

George Gray Barnard, who was born in the parsonage on Spring street during his father's pastorate of the Presbyterian church here and who is now acknowledged to be one of America's most talented sculptors, was the artist selected by the family to take the death mask of Robert G. Ingersoll.

Hemlock lumber has advanced four dollars per 1,000 feet in the last eight months. Pine lumber has gone up from two dollars to three dollars according to grade. It is said that Elisha K. Kane, of Kane, has cleared a fortune estimated at over $100,000 by the unprecedented advance in the price of hemlock.

The Passmore house, one of the oldest hotels in Philadelphia, was damaged by fire, last Friday morning to the extent of $10,000 which is about provided for by insurance. The fire started in a rear building, which is of frame, and gained such headway that for some time it looked as though it would be completely destroyed. The firemen finally conquered the flames, but the huge hostelry was completely soaked with water and the rear buildings badly injured by fire. The house is a large one and well furnished and it was owing to the firemen and their helpers, who carried out carefully the furniture, bedding, etc., that the loss was not far greater than it was. Mrs. Passmore was out of town at the time and Mr. Passmore was in another part of the town.

TO NIAGARA FALLS AND THOUSAND ISLANDS.—The Central R. R. of Pa., and New York Central are sparing no efforts in the way of service, rates and equipment to make their Niagara Falls excursions popular. The first excursion will leave Bellefonte at 6:30 a. m., on Tuesday, August 1st; rate of $5.50 for the round trip; tickets good for ten days and permitting stop off at Buffalo, Rochester and Watkins Glen on the return trip. Side excursions to Toronto from Niagara and to the Thousand Islands from Rochester have been provided for at small cost. One of the Wagner Co's., magnificent parlor cars will be attached to train at Williamsport and those desiring to engage chairs in this car in advance may do so by application to ticket agent of the Central road at Bellefonte at an additional cost of $1.25.

Mrs. WHITTAKER.—On Thursday evening Mrs. James Whittaker died at her home on High street, after a long illness of dropsy and Bright's disease. She was buried Sunday afternoon in the Union cemetery from her late residence. Rev. Laurie of the Presbyterian church conducted the service. The pall-bearers were Thomas Donachy, Gen. J. I. Curtin, Amos Mullen, Wm. Fitzgerald, Samuel Sheffer, S. B. Miller, David Bartley and Ernestus Robb.

Mrs. Whittaker was Ellen Rine, daughter of Abraham Rine, who settled here many years ago and lived on Thomas street until his death. She was born on Jan. 1st, 1850, and was married to James Whittaker Oct. 10th, 1867. She was devoted to her home and family and was an unselfish, thrifty woman. Her husband, who was for many years engineer on the Snow Shoe railroad, two daughters, Mrs. Nellie Jackson and Mrs. Stella Dezendorf, and two sons George and Edward survive her. Her brothers and sisters living are Charles, Samuel, James, Harry and Morris, of this place, John, of Bellwood, Mrs. Amos Dry, of Tyrone, and Mrs. Valentine Anmerman, of Altoona.

Mrs. John Rockey, for years an occupant of the farm in Penn Twp., now occupied by William Vonada, died at her home in Illinois recently, and her remains were brought back to Centre county for burial on Tuesday. Mrs. Rockey was the mother of Mrs. David Neese of Penn township, David Gentzel, of George's valley, and Perry, Henry and Benjamin Gentzel, of Spring township. She had been ill since early in the spring, her daughter having been at her bedside since March. Deceased was 78 years old and her death was caused by stomach troubles. Rev. Brown, of Spring Mills, officiated at the burial, which was made in Heckman's cemetery on Wednesday morning.

A SAD DEATH.—On Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock Mrs. Harvey Bierly, of Snyder township, died at her home of typhoid fever. She was 46 years old and had been sick for four weeks. Mr. Bierly has the sympathy of the community for he is a poor man and is left with three children and an aged and invalid mother to care for. Internment was made at Tylersville, Clinton county.

Mrs. Sarah J. Stains, who was born at Penna. Furnace, this county, 74 years ago, died at the residence of her son, S. G. Stains, in Altoona, last Saturday. She is survived by her son and two daughters, who are Mrs. Mary Cramer, of Indiana, Pa., and Mrs. Anna Prunkard, of Juniata Gap. Burial was made on Monday afternoon.

Wm. Stephens well known throughout the northern part of the county, died at Pottersdale, Clearfield county, on the 18th inst. He was born at Aaronsburg but spent the greater portion of his life blacksmithing at Snow Shoe and Karthaus. He was a good, honest citizen and had the respect of all who knew him.

Mrs. Sarah Zeigler died at home at Spring Mills, on last Friday morning, after an illness of considerable duration. She was about 85 years old and for years had resided on a farm east of Aaronsburg. Her remains were taken to the Reformed cemetery at Aaronsburg on Tuesday morning for burial.

At a recent meeting of the Miles township school board Blansdell's physiology and Gunn & Co's., vertical system of penmanship were adopted.

Republicans are rather scarce in Brush valley but what they lack in numbers they make up in pugnacity and other disagreeable qualities. They were heart and soul, with all their other brethren in the county, in the Hastings and anti-Hastings fight. Money was furnished in great abundance and the consequences were that the voters were so debauched by whisky and boodle that it will be a very hard thing to ever again hold an honest election. It is high time that decent men leave a party that countenance such corruption and dishonesty as has been carried on, by the Republicans in this county, in the last two weeks. The men, who did it or caused it to be done are the leaders and bosses of their party not the heeled and rabble.

DEATH OF REV. LANDIS.—Rev. William M. Landis, who with his wife has been visiting friends here and in Sugar valley for the past four weeks, was suddenly taken ill with paralysis of the stomach, on last Monday, and died at the home of George Weaver, in this place, on Thursday morning. He was born in Spring township, Bucks county, in 1835. There he attended the public schools until 1864 when he entered college to prepare for the ministry. In 1871 he entered the ministry and after serving several churches accepted the pastorate of the Reformed church of Brush and Sugar valley's. He labored here successfully for eleven years and then accepted a call to Adamsburg, in Snyder county, where he continued to work until recently.

Rev. Landis was kind cheerful and social in his disposition and had many friends in this community. He is survived by his wife, three children, W. A. Landis, Augustus and Ada and one brother and three sisters. Funeral services were held on Monday morning. Rev. Haus, of Millfield and Dr. Wolf, of Spring Mills, preached instructive and eloquent sermons on the life and character of the deceased.

Last Thursday afternoon this valley was visited by one of the severest electrical storms in its history. The vivid flashes of lightning accompanied by crashing peals of thunder appalled the timid and caused many of the stout hearted to tremble. During the storm the east gable end of Elmer Miller's house in Kreamerville was struck. The lightning followed the chimney to the roof splintering out a window pane on the garret. It then followed the outside of the wall for a short distance, but again passed inside near the second floor following the stove pipe down into the kitchen, which was at the time occupied by Mrs. Miller and two of her children and Mrs. Henry Winkleblech and son Arney a boy about five years of age. All were sitting on chairs but Arney Winkleblech who was lying on the floor. On reaching the kitchen floor the lightning scattered tearing the carpet on the right side of the stove and splintering the floor at several places on the left side near where young Winkleblech was lying and apparently killing him.

As soon as the other inmates of the room had recovered from the shock word was sent to their neighbors, who quickly went to their assistance. Young Winkleblech was carried to a bed where he regained consciousness, and began at once to toss about violently and complained of severe pain in his body. On examination it was found that the hair of his head had been singed at several places and on removing his clothing both the right and left sides of his body were found to be badly burned. Dr. Bright, who arrived soon after, said that the boy with proper care would recover. The boy complained for several days of tingling pains and burns but he is now recovering rapidly.

After an enjoyable visit of three weeks John D. Danley and his interesting little family departed for their home in Madina, O., where he is a leading merchant. In addition to many pleasant memories they carried with them many snap shots of mountain and valley scenery.

ANNUAL SERMON.—Rev. A. A. Black preached his tenth annual sermon in Bethel church here on last Sunday evening. His report shows a healthy and growing condition in his church. The total offerings of the Boalsburg charge were $17,500; of which Boalsburg contributed $9,531.

Number of sermons preached - 1248
Members received - 380
Marriages - 72
Funerals - 114
Children baptized - 267.

The attendance on Sunday evening was not so large as it should have been but those present were much pleased with the report. During Rev. Black's pastorate he has entertained the church from debt and is beginning the new year with renewed vigor and enthusiasm, is looking forward to an unusually successful year.

J. C. BATHGATE DEAD.—The people of this end of the county were shocked last Sunday morning by the sudden death of John Calvin Bathgate at his home near Centre Furnace. Saturday afternoon in his usual health he went to the Republican primaries at Lemont, where he was chosen a delegate to the county convention and while talking to a friend suddenly complained of being sick. As he feared a stroke Dr. Dale was summoned at once but he was sinking rapidly and died in a few hours, of paralysis, after being removed to his own home.

There are few people in this section who did not know Cal. Bathgate. He was ever ready to do his neighbor a kindness and always had a kind word or pleasant greeting for the passer-by. Although humble and unassuming he was much respected and liked.

August 28th 1862, he enlisted in Co. D, 148 Reg. P. V. In the engagements he took part in he was wounded at Chancellorsville and again at the battle of Gettysburg when he was shot through the left lung which caused him much trouble through life. In the spring of '64 he was transferred to Co. C, 14th regiment, Vt., reserves and did duty as sergeant in the old capital prison at Washington. During his term there, it was his duty as sergeant to carry the rations to Mrs. Suratt. The woman who, it is generally thought now, was unjustly tried and hung as an accomplice in the Lincoln murder. He is survived by his wife, Margaret Etters, and five loving children, one brother, Cal. living near Pleasant Gap and his sister, Mrs. Agnes Rupert, of Patterson. He was 57 years old and a native of Centre county.

He was buried on Wednesday morning and in the funeral cortege were counted 250 carriages and wagons. Rev. Dennison assisted by the Rev. Black had charge of the services while the Lemont G. A. R. Post 197, had charge at the grave. The pall-bearers were Hiram Thompson, William E. Tate, Calvin Sowers, John Stuart, Potter Tate and Isaac Armstrong.

A crusade is being made on the Canada thistle by the farmers. In some cases it is an enforced crusade, owing to the determination of some to have the law enforced in this respect.

Mrs. McCloskey fell from the porch at her home, at Potters Mills, the fore part of the week and broke her right arm between the elbow and shoulder. As she is 75 years old the accident is rather serious.

It is just being learned how much water it takes to have "clean hands." Indeed, one would have to own a water plant of his own with unreserved rights in order to truthfully (?) say "my hands are clean."

Mrs. James H. Lohr and children, of Philadelphia, and her mother Mrs. Welsh, came to town Monday and will spend some time here. Mrs. Welsh is a sister of Mrs. J. O. Deining, with whom she is stopping.

George H. Emerick's dust-collector on his new threshing will be highly appreciated this season by threshing hands. Unpleasant as the best to do, yet with the modern improvements threshing is not as much of a bugaboo to the day laborer as it was years ago.

The patrons of the creamery company seem to be satisfied with the return for their product, although one quits and the other begins continually. Butter is a scarce article just now; out side that made at the creamery, and the price is above that usually paid at this season of the year.

The borough council posted an ordinance regulating the water plant belonging to the town with respect to its use and abuse by its patrons. Strange that the first to abuse privileges were parties who advocate the adoption by every individual of the "Golden Rule." If the truth were given to the public it would look nasty in print, and since the writer was taught in his youth to respect gray and bald heads and give no heed to the young bombast and defamer, he will not make public the misdoings of his fellows.

If you don't want to be disgusted clean to the boots; if you don't want to wreck all your faith in the present school board; if you don't want to get fighting mad and feel like thoroughly lamponing half-dozen citizens; if you don't want to see the toughest looking spot within the borough limits, not excluding the town pound, don't go near the public school grounds. Why? Because you will be poisoned with the ivy; beggar-like will cling to the nap of your clothing; bulldog will stand defiantly before you and tell you to go aside; the pesky little darts will discolor your garments; locust sprays will stink you; stones and rubbish, will trip you; filth will greet you on every side! What a mess! What a curse! And here is where your children are expected to spend six hours every day—Saturday and Sunday excepted—pretty soon. Why should the school grounds of a town so cosily kept every where else, become a pest hole? Why should it be a disgrace rather than a credit to the town? The school children will be driven into these weeds and rubbish and filth and be expected to tramp them out of existence. What has the school board, the present or past, ever done to beautify the surroundings of the public school buildings of Centre Hall? Nothing; yes, cheap paint was used on the building, and the boys, in the language of a director, were "fenced off the girls," by a cheap, rough board fence. Why not spend a little money in putting the school grounds in, at least, a decent condition? Why not? And the writer isn't kidding because you know why—at the last election. He kicked before, is kicking now and will kick again. The school grounds are a bumy place.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE.—Early on the morning of July 17th just as the birds were singing their carol, the angel of death entered silently into the home of Mr. John Farley, of this place, and took from it the beloved and aged grandfather, who had reached the remarkably ripe age of 108 years. Coming to this country from Ireland when quite a young man he at once made friends with all he came in contact, and far and wide the name of Grandfather Farley became a familiar household word, but of the past twenty-one years in which he made his home with his daughter-in-law, he was absent only two nights. He will be missed sorely by his grand-children who love him dearly. One of his last words that was intelligently understood by those at his bedside was "Liz-zie" the writer of these lines and in whose memory they are lovingly dedicated.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we love is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.

God, in His wisdom, has recalled,
The boon His love had given,
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is safe in Heaven.

AN ORDINANCE For the better regulation of the Centre Hill Borough Water Works. Sec. 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Town Council of the borough of Centre Hill in Town Council assembled and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same: That when any person or persons shall desire to use water from the Centre Hill Water Works and to convey the same into or upon private property, such person shall first obtain permission from the Town Council, which permission shall be entered upon the minutes of the Council; and all such water pipes, hydrants, etc., laid by any such person or persons shall be subject to any rules, regulations and ordinances that the Town Council may from time to time ordain and enact for the government of said Water Works. It shall be lawful for the superintendent of said Water Works, or his employee, or any member or member of the water committee, to enter upon private property for the purpose of inspecting the said hydrants, pipes, stop-cocks, cut-offs and sewerage lines, to ascertain the manner in which the water is used, to see that the same is not wasted and that the pipes, hydrants, etc., are in proper repair, and to do such acts as may be necessary for the proper superintendence of the same.

Sec. 2. And be it further ordained and enacted by the authority aforesaid; That all branch pipes leading to, and hydrants erected and repaired upon private property, shall be at the cost of owner or owners thereof, the pipe shall be of iron and connected with the said Centre Hill Water Works, or shall do any act calculated to render the same unwholesome or impure, or shall in any manner interfere with the proper performance of his duty or shall suffer the water to flow or waste from his or their hydrants, or sprinkle the adjacent streets and lawns, in such manner as unnecessarily to cause a scarcity of water in any part of the Borough, a notice of the same by the said Superintendent being full and sufficient knowledge of the same, he, she or they so offending, on conviction thereof, before the chief Burgess or assistant Burgess, or justice of the peace shall each forfeit for every offence a sum not less than one nor more than ten dollars, to be recoverable and applicable as in section 3rd of this ordinance.

Sec. 3. And be it further ordained and enacted by the authority aforesaid; That when any person or persons shall refuse or neglect to pay any fine or fines, due from such person or persons by virtue of any of the foregoing paragraphs, or shall neglect or refuse to pay the water rent or rents or taxes that shall hereafter be assessed or charged against him, her or them by authority of the town council, or shall persistently waste the water of the borough after being warned not to do so, these and in all such cases, the Superintendent shall have the right and is hereby empowered to stop off the water from the pipes and hydrants of such person or persons till he, she or they shall pay such fine or fines or such water rent or rents or taxes or taxes that shall hereafter be assessed or charged against him, her or them by authority of the town council, or shall persistently waste the water of the borough after being warned not to do so, these and in all such cases, the Superintendent shall have the right and is hereby empowered to stop off the water from the pipes and hydrants of such person or persons till he, she or they shall pay such fine or fines or such water rent or rents or
