

Bellefonte, Pa., Oct. 13, 1899.

CORRESPONDENTS .- No communications pub ished unless accompanied by the real name of

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-Houses are at a premium in Belle-

----Apples are reported scarce in the vicinity of Rebersburg. -F. H. Bartges' new home in Coburn

---The Millheim lodge I.O.O.F. installed new officers on Saturday evening. -Mrs. Hugh S. Taylor entertained has been raised and is ready for the roof.

thirty ladies at a card party, at her home on east Howard street, Friday evening.

quarries with electricity, so as to enable them to work at night as well as by day. street, now owned by C. C. Shuey, which Dawson on Half-moon hill is in full bloom, notwithstanding it bore a prolific crop of Mr. Tripple was identified with the older pears this season.

---- Work on the match factory is progressing rapidly. The foundations are being pushed forward as fast as contractor Noll and his gang of masons can make them go.

---The young ladies' card club sprung into existence again Tuesday evening and the weekly sittings will doubtless continue during the winter. Miss Adaline Harris was the hostess.

There will be a special train to the foot-ball game at the College this after- Feb. 23rd, 1858; the ceremony having been noon. It will leave here at 1:30 p. m. The round trip fare, including admission to the game, will be 75 cts.

but for recent years a trusted employe of Susan Olive Kerstetter, Lewisburg; and the Platt-Barber & Co., wholesale grocery Ruth Ella, at home. in Philipsburg, is to be put on the road as a salesman for that firm.

-- C. Y. Wagner and his brother Harry Laurie, of the Presbyterian church. dissolved partnership at their Roopsburg flouring mill on Monday and hereafter the business will be conducted by Curt himself. Harry will remain at the mill until spring, 4th inst. was the eldest son of James and at least.

still raising turnips from seed furnished near Hecla park, in 1840. His widow, who him by the late Andrew G. Curtin, when was Miss Julia Muffly, an aunt of Mrs. he was in Congress. This year the turnips are unusually large and Sammy thinks they two sons and a daughter, survives him, with are about the best in the land.

---Will Marshall, a son of the late Geo. Marshall, of this place, is lying in a critical condition with typhoid fever at his home in Pittsburg. Reports yesterday were to the effect that he had been delirious for three days, but his physician thought the danger point was passed.

---John Brachbill is now employed as a clerk in the Powers Shoe Co. store. He has taken the place of Edward Greninger tho will move to Philadelphia with his parents in a few days. John is a courteous, obliging boy and it will be a pleasure for the customers of that store to have him serve them.

----While wheeling mortar on a scaffolding for the new livery barn being erected at the rear of this office John Kline made a misstep, yesterday morning, and tumbled through to the ground, a distance of 11ft. He was pretty badly shaken up, but suffered no more serious injury than the fracture of one of the bones of his left wrist.

-- The students at The Pennsylvania State College were so elated when they heard the news of their foot ball team's victory over West Point, Saturday night, that they got the band out and had a "shirttail" parade. When the team came home Monday morning the students met them at Lemont and pulled the back, themselves, over the three miles to the College.

--- The rumor that George Brown, formerly in the employ of Wm. P. Humes in this place, had been burned up in a hotel fire in Bradford last week, is untrue. Mrs. Brown had a telegram from Rev. Honesty, who is now the pastor of the A. M. E. church, in that place, on Friday, to the effeet that the unfortunate colored man was are as follows: Clerk, not less than 18 years; not her husband, but a man named William Brown, from Williamsport.

--- Corp. Jesse Underwood, of the 47th. U. S. Vols., was home from Camp Meade, yesterday on a short furlough. He looked well and spoke in satisfactory terms of the Centre county boys in it. Dick Taylor has derwood, George Sunday and Clyde Long have all been honored with the corporal's stripes. It is expected that the regiment will move from Camp Meade next Tues-

---The lawyers practicing at the Centre county bar got together on Thursday and established a rate of charges for legal service. They decided that the minimum fee for any work be $5.00 and there is likely to be "rough house" in the bar if any of them are caught cutting prices down to $1.50 and $2.00, as had been the case before the meeting. The cheapest way to keep out of the claws of this legal trust is to keep from going to law.

from his work in this place Monday even- without regard to any consideration, save ing carpenter Geo. W. Aiken ran into a car-their ability as shown by the grade they atriage team belonging to Abe Baum, the tain in the examination. liveryman, and only escaped serious injury | For application blanks (Forms 101 and by a miracle. He was on a bicycle and 119), full instructions, specimen examinarode square into the team, in fact with tion questions, and information relative to such force as to cause the breaking of the the duties and salaries of the different posicarriage pole. The bicycle was smashed to tions, apply to the secretary of the board pieces, but Aiken escaped with only slight of examiners at the post-office in this place. bruises. The accident occurred just on the south side of Milesburg.

W. S. TRIPPLE GONE.-William Smith street Friday night at 11:40 o'clock. His on Tuesday. demise was entirely unexpected, for while he had passed the seventy-ninth mile-stone he was still in fair vigor and on the last day of his life he sat on his tailor bench and worked until five o'clock in the evening at the trade that he refused to give up with his advancing years. Aside from a slight cold he had not been unwell, but there must have been a premonition of the end in his mind for Friday evening he sent for his son Charles to call and see him. The

the heart failed in the performance of its regular functions. Deceased was born at Safe Harbor, Lancaster county, December 5th, 1819. Having learned the tailoring trade when a ----McCalmont & Co. are lighting their his trade with that family almost continuously since. He built the house on High -A pear tree in the yard of Isaac at the time of its erection was about the most pretentious residence in Bellefonte. life of the town and was a type of the gentleman of the early school. He was quiet and unassuming in his manner, but remarkable in his memories when drawn into conversation. He had not been ill for forty away as quietly as he had lived among us. The first Mrs. Tripple was a Miss Whiteman, a sister-in-law of the late John Montgomery. Her death left him with one daughter, Mrs. James C. Curtin, of Curtin to Maceda D. Wilson. It occurred here performed by Dr. James Linn. Surviving this union are Mrs. Tripple and the fellowing children: Charles W., Bellefonte; Mrs. -James Stott, formerly of this place, Mary Amelia Geisinger, of Chicago; Mrs.

years and when he came to die he slipped

Funeral services were conducted at the house on Monday afternoon by Rev. Dr.

LESLIE GORDON.-Leslie Gordon, who died at his home at Topeka, Kansas, on the Mary S. Gordon, late of Bellefonte. He -- Sammy Faust, of Spring Bank, is was born on the Gordon homestead farm, Jos. L. Montgomery of this place, with his brothers Judge Cyrus Gordon, of Clearfield, and Newton, of Alaska.

> -Puella, the 13-year-old daughter of Mrs. Nancy Jane Leathers died at her mother's home, at Mt. Eagle, at 4 o'clock Sunday morning. Interment was made at 10 o'clock.

> -Ralph, the two year old son of Edard and Gertrude Zimmerman, died at parental home in Millheim on Monday. Owing to the fact that he died of diphtheria he was buried privately that same evening.

-John Zettle, who died at Jersey old and was buried Friday afternoon.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION .- Accordcivil service commission an examination of applicants for positions as carriers and clerks in the Bellefonte post office will be held in this place on Wednesday, Nov. 1st.

lowing regulations:

Only citizens of the United States may be examined.

The examination will consist of spelling, arithmetic, letter-writing, penmanship, United States, and reading addresses. The arithmetic will consist of tests in the fundamental principles, extending as far as common and decimal fractions and embracing problems.

The age limitations for this examination carrier, between 21 and 40 years. Applicants for carriers must weigh at least 125 pounds, must not be less than 5 feet 4 inches in height, and to possess the required physical qualifications. No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed in complete form already been made sergeant and Jesse Un- with the board at the post-office in Bellefonte before the hour of closing business on

Oct. 26th. 1899. order that time may remain for correction.

if necessary. ter the service, and who comply with the nickle or a dime and prefer not to break requirements; all such persons are invited their bill, then they pay for the purchase to apply, but attention is invited to the with the small coin and receive their bill is a beautiful gold medal awarded to him fact that it is the practice of the Post-Office | back, but in returning the change given | for having done the largest volume of busi-Department in making appointments to them for it they try to retain a part of it. the grades of clerk and carrier to give preference to those eligibles who are legal residents of the vicinity where the examination is held. Subject to this preference applicants will be examined, graded, and - While riding home to Milesburg certified, with entire impartiality, and

-Subscribe for the WATCHMAN.

-The rebuilt Lock Haven furniture

----W. A. Kessinger is building a livery High school team on the "Meadow." stable and undertaking establishment on his lot on Main street, Mill Hall,

-F. Asbury Holderman, for the past two years miller of the Tyrone milling company, has taken charge of Thompson's roller flouring mills at Centre Furnace.

-Daniel Bollinger, who was born at Millheim, in this county, Oct. 18th, 1818, latter assisted him to bed and shortly after | died at the home of his son, in Altoona, on he began to sink; finally passing away when | Monday. For many years he was foreman shops up there.

> ---The new instruments for the band ing plenty of fine music down there before favor of the visitors. many days.

this country only about ten years. -Owing to trouble with her throat Miss Bessie Stiver has resigned as teacher resignation is to take effect on Monday and applicants for the place will be heard by the board tonight.

street, this place. His second marriage was at breakfast at their home in Tyrone, on is a victory that augurs well for the balance through a 15x40 inch window pane, scatterpants of the room were very much frighten- for this fall. ed for a moment, but the pheasant was finally captured and placed in a cage.

> -The announcement has been made youngest son of Monroe Armor, of east Ave., Hartford, Conn., after Nov. 1st.

-Geo. C. Brungard, the Nittany valley farmer who was adjudged insane after he had burned the barn and stolen grain on the Dornblaser farm, then was discharged by the hospital and brought back to Clinton county for trial for his crimes, has been found wanting in mind again and the court bas ordered sheriff Peck to take him back to Danville.

News, on the very material improvement are quartered at the Brockerhoff house. inaugurated on Monday. Under the new | They are a husky looking lot of fellows at Curtin's Works on Wednesday morning arrangement the News runs a page of tele- and will more than likely put up a fierce started for Punxsutawney, on Saturday, for a two survive him. Interment was made at Curgraphic service and with its local budget is game. in a position to satisfy all wants now. Mr. The game will be called at 3 o'clock. A standard possible and the indications are that he will not be long in attaining it.

---The Passmore house in Philipsburg is just now the object of most of the admiration of the travelers who go to Phil-Shore last Wednesday afternoon, was a ipsburg. Last July the house was seriousnative of this county. He was 80 years ly scorched by fire and that necessitated remodeling, which has been done on a most elaborate scale. It is now about the finest finished and equipped hotel in that ing to an announcement made by the U. S. place and it is the intention of the owner to keep it right up to that standard.

-After next Monday, Oct. 16th, the Bellefonte school board intends enforcing The examination will begin at 10 o'clock the compulsory education law. Joshua a. m. and will be conducted under the fol- Folk has been elected as truant officer and it will be his duty to see that all children coming under the provisions of the act are in school. Parents would do well to see that their children are attending, as the law holds them amenable to a fine and imcopying from plain copy, geography of the prisonment for permitting children to remain away from school.

at State College this afternoon will be the Moines; Charles W. Baker, of Pender, Ne-Howard on Tuesday on a mission that had business to the Moines of Pender, Ne-Howard on Tuesday on a mission that had business to the Moines of Pender, Ne-Howard on Tuesday on a mission that had business to the Moines of Pender, Ne-Howard on Tuesday on a mission that had business to the Pender of Pende the game and while it is granted that the machine company; George G. Baker, with struggle will be a close one State is expect- Duplex type-writer company. ed to be the victor by at least twelve points. A special train will be run to the College Hiram W. Baker is 72 and his wife 70 years from here this afternoon at 1:30. The of age. The children, with the exception round trip fare, including admission to the of George, the youngest, were all born near game, will be 75 cts. ---Two young men have been endeavoring to flim-flam Clearfield county merchants recently with the old "confusing Applications should be filed promptly; in change" racket. They go into a store and. after making a five or ten cent purchase, they tender a bill in payment of same. This examination is open to all citizens After the clerk has counted out their change of the United States who may desire to en- to them they recall that they have a

-The Tyrone shoe factory, the one our astute (?) citizens turned down, ship- clover in Roman gold on which is a miniaped Wednesday last to the Soldiers' Home, ture of the dome of the home office near Dayton, Ohio, 1,600 pairs of shoes, in relief. It is hung from an enamelbeing the first invoice of the 30,000 pairs ed bar and makes a very pretty trinket, contracted for with the United States gov- aside from its business significance to Mr. ernment to be manufactured and delivered Smull. within six months, commencing October | We congratulate him on the success he 15th, 1899. Hereafter the factory will turn has had in the insurance work. out on this contract alone 200 pairs daily, aside from its other large orders from other were of excellent quality and fine make. | and Land Co.

POINTS FOR LOCAL FOOT BALL ENTHU-Tripple died at his home on north Spring factory made its first delivery of furniture SIASTS.—Bellefonte had the first foot ball Glasgo property in Coburn. game of the season last Saturday afternoon when the Academy eleven met the Altoona

> Last year these two teams played a tie near Coburn at a cost of $3,500. game and while a good contest was expected on Saturday the Academy boys did not feel sanguine, because they are weakened, this year, by the absence of Cummings and Henderson, the stars of last year's team. They put up a hard game, however, and fought every inch of the ground with the

In the first half Kelley dropped a pretty field goal from the 35yd line and that was of the railroad tinning department in the the only score made; the half closing with the ball in the Academy's possession on the Altoona 20yd line.

In the second half Farabaugh secured the

Had the victory been one of a purely Rev. William Meinecke has been local team the news that State had defeatelected to take the place of Rev. Hans ed West Point by the score of 6 to 0 could Arlt, resigned, as pastor of the Lock Haven not have created more elation in this place German Lutheran church. Rev. Meinecke than it did on Saturday night. While the was educated in Germany and has been in local admirers of the blue and white had figured it out that State would give a good account of herself on the gridiron this fall it was hardly expected that she would beof the secondary school in Mill Hall. Her gin to show her supremacy so early and in such unmistakable manner. To have defeated West Point means that the Centre county team has done something that no other team in the country has done, out-----While B. Seeger and his family were side of the "Big Four" and Annapolis. It Monday morning, a large pheasant flew of the season; since it shows to the State team that they are not out of their class in ing the glass all over the floor. The occu- any of the big games they have scheduled

Hewitt, Cure and Miller were all injured in the West Point game; the former having had his ankle so badly wrenched that he tarried in the University hospital in Philaof the marriage of George Monroe Armor, delphia until Monday night, when he returned to the College. Owing to the num-Linn street, to Miss Eleanor Duffield Ball. ber of cripples it was thought that the The ceremony was celebrated at Pough- Washington and Jefferson game scheduled keepsie, N. Y., on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. for today would have to be canceled, but of Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker for the summer. Armor will be at home at 36 Charter Oak it was not done and the finest game of the season will be witnessed on Beaver field this

The visitors are the strongest College they might carry a victory home with them: especially since State will put in a number for the games with Princeton and Annapo- this week. lis next week.

The W. and J. team, with a large crowd

Harris seems to be determined to bring the special train will leave here at 1:30, the visitor in town. He came up to spend the day with his father, whose condition is such as to Republican and News up to the highest round trip fare being 75cts, including ad-

> A CENTRE COUNTY REUNION IN THE WEST.-Last Sunday there was a family reunion at the home of Hiram W. Baker, 1320 East 13th St., DesMoines, Iowa, at which the entire twelve children were pres- the Lingles and Lukenbachs in that place, ent. It was the first reunion in ten years born at Howard, this county, the gather- town on Monday, to attend the funeral of Mr. W. friends to attend all these services. ing will be of interest to many of our read-

ure and enjoyment. Death has never invaded the ranks of this happy family and the grandchildren approximate 30. The names of the sons and daughters present on Sunday and seated at the dinner table with the father presiding at the head, while the mother took her place at the foot, are:

S. W. Baker, deputy city auditor of Des The State-W. and J. foot-ball game | county; Ed. M. Baker, mail carrier of Des

> The oldest is 49 and the youngest 28, Howard, and removed to Iowa in 1869, locating in Warren county. They have lived since that time in the vicinity of Norwalk, Cummings, and in Des Moines. George was born in Cummings.

WON THE GOLD MEDAL.—Geo. H. Smull whe went on to Philadelphia to visit her sister agent for the New York life insurance company in this district, naturally feels a little elated over a trophy that came to him a few days ago from his home office. It ness for his company, in six specified months, of any agent in Pennsylvania.

The medal is in the shape of a four leaf

----Very valuable deposits of fire clay deliver at the average rate of 5,000 pairs on the Hugh McIntire tract, along Cold Pennsylvania. He has sixty-seven institutions per month. Experts who have seen and Stream, back of Philipsburg. The prospectexamined the consignment say that they ing is being done by the Philipsburg Coal

--- Daniel Krader has bought the old

-The Harter Bros. have bought the Michael Korman farm and timberland

-C. A. Weaver has done away with "old Frank" as the motive power for his grain elevators at Coburn and has substituted a gas engine.

-Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Irene Edwilda, daughter of Mr. Henry J. Heinz, of Pittsburg, to Mr. John L. Given, formerly of Bellefonte, but now of New York. The ceremony will be performed at the residence of the bride's father, Tuesday evening, October 24th, at 7 o'clock. Mr. Given al years ago. And was also quite promirecently organized at Coburn arrived on ball and ran the entire length of the field is very well known here, the place of his young man he came here in 1838, with the Monday and have been distributed among for a touch down, from which they failed birth, and his friends will be glad to learn is a relative of the Centre county family of elder Montgomerys, and has worked at the members. Doubtless they will be havmost charming and wealthiest girls.

News Purely Personal.

-John M. Dale Esq., was in Baltimore a few days this week on legal business. -Joseph D. Mitchell was home from Lewistown to spend Sunday with his parents in this place. -Mr. and Mrs. Thos. A. Shoemaker were passengers for Philadelphia on one of the Mo

-Henry sands, of north Angeles, Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Fredericka Winner, Taylor's promotion. in Lock Haven.

-Mrs. Sue Woodin, of east Bishop street, went to Philadelphia on Tuesday, to spend the winter with her niece, Mrs. Myrtle Sikes.

ens and most prominent Democrats of Gregg township, was in town yesterday. -Dr. John F. Alexander, of Centre Hall, wa in town Tuesday afternoon. The fine weather doubtless tempted him to drive over. -Hon. J. W. Simonton, president judge of the Hugh S. Taylor put the men through their Dauphin courts, spent Sunday in town with his laughter, Mrs. Gilbert A. Beaver.

-Miss Marion Milliken departed for Philadelphia, on Tuesday afternoon. She intends making quite a long visit in the Quaker city. -Mrs. H. S. Cooper, with her daughter Emaline went to Johnstown, Tuesday afternoon, to [visit

Mrs. Cooper's father, Mr. John Morris. -Miss Marie Roder returned to her home in Baltimore on Monday. She had been the guest -James L. Hamill Esq., of Welsh, W. Va. who had spent Sunday at "Burnham" as the guest of Miss Caroline Valentine, left on Tuesday

-Miss Vinette Burrows, of Baltimore, who was team in Western Pennsylvania or Ohio and the guest of the Misses Armor, of east Linn street, while they are not expected to win to-day left for her home in the Oriole city on Monday

-Col. W. F. Reeder, of the firm of Reeder and duigley, is in Pittsburg attending to some cases of substitutes in order to save the regulars he has before the Supreme court in session there

-Wilbur F. Harris, editor and publisher of the broke his neck. He lingered only a few News, is off on a trip to Philadelphia, where he -We congratulate our neighbor, the of rooters, arrived yesterday afternoon and was a guest at the Kunkle-Emerick wedding yesterday afternoon. -Mrs. James K. Barnhart, of north Thomas > weeks visit with her parents there. -Ira D. Garman, of Philadelphia, was a Sunday

> -Miss Ella Twitmire has gone to Philadelphia o enjoy two weeks with Miss Theresa Peters. On extended stay with her sister Mrs. Pickle. -Miss Emma Montgomery, daughter of postmaster W. W. Montgomery, went to Philipsburg, elder, Lewisburg; Rev. J. A. Hollenbaugh, on Saturday, to spend a week with her relatives. -Charles Wilson, the veteran train dispatcher and inasmuch as all but one of them were of the Pennsylvania railroad at Altoona, was in

S. Tripple. Mr. Wilson is Mrs. Tripple's brothe -Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keller, of Virginia, spent Sunday at the home of Harry Keller Esq., on east The family is considerably scattered and Linn street. They had been up in Centre county job printing and press work. the reunion was an occasion of great pleas- visiting relatives about the old Keller home at Boalsburg. -James H. Keller, of Centre Hall, was in town on Wednesday on his way home from a business trip to Clearfield county. He reports business as flourishing over about Clearfield and says he would not be surprised to see it become one of Wheat-Red the most active towns in Pennsylvania ere long. -Will Walker, of Chadd's Ford, Chester county, who had been here for a few days with his brother, John S. Walker, left for his home on Moines; J. M. Baker, of Capital Park; Mrs. Tuesday. He is in the grain and implement busi. C. E. Barnard, of Oskaloosa; J. S. Baker, of ness now at Chadd's Ford, having given up his Mason City; Mrs. S. P. Arnold, of Clarke position on the Philadelphia Times, because of his

-Our old friend William Lyons was up from most interesting contest scheduled for braska; Mrs. W. T. White, of Capital Park; Howard on Tuesday on a mission that the ness and politics both mixed up in it. While he Beaver field this season. The westerners Irvin C. Baker, of Capital City laundry; is very much crippled with rheumatism just now are here with the expectation of winning | Harry M. Baker, bookkeeper McCormick | he is still able to get about and is actively interested in the success of the Democratic county ticket this fall.

-B. F. Fisher, of Philadelphia, constructing engineer for the General Electric Co., was in town between trains on Tuesday. Frank was a member of the class of '96 at The Pennsylvania State College and in his day was one of the most famous guards who ever donned the blue and

-Miss Mary Butts arrived at her home in this place Saturday night, after having been away for everal months at Winber, where she is assisting her brother Walter in the management of the new hotel in that hustling new coal town. She tarried here only until Monday morning, when Mrs. W. F. Reber. -John D. Long, of Philipsburg, was in town on Wednesday on a purely business mission. Of course he found time to talk politics a little, but his real business was to secure a number of leases of properties on the Alleghenies near the Black Moshannon where he is going to put down a number of test wells for oil and gas. Mr. Long is quite sanguine of making a success with the prospecting.

-John F. Garner, of State College, was in town on Wednesday closing up a deal whereby he becomes owner of the implements and stock formerbelonging to Newell McCalmont, who was farming the Hoy farm near that place. John was quite pleased with his purchase and intends setting up a home for himself at once. He is a prac ical fellow and knows all about farming, so that he can be looked to, to make a success of it.

-Mrs. Edward R. Chambers arrived home, Thursday, from Pittsburg, where she had been visiting for a week while her husband attended to his official work of looking over the accounts on his list and he is expected to report their financial condition twice a year but he hustles and is not absent from his law practice here

WM. I. SWOOPE Esq., MARRIED .- The Bellefonte friends of W. I. Swoope Esq., will be interested in the following clipping from a Clearfield paper of last week: from a Clearfield paper of last week:

William I. Swoope Esq., and Miss Elizabeth Hartswick, two of Clearfield's most prominent young people, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. J. M. Waddell, of the Presbyterian church, at the home of the bride's mother, on Second street, Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 4th, 1899, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. Swoope is one of Clearfield's leading young attorneys and a young man of promise, while his bride is one of the most attractive and charming young ladies of the attractive and charming young ladies of the town. The young couple start out in life with very bright prospects and their legion of friends unite in wishing them health, realth and happiness.

They left on the 7:13 P. R. R. train for an extended wedding tour and will be at home

Mr. Swoope will be remembered as a practitioner at the Centre county bar sever-

JUST AS PREDICTED .- Last Friday the WATCHMAN stated that in all probability Lt. Chas. Taylor and Serg. Philip Garbrick, of Co. B, 5th Reg. N. G. P. would that night receive deserved promotions at the hands of their comrades. The resignation of Lt. Geo. L. Jackson left a 1st lieutenancy vacant and 2nd Lieut. Taylor was elected to fill it and then 1st Serg. Garbrick was -Henry Sands, of north Allegheny street, spent elected to fill the vacancy caused by Lt.

The election was conducted by Adj. W. Fred Reynolds, of the 5th, assisted by Lt. and Surg. R. G. H. Hayes. After it was -William Pealer Esq., one of the retired citi- over Adj. Reynolds made a speech of congratulation to the men for the wisdom in having selected men who had been tried from the ranks up. Lieuts. Taylor and Garbrick spoke in return and then Cap't. regular drill.

MARRIAGE LICENSES .- Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, G. W. Rumberger, during the past week:

David Philips and Elizabeth Richards. both of Chester Hill, Clearfield county. Daniel C. Murphy, of Philipsburg, and

Maggie Nolan, of Bellefonte. John M. Motter, of Philipsburg, and Minerva Stine, of South Philipsburg.

Ira Condo and Bertha M. Kerlin, both of John H. Cole and Mary E. Robbins, both of Philipsburg. FELL DOWN STAIRS AND BROKE HIS NECK .- The venerable Elijah Sharp, aged 65 years, fell down the stairs of his home at Curtins Works on Friday night and hours after the accident. Deceased was a veteran of the civil war and the later years of his life were spent as street, with her children Martha and Philip, a huckster. A widow with several children tin's on Monday. DEDICATION .- Nothing preventing the United Evangelical church at Snow Shoe Intersection will be dedicated to the service of God on the coming Sunday, Oct. 15th. her way home she will stop at Millersville, for an There will be a service the Saturday evening previous, Sunday at 10:30, a. m., and 7:00 p. m. Rev. S. P. Remer, presiding Altoona; and Rev. J. Womelsdorf. Bellefonte, will be present.

A cordial invitation is extended to the

BRIGHT BOY WANTED .-- An ambitious, bright boy is wanted at this office to learn

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening. Bellefonte Grain Market.

The following are the quotations up to six o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes

Corrected weekly by the PHENIX MILLING Co.

Bellefonte Produce Markets. Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co. Potatoes per bushel Eggs, per dozen.. Lard, per pound.. Country Shoulder

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Pa., at $1.50 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $2.00, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher. Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-ess paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertising by the quarter, half year, 3m 6m 1y SPACE OCCUPIED one inch (12 lines this type.. Quarter Column (5 inches) Half Column (10 inches)... One Column (20 inches)...

Advertisements in special column 25 per cent. Fransient advs. per line, 3 insertion Each additional insertion, per line

Terms—Cash.

All letters should be addressed to
P. GRAY MEEK, Proprieto