

Bellefonte, Pa., Oct. 6, 1899.

Correspondents .- No communications pul ished unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

Nittany valley.

pushed right along. -G. W. Wolf has moved his saw mill from Woodward to Fiedler.

-The first real killing frost in this section occurred on Sunday night.

-Bellefonte had the first snow squall of the season on Saturday morning.

club.

----George Sims went up to State College Tuesday morning, to act as rubber for the foot ball team at that place.

-Street commissioner Joel Johnson has cleaned Logan street up until it is one of the tidiest looking thoroughfares in Bellefonte.

---Contractor Samuel Gault is building the new school house at Port Matilda on which the Bells are doing the masonry and brick laving.

---Dr. Thos. Tobin, formerly of this place, has purchased the Mrs. A. A. Ross farm, near Warriorsmark, but will only manage it from his Tyrone office.

dispose of.

to Miss Clara Olmstead at noon yesterday. Harrison administration and was reappoint-The wedding took place at the bride's home in Emporium.

-Four cars containing crushed stone ran off the track of the Bellefonte Central R. R. at the glass works on Tuesday morning and brought traffic on that line to a stand still for awhile.

- Eighteen couples were present at a surprise party that was greatly enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Hall, on North Penn street, on Tuesday evening. It was for their eldest son, Ellis.

the taxes here are a serious proposition.

-Bellefonte and Spring township poor tax should be reduced to a minimum furnished us by one of the responsible resithis winter. There is plenty of work for dents of Rebersburg and not as fact. all who will work and the overseers ought to see to it that all who are able do work.

play the eleven in that place and were de- they transacted was about as follows: feated by the score of 11 to 0. The boys say injured.

-C. H. Murray Esq., formerly of Centre Hall, and later a law student with Jno. M. Dale Esq., in this place, has located permanently in Denver, Colorado, where he hopes the rare atmosphere will benefit his impaired lungs.

---On Monday the first kiln of 125,000 yard in South Philipsburg. Most of the brick will be used on an addition, 58x80 ft. that is being built to the Platt, Barber & Co., wholesale grocery in that place.

was given as a "farewell," as the family the expense you have been put to.

in a critical condition.

-Cards have been issued for the marriage of Miss Marion Edith Musser, a daughter of Samuel D. Musser Esq., of 339 Monroe Ave., Scranton, to Paul D. Sheffer. of this place. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride on Thursday, Oct. 12th. Miss Musser has frequently visited in Bellefonte.

-The Bellefonte Academy and Altoona High school foot ball teams will play on the glass works meadow tomorrow, Saturday, afternoon. The Academy boys have been practicing hard for several weeks and will give the doughty visitors as hard a game as they will care to get into. An admission of 25cts. will be charged.

TROUBLE.—William S. Miller, postmaster Commissioner McLeod, in that city, on paid and council adjourned. Tuesday, on charges of opening, reading and examining mail matter passing through his hands. The charges were preferred by -Quail are said to be very plenty in Harry T. Gregory, a postoffice inspector.

At the hearing Mr. Miller was represent--Work on the match factory is being ed by ex-Congressman Hicks, while Inspector Gregory looked after the interests of the government.

Inspector Gregory testified that numerous complaints have been received in regard to mail matter having been tampered with at the Rebersburg postoffice. He also testified as to the manner in which he had entrapped postmaster Miller, by ap--Saturday will be the second annual prehending a letter at Centre Mills, the "Farmers' Day" at the Nittany country next postoffice. The letter had beeen delayed a day after having been posted, and when it came into the hands of the ins pector it bore fresh mucilage. Inspector Gregory was handicapped in his work of investigating the case by the defendant learning of his presence in the vicinity of Rebersburg and so was on his guard. Postmaster George W. Diehl, of Centre Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Miller, of 1385 N. Nineteenth street, Philadelphia, also testified. Commissioner McLeod held the defendant in the sum of $500 for his a ppearance at the March term of United States court at Scranton.

The arrest of postmaster Miller created quite a sensation in Rebersburg, where he its output from eight to fifteen cars of coal enjoys a very excellent reputation as a citi- a day. -Morris Furey expects to harvest 500 zen. He was accompanied to Altoona by bushels of hand picked apples from the or- T. E. Royer, who went on his bond, and chard on the Burnside farm, below town. he also carried with him the assurance He will have equally as many wind falls to from county superintendent C. L. Gramley that he would hold himself in readiness -Frank T. Beers, chemist of the to render whatever assistance was needful. Bellefonte furnace company, was married Mr. Miller was postmaster under the ed about four months after the inauguration of President McKinley. He has been considered a careful official and this trouble was a great surprise to most of the people in that community.

It is said to have had its origin in a gen tleman had moved to Philadelphia and his address was not known to the post- Misses Pearl. master the latter sent the letter to Walter's father, H. H. Miller, who lives in Rebersburg, to be properly addressed for forward-The Daily News is sending up a strong ing. The letter was returned and sent to one hundred additional men will be replea for tenant houses. Bellefonte needs its proper place, but in the handling it cruited so as to make up for some objecthouses for mechanics and others in the had been torn or mutilated so as to give ionable material that will be weeded out worst kind of a way, but then you know the impression that it had been tampered of the regiment. with.

We publish this story only as it was

AT THE COUNCIL MEETING.—There were -The Bellefonte High school foot ball only six members of council present at the team went to Philipsburg on Saturday to meeting Monday night and the business

Upon request of F. P. Green for a grade they had a good time, though it was a little for a crossing between his property and that of George Van Tries, on Linn street, -J. C. McCloskey had his left foot that would not necessitate an offset, the crushed and strained while at work on the matter was referred to the Street committee shifting engine at Morris Buffalo Run kilns with power to act and instructions to make on Thursday. He fell off the car, with the things right, as council had been responsiresult that his foot was caught and badly ble for the bad grade of the Green pave- in fine millinery. ment. Here's a pretty state of affairs, to be sure. The idea of council being responsible for an irregular grade when the borough has had a professional engineer for town was made at a cost of several hundred formity and grading has been going on as brick was fired at Stine's new red brick adopted. Witness, the crossing at Aikens' corner which seems to have been built more for the purpose of giving the idea that the earth is round than for any special conformity to an established grade. We would it crashed into Vail's swinging sign and fell, The Misses Bessie and Minnie advise every person who lays a pavement stunned, to the pavement; striking Mrs. Greninger, daughters of A. M. Greninger, in Bellefonte to ask and procute a grade Alfred Jones. She picked the bird up and of Howard street, entertained a number of from council before it is laid, then if it is carried it into their store, where it soon their friends on Friday evening. The party changed bring suit against the borough for expect to move to Philadelphia in a short J. A. Fink binder appeared and asked for an investigation of the cause of a stream of it effectually. -The Bellefonte friends of former water gushing from the hill side back of his prothonotary W. F. Smith will be glad to photograph gallery and making itself a nuiknow that he has so far recovered his sance to him. Council decided that the health as to be able to take short walks water comes from cess pools on the street out of doors. The report came from his above it and ordered the water superintendhome in Milheim at one time that he was ent to notify property holders along north Spring street to put an end to the nuisance by stopping the waste of water or it would be shut off entirely in five days.

> On complaint of citizens of west Howard street that the borough water is too hot for use Capt. Taylor, Supt. of the steam heat service, explained that the water is not heatthat the east Howard street sewer overflows at Howard and Allegheny streets, and that steam heat people, but it is hoped that they it all had been missed. are on a fair way to obviate any further inconvenience. Under the head of miscellaneous busi -Adjutant W. F. Reynolds of the 5th ness the county commissioners offered to raised within a few miles of Philipsburg, and Samuel Mattern, all of whom reside in Reg., has been detailed to conduct the electreet the superstructure of a bridge over died at the home of her son George, in that this county except David, whose home is tion that will be necessary to chose a suc- Logan's Branch at the Phœnix mills, if the place, on Saturday night. • She had been ill in Huntingdon county. cessor to Lt. Geo. L. Jackson, now of the borough will put in the abutments. If an for quite a while with dropsy, so that her 47th Reg. The election will be held this iron bridge is erected there let council see death was not unexpected. Mrs. Flegal evening at 8 o'clock and will be more of a to it that the drive way is full street width was nearly seventy nine years old and formality than anything else, for 2nd Lt. and that there are walks on both sides. The through the long period of sixty-nine years Chas. Taylor will be moved up to 1st grade | South side of Willowbank street is not built | she was a member of the Methodist church. | feet of a complication of troubles. She was and 1st Serg. Philip Garbrick will be rank- up very well at that place, but that is no Her husband survives her with a number born at Huntingdon, May 6th, 1836, and since her marriage, last Tuesday, has been ened with the commissioned staff thereafter. reason for sticking up a narrow, cramped of children. Funeral services were held in Both men are popular and competent sol- little bridge that will be no sooner com- the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon 1854; he having died in 1883. Deceased diers and that accounts for the unanimity pleted than its folly will be apparent. The and interment was made in the Philipsof sentiment in favor of their election. Undine engine company was voted its an- burg cemetery.

THE REBERSBURG POSTMASTER IN qual appropriation of $200 and the Logans were given their $250. It was ordered that at Rebersburg this county, was arrested at a sample of the spring water be sent to Dr. his home in that place on Monday evening G. G. Pond, at State College, for analysis. and taken to Altoona the next morning, by The borough treasurer reported a balance deputy United States Marshal John Roe. of $8,304.05 due him on Oct. 2nd, and then He was arraigned before United States bills to the amount of $665.02 were ordered

> -The Millheim band was the musical attraction at the Lewisburg fair on Friday. -The rebuilt Lock Haven furniture

-Aaronsburg farmers are hauling potatoes to Coburn for shipment at 30 cts factory began operations on Tuesday morn-

-A public school teachers local institute will be held in the school building at Mill Hall tomorrow.

- Mrs. Jennie Betts Hartswick, of Clearfield, is on the list of contributors for the Century Magazine.

-Hon J. N. Casanova has left Philipsburg to return to Cuba for the winter. He has extensive sugar plantations on the island.

Harvey Graeme Furbay, late of the Tyrone Presbyterian church. -David Atherton, who has lately purchased the Colorado mine No 3, near Philipsburg, is making arrangements to increase --- The chestnut crop is reported to be poor in the vicinity of Moshannon. While the nuts are quite small in most other sections there are apparently plenty of

-- The Gus sun rising ministrels that were booked for Garman's last night did not appear because manager Garman canceled their date, on hearing that they are not up to his standard.

-Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beck, of St. Johnsbury, Vt., with their two sons, are letter that arrived at the Rebersburg of- among the latest newcomers to Bellefonte. fice addressed to W. G. Miller. As that They will occupy the apartments on South day morning. Allegheny street, recently vacated by the

-The 47th Reg., now recruiting at Camp Meade, is reported to be full, but

-Rev. Horace Lincoln Jacobs, now at the first Methodist church in Altoona, but formerly in Tyrone, has been asked to transfer to the Fowler Memorial church in Minneapolis. Bishop Fowler has made the request and offers him $2,500 salary. He is undecided what to do.

The millinery opening at Joseph Bros. & Co's store, on Oct. 10th and 11th, promises to be one of the most attractive events for shoppers that has been announced for some time. Miss Etta Stohlenger, of New York, is their head trimmer and some of the exhibits she will have to make are said to be real revelations

---Abram Sharpless Valentine, a son of Evan M. Valentine, of Philadelphia, was married to Miss Caroline M. Hazeltine in years. Some time ago a special map of the Philadelphia on Wednesday. The ceremony was performed at the home of the dollars with the sole view of having uni- bride's father, Charles Field Haseltine, house and went to work that morning in 1707 Spruce St., at noon. The groom is a indifferently since as before the grades were nephew of Harry and A. S. Valentine of this place and is well known here.

-Recently a pheasant flew along the main business street of Philipsburg until revived. Several years ago a pheasant flew into a plate glass window in one of I. V. Grav store rooms in Philipsburg; smashing

-In a recent letter A. J. Gardner pertinently inquires why we are sending missionaries to India, China and Japan when our brethren in Clearfield county are evidently so sorely in need of their good offices. He cites the recent abnormal number of criminal cases before the court as ground on which to base the belief that Clearfield county is ripe for some missionary effort.

-We are gratified to observe that one gentleman has returned from the great ed by the proximity to the steam pipes, but Dewey demonstration in New York who and James, of Stormstown. Burial was acknowledges that he didn't see Dewey. We refer to Geo. W. McGaffey Esq., of that overflow becomes heated by the steam | Philipsburg, who is a hero himself for havpipes and then follows the water pipes, ing undergone such discomforts as that heating their contents. The trouble has crowd must have made all suffer and yet been a great nuisance to both water and acknowledge that the one compensation for

----Mrs. David Flegal, who was a daughter of Jacob Gearhart and was born and

WM. H. PAGE EXPIRES SUDDENLY .-This community was greatly shocked when the announcement was made on Friday that Wm. H. Page had died very unexpectedly at his home on north Allegheny street about one o'clock that morning. While he had been in delicate health for some time and was under a physician's care for a few days previous he did not leave his duties at Sechler & Co's store in consequence of it closing hour Thursday night. While walking home Mr. Page suffered severe twinges in his heart and later in the evening he called on his physician to consult him concerning it. He was no worse when retiring and no more was thought of the trouble until he called Mrs. Page, complaining of the heart pains again. She realized that his condition was extremely critical and went at once for Dr. Hibler, who responded as promptly as possible, but

and was at his place of business up to the ere he reached the house his patient was beyond medical help.

Mr. Page was about 58 years of age and was born in New York State. Some twenty-three years ago he located in Bellefonte, coming here from Williamsport. He, with a Mr. Strait, embarked in the manufacture of kegs and shingles. He retired from this business later and entered the mercantile lines. For the past seventeen years he -Mrs. Helen C. Furbay has been has been in the employ of Sechler & Co., granted a divorce from her husband Rev. and his strict integrity, honest business transactions, genial and pleasant demeanor at all times, won for him the respect, confidence and esteem of all citizens. He was a regular attendant of the Lutheran church and his upright life and consistent habits indicated a christian spirit. Mr. Page is survived only by his widow; the children (two) who blessed their union having died in youth. During his long life in the mercantile business in Bellefonte he became acquainted with many people throughout the graduates in medicine. county who learned to like him because of his fair and honest dealings.

> Funeral services were held at his late home at 12:30 on Saturday Rev. T. Levan Bickle, pastor of the Reformed church, conducted the services which were quite largely attended. The pall bearers were Messrs tions in the western part of the State in his C. T. Gerberich, Hammon Sechler, Clement Dale and H. Y. Stitzer. The remains were taken to Williamsport on the 1:43 train, where the interment took place Mon-

JOHN T. HALL .- John T. Hall, who many years ago was an influential citizen of Bellefonte and a son of one of the pioneer residents of the town, died at Tyrone on Friday morning, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Carrie Hardie.

He was born in this county eighty two years ago and resided here for quite a while, the original Hall home having been a little house that stood on the present site of the east Bishop street, while the others were at the Edison Electric Co's building on Lamb Armor home on east Linn street. street. Mr. Hall was employed at the old the Pennsylvania railroad. He remained Knoxville. in the employ of that corporation, gaining ployers with each succeeding year, for 20 a life of ease for the past five or six years.

Mr. Hall was a brother of Mrs. Priscilla Bell, of Howard street, this place; a cousin | Tuesday, for a short visit before going on to of John Furey, Pleasant Gap, and of Mrs. Barbara Rankin. His remains were inter-

AN OLD RESIDENT GONE.-Joseph Creek, who was 70 years old, suddenly expired while at the dinner table on Tueshis usual health. When at dinner he made several joking remarks about his daughter, then said he did'nt feel well and fell forward and died.

He is survived by two sons and three daughters. -Naucy Keckler, who was for years a esident of Bellefonte and one of the best known characters here, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Franklin Shuey, at Rock Forge, on Monday morning. She was 55 years old and was buried on Tuesday afternoon from the Shuey home. Nancy lived in the little old McClure house that stood on the west side of south Spring street, just south of Bishop, when she was a resident of Bellefonte.

-The death of Mrs. Henry Stevens occurred at her home at Stormstown, on Monday evening, after a short illness with dysentery. She was 75 years old and is survived by her husband and the following children: Abednego, Blair and Lloyd, of Clearfield county; George of Martha Furnace; Vinton, of Julian; Mrs. Charles Blake made on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

---- Mrs. Elizabeth Krider, who was a daughter of the late John Mattern, of Half Moon, died at her home near Warriorsmark on Monday morning, at the age of 72 years. She was the widow of the late Joseph Krider. Interment was made at Warriorsmark Wednesday morning. Mrs. Krider was a sister of Jacob, David, Miles, George

-Mrs. Louisa Givler, whose maiden name was McMurtrie, died at her home in Tyrone on Saturday morning from the efwas married to Louis Givler on June 27th.

News Purely Personal.

-Mrs. Mary Burchfield, of Philipsburg, is visiting at the home of her brother, J. D. Shugert, on west Linn street. -Miss Susie Collins, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her aunts the Misses Collins and Mrs.

Shoemaker below town. -Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crider with their daughter Miss May and Mrs. North, of Bradford, are in Philadelphia for a visit of two weeks.

-Mr. and Mrs. C. F. York, of Warriorsmark were Sunday visitors at the home of father and mother Noll, on north Allegheny street.

-Mrs. Mary E. Warfield, of Pasadena, Cal., i visiting her son Frank Warfield, general freight and passenger agent of the C. R. R. of Pa.

-A. Riest Rutt, principal of the Milton High school and formerly occupying a similar position in the Bellefonte schools, spent Sunday in town. -Miss Catharine Burrows, of Williamsport, is in own for a few days playing mother in the absence -Miss Maude Harper, of west Linn street, has

-Mrs. James B. Lane returned to her home in Philadelphia on Tuesday morning, after having spent most of the summer with friends in this eturned home for the winter. Her summer was spent at the shore and with friends in Williams

-John Henderson, of Buffalo Run, a son of the late James Henderson, started to Philadelphia Friday morning to enter Jefferson medical college for a four year's course.

-Miss Leah Daggett left for Baltimore on Monday. She has joined the army of Bellefonte young women who are away at school and will enter the Notre Dame school in that city. -Miss Sara Malin, of Howard street, is in Washington, D. C., visiting at the home of R. C. Cheesman. She went down last Friday and ex-

-Miss Louise G. Harper, of East Linn street eturned from her visit South on Saturday evening. Her entire summer was spent with friends at Radford, Va., Washington, Lewisburg and Wil liamsport. -Dr. Edith Schad has returned from Philadel phia and is once more looking after her own practice. During the six weeks she was away she was studying at the polyclinic school for

-Mr. and Mrs. John P. Lyon, of Tyrone, were in town over Sunday with Mrs. Lyon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Mitchell. They were returning from their wedding tour. They are now a home, at 1237 Lincoln Ave., Tyrone. -Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Chambers went to Pitts burg Tuesday afternoon, to be gone a week or capacity of attorney to the Auditor General of Pennsylvania. -Miss Bertha Atwood, a daughter of Orrie Atwood, of this place, has given up her position as a milliner in Philadelphia and has gone to Snow Shoe, where she will conduct a millinery department in one of the large Buddinger stores at that place. -Will McCalmont, a son of James S. McCal mont, of State College, and who proved so popular as a clerk in Green's pharmacy for several years, went down to Philadelphia last week to enter the Medico Chirurgical college to have himself made into a physician.

-The Misses Hiltner and Miss Bertha Lighter, of Tyrone, and Miss Jess Laport, of Philipsburg, were visitors in Bellefonte over Sunday. Miss Cora Hiltner was the guest of Miss Rose Fox, of

-Mrs. M. W. Jackson went to Washington, D. Bellefonte glass works when they were first | C., Wednesday morning, where she will meet Mr. put in operation and lived here until he their trip to the Bermudas and will remain at the seen in the twenty two companies recently moved to Tyrone to accept a position with capitol a few days before going to their home in relieved from service.

-Mrs. J. L. Spangler went to Philadelphia Satin the confidence and esteem of his em- urday morning to open her home there for the winter. It is just probable that, now since Alfred is at Annapolis and so few of the family are left to eat, drink and smoke occupied the atyears, when he retired and has been living in Bellefonte, the house here will be closed and tention of every one. they will all spend the winter in Philadelphia. -Mrs. Anna Woodcock went to Watsontown Chambersburg, to spend some weeks with her sister. As usual, she is going to Philadelphia for part of the winter and the remainder she will in a clothes wire over his head and struck spend in Hartford, Conn., where her son Jay is him. studying for the ministry.

-Samuel Sproul, of Mingoville, was in town on Quay, one the oldest residents of Beech | Wednesday and reports that the frosts haven't | bright boy is wanted at this office to learn left much of vegetation down that way. They had a solid freeze on Sunday night and, as Mr Sproul observed, when the grape leaves begin to fall it is a sign that Jack Frost has been getting in some very hard licks.

-John Corrigan Sr., of State College, was in town yesterday with his son John Jr., who is just | evening. nome from Cuba, where he was in the government contracting business with the quarter mas ter's department. The younger Corrigan is here to bid farewell to his parents and friends preparatory to starting to the Philippines; where he dertake similar work for the government.

-I. G. Walker, of Pine Grove, was in town on Monday looking around for a farm. He has been out of the business since he gave up that Huntingdon county farm down at Spruce Creek, two years ago, and moved back to Centre, but he has decided to go back to the fields. Mr. Walker has the reputation of being a splendid farmer and the best in the county wouldn't be too good for him to handle.

-John Beezer, who is one of the numerous Bellefonters who seem to be getting along well in Tyrone, was in town spending Sunday and Monday with his mother and friends about his old home here. John has charge of a meat market in Tyrone that is located so near Al. Garman's hotel that they keep each other company when threatened with a little of that bluish yearning for Bellefonte that they all get occasionally.

-Carpenter-farmer Richard Lutz, who is far happier on his well tilled acres below town than he was when working at his trade as a carpenter in this place, was one of our Saturday callers and while we were shivering because of the cold that day he was taking a laugh at our expense and advising us to try a seat on a house roof and keep warm shingling in 0° December weather. Of course we are not likely to try it this December. at least, but Richard is a little the worse, himself, for just such exposure. -A distinguished visitor in Bellefonte on Tues day was Frank C. Kunkle, of Homestead, Pa., who was on his way to State College, where he has entered the Sophomore class in that institution. He was a member of Co A, 10th Penna Vols. and served with the famous regiment in the Philippines. He was late in getting to College ecause of having waited to participate in the Dewey reception ceremonies in New York. Kunkle is a modest fellow but he will doubtless have the distinction of being the star student at State

-Mr. and Mrs. Peter Romeiser, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., arrived in town Saturday afternoon and spent Sunday with Mrs. Hamilton Otto Mrs. Romeiser was Miss Mable Cowdrick, daughter of Morris Cowdrick and sister of W. J. S. Cowdrick, the well known contractor now of Niagara Falls but recently of this place, and joying a series of ovations from her friends in this State. Monday they left for Tyrone to visit was a sister of Marshall McMurtrie, of this York will spend several days with relatives in Altoona and Clearfield.

-Register G. W. Rumberger went over to Philpsburg vesterday afternoon to probate a will -Miss Sadie Boalick, of north Allegheny street, s in Philadelphia for a visit. She went down on Wednesday.

-Harold Lingle, of Linn street, returned to his home in this place on Tuesday evening, after a visit of several days with relatives in Philips

-Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Gardner returned from New York, Tuesday evening, thoroughly delighted with their trip. They had a splendid view of Dewey and the great parade.

-Mrs. George VanDyke and her baby daughter, Mary Hamilton, of Ford City, near Pittsburg, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Noll, on Pine street. -Hon. Jas. K. P. Hall, of Ridgway, Congressman-elect from this district, was an arrival in town last evening and will spend part of to-day in Bellefonte. He is the guest of P. Gray Meek -While on a two day's business trip to Baltinore Geo. T. Bush took advantage of the other great George's being in Washington and ran over there in time to see the parade, sword presentation and all. -Leonard Rhone, of Centre Hall, with all the cares of the picnic lifted from his shoulders and happy because of its great success this year, was in town on Tuesday. He had been down to Milesburg to talk over Grange business with Col.

Jas. F. Weaver. -H. M. Krebs, the hustling Pine Grove Mills' carriage manufacturer, was in town yesterday afternoon, awheel, again. After eight o'clock he left home for Tyrone and reached that place for dinner, rode here in the afternoon and expected to be back for supper at home. He is almost as much of a scorcher on a wheel as he is in busi-

RESIGNED AS SUPERINTENDENT.-The many Bellefonters who have enjoyed themselves at various times at the Nittany country club will be sorry to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Sol Peck left the club on Monday and went back to their farm. As superintendent and general custodian of the club's property Mr. Peck was not only efficient. but he was popular with the members and others, alike. No more gracious or painstaking hosts could be in any resort than were the Pecks, but the work was more trying than they cared to assume for a longer period and Mr. Peck resigned his position accordingly.

The board of governors accepted his resignation with reluctance and feel deep regret at losing the service of such a capable man. Mr. Ren T. Clayton, of Williamsport, an experienced sportsman and club master, is now installed there and will doubtless contribute to the popularity of the place.

Co. M MUSTERED OUT.-Co. M, 21st Reg. N. G. P., passed into history Wednesday evening when Capt. Thos. H. P. Todd, of the 1st Reg., Philadelphia, formally mustered the company out of the regiment. Lieut Jas. Harris handed each man his discharge, as his name was called, and all were mustered out but the officers, who will receive their discharges later.

Corporal Henry C. Farner, of the 1st Reg., passed on the company property and gave the gratifying announcement that it was in the best condition of any he had

After the mustering out the boys celebrated their last night as soldiers with a true soldier smoker at which good things day W. H. Marr, of Beech Creek, knocked himself senseless with his axe. It caught

-While chopping wood last Wednes-

BRIGHT BOY WANTED .-- An ambitious, job printing and press work.

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday Flour-Winter, Per Br'l. 2.25@2.40 —Penna. Roller.... —Favorite Brands. 3.85@4.50 Baled hay—Choice Timothy No. 1... Mixed " 1..... Straw.

Bellefonte Grain Market. Corrected weekly by the PHENIX MILLING Co. The following are the quotations up to six o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes Red Wheat old Barley, per bushel....... Ground Plaster, per ton

Bellefonte Produce Markets. Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co. Potatoes per bushel new Eggs, per dozen

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Pa., at $1.50 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $2.00, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county unless paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertising by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows: 3m 6m 1y

One inch (12 lines this type. Advertisements in special column 25 per cent. Fransient advs. per line, 3 insertions. Each additional insertion, per line..... Local notices, per line....

erms—Casn.
All letters should be addressed to
P. GRAY MEEK, Proprieto