Talking Over the Campaign.
On Tuesday the gentlemen whose names are to be found at the top of this column met chairman JOHNSTON and his secretaries in this place and talked over the plan of campaign for the fall. All of the candidates were here and the meeting was a private one.
Although it was merely called for an interchange of ideas chairman JOHNSTON was highly pleased with the evident determination with which every candidate proposes going into the fight. There was no official business attended and the silly story published in the Philadelphia Times to the effect that the candidates had a dispute over the campaign assessment was as groundless as it was ridiculous, as the matter of assessments was never once mentioned at the meeting.

Get on the Collar, Boys.
As a matter of condensed, unadulterated gall the demand of the HASTINGS' organs, that the Republicans who have lately been knocked down, kicked out of the party, as it were, subjected to every measure of abuse and denounced as no better than political highwaymen, shall forget the indignities that have been heaped upon them and rally to the support of the ex-Governor and his ticket, take the cake. We had an idea that this requirement would be made, but that it would be made so soon and be so imperative not even those who know the autocratic disposition of the present county boss imagined. He might have waited until some of the sores he caused healed over a little, or until some of the animosities he created were partially forgotten, but he doesn't give even time for this. Harmony must be had at once. His insults and detractions, his boasts and browbeating must be forgotten immediately and those who were his opponents and who run "up against the real thing;" the "political nobodies," as he termed them with whose political carcases he threatened to "wipe up the floor," must now walk up and put on his collar and harmonize.
Verily the days of miracles have come, or there are more political idiots in this county than any one imagined if his orders and wishes are to be obeyed.
If Governor HASTINGS was not at the head of the Republican county organization and if its success did not bring glory to him he wouldn't care a bobee whether there was harmony in the party or not. He doesn't propose that there shall be harmony on the Republican state ticket, for he is not interested in that. It is the county ticket he wants because he made it. Its success will be his success, and every vote that he can run it ahead of the boss' state ticket will be just that much glory and that much gratification for him.
It is none of our particular business, but we can't help smiling at the gall of the boss who will kick and crowd and abuse those who put him upon his feet and after he has belittled them all he can and denounced them to the public as unworthy of respect or trust, brazenly turns around and says: "Now good fellows, we can harmonize by your turning in and doing just what I tell you. I need your help for a while and it will fix me to beat you easier the next time. Come on and work, that's what is wanted now."

Possibly there are those among the "political nobodies" who will do so, and it is possible there are those who will not.
—The Philadelphia Times has undertaken the laudable work of raising funds for the purpose of erecting some kind of a memorial to Col. ALEXANDER HAWKINS, of the "fighting Tenth," who died on his way home from Manila. It is the intention to make it distinctively a Pennsylvania tribute to the memory of the gallant hero of two wars and it will doubtless meet with an enthusiastic response. While the memory of Col. HAWKINS will live as long as there shall be anything of history for the United States, without a shaft of bronze or granite being erected to perpetuate it, it is but proper that such a shaft be raised so that "he who runs may read" and the patriotic deeds of the Pennsylvania hero be kept ever fresh in the minds of men. The Times' undertaking is most opportune. Now is the time to raise the memorial, when the valiant conduct of Col. HAWKINS and his beloved men is being rehearsed in every house in the State.

Another Call for Soldiers.
Preparations Being Made for it at War Office—More Are Needed in Tropics. Suggestions From Brooke, For Bringing Home Some of the Troops Now in Cuba Are Under Consideration of Secretary Root—It May Be Deemed Advisable to Reinforce the Army of General Otis—The Letter Won't be Succeeded by Lawton.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Secretary Root has under consideration the question of calling for volunteers. While he has not decided definitely to do so, preparations are being made for the call should it be decided to issue it when the thirteenth regiment now being organized are completed. It is said that additional troops may be needed to relieve those who have served some time in the tropical countries. It is also suggested that it may be deemed advisable to increase the army of General Otis. Secretary Root has under consideration suggestions from Gen. Brooke for bringing home some of the troops now in Cuba. It has been practically determined to have five battalions sent to the United States.
The War Department cabled General Otis, asking if it was desirable to have an emergency ration for the Philippines. The reply came back in a dispatch from Chief Commissary Bernhard, at Manila, to General Weston, asking for 100,000 emergency rations in wrappers. It is probable that General Otis thinks it well to have the ration on hand, in case the army should move beyond the point of immediate requisition when the campaign in the Philippines begins.
General Shafter has notified the War Department that the transport Morgan City sailed from San Francisco on Friday afternoon for Manila, with Major Wittich, Twenty-first infantry; Chaplain Swift, Lieutenant Swift, Assistant Surgeon Davis, signal corps; Cassin, Fourth; Bates, Twenty-fifth; Conger, Eighteenth; Hurst, Third infantry; one acting assistant surgeon, two hospital corps men, two contract nurses, twelve members of signal corps, four enlisted casuals from Presidio, and recruits as follows: Cavalry, Fourth, four; infantry, Third, two; Fourth, seven; Sixth, two; Ninth, three; Thirteenth, three; Fourteenth, 264; Sixteenth, three; Eighteenth, 174; Nineteenth, one; Twenty-second, seven, and Twenty-third, 178.

The number of enlistments on Friday was 410, leaving 523 more to complete the ten regiments. It was expected that the enlistments yesterday would fill the quota. Four regiments have not yet been filled. They are the Twenty-ninth, at Fort McPherson; the Thirty-second, at Fort Leavenworth; the Thirty-third, at Fort Sam Houston, and the Thirty-fifth, at Vancouver barracks.
It is not believed that any immediate change will be made in the supreme command in the Philippines, though one may come later. It will be from Otis to Lawton, however. Lawton is regarded as a splendid fighter, but it is considered that he is better as an executor than as a planner of campaigns. Moreover, to supersede Otis with a junior officer would be a humiliation which the president would never consent to visit upon him.
The president's reluctance to interfere may be better understood when it is known that there has reached him through diplomatic channels information which has led him and other members of the administration to believe that Aguinaldo is making his last play, and that the war will be over by Nov. 1st.

Veterans Have the Right of Line.
They Are to Be Given a Post of Honor at the Tenth's Reception
PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 14.—Soldiers of the Mexican and Civil Wars will be given the right of line in the parade in honor of the return of the Tenth Regiment, August 28th. The members of the parade and band committee met this afternoon in the mayor's office. They decided that the parade shall consist of the Veteran Corps of the various regiments of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Union Veteran Legion, the Veteran Corps of the Spanish War, First Regiment and other National Guard Pennsylvania organizations are invited guests.
The following resolutions were passed: "As a recognition of the service of the Loyal Legion, G. A. R., and the Union Veteran Legion during the Civil War, giving the best years of their lives to the preservation of the Union, and their efforts in instilling their spirit of patriotism into the young men of this country, that they be given the right of line in the formation of the parade given in honor of the Tenth Regiment, P. V. I., upon their return from the Philippines."
Major-General George H. Snowdon and staff will be asked to participate in the escort. A suggestion has been made to entertain the First and other visiting regiments in the Duquesne Garden. The committees in charge of the home-coming, of the arrangements of reception details, etc., will have daily conferences this and next week.

Three persons were killed.
By the Lebanon Valley Express. Near Wernersville Tuesday—Bodies Were Terribly Mangled.
READING, Aug. 15.—Franklin Hassler, aged about 33 years, son of the proprietor of the Highland house, above Wernersville, and two lady guests, Hilda H. and Gertrude Fleischman, of Harrisburg, aged 30 and 22 years, respectively, whom he was driving to the station thence to go to Reading for a day's outing, were killed at 10 o'clock this morning by the Lebanon express near that place. It is stated that Mr. Hassler was warned not to cross, but he thought he could make it, when the train came along fifty miles per hour. The horse was killed, carriage wrecked and all three instantly killed. The bodies were terribly mangled, being dragged for some distance. Hassler was hard of hearing. A large number of people saw the accident, and were horror-stricken.

Soldiers in Jail.
Camp Meade Volunteers Proved Disturbing Elements in Harrisburg.
HARRISBURG, Aug. 15.—Camp Meade soldiers have been behaving so badly here that Mayor Fritchey has determined to put a stop to their disorderly conduct. Some of them have been sent to jail for 30 days and three have been held for trial for assault and battery on several persons on Saturday night. There was a dozen fights last night in which soldiers figured.

Mrs. Langtry the Bride of an Heir to Title.
LONDON, Aug. 15.—Mrs. Lily Langtry, known the world over as the "Jersey Lily," has taken another husband, and the news has just leaked out after nearly a month.

The actress was married July 27th, at the island of Jersey, to Hugo Gerald de Bathe, 28 years of age, the eldest son of Sir Henry Percival de Bathe, Bart., a retired general and Crimean veteran. The ceremony was private, the only witness being Mrs. Langtry's daughter. The Prince of Wales is said to have been in the confidence of the pair, and he sent them a telegram of congratulations. The wedding occurred the day "Mr. Jersey's" (Mrs. Langtry's) horse Mermaid won the Goodwood cup.
Sir Henry de Bathe has seats in Devonshire, Sussex and County Meath, to which the bridegroom is heir. Sisters of the bridegroom are married to Harry McCalmont, Harry Lawson and Sir Saville Brinton Crossley, Bart.

The wedding will not interfere with Mrs. Langtry's forthcoming season at the Haymarket.
"Yes, it is quite true I am married to Mr. de Bathe," Mrs. Langtry said during an interview at the theatre. "The wedding occurred very quietly at my old church, St. Saviour's, island of Jersey, where my dear old father officiated so often.
It was pretty much in the nature of a runaway match, as we kept it to ourselves, hoping it would leak out gradually. I see the papers put me down as 47 years old. Well, a few years either way does not matter; but I am only 39, for the old clerk at St. Saviour's took my age from the church register of bits.
"I know nothing of Hugo's estate. I have not been there yet. The newspapers, as a rule, do not spare me, and have often criticized me when I did not deserve it. The very idea of newspaper comment makes me nervous. I hope the newspapers will speak nicely of our wedding, now that the news has leaked out.
"The Prince of Wales was, as he always is, thoughtful. He remembered us kindly by congratulations. But I am sorry his name was mentioned, as what he did was done privately and out of pure friendship.
"Mr. Frobenius is arranging with me for an American tour. I long to go, for I love the people of that country. Of course my husband will accompany me."

Thousands Lost Their Lives in the Hurricane Sweep.
The Ponce District Submerged—In Some Towns Only a Few Buildings Were Left Standing—In One Province 2,000 People Lost Their Lives—Storm on Our Own Sea Coast.
SAN JUAN DE PORTO RICO, August 4.—Reports of terrible loss by the hurricane occurred here. A report from one of our men now said that there were 200 or 300 killed during the storm. Arroyo is completely destroyed, only four houses being left standing. At Guayama three brick houses are all that are left standing. There were fifteen casualties there. At Cayenne thirty-one persons have been buried in the city, and it is estimated that 2,000 were drowned in the Ponce district.
One hundred persons are reported to have been killed on a coffee plantation. Playa, the port of Ponce, a town of 5,000 inhabitants, was completely destroyed, and on the night of the storm there were four feet of water in the streets of Ponce itself. Yaguajay, west of Ponce, was destroyed, with great loss of life, together with its port, Guanica.

SAVANNAH, Ga., August 14.—There has been a downpour of rain here to-day and the wind has been blowing in gusts. At Tybee, on the coast, it is now blowing about forty miles an hour. The storm is believed to be east of Jacksonville, Fla., and it is thought the hurricane will reach this port. There has been no damage done here and none is reported from Brunswick or intermediate points along the coast.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., August 14.—Remnants of the West Indian hurricane struck here early this morning, bringing with it a very high tide. The velocity of the wind was about forty miles an hour. No damage of any importance was done here and none is reported from St. Augustine, Pablo Beach, or any of the seaside resorts. The rain continues at this place, but the wind has fallen.

Murdered for Gold and Body Buried From Bridge Far Below in Creek.
FRANKLIN, Pa., Aug. 14.—The body of Wilbur Beggs, aged 29 years, was found in French creek, near this city, this evening. On the man's head were several scars, and it is believed that he was killed for the purpose of robbery, and his body thrown into the creek.
Beggs was employed as an oil well pumpjack near Franklin, and at midnight on Saturday he started to walk home, taking the road which runs along the creek. A bridge on this road also crosses the stream. It is thought that Beggs was waylaid on this bridge.
The theory of the murder and robbery is strengthened by the fact that the man was to be drawn to the gaol, $35, that night. He did not do so, however. No money was found upon the man's person, and it is not known whether he had any or not. The inquest will be held to-morrow.

Hobson Heard From.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—Naval constructor Richard Pearson Hobson, was heard from by the navy department to-day for the first time at any length since he was assigned to duty in charge for the Spanish ships raised from Manila harbor and now undergoing repairs at Hong Kong. His report is interesting, dealing in general questions, such as the need of a large dock yard in the Orient, the increasing shipping at Manila which succeed Hong Kong as the emporium of the East, the value of Chinese labor in all branches of industry, etc. He says the three Spanish ships which are completed will be worth to the government about $510,000. The raising and refitting has cost about $300,000. He contemplates trying to raise three more Spanish vessels now at the bottom of Manila bay.

Letter of John Howard Bigham.
Written at San Fernando, Island of Luzon, in Philippines June 28th and 29th.—He Intends to Come Home.—He Says, "We are Getting Our Men Shot, But are Not Gaining any Ground.—The Prospect is Anything But a Pleasant One.—Mr. Bigham Expects to Be in Altoona, Where His Parents Reside, Before Christmas."
John Howard Bigham, acting hospital surgeon, United States army, writes under date June 28th and 29th to his parents Mr. and Mrs. James R. Bigham, Altoona, from San Fernando, Philippine Islands. After telling of the poor quality of meat furnished the soldiers, the intense heat and the rainy season, which had just set in, Steward Bigham says in his letter to his mother: "I do not know if I told you that I was transferred from the First Nebraska Volunteer infantry and put in charge of the ambulance train of the Second division. We have six ambulances and can carry twenty-four wounded men on litters, or over double that number sitting up. We have twenty-five head of ponies and mules. We use four in an ambulance. You ask if I am going to enlist. Well, I did intend to but life in the Philippines is too rich for me. A job somewhere in the Altoona shops will be good enough for me when I get home, before Christmas. The natives started to lay us out, one morning recently. They had us surrounded and evidently thought they would take dinner in our camp. Well, eighty-four of them were buried by our prisoners before sundown. Our general allowed the peace-loving natives in the town to see the number slaughtered. It had a good effect upon them. Thirteen of our boys were killed and twenty-six wounded. General Hale reported that no fewer than 300 natives were killed that day. I have had the pleasure of being under fire several times and I noticed that each deadly missile had its own voice.
In the letter to his sister Steward Bigham says: "I don't know what the people at home say, but if the people only knew the way the United States soldiers are clothed and fed—the marching and fighting—they would try to give the soldiers better treatment. Most of the volunteer regiments are being sent home and nothing happens I shall be home on my birthday. Now and then a soldier is brought in dead or wounded; now and then a native. Such is life in the Philippines. One day without meat and food the next day with it. They fatten us like hogs and then with a streak of wind a streak of lean. We are within a few miles of the mountains to which the natives have retreated. The natives come down to their trenches and blaze away at us until we drive them out. But in a few days they come back, and we have the same thing to do over again. We are getting our men shot, but are not gaining any ground. The prospect is anything but a pleasant one."

The Truth Grows Steadily Worse.
From the Venango Spectator.
The apparently truthful reports that are now coming in make a worse showing of American fatalities than have heretofore been received from Manila. A full list sent to the Seattle Times of fatalities up to June 2nd aggregating 738. The list comprises 23 officers and 713 privates. Sixteen of the officers were killed in action, and 294 privates died of wounds. The balance died from fever, smallpox, dysentery, etc., and 7 committed suicide.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, G. W. Rumberger, during the past week:
George F. Seanson, of Linden Hall, and Mary J. Glasgow, of Tusseyville.
Miles Clayton Meckley and Kate Lutz, both of Benner Twp.
William H. Hill and Clara Bowes, both of Bellefonte.
—The thunder storm that passed over Bald Eagle valley on Thursday afternoon had trouble in it for James Gray, who lives about two miles northeast of Milesburg. A bolt of lightning struck his house. A rain into the chimney, passing along to the stove, which was demolished and the house set afire. A little girl in the house had her legs badly burned from the knees down and a little boy was stunned. Fortunately the rest of the inmates were not affected and were able to put the fire out before any considerable damage had been done.
—Mrs. Robert Haynes, of Snow Shoe, has moved to Altoona where she intends to keep a boarding house. Mrs. Haynes is one of a family of noted housekeepers and although it is many years since she and Mr. Haynes presided at the Mountain house in Snow Shoe the memory of their good dinners and gracious hospitality is still fresh about here. And in going to Altoona Mrs. Haynes can feel assured that she has made no mistake, for she is splendidly equipped for the business and thoroughly capable of a larger field.

PUTTING ON RUBBER TIRES NOW.—So far as we have been able to learn the repair shops at the McQuiston & Co. carriage works in this place are the first to turn out an old job fitted up with the new rubber tires.
Last Thursday afternoon L. H. McQuiston, the boss blacksmith, put a new set of rubber tires on a road wagon for liveryman Geo. Beezer and when the job was done it looked as perfect as if it had just been turned out at the factory. The wagon had previously had steel tires and the feat of putting on rubber was difficult, because it was wholly experimental, but it proved even more of a success than was expected. The Morgan and Wright tires were used and the job looked so trim when completed that the firm had booked a number of orders within a few hours.
Rubber tires can be put on any kind of a vehicle at McQuiston & Co's. It is not necessary to purchase new wheels.

THE BELLEFONTE ACADEMY.—It will be news of great interest to the many friends and patrons of the Academy to learn that the prospects for the year commencing Monday, September 11th, are brighter than for many years past. A larger number of students than usual will be in attendance in every department and more teaching force will be employed than heretofore, in order to give special attention this year to the intermediate work. The other departments of the Academy will receive their customary thorough attention.
We are pleased to announce that the principal of the school and some of the patrons have had the pleasure, this summer, of meeting Miss Carrie Alice Lawrence, who is to succeed Miss Reed as lady principal. They are unanimous in the conviction that the Academy has secured a prize. Miss Lawrence, a graduate of Cornell University, is a lady of very prepossessing appearance, charming personality and exceptional refinement. To an inherited culture she has added a very high degree of scholarship. She has recently been lady principal of a woman's college in Georgia. The president of that institution testifies that her success as a teacher and disciplinarian has been phenomenal and that the position she has just left is open to her indefinitely. Surely the patrons of the Academy, as well as all of our citizens interested in the cause of education, will gladly welcome into our midst a woman of such character and attainments.
Mr. Hughes and his son James are to be congratulated upon securing such an acquisition to the faculty.

THE DEVONDE STOCK COMPANY.—It has been almost two weeks since the Chester Devonde stock company began rehearsing their season's repertoire at Garman's, in this place, and in that time the seventeen members of the organization have made many friends, not alone through their clever artistic efforts but also because of the unassuming dignity with which they have commingled themselves while here.
The company is headed by Mr. Chester Devonde, a very striking young actor, whose face and physique make him almost the ideal stage creature. That he has marked talent and is clever in the finer comedy roles as well as forcible in the dramatic ones need no better testimony than his work in the bills already presented.
Mr. Devonde has surrounded himself with a remarkably well balanced company, people capable of giving him the support he requires and in such admirable conception of their work that there does not appear to be such an unfortunate contrast between the star and his company as is so frequently the case.
Since being here they have presented "Ten Ton Door" and "Shadows," two very clever bits of work from Mr. Devonde's own pen and last night "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" was put on. It is a very original outburst by the Devonde company and with the wealth of scenery they carry for the production it was effective in the extreme. The entire company showed itself to the best possible advantage and the work of last night, if continued, even without the improvement that is certain, should certainly make the Devonde company highly popular as a popular price show.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.
—Mrs. Ellen Ammerman was brought to this place from Coburn on Wednesday, and lodged in jail. She is charged with desertion. She has a small child with her.
—There were 1500 people at the Hibernian picnic at Hecla park yesterday. Of this number over 700 were from Williamsport. The others were from Jersey Shore, Lock Haven, Renovo, Bellefonte and adjacent towns. Some of the representatives who journeyed on up to this place didn't know whether they were Hibernians or Orangemen.
—THE TEACHING CORPS FOR THE ACADEMY.—The Bellefonte Academy will open its fall session in all the departments on Monday, September 11th.
The mathematical department will be in charge of the principal, Rev. J. P. Hughes, assisted by Mr. James G. Wright.
The classical department will be under the care of J. R. Hughes, associate principal.
The English and modern language departments will be in charge of the lady principal, Miss Carrie A. Lawrence.
The primary and intermediate departments will be under Miss Helen E. Overton and a competent assistant. The other members of the faculty will aid in the intermediate work.

—The Logan picnic next Wednesday will practically dry Bellefonte up on that day. Everybody is going up to Hunter's park. Everybody has a big time with the Logans.
—Solomon Krider has been given the contract for carrying the mails from the stations to the post office in Mill Hall. He takes the place of A. C. Kaufman, who died recently.

—The excursion to Ocean Grove, Asbury Park and Long Branch, arranged by the Pennsylvania railroad company, for Wednesday, August 23rd, promises to be well patronized. The rates are extremely low considering the first class accommodations that will be furnished. Tickets good until September 1st, inclusive.
—While wrestling with friends on the grounds at John Waite's place, in Lock Haven, Tuesday evening Harry Wenker broke one of the bones in his leg. He did not realize the extent of his injury until after he had walked several squares home, then the pain became so great that he turned toward a physician's office and there found that his leg was broken.

—The annual reunion of the old "Bucktails" will be held in Philadelphia on September 5th, 6th and 7th instead of at Gettysburg, as was originally intended. This will make it possible for the "Bucks" to participate in the national G. A. R. encampment, as well as to be in the city for the exposition.
—The sixty-ninth anniversary of the Centre Baptist association will be held with the First Baptist church, Altoona, Wednesday and Thursday, August 30th and 31st, 1899. The introductory sermon will be preached by the Rev. S. F. Forgens, of Huntingdon; the doctrinal sermon by the Rev. Frank H. Howes, of Tyrone. For orders for excursion tickets address, with stamp enclosed, Mr. Edward Bell, Sabbath Rest, Pa.

—The will of the late Simon Harper has been entered for probate. It names Wm. B. Mingle Esq., as executor and disposes of the decedent's property practically as follows: He wills his horse, sleigh and buggy to Harry absolutely and all his household goods and personal effects to his widow. One third of the increment of the balance of his estate is to be paid to Mrs. Harper for her maintenance during life and when Harry becomes twenty-five years old he is to come into absolute ownership of the stock in the Pennsylvania bank and in the Hallman stock company.

DR. MARY THOMPSON ON THE ALTOONA HOSPITAL STAFF.—The trustees of the Altoona hospital at their last meeting elected Dr. Mary I. Thompson to membership on the medical staff of that institution. She will be made pathologist of the hospital and the new laboratory just completed will be given into her charge, as the Altoona physicians recognize in her one of the best bacteriologists in that section.
Dr. Thompson is a daughter of John I. Thompson, of Lemont, and was graduated from the Woman's medical college in Philadelphia a year ago.

—The Regimental Association of the 45th Reg., P. V. V. will meet in Philadelphia, during the G. A. R. encampment, in room A, 6th floor, Odd Fellows temple, corner Broad and Cherry streets, on the 7th of September, at 9:30 a. m. All who were members of that gallant old regiment and all members of the 9th Army Corps, are cordially invited to be present. The meeting will be an informal one, principally for the renewing of old friendships of the days of '61 to '65. The Temple is one of the finest buildings in the city, safe and swift elevators run to every floor in it. The headquarters of Co. B of the regiment will be at Central Avenue hotel, 831 Market street, which will also be the headquarters of the regiment.

A WARRIORSMARK BALL GAME THAT WAS A WONDER.—On Saturday the denizens of Warriorsmark had a ball game and before they got through with it things looked as if the entire village would be laid out.
Frank Mattern, an old State College twirler, was in the game and got hit in the eye with a ball. Over he went and, of course, the rest of the players and the audience were terror-stricken. Dr. Crawford ran to give the defunct pitcher some medical attention and before he had accomplished his end the sun got in a few good licks on the doctor and he took temporary transit into the realms of unconsciousness. Then somebody ran to get the ball, that had primarily been the cause of all the trouble and was straightway believed to be bewitched. When it was procured an effort was made to throw it clear over the mountain, but in doing so the man who threw it struck a little girl named Haggerty on the nose, knocking her off the fence onto which she had climbed for safety, and when she was picked up it was found that her olfactory organ was broken almost beyond repair. This was too much for Goethe Rabold, another of the spectators, and after giving a few very dramatic twirls he went over in a dead faint.
The mayor of the village was about to telegraph to the Governor of the State for aid for the stricken populace, but a liberal application of Malena brought things around in ship shape again and while there are yet traces of disfigurement Warriorsmark is still in the ring.
