock, our people were aroused by the ringing of the church bells and the cry of fire. The house owned by Henry Brungart and occupied by Calvin Crouse and Daniel Smith, in the west end of the town, was completely enveloped in flames. The house was burned to the ground and very little of the furniture and clothing saved. Only by the most heroic efforts was F. J. Ockers' house, on the opposite side of the alley saved. It was badly scorched and the window glass broken by the heat. Had there been a high wind the town would have suffered greatly and it is time that some action was taken to secure a better water service. There is not a fire plug in the town. There was no insurance on the house or furniture that the loss is a heavy one. It is supposed the fire originated from some ashes in the wood house.

Pine Grove Mention.

J. B. Ard and family spent last week at Milton looking over their broad and fertile acres there. Farmers Howard Goss and Will Smith suffered slight sun strokes last week. Both are on the mend. Samuel McWilliams, of the Lock Haven Normal, is developing his muscle in his father's harvest field. Edward Savage Erb and his bride of State College Sunday with his brother-in-law, J. B. Heberling, on Main street. Miss Nan Thomas, of Latrobe, is making her annual summer visit at her sister's, Mrs. Maggie Gates', on Church street. Rev. C. T. Aikens and his family have started off on a months vacation, which is to be spent at Milroy and Hanover their old homes. Rev. W. C. Dunlap and family are rusticiating at his mother's home on Main street. He is looking about for an appointment, having resigned his charge at Spencerville, Ind., where he has been preaching for the last three years. One night last week Jacob Bottorf had a shanking up that looked for a time as if the undertaker would profit there. His horse jammed him against a telephone pole and in the scramble he lost his eye glasses as well as a grinder. Now it is Dr. John Baker Krebs as he has graduated with good records from the dental school of the Pennsylvania University. At present he is exercising his muscle and brain in his store, not having positively decided where to locate. Milton Weaver, one of this year's honor men at the State College, is circulating among relatives here this week. He has been offered several good positions since graduating but will likely go to St. Louis to the Wayne Electrical Co. John Dennis Dannley, of the Buckeye state, is a welcome guest under the old Dannley roof tree. His aged mother is well for a woman of her years but just now is suffering from a fractured arm, which in all probability will never be strong. Rev. John C. McCracken, of Johnstown, is taking on a coat of tan in his father's harvest field which will rival any acquired at Atlantic City this season. Sunday morning he ably filled the pulpit of the Graysville church and in the evening preached to a well filled church at Baileyville. Some of our hustling farmers finished hauling in grain last week. This week will see all of the grain hauled. The crop is an average yield but is badly cut with the fly and hard to gather. Oats will be a fair crop while the corn is not at all promising. The hay crop is a short one and consequently better prices are offered. Early potatoes are almost a failure on account of the drought. Mr. Stonevalley neighbor, who started out to hunt the Fourth and raise a— at Greenwood Furnace, missed his bearings and landed on this side of old Tussey mountain in the wee small hours of the night. The farmer drove along the Branch at whose gate he was found filled the scriptural injunction and took him in. And even the old horse seemed glad to get back on the turf on which its hoof had been spent.

Independence Day, this year, while more generally observed than ever throughout the country was unusually quiet here. Aside from the small boy and his fire crackers there was very little merry making done. John McWilliams, son of W. E. McWilliams held on to a cannon fire cracker a little too long and in consequence Dr. Houser had to amputate the index finger of his right hand and dress up another finger and his thumb. Rev. George Meek Glenn, of Gettysburg, preached in the Methodist Episcopal church here, last Sunday evening. In '94 he successfully taught a term in the Academy here and fifteen years ago he walked from Buffalo Run and did his best in the way of preaching. Those who heard him then thought he did very well but his sermon Sunday showed that he had learned much in the intervening years. His subject was "King David Siding with his Enemies" and he treated it from the stand point that some trusted in chariots, some trusted in horses but King David trusted in God who giveth the victory. His logic was well founded and his explanation of the failure of so many isms and beliefs to bring about a kingly life was most highly commented upon. The following wedding notice was taken from the Gloversville (N. Y.) Herald and is reprinted here because the groom is so well known here, where his father, F. E. Meek, always had his home until a few years ago. The family now live in Altoona. "Among the society events was the wedding at 10 o'clock yesterday morning of Miss Harriette Mahala Van Gorden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Van Gorden, to Mr. Stewart Glenn Meek, of New York City. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fenwick M. Cookson, of Christ church, in the presence of about thirty guests. Previous to the ceremony Miss Van Gorden received the guests as they arrived. "At 10 o'clock the officiating clergyman entered the parlor and took his place. Misses Bushy and Cookson, with ribbons, formed an aisle for the bridal party to pass through. Master Stanley Miles, of Reading, Pa., the ring, then entered, carrying the wedding ring on a white silk pillow, followed by the bride and groom and the bride's parents. "The bride was given away by her father. "She wore a gown of white silk mull, over white tulle and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The parlor was decorated with rushes, maiden hair ferns and daisies. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, the dining room decorations consisting of the same kind of flowers as in the parlor. "Amid a shower of rice the bridal couple entered a carriage hastily but fantastically adorned with old shoes, and were driven to the F. J. and G. depot, whence they departed on the 12:05 train for New York. "Mr. Meek is identified with the H. W. Johns Manufacturing company, of New York, with which concern he holds a responsible position, and is connected with some of the more prominent musical organizations. His bride is a well-known young lady who has many friends in Gloversville who unite in cordial congratulations."

On last Saturday at a meeting of the school board, it was decided to build a new school house in the Kepler district on an additional plot of ground the Board purposed buying to enlarge the grounds to 1/2 acre. Mr. Kepler has since refused to sell or donate the ground and the committee will be compelled to resort to law. That is, have vieweers appointed and the ground appraised at a just price. The new building is to be 28x32 feet. Joseph Meyers was awarded the contract as well as the remodeling of the building in this place. The first floor of the building here is to be divided into two rooms and made habitable for school rooms. Schools will open on the 1st Monday of September and the following teachers have been elected: Pine Grove grammar, A. J. Tate; primary, Bessie Walkner; Branch, M. E. Heberling; Kepler, Samuel Goss; White Hall, Sadie Keichline; Oak Grove, Daniel Keach; Pine Hill, William Eys; Krumrine, New Hartwick; Centre, Samuel McWilliams; Tadpole, Summer Miller; Gatesburg, J. C. Hosterman; Guyer, Kate Welland; Baileyville, Alfred Bowersox; Penna Furnace, Wm. Keller; Gladus, Maggie Keichline.

Prof. John D. Meyer, principal-elect of the Bellefonte High school, is at Chautauqua, taking a special course in languages. Miss Vera Geiss will accompany Joseph Runkle to Middleburg the latter part of this week. They will travel overland and visit Miss Laura Runkle, daughter of James Runkle formerly of near this place. Prof. E. B. Thompson and wife, of Altoona, and the Morgans of State College, spent Sunday with Mrs. S. W. Smith. Prof. Thompson is musically inclined, having spent some time in Boston some years ago. They just returned from a trip to Niagara. Prof. H. F. Bitner, who holds a professorship in the Millersville State Normal, is spending part of his vacation with his father-in-law, J. D. Murray, in this place. He is accompanied by his young son Harry, who will graduate at the above named institution next year. D. A. Boozer, and son Ralph, and Mrs. Shannon Bond, went to Philadelphia last week to pay a visit to a little daughter of Mr. Boozers in an institution for mutes. The little girl is getting along finely, and writes a letter that would be a credit to a child of her age possessing all facilities. Fourth of July was duly celebrated under the management of the Sons of Veterans. In the morning there was a fantastic turn-out leading the Sons of Veterans in parade. In the evening the horsemen were out in goodly numbers. The festival and supper in the evening were well patronized. Rev. R. B. Wolf, who came East from his pastorate in Eureka, Kan., to attend the general synod of the Lutheran church at York, Pa., some time ago, filled the Lutheran pulpit Sunday evening a week, in a very creditable manner. Rev. Wolf has been at his present post for five years, and was glad to get back to his native home. Mrs. H. G. Strohmeyer was taken to the German hospital, Philadelphia, by Dr. Alexander on the 3rd inst. She had been ill for some weeks prior, and her physician thought she should have hospital treatment. An examination was made, and the doctors agreed with Dr. Alexander in the diagnosis of her case. The last reports from her husband as to her condition was that she was improving, but he did not know whether or not an operation would be necessary.

John Barner and his family were badly frightened on the fifth of July by a bolt of lightning striking uncomfortably nearby. Mr. Barner, his wife and children were in the hay field at the time mentioned, piling and loading hay when a thunder storm suddenly came up. They were preparing to leave, when a light charge of electricity struck a hay cock and set fire to it. No injury was done the family except the fright, and they are thankful to-day that they were so fortunate. Dr. Ritter wishes it stated that the reports circulated in the newspapers to the effect that a herd of cattle belonging to William Laurie, of Buffalo Run, on the old Rodger's farm, have hydrophobia is not correct, and that an injustice is being done Mr. Laurie by the publication of such news. Some two or three weeks ago, some of the cattle referred to were stricken with a peculiar disease, and Dr. Ritter represented the state in an examination, which was reported to headquarters. Dr. Gilliland, assistant to Dr. Pierson, came on and a portion of the brain of a dead animal was sent to the laboratory for examination, upon which a report has not yet been made. The cattle in Mr. Laurie's possession at present are all in a healthy condition, and there are no others in the locality mentioned diseased as was reported in the Bellefonte papers.

Dr. W. E. Fischer and wife, of Shamokin, and John W. Fisher, Esq., of Pifer City, Ill.; Dr. E. J. Wolf, of Gettysburg, were among those who attended the funeral of Mr. Wolf this (Friday) forenoon. Mr. Montanus, one time clerk for Mr. Wolf, and later went to Illinois, where he has amassed wealth and honor, being one of the foremost citizens of his community. The pall-bearers for Mr. Wolf were W. B. Mingle, Esq., C. M. Bower, Esq., A. C. Smith, F. M. Crawford, E. M. Huyet, S. W. Smith.
